PROVENANCE

The Institute attempts to collect and preserve sheet music that has connections with North Dakota. That may include the composer, lyricist or the subject matter of the song. Items continue to be added and donations by the public are welcome.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This small collection of sheet music has been assembled by the Institute staff from a great variety of sources and reflects many musical types. Most usually were acquired by the Institute on a one-by-one basis. The collection is arranged in the order they were received. The contents listing includes the formal title, the composer and lyricist, as well as the year of publication.
