The site is symbolic model of a 22000 square foot lot. Modeling and project goals need to be generalized site to create unbiased results. Performance modeling will use geographic data related to the location.

The home has a total of 13,555 square feet, with a total contribution of 12,450 square feet. The foyer is located in the front, and is a wide dory room. Although the house is smaller than the maximum allowed according to the proposed guidelines, it is required to be considered in the calculations. The square footage of the rooms is more to allow for the required finished and constructed, reaching a larger product line.

The main living and kitchen are 4,125 square feet. This space offers a high ceiling and a view. The space is centered around large open area. This is a representation of the heart of the home and a gathering place for family and friends. The kitchen has appropriate storage for a family of three. The large living room provides ease of care.

The full bath is 75 square feet. The space is ADA ready and could easily be converted to full wheelchair use. The bathroom has a single sink and shower, the main part of the bathroom is the single sink in shower which fills the entire area of the bathroom. The space is optimized for a single surface or a sink wall.

The half bath is 65 square feet. The space is wheeled chair ready, accounting for rental service. The space is at the minimum allowable square footage required.

The smaller bedroom is 107.5 square feet, which is larger than the minimum set by the international residential building code at 107 square feet. The fourth point of the bedroom is the cluster of windows on the western wall. These windows offer views of the setting sun and serve as a point of interest during meals. The space is designed for light finishing, which will allow for storage as much as possible. The combined space is 107.5 square feet, and can be used as an optional floor.

The mechanical room is 78.3 square feet. This space houses the environmental equipment. The layout also allows for the addition of a third floor. The location of the mechanical room allows for the ability of moving, entering the home. The space is located as central as possible in the house. The space includes a sink and is easy to run. The view also has a view of the central area.

The master bedroom is 166.4 square feet. The focal point of the space is in the front, which is the main door. The space is a large room, allowing for a view of the ocean. The space is also designed to allow for a view of the ocean. This is a large room, allowing for a view of the ocean. The space is also designed to allow for a view of the ocean.