Brunsvold, Skogan Win Scholarship For North Dakota History Research

For significant research in North Dakota history, two NDAC students were awarded the Young Memorial Scholarship presented for the first time at the College's Honors Day convocation yesterday.

Joanne Brunsvold of Fargo and Vernon Skogan of Hillsboro, both seniors in applied arts and sciences, share the $300 scholarship which is administered by the North Dakota Institute for Regional studies.

The $300 award was given to the Institute by Mrs. Shorey Cameron Guess in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Young, to be presented to an advanced undergraduate or graduate student for original investigations relating to the history or government of North Dakota.

The quality of Miss Brunsvold's and Skogan's work was so outstanding that Institute directors divided the scholarship this year. They also have the particular distinction of being the first students to contribute research studies to the North Dakota Institute for Regional Studies.

Miss Brunsvold has worked out the "Cultural Influence of Music in the Fargo Area". Her unique contribution to the Institute has been in locating several original records of the founding and organization of Fargo music clubs and other similar groups. She is now expanding her study to include the history of music clubs in North Dakota.

Skogan has compiled a "History of Traill County" through contacts with original settlers and from the newspaper files of the Hillsboro Banner dating back to the first issue. He has been commended by Institute officials for writing an "exact account of the county".

Both students' work will be on file in the Institute room located in the NDAC library.

Refining Process Exhibit By Wendland Feature Of Chemistry Open House

A special exhibit in the oil refining processes is being shown for the Chemistry Open house. Interest in the refining process has been stimulated by the recent oil discovery at the Tioga Field.

Dr. Ray Wendland, who has arranged the exhibit, pointed out that much chemical research must be done on any new oil production before refineries can make the best use of the product. He will show distillation processes including vacuum distillation and refractometric analysis of the gasoline fractions. Advanced students in organic chemistry will assist Dr. Wendland.

Operation of the miniature "refinery" will show a vacuum distillation of the clarified crude oil to remove the gasoline, kerosene, fuel, and Diesel oils, followed by a re-distillation of the gasoline to gain information on its composition. Dr. Wendland has found that the Tioga oil is notable for its high gasoline content, but he also pointed out that additional tests are necessary to determine its octane rating (critical compression ratio), its tetra-ethyl lead susceptibility, and sulphur content. Nearly all gasolines contain some sulfur, but the amount present must be carefully controlled to avoid engine corrosion due to formation of sulfuric acid during burning, he said.

Schultz, Borderud In Concert Thursday

Two NDAC seniors, Miss Norma Schultz of Hillsboro and Miss Virginia Borderud of Davenport, will give a recital Thursday, May 24, at 8 p. m. in Putnam hall.

Miss Schultz, who came to NDAC in 1949 from Bethany Junior College, studied a year under Earnest Harris at Concordia College. This year she has studied with Robert J. Dietz, NDAC piano instructor. Miss Schultz will graduate in June with a major in English. For the recital she will play piano compositions by Mozart, Chopin, Liszt, Brahms and Beethoven.

Miss Borderud, a soprano, has been a student of Ernst Van Vlissingen while at NDAC, where she is majoring in home economics. She will sing numbers by DeLibes, Wolf, Torrelli and Spross. Her accompanist will be Miss Margery Ann Johnston, Fargo, freshman in applied arts and sciences.

The recital is open to the public.

Silversmith Conference Selects Miss Schnaidt

Miss Margaret Schnaidt, instructor in the related art department at NDAC, has been selected as one of 12 members of the Fifth National Silversmithing Workshop Conference for Teachers this summer.

The workshop, sponsored by Handy and Harmon of New York City, will be held in Rochester, N. Y., for a month beginning July 30. Heading the conference will be the Swedish court silversmith, Baron Eric Flemming.

Some of Miss Schnaidt's silversmith work was in the traveling exhibit of the Cranbrook Art Academy this year.

NDAC Dedicates Music Hall To Dr. Putnam

A memorial service for the late Dr. Clarence Simeon Putnam was held yesterday to rededicate old NDAC library building as Putnam Hall. The ceremony was held immediately following the annual Honors Day convocation, at which time Mrs. Putnam was presented a certificate.

During the rededication ceremony plaques on the front of the building were unveiled. A 30 by 40 inch colored picture of Dr. Putnam has been hung in the building as a memorial. Support for this project was derived from the Memorial Fund subscribed to by the many friends and alumni of NDAC at the time of Dr. Putnam's death.

Also present at the ceremony were two sons, C. C. Putnam, 109 North 14th, and Emery Putnam of Seattle, Wash. Don Putnam, another son, from Schneckady, N. Y., was unable to attend.

Claude Ebling of Superior, Wis., 1923 graduate and member of the NDAC Alumni and Former Students association board of directors, spoke on behalf of the association. Ebling was one of Dr. Putnam's outstanding students while in college.

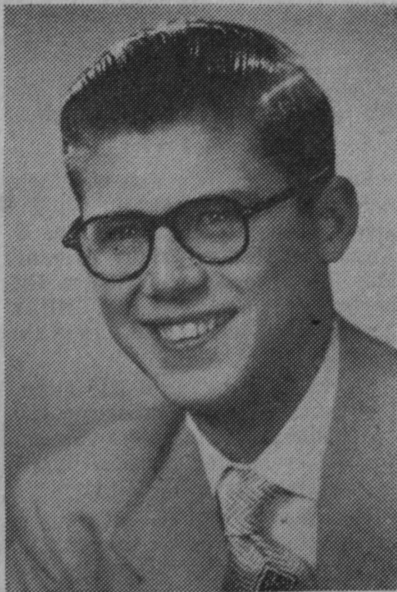

A medical doctor, the famed NDAC bandmaster was born at Barre, Vt., on Sept. 16, 1859, and died Feb. 25, 1944. Although he was more interested in music than medicine, he graduated from Haheneman Medical College in 1883. He had previously attended Dartmouth and Bare Academy.

Dr. Putnam was actively associated in Medicine from 1883-1903 and practiced two years in Moorhead, six years in Ada, Minn., five years in Superior, Wis., and three years in Casselton before coming to Fargo.

In 1903, after a fire destroyed his office, medical library and equipment which was located in the Edwards building, Dr. Putnam came to NDAC as a teacher of arithmetic.

With his musical skill and ability for direction, he organized the NDAC Gold Star Band in 1904, a College concert orchestra, men's and women's glee clubs and a string ensemble. He is best remembered throughout the state for the music he composed for the "North Dakota State Hymn" and the NDAC alma mater "The Yellow and the Green".

ONE DAY SHIRT LAUNDRY SERVICE Serving the College Folks For 20 Years

A Student Objects To Prolonged Classes

Classes at NDAC are run on the theoretical time standard where-by classes last for 50 minutes at which time a 10 minute period is given to allow the students to pass to the next class. However, some teachers do not seem to be aware of his cognizant fact. It is the self styled prerogative of some instructors to keep class in session well after the bell for adjournment has rung.

One supposes that the teacher has some pertinent fact to relay to the class, a fact so world shaking that it will not keep until the next meeting only to find that it is the assignment for the next time which could just as well have been imparted at the beginning of the period. The pedagogy in question does not seem to realize that however insignificant his fact or however moving his lecture; the students' attention is, to say the least, apt to wander after the sounding of the recess bell.

Many teachers are so involved with the importance of their classes that they cannot comprehend the fact that there are other classes with other teachers who regard theirs as equally important; teachers to whom three late arrivals constitute an absence or a cut.

When the dismissal bell rings the student should feel free to leave without the instructor holding such a departure in contempt. True, some students will linger after class to speak with the instructor, but this should be an arrangement with the individual student and not the class as a whole. There are many teachers who realize this, but too many who do not.

If there are classes held in buildings where there is no bell, it would be wise for the instructor to synchronize his watch with that of the school bell system and act accordingly. With this arrangement the students will have no complaint.

This grievance may seem small, but when we remember that it is the small things which make up big issues. I'm sure we can all see the importance of completing the class period with the ringing of the bell. Would it be possible for NDAC instructors to practice saying, "That will be all for today", as the bell tolls the end of the class meeting.—Mary Severson.

APPROPRIATE . . .

Now that Lilac Days are a thing of the past, Dandelion Days are just beginning. Such school spirit from the lawns—all decked out in yellow and green. The library is going to have golf-course-like turf to judge from the elaborate water sprinkling system and the amount of pipe laying going on over there behind the wooden curtain.

LINKSTERS . . .

The usual screams of anguish can be heard reverberating from Edgewood this year as the golfers break out their clubs and begin another year of beating the be-jabbers out of everything in sight—except the ball. No game would be a game without the usual blood-curdling oaths, flying divots, cries of "fore!", high blood pressure and former friends.

The Bemidji debacle of last weekend was no exception. Charlie (One-Oh-Two) Davenport is being investigated for a possible "fix" of the match. Dick (Robin) Hermanson is scouting around for a new putter. His last one mysteriously wrapped itself around his knee. Willy Swanson is tearing out what few blond hairs he has left on his punkin head. Ken Moran did not go along. He was busy doing work on his Woodlore Merit badge after some research in the MSTC match the week before. I know someone who isn't going to ride with Swanny to any future track meets.

WINDTUNNEL . . .

Sports ed Johnny Mashek has been disturbing some across-the-hall English classes in the Spec office with some raucous whistling. "Sounds just like the wind blowing through a hole in his head, with nothing inside to stop it," commented Mr. Lyons, after a particularly trying session of bird calls.

WINDTUNNEL AGAIN . . .

Speaking of John, there's a rumor going around that we're going to switch columns in the final 1951 issue of the Spectrum. If the sororities think I've been obnoxious, wait until Mashek gets his poison pen and little black book to work. The whole place will look like a stop light—some faces red from reading Mashek's masterpiece and others green (bilious) after digesting my drivel. Nothing unusual . . .

IS THERE A DOCTOR? . . .

Finally got the inside scoop on why arch monroe quit writing in the Student. My boy had to retire because of ill health—he was making everyone sick.

LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT . . .

Bob Fischer wants everyone to know he doesn't listen to Sparky and Big John every day—just when Straight Arrow isn't on! When asked what he does in the summer, when his programs have been suspended, he replied, "Aw—Ma Perkins ain't so bad."

HOW ABOUT IT? . . .

NDAC students were charged admission to the last MSTC baseball game held over in Moorhead. I didn't notice any money being collected when the Bison entertained them here. You're not connected with the Minneapolis Lakers in any way over there, are you?

TURN IT OFF! . . .

Now that baseball season is here, irascible Manny Marget is once again back at his old tricks second guessing umps, "Fitz—did you see that!", complaining about managerial strategy and the like. I'd like to hear a Twin's game broadcast without all the above—impersonally, for a change. Liberty's game of the day is getting all of my evening radio listening, and I imagine quite a few others are turning to Breckenridge-Wahpeton to hear what an objective baseball broadcast is like. Afternoon games are quite a toss-up—whether to listen to The Old Scotchman, Gordon McLendon, or buddy Al Helfer. The two "tops" in the business.

A ROSE IS A ROSE . . .

Little did Gertie Stein know what would become of her "A rose is a rose is a rose," when she wrote the darn thing. I guess nobody can contest the fact that a rose is a rose, and consulting the dictionary—sure enough, she's right! I'm really long-winded today, but here's the point: A student at DePauw (right next to DeMaw) University paraphrased Gertrude with an inflationary note: "A dollar is a quarter is a dime."

SCRIBBLES . . .

Heard in the Spec office. Speaking: Mary Fran Broderick. Subject: John Mashek. Situation: Immediately after he pinched her . . . well, just pinched her. "I always thought you were quite proper and nice." Supply your own inflection and tonal qualities.

Leo Kossick will run next year's Bison training camp.

Superstition: Rod Fercho never leaves one bat crossed on another during a baseball game. Always makes sure they're straight before going out to the field in the defensive half of the inning.

Checking over last week's Spec, I still think my idea for a caption on the Barn Dance Queen candidates picture was the best: "Agrarians To Choose From These Five Hogs." The editor voted it down.

You should be at the saturation point by now—see ya next week.

"Hamlet" is still on tonight at the Little Country Theater. This is one of the biggest productions staged at the AC since Lilac Day. You don't want to miss it.

More excitement around the campus took place one night this week over by Dakota hall. Sam Ketchum caught his man, a peeping Tom. I nominate him for "the hero of the week title."

Kappas are having their term party on Saturday at the beautiful Edgewood club house. Last Wednesday night KKG's entertained the ATO's at a picnic at the tourist park.

The Kappas weren't alone at the park. Sigma Chi's and Gamma Phi's picnicked there too. Sigma Alpha Epsilon stole the spotlight with their annual Sweetheart banquet that night though. Congratulations to the new draemline girl of SAE, Shirley Sheperd.

Kappa Sigma Chi initiated eight new actives last Sunday. They are: Daryl Strong of Walhalla; Wesley Sundquist of Kindred; Ralph Leet of Starkweather; Roland Geberding of Elgin, Ill.; Dick Wenberg of Beach; Elmer Hillesland of Aneta; lan Fehr of Wimbledon.

All home economics freshmen Lawrence Lutz of Bowman; and Al were guests at a tea held in the home management house on Wednesday from 4:30 to 5:30.

The Spectrum Staff congratulates all those who received honors at the convocation yesterday in Festival hall.

In case you haven't noticed (but how could you miss it), the Chemistry Open house was held Thursday and is still on today. A lot of you who never get in that building should really take it in. If you saw the Engineering open house you won't want to miss this.

Phi Mu's are holding their district convention at NDAC today through Sunday. An open invitation is extended to attend a tea at the Phi Mu house from 4:30 to 5:30. Tomorrow night a formal convention banquet will be held in the Moorhead American legion building followed by a dance at 9.

The Kappa Delta Mothers' club entertained the actives and pledges last Monday night at their annual indoor picnic. Gifts were presented to the graduating seniors.

Sigma Phi Delta will hold its annual open house Sunday from 2 to 4. Everyone is welcome.

Tuesday night found more students on picnics. Kappa Sigs were with the Kappas and the Gamma Phi's and Theta Chi joy boys were together.

Note on Epsy, the dog adopted by the SPD's. He's the one that Stanley, the caretaker at the park, sold to them.

Mert Brunsvold, Kappa Sig, married Carol Engeness of Fingle last Sunday.

Summer Fashions On The Campus

By MARGERY JOHNSTON

Summer fashions at last have taken a firm stand as winter apparel has completely disappeared from the scene. Cool rayons, cottons, and linens are prominent in the campus parade of fashions.

Golfing hats are appearing in a variety of colors and materials. Dick Kloubec selected a corduroy topper of green, yellow and brown window-pane plaid. Plaid hats were also chosen by Jack Jester, whose is of red, white, and blue, and Jack Sleight, whose is of blue, and yellow denim.

Art Wichmann's tan is set off very effectively when he wears his terry cloth t-shirt featuring a plaid convertible collar. A convertible color is also fashioned on the rayon jersey polka-dot sport shirts worn by Dick Hermanson and Packy Schafer. Dick's is brown and white; Packy's is green and white. A brick effect draws attention to Ronny Bond's casual shirt of brown and white. Chartreuse ribbing decorates the neck and waistband.

Lavender is predominant in Karen Johnson's pyramid coat of scottish loom tweed. Multi-colors are woven together in this stylish coat featuring dolman sleeves, a standup collar, and pretzel buttons.

Sheer seersucker composes Mary Ellen Shaheen's casual frock of brown, orange, and white print. A gathered top with puff sleeves and orange buttons meet a gathered skirt. Pin check trimming is outstanding on Mary Severson's navy cotton dress. Buttons marching down the front are accompanied by the pin check which is also found on the peter-pan collar and twin pockets on the gathered skirt.

Forty-three Home Ec Students Return From Minnesota Field Trip

About 43 home economics students and four NDAC faculty members traveled by chartered bus to Minneapolis last weekend for a home economics field trip. The group left Thursday, May 10, and returned on Saturday, May 12.

Friday the party toured the Betty Crocker Test Kitchens, Munsingwear Incorporated, Dayton Company, and Charles Manufacturing Company. At the Dayton company the students watched merchandise being checked, labeled, pressed, and sent to the departments.

Saturday the group went through the Russel Miller Test Kitchen and the Minneapolis Institute of Art. The purpose of the field trip was to acquaint students with careers and work done in companies that employ home economics graduates.

Faculty members accompanying the students were Dean Leita Davy, Miss Mildred Schmidt, Miss Mildred Hawkins, and Miss Marie Feldhausen.

Students taking the trip were Jeanine Hierath of Columbus, JoAnne Christensen of Watford City, Florence Keizler of Minot, Gloria Larson of Kloten, Doris Malstrom of Mapleton, JoAnn Johnson of Jamestown, Dorothy Pederson of Minnewauken, Mary More of Minot, Lois Dickerson of Jamestown, Doris Durbin of Burlington, Jane Remboldt of Gackle, Virginia O'Hearn of Minot.

Track Coach Erv Kaiser and 12 thinclads left this morning for Cedar Falls, Iowa, to participate in the annual North Central Conference track and field meet. The squad will arrive late tonight and set up quarters in the Blackhawk Hotel, Cedar Falls. South Dakota State is the defending champion.

Accompanying the track unit will be the Bison tennis and golf teams. The tennis and golf championships will run concurrently with the track phase of the NCC meet.

The 12 trackmen are: Gerry Goetz, Fred Carolan, Bud Rydstrom, Loran Oliver, Jack Lees, Chuck Gronberg, Bob Kubas, Dave Lees, Marty Davis, Bob O'Neill, Don Edam, and Jim Brogger. The golf foursome are Bill Swanston, Kenny Moran, Bob Olson, and Dick Hermanson, while Eddie Boerth, Jim Schrimpf, and Dick Palon will represent NDAC in tennis.

The track meet will open at 10 on Saturday morning with qualifying trial heats. The afternoon session will open at 2 with the finals of the mile run. Iowa Teachers officials have pulled all stops to make this year's North Central meet a well mapped out affair.

Kaiser is a little skeptical over the Herd's chances in tomorrow's meet. The Bison coach realizes that other NCC schools have quite a weather advantage over NDAC. He figures that the two South Dakota schools will stage a battle royal for conference honors. "I just hope we can come up with a good showing," stated the track mentor.

The loss of Del Moore was a serious blow to any chances the Bison may have had. The slight, freshman sprinter reinjured his hip in the finals of the 100 yard dash at Bemidji, after winning both the 100 and 220 during the trial heats.

Don Edam will return to the squad after a week's absence. However, Erv doesn't plan to use him in the pole vault due to the serious gash he received at Jamestown. Therefore, Edam's activity will be limited to the high jump.

Gerry Goetz, Jim Brogger, and Loren Oliver looked great at Bemidji, and its hoped they can repeat some of their winning performances. Also, the steady improvement of weightman Bob Kubas has pleased Kaiser.

Little is known of the strength of other North Central golf and tennis teams. The Bison golf team has been beaten once in three outings, while the net squad maintains a similar record.

Whites Edge Reds, 12-0, In Spring Grid Contest

Coach Mac Wenskunas drew the curtain on another spring football session with the annual scrimmage contest held on May 10. The contest was slated for May 11, but was shoved a day ahead.

The Whites defeated the Reds, 12-0 in a tightly fought setto. Wenskunas staged the tussle under game conditions but didn't use regulation time.

Ray Curtis opened the scoring with a four yard quarterback sneak, capping a 45 yard sustained march. The Reds retaliated with a long move of their own, only to fumble one-foot away from pay dirt.

Using mainly the buck-lateral series, the Whites scored again. From 25 yards out, Jack Werlein cut off tackle and pitched out to Dean Morford. Morford, behind perfect downfield blocking, went over standing up. Conversions were not attempted.

Both elevens displayed some terrific offensive punch but the Whites capitalized on their chances, while the Reds blew several golden opportunities. Passing was held to a minimum, as both squads stressed a running game.

Wenskunas split his team into units of equal strength. The teams appeared perfectly matched, as the closeness of the affair bears out.

Bob Zurich, Marty Kraninger, and Gene Williamson performed well in the White line on defense while Dean Morford's line backing was a sensation. In the Red's forward wall Bob Nenninger and Bob Lauf picked up quite a few tackles and were ably backed up by Delorin "Slick" Schluchter from his halfback position.

Jim Hitter and Werlein paced the White backs with their knife-like thwarts into the line. Ray Curtis also received a back slap from Wenskunas for his play calling from the QB post. Dick Sander and Ray Paxton also drew praise for their blocking up front.

The only casualty of the fray was Tommy McLoed, who was only slightly injured late in the contest.

The starting line-ups:

Whites	RE	Reds
Sander	RT	Nicka
Zurich	RT	Sherwood
Kraninger	RG	Vaselenko
Paxton	C	Erickson
Williamson	LG	Nenninger
Hutton	LT	Lauf
Riley	LE	Jones
Curtis	OB	Noland
Hitter	LH	Schluchter
Werlein	RH	McLoed
Morford	FB	Buckellew

Phy Ed Courses Set

The women's physical education program for the summer term is aimed, according to instructor Miss Beatrice Wartschow, to meet the need of the urban and rural communities for trained leadership in the various areas of recreation.

This year students have the opportunity to co-ordinate their activities with the Fargo municipal and the youth agency program. These arrangements provide for the practical in-training-leadership experiences in craft, dance, recreational games, sports, story telling, and out-of-door living.

The activity courses are golf, swimming, tennis and badminton.

Recreational Leadership courses for the summer term are recreational games, methods in folk dance, camp leadership, methods of teaching archery, and playground activities and organization. The purpose of these courses are to give experience in leadership for home, church, playground and school. Students will have some opportunity to direct an activity on the playground, and to organize a program for a playground in a small community.

A SHOT IN THE DARK

NCC TRACK MEET

Well, Erv Kaiser's track squad runs up against their stiffest competition of the season at Cedar Falls tomorrow in the North Central track and field meet. In the three meets the Bison have appeared in, they have captured one and been a close second in the other pair.

Don't look for the Herd to pull any surprises in the NCC event. The talent of the NDAC crew isn't lacking, but other schools around the circuit stress the spring sport more vigorously.

South Dakota State and Iowa Teachers hold a definite monopoly on the meet since its inaugural in 1922. The Jackrabbits have captured the crown ten times, while the Tutors have notched six championships.

North Dakota University and South Dakota University have won the affair four times each, and Augustana won the other two years. The meet wasn't held from 1944-46. Morningside and North Dakota State have yet to win the classic.

The two South Dakota schools are expected to wage a ding-dong battle this season with the Teachers close behind. SDS possesses a seasoned group of sprinters and relay men plus an outstanding group of field entries. The SDU Coyotes combine a fine crew of middle distance runners to go with strength in the hurdles.

Under normal circumstances, the Bison would finish fourth in the meet. But the absence of dashman Del Moore, leaves the Herd behind the proverbial eight ball.

After carefully weighing the paper strength of each of the conference teams, I have come up with the following prediction for the meet.

1. South Dakota State.
2. South Dakota University.
3. Iowa Teachers.
4. North Dakota University.
5. North Dakota State.
6. Morningside.
7. Augustana.

Post mortems may be mailed to the Spectrum office or relayed viva voce.

BEMIDJI MIX-UP

The Bison dropped a close decision to the upstate normal in a 1 1/2-point loss at the Bemidji Invitational. During the final event of the day, the 880 relay, quite a mix-up occurred.

Four teams were entered in the relay, and the Bison had merely to finish and the resulting two points would ice the meet. Walsh Con-my started off and held his own for the first 220.

Conmy passed the baton to Gerry Goetz, when the controversy took place. Upon rounding the curve, a Duluth Branch runner bumped Goetz, throwing him off stride.

A few seconds later the same man shoved Goetz, who dropped the baton and left the track. Meet officials were stumped for an answer but didn't disqualify the Duluth quartet, thus handing the affair to the Sioux.

The Fargo Forum received word from Bemidji that the BISON were disqualified in the event. Although I didn't attend the meet, this could hardly be correct, after hearing the full story. The team and NDAC supporters were embittered over the failure of the judges to recognize the foul committed.

However, no rhubarb resulted which may have been better in the long run. We would probably be accused of using the crying towel, if any long-winded argument ensued.

HERE N THERE

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Gamma Rho are tied for first in the Intramural softball league. Both teams have waded through the schedule easily. Quite a taffy pull should result when the two clash head-on next week.

After rated a good chance of finishing high on the Steve Gorman league ladder, the NDAC baseball team landed with a resounding thud in the cellar of the loop along with Wahpeton Science this week.

Ineffective spot pitching and the silence of the Bison bats have plagued the team all season. In tight contests, the Herd defense has also collapsed.

The diamond nine hosts Concordia today and close their slate with a twin bill against Jamestown on Monday. The first contest will start at 2.

Although not given top billing with the track meet, the NDAC golf and tennis teams test their wares against North Central competition tomorrow.

If the Bison golfers play the game they are capable of, they should be shoo-ins for the title. The linksters hope all the bad strokes came out in the wash at Bemidji.

The netters should run into plenty of trouble in the tennis play-offs. Augustana has long been the tennis kingdom of the NCC, but South Dakota State and Iowa Teachers are set to challenge their reign.

Sioux Squeak Past Bison At Bemidji; Herd Lose Via Questionable Decision

North Dakota University's track squad edged the NDAC Bison 60 to 58½ at the annual Bemidji Teachers invitational track meet last Friday, the deciding points coming from a questionable second place in the final event of the day, the half-mile relay.

It was the second win in three meets for the Sioux over the Herd. Other team totals were Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota 36, Bemidji Teachers 25, Concordia 19, MSTC 4½ and Mayville Teachers 4.

The Bison failed to place in the half-mile relay when Gerry Goetz, running the second lap, had the baton knocked from his hand and was forced off the track by a Duluth Branch sprinter. The relayers failed to finish.

The old injury plague hit the Staters, and they definitely missed the performance of Chuck Gronberg in the pole vault and Don Edam in the vault and high jump. Little Del Moore, freshman dashman, was badly handicapped when the charlie horse in his left hip became aggravated after he won his qualifying heats in the 100 and 220. Big Loren Oliver surprised in the discus and clicked off the 220 in the good time of :22.2, besides a third in the 100 yard dash to be high point man for the Bison with 13. The results:

Shot put—Won by Hallada, NDU. Elliott, NDU, second. Kubas, NDAC, third. LeMoine, NDU, fourth. Rostad, Concordia, fifth. Distance: 43-2.

NDAC Net Squad Sweeps Bemidji Meet; Golf Foursome Suffers Worst Outing

North Dakota's State tennis trio captured the Bemidji Teachers Invitational tourney last Friday, going undefeated in team play. The Herd golfers didn't fare so well, having miserable shooting luck and winding up fourth in the link event. NDU copped the link event with 337 strokes. Bemidji Teachers was second with 344 strokes, MSTC was third and the Bison last. Kenny Bush of Bemidji was medalist with a 77.

The net trio of Dick Palon, Ed Boerth and Jim Schrimpf lost only two sets in sweeping all three singles brackets and the doubles. Concordia, Bemidji Teachers, and MSTC competed.

In the upper bracket play, Wayne Westwood (C) beat Marotzke, of MSTC, 6-2, 6-2. Palon then drubbed Westwood 6-1, 6-1.

In the middle bracket, Eddie Boerth dumped John Kruse (C) for the second time this year, 6-2, 9-7.

Ed blasted MSTC's Collins 6-2, 6-4, to nab the bracket title.

Lower bracket play found Concordia's player-coach Bill Oakland downing Ed Merck (MSTC), 6-1,6-1. Jim Schrimpf avenged an earlier defeat by Oakland, outlasting him in three sets, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In doubles, North Dakota State's Palon and Schrimpf struggled through three sets with Concordia's Kruse and Oakland, finally finding themselves in the final set and winning 7-5, 7-9, 6-2. MSTC defeated Bemidji, but defaulted to the Bison.

The golfing quartet of Bill Swanston, Bob Olson, Dick Hermanson and Charlie Davenport couldn't find themselves on the rugged Birchmont course. Putters were ice cold, and that spelled the story. The Herd linksters were consistently on the green in regulation, but couldn't find the cup.

Anderson Leads Comets To 10-5 Win Over Herd In First Night Setto

Al "Nuts" Anderson, lanky Mayville Teachers curveballer pitched the Comets to a 10-5 victory over the Bison in an arc light contest, May 11. The outcome left the Mayville team undefeated in the Steve Gorman league while the loss for the herd was their fifth in six outings.

The Bison managed only five hits off the right handed slants of Anderson, while the Comets made the most of their seven bingles off two NDAC twirlers.

Mayville jumped to a 3-0 lead in the opening frame. After two men were out, Bison pitcher Kermit Quanbeck passed Bill Bachmeir and Win King. Bill Brower promptly drove a screaming double to left-center to score the baserunners. Brower scored on Jerry Benschhoof's boot of a grass cutter hit to his right.

The Comets added a pair in the second. Jim Camrud strolled after being hit by a side arm pitch by Quanbeck. Anderson lashed a two-bagger to deep center scoring Camrud. Anderson then raced home on a solitaire to right by Dick Peterson.

Mayville kayoed Quanbeck in the fourth stanza. A pass to Anderson, Orlo Sundre's double to left, and singles by Peterson and King plated three more tallies. John Mashek came on to retire the next three hitters to end the inning.

NDAC hit the scoreboard with a four run explosion in the fifth, on only one safety. After Rog Fercho went down on strikes, Lyle Fugleberg drew a free pass. Catcher Bob Ripley sent a towering drive to the center garden and raced to third with a booming triple. When Mashek fanned, King tried to pick Ripley off third, throwing into left field with Ripley counting ahead of the throw-in.

Jerry Friedman got life on Brower's misplay at the initial sack. After Friedman pilfered second, Rod Fercho went all the way to third on another Brower miscue, Jerry scoring. Fercho completed the scoring after Anderson wild pitched him home.

Mayville clinched the affair with a pair in the sixth off Mashek. Sundre banged a single to right, then went to second on a passed ball. Peterson walked. Bachmeir moved the runners along with a sacrifice. King's ground out plated Sundre and Brower drove Peterson homeward with an ace to right center.

The Bison got their last tally in the top of the seventh. Ripley led off with a single down the left field foul line and went to second on Bachmeir's fielding blunder. Friedman's second hit brought Ripley in with the fifth Herd run.

Anderson fanned 12, featuring a masterful slow curve. He walked only two but his mates' fielding hampered his performance.

Quanbeck whiffed two and passed four during his three inning stint. He yielded eight runs on only five hits but his wildness kept him in trouble. Mashek fanned three and walked one, as he gave up two runs and the like number of hits in his three inning effort.

Diamond Nine Drops 4th Straight, 3-2

The Wahpeton School of Science Wildcats rallied for two runs in the last of the fifth inning to defeat the Bison, 3-2 at Chahinkapa Park on Tuesday.

Dean Kampschoor, ace Wildcat left hander, gave up only five scattered hits as he elbowed his team to their first victory of the year. He struck out four and walked the same number in going the route. The AC loss dropped them to a last place tie with Wahpeton in the Steve Gorman race.

For the Bison Doug "Gunder" Boling started on the hill but gave way to reliefer Thor Hartsgaard in the fifth. Boling suffered his second setback of the year. He gave up all five of the Wahpeton bingles, whiffed one and passed five.

Wahpeton drew first blood in the second inning. After Arlen Syverson strolled, Dick Flaa flaked a single to right advancing Syverson to second. Both runners advanced on a sacrifice by Kampschoor. Jimmy Flaa's infield grounder plated Syverson.

NDAC retaliated with two counters in the third. Paul Grabarkewitz singled and Berard Masse walked to put runners on first and second. A wild pitch advanced the runners and Grabarkewitz scored as Nig Benschhoof got life on a Wildcat miscue. Masse counted moments later as Flaa threw wild attempting to cut down Benschhoof at second.

Jim Flaa and Billy Frederick started the Science rally in the fifth with successive singles, after one was down. Jack Kathee promptly lined an infield single to push over Flaa with the tying marker.

Frederick scored what proved to be the winning run when he tallied on Jerry Friedman's wild throw to Grabarkewitz at third.

Consordia will oppose the Herd today at 4. Jamestown will be here Monday for a doubleheader to close out the season.
