BIOGRAPHY

The Katie Glatt Wald collection consists primarily of photographs of her family, specifically family weddings. In addition to the photographs, there is negative film, small projector slides, and a CD and floppy discs. This collection serves to show the relations of the Wald family. There is a list to show who is in each photo, and on most of the photographs, the people in the photograph are identified, with more information to who they are related to in the family tree, such as when they were married, the place, date, and who their parents or children were.
