HISTORY

The Fargo-Moorhead Women's Chorus formed from a group of members of the Sigma Alpha Iota, which was a national professional music sorority that sought to create a chorus for the Fargo-Moorhead area. The first meeting of the Fargo-Moorhead Women's Chorus was held March 6th, 1934 in the basement of the Stones Music Store. Each member was required to bring a quarter for the first meeting as their dues, which went to paying for the sheet music. The chorus performed throughout the Fargo-Moorhead area, and coordinated with The Amphion Chorus for concerts.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Meeting Minute Series consists of meeting minutes for the Chorus, written by the secretary.

The Correspondence Series consists of postcards, and letters to the Chorus members, pertaining to playing concerts and music related activities.

The Constitution Series consists of the Fargo-Moorhead's Women's Chorus constitution, with guidelines pertaining to attendance at rehearsals.
