The NDAC-NDU nickel trophy has disappeared from the North Dakota University campus. The trophy, purchased by the Blue Key Fraternities of both campuses in 1937, was entrusted to the care of the university last spring due to the Sioux victory in the 1950 Nickel basketball series.

The Spectrum received word of the missing trophy last Monday. A call to Harvey Jacobsen, the Dakota Student editor, revealed that the 'Student' knew nothing of the event.

The Sigma Chi chapter of the U borrowed the trophy from the University trophy room in order to use it as a model for their homecoming float. The trophy according to Bill Arnason, NDU Sig, disappeared from the Sigma Chi basement last weekend.

The trophy is 22 inches high and is made of solid lead. The Bison emblem decorates one side of the coin while the Sioux insignia is on the other side.

An NDU sportswriter, Dick Brown, called the Spectrum Wednesday to confirm a rumor that NDAC Sigma Chi's had organized a search for the trophy on this campus. However the Student had no knowledge of a search on the NDU campus.

Major General Milton Visits NDAC

Major General Hugh M. Milton II, Executive for Reserve and ROTC Affairs, Department of the Army, inspects his honor guard, NDAC's company of Pershing Rifles, on his arrival at the Fargo airport Friday. Inspecting the guard, left to right, are Lt. Col. Neal W. Lovsnes, Professor of Military Science and Tactics at NDAC, Dr. John R. Richards, Pershing Rifle's Captain Kenneth Ward (joining the group), Mr. Elvis J. Stahr, and General Milton. Dr. Richards and Mr. Stahr are special assistants to the Secretary of the Army.

In the second rank are Donald Busch, Curtis Norenberg and Donald Wilkes (partly hidden), Harris Lunneborg, Ronald Rasmussen (partly hidden), and Malvern Jacobson. Tom Tarnavsky on the end of the second rank failed to make the picture by Merle Nott, NDAC's Director of Public Relations.

Civil Service Men To Interview Seniors, Graduates October 23 For Federal Jobs

Representatives of the United States Civil Service Commission will be on the NDAC campus on Oct. 23 to interview seniors and graduate students for federal employment.

The interviews will be held in the lower reading room of the college library, beginning at 10 a. m. and continuing through the day.

Upperclassmen Choose Play Contest Entries

"The Boor" by Chekoff and "Motherly Love" by Strinberg are the junior and senior offerings respectively for the Little Country Theater's annual one-act play contest.

Judy Daly is directing "The Boor", a farce showing the lighter side of Russian country life. Chekoff is one of the masters of contemporary Russian literature.

"Motherly Love" will be directed by Virginia Arneson and Paul Ericson. In this play a mother's love is pitted against her daughter's. An all girl cast is required.

Tryouts for all the class plays were this past week; however Miss West, director of the contest would like to see all students interested in helping with the plays.

Educational Group Forms NDAC Chapter

After being inactive for some time, a chapter of the North Dakota Education Association has been organized at NDAC. The new group will represent the college in matters of education policy.

The local chapter will be represented at the state NDEA meeting in Bismarck this week, Oct. 17 to 19, with Dr. E. V. Estensen, professor of psychology, as delegate to the state representative assembly to be held at the same time.

President of the reorganized chapter is Shubel D. Owen, associate professor and assistant state supervisor of agricultural education. Vice-president is Christine Finlayson, state supervisor of home economics education. Secretary is Merritt N. Flynn, assistant professor of education.

The alternate delegate to the state meeting is Ruby Grimes, associate professor of mathematics.

Anyone interested in examinations for federal junior professional appointment should contact the interviewers at that time, according to C. A. Sevrinson, dean of students.

Information will be available on the following examinations: junior scientist and engineer, junior agricultural assistant, junior management assistant, junior professional assistant (with option of social science, economics, statistics, legal, and food and drugs), accountant and auditor, deputy collector, physical science aid, and engineering aid.

NDAC Receives Plant Gift From Nurseries

A valuable gift of tulips and peonies was recently presented to the Department of Horticulture by Mr. L. R. Sjulín, president, of the Inter-State Nurseries, Hamburg, Ia.

The gift consisted of one hundred bulbs each of ten choice imported Dutch tulip varieties and four plants each of nine choice varieties of peonies.

The gift has a retail value of approximately two hundred dollars and is in exchange for some propagating material furnished to the Inter-State Nurseries by the Department of Horticulture.

The Department of Horticulture has turned the gift over to the Campus Landscape Committee and the plants are being planted in appropriate locations on the NDAC Campus.

Dakota Hall Elects

Dakota hall residents have elected the following new officers: president, Phyllis Wyum, vice-president, Elaine Richtsin; Secretary, Joan Keller; and treasurer, Donna Bender. The new officers chose Henrietta Broste, Delphine Lindeman, Carol Kirkus, Shanon Kaspari and Dorothy Anderson as the new council members.

Dakota hall announces its open house Sunday, Oct. 28, from 3 to 5 p. m. The open house is in honor of Mrs. Florence Piers, new house-mother at Dakota hall.

A new drug, varidase streptokinase-streptornase, promises to prevent many deaths from deep chest infections.

Visiting NDAC Friday and Saturday from the Department of the Army in Washington, D. C., were Major General Hugh M. Milton II, Executive for Reserve and ROTC Affairs, Office of the Chief of Staff, and party.

Meeting General Milton at the Fargo airport on his arrival were members of the NDAC military staff, Army Cadet Colonel John Schacher, and an honor guard formed by NDAC's company of Pershing Rifles and led by Pershing Rifle Captain Kenneth Ward. General Milton inspected his guard and complimented Captain Ward on the group's outstanding appearance.

NDAC's President Fred S. Hultz entertained the visiting group and members of the faculty with a dinner in the Pine Dining Room in Ceres Hall Friday evening and the group were his guests that evening at the Bison-South Dakota University football game.

Saturday morning saw General Milton and party confer with President Hultz, look over NDAC facilities, and visit with a group of some 25 Army ROTC Cadets representing both basic and advanced classes.

On Saturday afternoon the group with Lt. Col. Neal W. Lovsnes and Major Ernest Poff of the NDAC military staff left for the Bismarck area where they were joined Sunday by representatives from the North Dakota military district headquarters in hunting pheasants. The group left for Washington from Fargo on Monday morning.

General Milton's party included Dr. John R. Richards and Mr. Elvis J. Stahr, Special Assistants to the Secretary of the Army; Col. James W. Clyburn, G-1, Civilian Components Division, Fifth Army; and Lt. Col. Gustav Bacharach, Chief ROTC Section, Office of the Chief of Staff, Department of the Army. Dr. Richards is vice-president of Wayne University at Detroit, Michigan, and Mr. Stahr is Dean of the University of Kentucky law school, and both are on a one year leave of absence from their universities.

Selective Service Scoop . . . Rules, Policies Concern College Students

By Mel Miller

Selective service regulations and policies are of vital concern to most men now attending college. Your college administration is keenly aware of this and every attempt is being made to keep you fully informed of these regulations and subsequent changes thereof.

It should be definitely clear to every young man between the ages of 18 and 26 that he is responsible for keeping his local board posted on any change that might affect his status with selective service. His failure to do this could result in his immediate induction, even though he might be eligible for further postponement. It is easier to prevent the process of induction, where reasons therefore exist, than to stop it once the procedure has begun.

Your own attitude toward selective service and your local board is important. Please remember that the members of your local board are patriotic American citizens trying to help our country. These people serve without pay and, in our opinion, are doing a good job. They are aware of the critical need for college trained men, both in industry and the armed forces.

We believe that if you keep them informed, display aptitude and ability to successfully pursue college work, and cooperate with them your chances of completing college prior to induction are good. We believe that a student who chooses to loaf along in college will not be permitted to remain long in such pursuit. The critical need for manpower is too great for any of us to idle away time during this emergency.

The new law provides one and only one deferment for a college student. Any student who has not been granted deferment or postponement to attend college is eligible, upon his own request, to receive deferment from induction for one academic year so long as he remains in college, carries a full-time program, and does satisfactory academic work.

At the end of the year of deferment the student must, to be considered for further postponement, be in the upper fraction of his class or have achieved a passing score in the College Qualification Test (next one to be given on December 13, 1951). General

Hershey has said that should draft quotas become heavy, this might be changed to read, "Upper fraction and a passing score."

Draft boards may order induction of a student after his one year deferment, even though he may have received a passing score on the College Qualification Test or be in the upper fraction of his class or both. However in such cases the student has the right to appeal through his local board, to the selective service headquarters of his state and from there to the President.

Freshmen students must be in the upper one-half of their class, sophomores in the upper two-thirds, and juniors in the upper three-fourths. Graduate students must have been in the upper fifty-percent of the senior class. These standings permit further consideration for postponement.

At the end of the school year the Office of Admissions and Records calculates the exact standing of every male student by class, and by school within class. These standings are based on the student's academic record for that academic year. They are then certified to local draft boards on SSS Form 109, but only upon request of the student. It is the student's responsibility to make sure his local board receives this data.

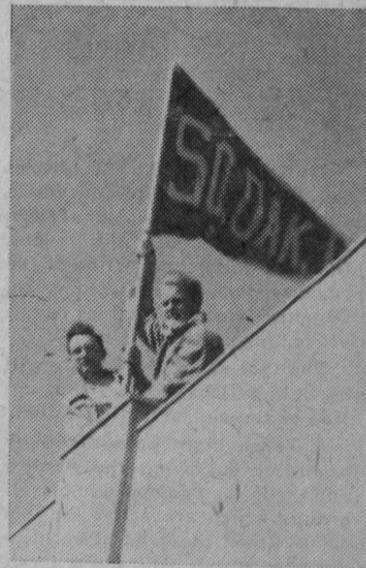

On this same form certification must also be made concerning the student's full-time academic program. At NDAC an undergraduate must have carried a minimum of 48 quarter-hours before he can be considered a full-time student for that year. In other words, one cannot enroll for only 12 or 13 hours per quarter for the three quarters and expect to be classified as a full-time student by his local board.

Required courses such as English A or Math. 58 which carry no credit will count as part of the requirement. If for example, a student carries 13 hours and English A, he will be certified as carrying a 16 hour program.

Regardless of any current deferment a student may have, unless a veteran he is strongly urged to take the College Qualification Test if he has not already done so.

If you have any question relative to your selective service standing, see Mr. Miller in the Office of Admissions and Records located in the Administration Building.

Commission Buys Pennants

Adjusting the South Dakota U. Flag on the left are: Jack Noack of Fargo, a freshman in Mechanical Engineering and Jim Dower of Wheatland, Wyoming, a senior in

Shown setting the South Dakota State Pennant is Larry North of Fargo, an NDAC freshman in Electrical Engineering.

There will be eight pennants on each side of the stadium. The pennants were purchased by the NDAC Student Commission.

N-Nelson E-Eddy Gets N-Nervous

Nelson Eddy not only sings "Short'nin Bread", he also eats it. The uranium-blond baritone believes he has the largest collection of short'nin bread recipes in the country. If any of you home economics majors are interested in his basic recipe drop into the Spectrum office.

A chance to hear and see the famous singer is coming October 30 at Festival Hall. Without the benefit of appearing on the screen recently Nelson Eddy continues to be a perennially box-office favorite. Eddy is a soloist whose words you can understand. He is noted for having the best "diction" in the business.

Says Eddy; "Often when you meet a singer back-stage after an un-understandable recital, you are surprised to find she actually speaks good English. "Good evening" she says, clear as can be. Well, why doesn't she sing that way too? Oh, no, she's got to sing, "A-good-o-heav-vun-neeng! When you sing a song its like telling a story. If the listener doesn't get the point, your'e a flop."

When Eddy's songs aren't in English, he usually explains them beforehand so his audience gets the gist of the piece.

Theodore Paxon, pianist, is sporting a new gold wrist watch these days. The watch, a gift from Nelson Eddy, marks the twenty-third year the two have made music together.

It is understood in music circles that Eddy has Paxon on probation. Critics have given the accompanist fine writeups both for his accompanying and for his ability to hold his listeners with his solo performances. In fact, says Eddy, the papers used to say "Eddy and Paxon give Recital" then came the black day when the headlines told "Paxon In Fine Recital; Baritone Also On Program". If these things don't stop Nelson Eddy is going to look for a new piano player.

Say Paxon of Nelson Eddy, "... He is completely a perfectionist. A job well done is an inspiration to bigger and better things. And when the bigger opportunity came, he was always ready. As a result, opportunity didn't just knock; it fairly beat the door down to find him."

Eddy's preparedness has paid off well. The critics say pleasant things about his unique voice, his unerring dramatic instincts and his model stage presence. Eddy also has half a dozen languages to his credit.

N-Nelson E-Eddy gets nervous too. He describes the feeling by saying, "Why its just like being in love! The same sensations you go through with a new-found flame..."

His professional debut in Grand Opera at the Metropolitan came in 1924. Today Nelson Eddy annually makes concert tours throughout the country with many outstanding orchestras.

From the costume of opera, to the ether waves of radio, to the Columbia label of records and finally to the universal motion picture Nelson Eddy reaches the last borders of public acclaim.

Angeline Pudwill Wins First Prize Modeling In Homemaker's Style Show

Angeline Pudwill, freshman, won first prize in the Homemakers Style show held at the Towne theatre in connection with the Fargo Fall Festival last Thursday, October 11. The idea of this style show was that each person entered, modeled her own homemade garments.

There were two groups entered in the contest: a group of ladies over 21 years of age and a group of young women under 21. Angie entered the latter group and won first prize for her entry of a checked black-and-red rayon-wool gabardine suit. The suit was lined in bright red.

For accessories she wore black heels, a black shoulder bag, black velveteen hat, and black knit gloves. Angie carried a red winter chinchilla coat, lined in black, which she also had made. It was accented by black buttons down the front.

Angeline has been sewing since about sixth grade at home, but has never entered any contest before this. The only school sewing she has had were the required courses in the 8th, and 9th grades and in her sophomore year at Fargo High School.

Angie makes all her own clothes including dresses, skirts, blouses, coats, gloves, and hats. She is majoring in Home Economics clothing at NDAC for her college years. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, and is program chairman of the pledge group.

For future plans, Angeline stated that she hopes some day to be either a designer or a buyer for a store,—at least connected with clothing in some form or manner. She has gained experience by working in the sports department at the Store Without A Name.

Squirrel Squeaks . . .

Ken Ketchner

This week's epistle is starting off with a plug for one of the most ambitious, colorful, amideextrious, homognized young male personalities on this hyar campus. Yes, Mike Holt has decided that since the third oil well came in out at Tioga, that he had better get in on the ground floor, and make some of that easy money that is bound to be floating around. Result: A Holt Super Spee, Ez-Spin Yo-Yo going on the market this week.

Feuding, Fussing and a Fighting . . . Phi Mu's versus Kappa Psi . . . One day of this past week, one of the goils hung her dainties out to dry on the line behind their house and returned the following morning to find that it had met with some-one's approval—anyway Sigma something was stamped on numerous pairs . . . One consolation has shown up so the report goes—It was washable ink.

Each time NDAC sponsors an event that is open to the general public, the same old cheers come up about the people of Fargo not willing to co-operate with the college. The same thing works in reverse with the Fargo people and NDAC. It seems to me that if for instance, on a situation like last weeks Harvest Festival where the city of Fargo is getting around to recognizing this institution and devoting two full days for NDAC, the least this school could do would be to excuse the students that are necessary to insure the success of a parade like that which was held on Friday.

Last week mentioned the fact that the week-end would be a success if, the Bison won their game and if I won the new Dodge car. Well the Bison didn't win and I didn't win the new car. But a person did win the car that was entirely deserving. The lucky woman happens to be a cook at the Coffee shop and has served in that capacity for the past 15 years.

For the benefit of the student that isn't familiar with the selection system being used in conjunction with the Student of the week, I have a few quick words. The selection is based on numerous facts which include; scholastic and academic work, works and positions held in organizations, and the general attitude displayed toward the school and its direct functions.

The Sigma Chi's have completed their formel rushing finally, and have one new, all different pledge duty for them. With their new, all modern chicken coop completed, naturally someone has to gather the eggs . . .

An Open Letter to Harvey Jacobson, of Igloo Tech. (up-state normal). His space waster in the Dakota scab sheet elaborating on the two schools enrollment figures, forces me to admit they have a few more head than we. BUT Mr. Jacobson, skidrow does not run through our campus.

Students Suggest Election Change

There has been much adverse criticism in regard to the Homecoming Queen election last Monday among the student body. Many students interviewed feel that the elections were not nearly as representative of the student body as a whole as they might have been. Most objections centered around the methods used in the semi-final eliminations.

The procedure used in the past to select a group of candidates was for several campus groups to sponsor one girl each. The list of these candidates was then turned over to the football players and they then selected four girls from the list to be finalists on the slate. At the all-campus election then held, one of these four girls was elected as queen and the other three became members of her court.

It has been suggested by several dissenters that this system be abolished in the future. These dissenters have proposed that for future elections of a Homecoming Queen, the groups that have made nominations for a candidate in the past would do so again, each group publicizing and campaigning for its candidate. Then an all-campus election would be held with as many as twenty girls on the slate of which four would be elected by the student body as finalists. Of these four, the football players would then select one to be queen and the others would automatically become her court.

This procedure, it is claimed, would make all four of the finalists the choice of the student body rather than a perhaps biased choice of the football players who constitute a definite minority group. Using this method the intimate connection between the football team and homecoming festivities is not destroyed and it has the added advantage of ensuring each candidate an equal chance of becoming queen, or a least, a member of the royal court.

The Spectrum feels that since there is dissent among the student body as to the election procedure used in the past, the election procedure should be changed by the Board of Campus Affairs to one which is more universally agreeable. This action should be taken now while the issue is fresh in our minds. The Board of Campus Affairs should formulate and present a definite policy with regard to elections to the Spectrum for publication. If the student body does not like this policy, it can express itself by letters to the editor commenting on the policy. In his way, the Board of Campus Affairs will be informed in regard to how the student body wants the elections conducted, instead of blindly groping its way along a road constructed by poor planning.

Did The Polls Close Too Soon?

In last week's Spectrum, the Board of Campus Affairs announced that the voting time at the polls would be from 8:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m. However, several disillusioned voters arrived at the polls shortly after 3:00 p. m. and found that the polls were closed. The number of voters arriving after the polls had closed perhaps was not enough to make a difference in the election outcome, but they were unfairly deprived of their right to cast a ballot. Thus it deserves critical comment.

It is quite within the Board of Campus Affairs jurisdiction to change the time of the closing of the polls, but they erred in not publicizing the fact. If the elction returns indicate a close race, it would be quite logical to demand that the results be thrown out and that the election be re-enacted. Certainly the disappointed voters would have the right to demand this since they were not given accurate information.

If the returns are not close, there is no need to have the election repeated. But the violation of principle remains. This principle is that every student should have an equal chance to cast a ballot. If they are deprived of this right by those in charge of election proceedings, then it should be called to the public's attention. We consider this plea for consistent policy only justly merited constructive criticism.

Letters to the Editor

TO ALL STUDENTS:

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to all students who helped with the NDAC parade at Fargo's Fall Festival.

As the College-Chamber of Commerce representative, I was asked to put the parade together. It would have been impossible on such short notice if I had not had the copera-tion of student groups who worked hard to produce some worthwhile and entertaining features. From all reports, the merchants were quite pleased with the parade and with the crowds which it attracted.

It is my personal hope that such a parade might be made an annual feature. Perhaps we could sponsor a project resembling Hobo Day which some schools have each year. Also, I think it would be fine if Homecoming Day could be held in conjunction with the Fall Festival.

The loyal support of NDAC students in Fargo's community projects is always appreciated.

Sincerely,
 Merle E. Nott

A FRESHMAN'S GRIPE:

(Ed's note: The following letter is an exact reprint, with no gramatical corrections, of a letter received at the Spectrum office. Although it is the Spectrum's policy to print only those letters that are signed, we are departing from this policy in this case because we believe that the writer is dealing with a topic of wide interest on the campus. However, we point out to this writer that a signed letter carries more weight and prestige than an anonymous one. Here is the contribution entitled "For What It Is Worth" signed by "An interested Freshman.")

This school has got to have a hypo from some organization on the campus as far as pep is concernd.

The showing from the student body at the game is concerned was disgrass to the school I am not a member of any pep club or an athlete here.

Why don't the upperclassmen take up this problem in hand and get some spirit into this here school. Lets get the student body to these here pep meetings by using the Kangaroo Kourt, that means all the students, from the highest senior to the lowest freshmen.

Let's get this thing going now before Homecoming
 From an interested Freshman.

Student Loan Funds Available To Cover Current Emergency

By Lois Fitzloff

When times in North Dakota are not quite as good as they are now, the demand for loans is much greater than it is at present. However, it is well for the students at NDAC to know that if emergencies arise, that there are funds set aside for them.

Members of the Student Loan Fund Committee are chairman Dean Dinan, Dean Sevrinson, Miss Thompson, Miss Toring, and Mr. Walrath. This is only one of the many faculty committees that have been set up for the benefit of students.

Chief among the small loan funds which are available to all students is the Alumni Loan Fund. Up to $100 may be secured by upper class students who have made a satisfactory scholastic record. They must also show promise in their chosen field and have a co-signer for the loan.

Pre-medic students may be interested in the Fargo Clinic Loan Fund which may be obtained through the college committee. In some instances small short term loans are available through the individual schools.

There is also a small fund set up by the American Legion for emergency loans for veterans and this is administered through Dean Sevrinson's office. These loans are made almost exclusively to veterans to meet current accounts such as grocery bills until their next G. I. check arrives. Though this total amount of the fund is comparatively small, by being turned over many times during the college year a large number of loans are made each year.

Dean Dinan handles the NDAC Woman's Club Loan Fund which makes it possible for girls to obtain up to $50 for emergency loans. This fund was built up many years ago through money raising projects given by the club. Though the fund amounts to only $700, there have been years when that total, through short time loans, made available loans up to $2000.

All of these loans are made on comparatively easy terms. Don't hesitate if you really need money during an emergency. The Student Loan Committee will be only too glad to help you.

Students Study Apple Growing At Ortonville

Dr. J. H. Schultz and twenty-two students taking a class in fruit growing made an all day field trip to Ortonville, Minnesota on October 15, 1951, to study apple production and varieties at the Block Orchards, Ortonville, Minnesota.

This is a unique commercial orchard consisting of twenty-two acres, and Mr. Block has an exceptionally fine collection of hardy apple varieties which are being harvested at the present time. The fruit crop is of exceptionally fine quality this year and students had a very interesting opportunity to see the commercially hardy production of apples.

Dr. Schultz states, "We gathered conclusive evidence that good quality, mature apples do not cause illness even when eaten in excessive quantities."

Football Is Big Business

College football over the country was ruled as "Big Business" by an industrial referee's ruling last week. The referee stated that a football player is the 'employee' and the college the 'employer' in a big time business enterprise.

The University of Denver was ordered to pay a player $11.82 per week because of partial disability resulting from back injury sustained in a 1950 spring practice. This compensation is retroactive to June 11, 1950, and now totals more than $800.

The referee also ordered that medical payment of not more than $1000 be paid. The player has undergone one operation and may have another shortly. He has continued to attend classes, but has not participated in athletics since the injury.

The ruling handed down by the referee states:

"It is common knowledge that a football player's work is directed in the minutest detail by the coach (employer) and he may be replaced (discharged) in the discretion of the coach upon the conclusion of any play without liability."

It, therefore, seems inescapable that the relationship that existed between the University of Denver and the claimant was approximately the same as that which existed between school and player ever since football entered the ranks of big business, that of employer and employee."

Three cheers for referee David F. How for his pioneering steps in cleaning up the 'big business' of college football.

WHO'S GOT THE 'NICKEL'

Latest rumors have it that the Nickel is missing from the university's trophy room.

The Nickel is the trophy over which the basketball series with NDU is fought every year. The Sioux have had possession of the trophy the past few years and now it is missing.

If the Nickel cannot be found, I think the university should be charged with incompetence on their part. It is their responsibility to take good care of this trophy and I cannot see any excuse for losing such a prized possession. If the Nickel means nothing more than just another piece of metal I feel we should recover it and keep it here permanently.

At least we can hold onto it. How can anyone be so bewildered as to lose a hugh trophy like the 'Nnicel'?

Around the Conference

South Dakota State is leading the list of unbeaten, untied football teams. SDS has won six straight this season, more than any other squad in the nation. If they keep up the pace, they will probably get a bowl bid.

The University of North Dakota has uncovered a new star. He is Dick Ryan, a soph from Chicago. The speedy end scored both the U touchdowns against SDS on long runs.

South Dakota States victory over

NDU last Saturday was the first for the Bunnies since 1926. Believe it or not by Fisher.

The University of South Dakota will bear watching this year as a result of their new offense. That sliding T will be a thorn in the side to all SDU's opponents.

Morningside will furnish the opposition at South Dakota U's homecoming this Saturday. At stake besides the game will be the "Silver Cup" which goes to the victorious team annually. Last year Morningside took the cup.

Just Gossip

Bob Nenninger, Bison gridder has dyed his white buck shoes black since seeing Ace Grant wearing an identical pair.

Anyone seeing Jim Fay chewing, smoking, or drinking need not report him to the basketball coach. Jim is just the student manager and not playing bucketball this season.

In case anyone has been wondering about that Cicero Kid sign in the Hasty, ask Jack Welein about it. It has meaning to it.

Charlie Finnegan took a shot at C. C. Sr. the other day. Claimed he thought the old man was a duck. He almost was a dead duck, Chas.

Looking over the Scandal Sheet from Upstate Normal I was shocked to see a bit of print on the front page written by outcast Irv Letofsky. Last year we deported Irv for writing trash like this.

Joke of the week:

Erv Kaiser is going to give Bob Fisher an 'A' in Badminton.

Ex-football coach at State, Howard Bliss was in town the past week. He's now selling sporting goods and looks like a million. Incidentally, Dominic Gentile bummed a ride off his old coach to Hurley (79 saloons), Wisconsin. Osieki will be lost for a week now that Dom has gone.

Official (?) Time

Some of you sitting in the stands last Friday during the SDU game were no doubt puzzled by the commotion as to the end of the first quarter.

The real scoop on what happened, and what is wrong with our official timing device has now been made clear to me. I think something should be done about the whole deal too.

Seems as though the official timers line of vision with the clock has been hampered by the site of the goal posts on the West end of the stadium. It's hard enough to see the hands on the clock without trying to see through the uprights.

I suggest that Mr. Bob Thorson should dispatch a couple of his men to go out there and move the scoreboard several feet North. This would take the official clock out from behind this obstacle and save a lot of confusion and worry on the part of the officials.

How about that Mr. Thorson?

Herd Invades South Dakota Tomorrow To Face League Leading Jackrabbits

By Bob Fisher

The NDAC Bison in search of victory No. 2, and trying to snap a two game losing streak, face the power of the conference tomorrow when they face the South Dakota State Jackrabbits.

The contest will be held at State Field in Brookings, South Dakota. Last time the Herd visited the Bunnies they got beat 33-13. Last season the Jacks spoiled our homecoming to the tune of 60-0.

A mighty challenge faced head coach Ralph Ginn and his charges at the beginning of the season. Their predecessors, the 1950 Jackrabbit eleven, posted the best record of any SDS team in history.

The 1950 squad romped through a ten game schedule with only a tie to tarnish their otherwise perfect slate. The Jacks captured the 1950 North Central Conference crown after sharing the title in 1949.

They set new conference records in team rushing, scoring, margin of victory in one game, and total offense and individual scoring. The high powered eleven set school records in number of games won, total points in one season, total yards gained in a season, and total yards in one game.

Most of that offensive punch of last year has graduated, including little all-American Herb Bartling, the idol of all quarterbacks. Bartling was also the most valuable player in the conference.

Also missing from the squad are all conference; backs Warren Williamson and Bill Gibbons, and linemen Don Bartlett, Howard Amen, George Medchill, and Dale Bowyer.

For the rebuilding job Ginn had 14 lettermen and three minor award winners as a nucleus. Eight other squad members, sophomores, and transfers were counted upon to fill the gaps.

The 1951 club is heavier but slower in the backfield, and lighter but faster in the line.

Returning lettermen are; Roger Anderson, Bob Breese, Dick Craddock, Bob Durland, Doug Eggers, Ed Gosmire, Lou Gidda, Dallas Hoff, Gene Juve, Marv Kool, Jack Richardson, Don Veal, Vern Whitely, and Forrest Zimmerman.

Biggest asset to the team this season has been a transfer from Elendale, big burly Pete Retzlaff who leads the conference in rushing, scoring, and total yardage.

So far this season the South Dakotans have capably filled the shoes of the 1950 team. They have beaten St. Cloud Teachers, Iowa Teachers, Morningside, Augustana, North Dakota U. and Emporia.

Meanwhile the Bison are sorely licking their wounds as a result of last week's loss to South Dakota U. The team will definitely be weakened by injuries. Biggest blow coming at guard, where rugged Bob Nenninger will be missing. Bob aggregated a head injury and it is doubtful that he will see action for the remainder of the campaign.

Biggest problem Wenskuhas has right now is finding eleven men that really want to play football. Last week's bad line play will have to be ironed out, or the Bison can be counted upon to take another licking.

The offense cannot roll without seven linemen doing their share. A back cannot go anywhere without someone opening up those holes for him. This could be the week that those men will realize that it takes team cooperation, determination and guts to win ball games.

The starting lineup will probably not be decided until the opening kickoff, but Mac will start his team from among the following; ends,

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| GUESS BOX         |  |
| SDS over NDS (13)        |  |
| SDU over Morningside (6) |  |
| ISTC over Augustana (7)  |  |
| Beloit over NDU (6)      |  |

Garastick, Sander, Gronberg, and Thurm, tackles, Beckwith, Zorich, Lauf, and Werner; and at the guards, Morris, Beurger, and Kraninger. Center will probably be Paxton, with Erickson to see duty.

The backfield should be chosen from; Davis, Espisito, Noland, Werlein, Buckellew, Heintz, and Curtis.

The squad has been put through heavy workouts this week on offense and defense in an attempt to straighten things out. Both coaches, Wenskuhas and Krueger, are optimistic and feel that the Herd will make a good showing come Saturday.

South Dakota U Wins Over Bison 18-0; Herd Drops Third Conference Tussle

South Dakota University kept its unbeaten status in conference play, as they whipped the Bison 18-0. It was win No. 2 for the Coyotes and loss No. 3 for the Herd.

A crowd of about 3500 saw the helpless Bison fall before a superior SDU line which held them without a first down. The Herd lost eleven yards rushing, while picking up only 22 yards passing.

Lauf started the contest by kicking off to Polenz who got the ball on the 10 and raced to the 39 before he was stopped. In nine plays with Eixenberger, Brende, Ashmore and Polenz running the ball, the Coyotes led 6-0. Ashmore scored on a 15 yard sprint around left end.

The rest of the first half saw no scoring, but plenty of big gains by the Coyotes. SDU drove into scoring position four times, but the Herd held on each occasion.

The Bison fought off drives on their own 22, 5, 19, and 15 in the first half. Inside the twenty, the Herd line was impregnable. Gene Garastick, Dick Sander, Ray Curtis, Benny Noland, Bob Zorich, and Bill Beckwith were the stalwarts in the Bison defense.

The third quarter was scoreless, but SDU made several threats which were again stopped deep in home territory. On the second last play of the period, Brende broke loose on a 25 yard sprint to the 25. Ashmore carried to the 17 as the quarter ended.

Five plays in the fourth stanza, Polenz scored from the 2. The try for point was blocked by Dick Sander. SDU led at this stage 12-0.

Late in the period, Brende punted from the Herd 33 out of bounds on the 1. A penalty put the ball back to the one foot line. Noland and John carried the ball to the 7, and on fourth down a bad pass from center forced Ridder to run the ball out of the end zone to the 4 where SDU took over. The Herd threw the Coyotes back four yards in three plays, but the fourth down Brende passed to Brunick for the counter. The try for point was wide, making the final score 18-0.

In the second half, the Bison made stands on their 10, 4, 15, and 30 as the South Dakotans pushed goalward. The State defense was terrific inside their own 30, but SDU racked up 353 yards rushing, mostly through the middle of the line.

Chick Ridder's kicking was the only bright spot for the Bison, as he and Bill Buckellew punted 15 times for an average of 34 yards, much of this into the wind.

Guard Bob Nenninger was injured early in the first quarter and was removed to a hospital.

Score by quarters:

SDU	6	0	0	12 18

Lettermen Issue Plea To Members

By Bob Fisher

The Lettermen Club of NDAC is just about on the rocks. Not financially, but because of lack of cooperation, the club is all folded up.

In the past few years attendance at the clubs meetings have been at an all time low. It's a sad state of affairs that such a worthwhile organization faces sure collapse.

Of the twenty five or thirty lettermen on the campus, only a small handful have shown interest and attendance at the meetings. The officers feel they should not shoulder all the responsibilities of the club's functions, thus the talk of disbanding.

Lettermen, try to get to all meetings and take an active part in all the club's function or the lettermen's Club will be an organization of the past

28 Seek Berths On ROTC Rifle Team Rilling, Beecher, Brown Coach Squad

With practice underway since the first of October, twenty-eight Army ROTC cadets are practicing several times a week seeking berths on the 1951-52 Army ROTC rifle team.

Expected to form the nucleus of the team are three lettermen, members of a joint ROTC team last year. They are junior Curtis Norenberg and Sophomores Joe Helle and Gene Schuschke.

Postal matches are again planned with colleges and universities all over the country. Last year over fifty such matches were fired.

Five Army riflemen will join with five Air Force team members to form an NDAC rifle team for shoulder to shoulder matches with nearby schools both home and away. Trips are planned to the University of North Dakota and South Dakota State college.

Presentation of letter sweaters at the annual banquet next spring will close the season. Coaching the team are Capt. John Rilling, M/Sgt. Lanty Beecher, and Pfc. Edward Brown.

Practice sessions are scheduled Monday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings. Afternoon practices are from 1:00-3:30 and night sessions from 7:00-9:00. Those cadets who cannot meet during the scheduled hours may fire by special arrangement by contacting Capt. Rilling.

Besides the three lettermen, trying out for the team are Bill Beckwith, Eugene Beechie, Schuyler Bowers, Don Hastings, Vincen Hatlen, James Hoffman, Thomes Howitz, Richard Joos, Richard Kyte, Marvin Lembke, Ronald Lund, Harlan McGregor, Gerald Monteith, Robert Nenninger, Lowell Overbo, Lorin Rasmussen, Charles Ridder, Clark Schenkenberger, Robert Solon, Lawrence Struble, Thomas Tarnavsky, Douglas Williams, Roger Wolf, James Zacha, and Edwin Zimmerman.

Morningside College handed the undermanned Augustana Vikings their third straight North Central Conference loss Saturday night 25-0.

South Dakota State Beats UND

South Dakota State's Jackrabbits squeezed by the North Dakota University Sioux 21-12 at the U's Homecoming before 5000 rabid fans.

The Bunnies set the pace with 14 points in the first half, but the Sioux fought the loop leaders off their collective feet.

It was State's fourth win in conference play and victory No. 6 for the season. NDU now has won one and lost two in league play.

The South Dakota band and a large delegation of rooters were on hand to aid in the celebration.

Pete Retzlaff, Gene Juve, and Bob Breese sparked the Jacks backfield which didn't fall a mite below pregame notices. The powerful South Dakotans were forced to punt only twice and they compiled 236 yards rushing and 60 passing to run up 16 first downs over the route.

Not far behind was the NDU offense which gained 115 yards on the ground and 113 overhead for a total of twelve first downs. Although Cy Ducharme, Art Halpin, and Dick McBride contributed much to the Sioux cause, Lloyd (Boom) Hallada was the outstanding back on the field.

But it was a sophomore from Chicago, Dick Ryan, who almost turned the tide against the Rabbits. Ryan intercepted a pass and galloped 55 yards for a touchdown. A few minutes later he took a pass from Dick Koppenhaver and went 63 yards to score.

Fashion Contest Open To College Women

Mademoiselle magazine is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership on its 1951-52 College Board.

Girls who are accepted on the College Board do three assignments during the college year. Assignments give College Board Members a chance to write features about life on their campus; to submit art work, fashion or promotion ideas for possible use in Mademoiselle; to develop their critical and creative talents; to discover their own abilities and job interests.

College Board Members who come out among the top twenty on the assignments win a Mademoiselle Guest Editorship and will be brought to New York next June to help write, edit and illustrate the August College issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

While in New York, each Guest Editor takes part in a full calendar of activities designed to give her a head start in her career. She interviews a celebrity in her chosen field, visits fashion workrooms, newspaper offices, stores and advertising agencies.

October 31 is the deadline for applying for the College Board. The application is a criticism of either Mademoiselle's August 1951 College issue (see page 355) or the September issue (see page 111). Successful candidates will be notified of acceptance on the College Board the first week in November; the first College Board assignment will appear in Mademoiselle's November issue.

For further information see the Dean of Women or Vocational Director or write to: College Board Editor, Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N. Y.

NDAC Students, Faculty Tour Sugar Beet Plant

Some 125 students and faculty of the NDAC toured the huge processing plant of the American Crystal Sugar Company of Moorhead on Thursday evening, October 11. Arrangements for the tour were made by W. W. Moberg, assistant professor of geography and geology.

The sugar plant, now in its fourth operating season, is producing 7,615 one-hundred pound bags of sugar a day, according to Norman Hansen, plant superintendent's clerk. He said the beet crop this year is exceedingly good with mature beets which have a higher sugar content than usual.

During a production season, which averages from three to four months, the company employs around 345 workers. A skeleton staff of 45 is employed throughout the year. Besides the Moorhead installation, the American Crystal Sugar Company also operates eight other refineries in the United States.
