

/ EDUCATION MAIN
// BUILDING R95

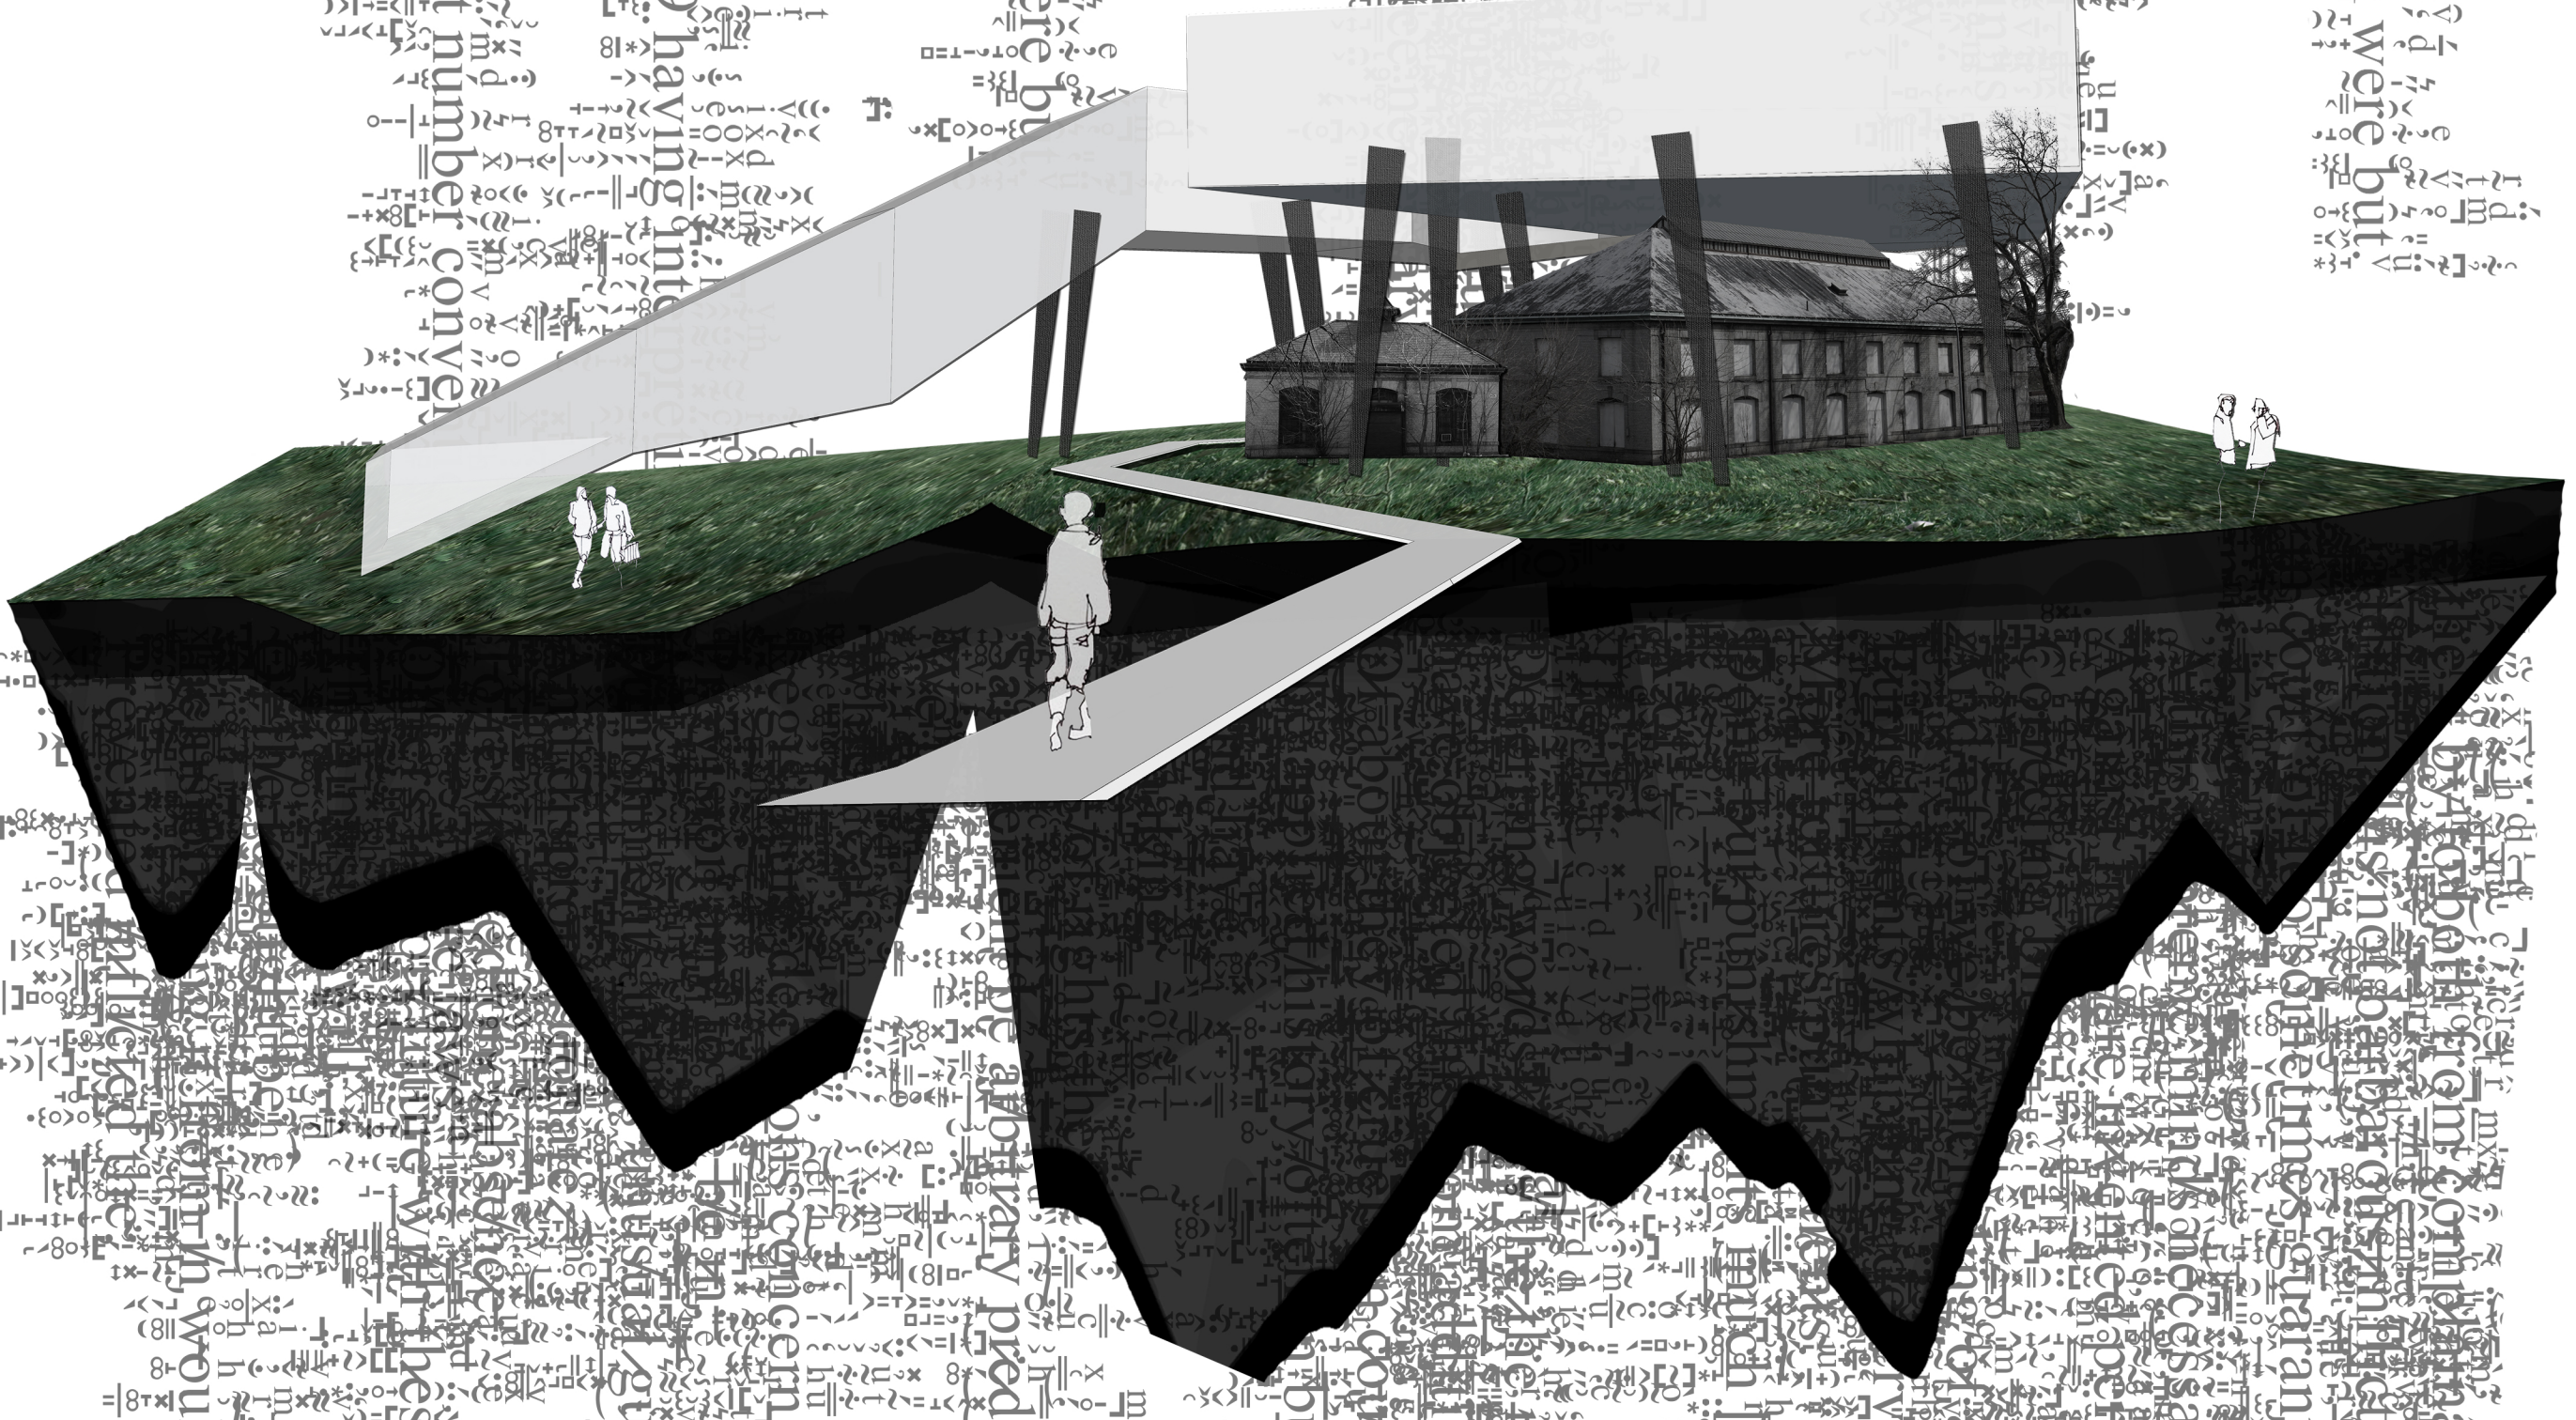

/ LIVING QUARTERS
// BUILDING R4

/ TRANSITIONAL HOUSING
// BUILDINGS R5, R6, 57

/ ADMINISTRATION
// BUILDINGS R426, RD, 311

Based on crimes against others and society, they enter an oppressive environment defined by the violence, paranoia, dehumanization, and depression within it. They are surrounded by architecture designed to strip away their privacy, dignity, and humanity. Their reality becomes one devoid of all the things that might engender the type of self-reflection and rehabilitation the system should seek to promulgate in prisoners prior to release.