

Parrott Gets Doctors Award At Honor's Day

At the 18th annual Honors Day yesterday Dale Peppel, president of Blue Key national honorary fraternity announced that Alfred H. Parrott, executive secretary for the alumni student association, had been awarded the Doctor of Service Award.

Parrott came to NDAC in 1903 and soon was named Director of Admissions and Records. He remained at this job until two years ago when he took his present position. Parrott founded and was the first president of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions; he has been the honorary president since 1917.

Also presented yesterday were members of Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic fraternity, Senior Staff, honorary society for senior women, Blue Key, honorary service fraternity, and seniors selected for Who' Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Blue Key Honors Parrott At Banquet

Blue Key held its annual banquet to honor the recipient of its yearly Doctor of Service, Alfred H. Parrott, award at the Top of the Mart, FM Hotel last night.

At the banquet Parrott, executive secretary of the NDAC Alumni and Former Students Association and associated with the college since 1903, was honored for receiving the award at Honors Day ceremonies yesterday morning.

Dale Peppel, president of Blue Key for the past year, introduced all guests at the banquet. The guests included the honors day committee, all school deans, President Hultz, and Blue Key alumni.

Besides the evenings festivities to honor Parrott, Peppel also introduced the new Blue Key officers for the coming year.

Student-Faculty Group Holds Meeting Monday

The Senate committee on Student-faculty relations will hold its first meeting at 7:00 p. m. on Tuesday, May 19, in the room directly adjacent to the main lounge in the college library.

At that time any student or faculty member wishing to present a complaint, criticism, suggestion or specific appeal concerning classroom instruction, conduct, and or curriculum will have an opportunity to privately do so.

The committee strongly urges that all students who believe that they have a case to present appear at this meeting next Tuesday.

The members of the committee are Walter Fogel, Chairman; Richard Hill, Barbara Widdifield and Professor Rudolph Ottersen, faculty member.

Social Chairmen, Dean Meet Today

The Dean of Students has announced a meeting for social chairmen in charge of all-college events, to be held Friday afternoon, May 15 at 4:15 p. m.

The meeting will be in the room at the head of the stairs, second floor, Main Building; and is being called so that a schedule of all-college events for the coming year may be completed.

Dean Sevrinson requests that a substitute be sent in the event of the absence of the regular social chairman.

Attention: All Seniors

Senior's commencement announcements are now available, according to Merlin W. Miller, director of admissions and records.

Seniors are urged to make arrangements for their cap and gown for graduation. Necessary arrangements can be made through the book store.

Junior-Senior Prom Set For Tonight; Ken Griffin To Furnish Entertainment

Tonight the seniors put in their last appearance here at an informal dance. The Junior-Senior Prom, with the music of Ken Griffin and his ten-man orchestra, will have dancing from nine to one in the Fieldhouse. All seniors who will not attend next year's prom will be given free admission by stating their names.

Tickets, at $1.50 per person can still be obtained, or may be purchased at the door. Handling ticket sales is Sonja Swanke, and Nick Westman is in charge of publicity. All receipts from the prom will be donated to charity.

The chaperones tonight will be Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Miller, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Clugston, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mentzer, according to Richard Hill, Commissioner of Music and Public Programs.

Greek Advisor Speaks Tonight At Open Forum

A Greek diplomat and former business man will be the speaker at the next Fargo-Moorhead Open Forum which has been set for 8:00 p. m. at the Emerson Smith School Auditorium. The speaker, Andre Michalopoulos, is presently the advisor to the Greek Embassy in Washington and is here as the personal representative of the Greek Ambassador.

The topic for the Forum will be "Greece and the Mediterranean". The lecture will be followed by a question and answer period.

In addition to addressing the Forum, Mr. Michalopoulos will speak to the Fargo Kiwanis Club and will also appear at Fargo-Moorhead Colleges.

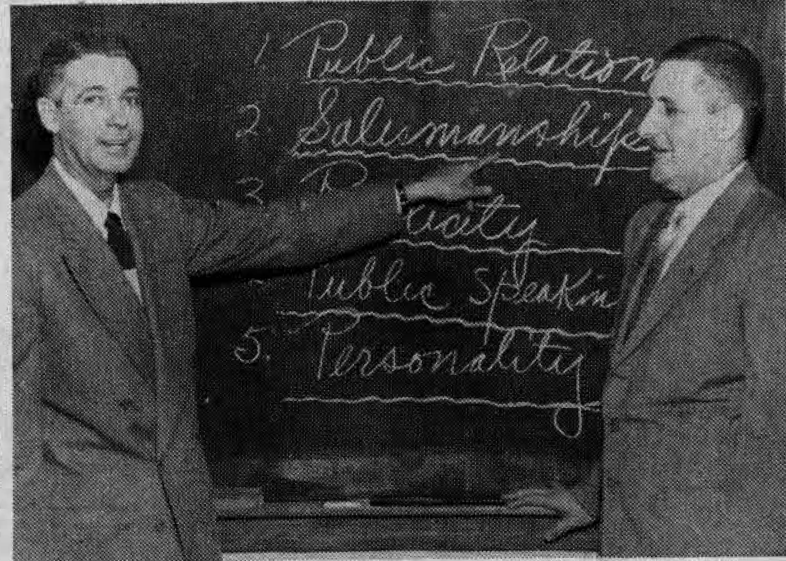

Genschmer Resigns To Accept Position At Carnegie Tech

Dr. Fred Genschmer, professor and chairman of the NDAC department of modern languages, has resigned his position to accept an appointment as head of the modern language department of Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Genschmer came to NDAC in 1947. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Lake Forest College, Illinois; his master's from the University of Wisconsin, and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Illinois.

Genschmer will begin work at Carnegie Institute in September.

Seminar Speaker, Post Confer

Duncan McCallum, left, returns to speak at the NDAC Agricultural Entomology seminar, Wednesday, May 20, at 7:30 p. m. in 215 Morrill Hall. McCallum, who has taught sales psychology, will discuss sales through personality, including a discussion of public relations and public speaking.

McCallum, shown above pointing out the highlights of his presentation to Dr. R. L. Post, NDAC entomologist, comes from Lincoln, Nebraska. Currently he is with Chipman Chemical Company.

The seminar is open to the public.

Clugston Instructs Study Helps Class

A study helps class for spring quarter has been in operation during the current term, meeting every Tuesday and Thursday from 3:05 until 4:00 p. m., room 101, of the College Library.

While the class attendance is voluntary, the sessions have been of great benefit in improving study skills and reading habits of those attending. It is felt that greater participation by students, particularly freshmen, would do much to raise sliding grade point averages.

The classes are still open, and students wishing to enroll may do so by attending the regular sessions, leaving their names with R. M. Clugston, instructor for the course.

Math Group Picks Hill

A. Glenn Hill, chairman of the department of mathematics of NDAC, has been elected president of the Minnesota section of the Mathematics Association of America.

The election of officers was held during the annual meeting of the group last weekend in Northfield, Minnesota, where the group convened at St. Olaf College.

Hill will serve in his post for one year.

Scholarship Dinner Held

A dinner for all past and present Sears Roebuck Agricultural Foundation scholarship winners who are enrolled in the spring term at NDAC was held last night at the Gardner Hotel.

Annual Junior-Senior Prom Tonight; 'Sleep Of Prisoner's' Staged At LCT

The big spot on the social calendar this week end is the Junior-Senior prom which will be held Friday evening at the Fieldhouse. Ken Griffin and his orchestra will furnish the music. Everyone is invited to attend, so come and bid the seniors farewell. Dancing will be from 9 til 1. Tickets are available from any student senate member.

Two outstanding movies are coming to Fargo theatres soon. "Moulin Rouge" will start at the Grand theatre tonight for a week's run, and "Come Back, Little Sheba" will soon be showing at the Fargo theatre.

"Moulin Rouge" is the story of the 19th century painter Toulouse-Lautrec. The setting is in the cabarets and streets of Paris in the 1890's. Lautrec was a cripple, and this deformity had a great effect on his life. He was a bitter man, and turned to drink and other vices for escape.

Picnics Head List Of Social Swirls

by Grace Lehman

Never let it be said that an AC'er would neglect a picnic to go to the library to work on a term paper. You can go to a picnic only in the spring, but term papers you can do any time.

This week the picnics were many. The KDs entertained the Kappa Psi's at a picnic Wednesday night while the same time the Theta Chis were entertaining the Thetas. The AGRs and the Phi Mus were picnicking on Thursday night. The Alpha Gams and Kappa Sigs had a picnic Tuesday night.

CHANGES WERE MADE

. . . on Monday night. The Alpha Gams and AGRs exchanged ten guests for supper and next Monday the Gamma Phis and the AGRs will exchange guests.

MOTHER'S CLUBS

. . . entertained active chapters on Monday night at the KDs. They presented the seniors with souvenir spoons.

. . . were entertained at a banquet at the SPD house on Tuesday evening. All the parents were invited.

PINNED

. . . are Marianne Frounfelter of Nashua, Minn. to Roger Mohagen, SPD.

SPDs INSTALLED

. . . a new chapter at the University of Manitoba last week and many of the members from here went up for the ceremonies.

DON'T FORGET

. . . to go to the Prom tonight. THOSE WHO OUGHT TO BE PINNED

. . . for this week, are Little Fanny Goonie, KAT, and Steve Canyon, Sig.

The movie is the story of this bitterness. Jose Ferrer stars as Lautrec, and he had to endure many hours of hardship for the filming because to play the crippled painter he had to act on his knees. The color and pattern of gay Paris is contrasted to the cynicism of Lautrec. Zsa Zsa Gabor also stars in the movie.

"Come Back, Little Sheba" is the movie version of William Inge's stage play of the same name. It won multi awards this year as an outstanding movie. It stars Shirley Booth, Burt Lancaster, and Terry Moore. Lancaster forsakes his swashbuckling roles for the role of a doctor who is a reformed drunk. Miss Booth portrays his slovenly wife, Lola. Terry Moore is their student roomer. Lola lives in the past, and her dog, Little Sheba, is the symbol of the past. The doctor lives in quiet depression, not knowing exactly why he is living. When their roomer begins to turn into another Lola, the story reaches a climax. The doctor turns to drink, and Lola realizes that the past is gone, and does not exist. The movie is stark and carries a good impact.

Next week the Little Country Theater production of Christopher Fry's "A Sleep of Prisoners" will be staged on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 8:15 p. m. For an evening of unusual entertainment, be sure to see this play. Tickets are available at the theatre office, or from several students on campus.

May 26 is the date for this year's Spring Sing, according to Carl Eloffson, director. The Sing will operate as in previous years, with each organization working up their own numbers. The theme for this year's production is "The Halls of Ivy". Trophies will be awarded to first place winners in the men's and women's divisions.

All are either juniors or seniors majoring in education. Requirement are that a junior complete nine hours of education and a Senior twelve hours. All are in the upper quartile of their classes.

Officers for the coming year were installed at the banquet. They are David Bartholomew, president; Curtis Jensen, Vice president; Kathryn Freeman, secretary; Janet Olson, treasurer; and Wayne Ditmer, reporter.

The Twenty-second Anniversary Banquet of Kappa Delta Pi was held at the Gardner Hotel on Tuesday, May 12. Guest speaker was Dr. Catherine Cater of Moorhead State Teachers College.

Ag Students Judge

The annual all-college livestock judging contest will be held at NDAC tomorrow, Saturday, May 16. All students enrolled in the school of agriculture are invited to participate; those interested are asked to assemble at 8:30 Saturday morning in the livestock pavilion for instructions.

Nine classes of livestock will be judged, including three each of beef, sheep, and hogs. Reasons will be given on six classes. Official judges for the various classes will be several prominent livestock men from the surrounding region, including Harold Hofstrand and James McGregor for beef, Jim Noble and Veril Harden for sheep; and Harry Earl and Paul Cripe for hogs.

Contest winners will be announced and awards presented at a Dutch luncheon at 5:30 p. m. Saturday in the livestock pavilion at which time the official reasons for each class will also be given.

Awards to be presented include trophies to the high individual in the entire contest, the high individual among the freshman and sophomore contestants, and the high individual in reasons.

Chemistry School To Entertain Group

The NDAC school of chemical technology is presenting the second of two chemistry demonstrations tonight, May 15, in room 207 of the chemistry building. Dr. Ray Wendland and Mr. Harold Klosterman, of the chemistry department, will present an hour long demonstration of chemical reactions.

High school students from 55 schools, within a radius of about a hundred miles, have been invited to attend the demonstration. Following the demonstration, there will be refreshments and a conducted tour of the chemistry building. Various experiments, such as the distillation of North Dakota crude oil, will take place in several of the laboratories.

'Y' Square Dance Club Schedules Picnic-Dance

The NDAC YM-YW groups will hold an all-association picnic sponsored by the NDAC-Y Square Dance club at Island Park, Tuesday, May 19, according to YM secretary William Reuther.

The picnic will begin at 4 p. m. and transportation will leave the college every half hour from then until 6 p. m. Supper is set for 6:15 and square dancing will begin at 7 p. m. on the tennis courts. The entire cost for the supper and dancing is 50 cents and for the dancing alone, 25 cents.

All students and faculty members are invited to the all-campus affair.

Norwegian Performer To Entertain Group

A campus music club, the Staff and Note club, will meet Tuesday, May 19, at Putnam Hall. Guest pianist at the meeting will be Lars M. Gullhaugen of Gjoivick, Norway. In addition to playing several numbers, Gullhaugen will lecture on Norwegian music.

Others on the program include Barbara Crank, Donna Jean Hellen, Allen Drege, Nancy Eagle, and Ronald Berlin. Evelyn DeKrey will lead a girls trio. The program will be followed by a social hour.

Two more programs are scheduled for the remainder of this school year, one on May 27 and another on June 2. Membership in the club is open to anyone who is interested in or likes music.

NDU Sweeps Bison Invitational Meet; NDAC Second As Nine Records Fall

North Dakota University repeated as winners in the annual NDSC Invitational Meet last Saturday. The Sioux, paced by speedy Ron Thompson and Myron Lempe, countered 3 1/2 points, while the host Bison placed second with their 55 1/2. Concordia was third with 40 1/2.

Nine records for the meet, which was initiated last spring, fell as the track was considerably drier than year ago. New records were established in the 100-yard dash, 220-d. dash, 440-yd. dash, 880-yd. run, mile run, low hurdles, high hurdles, high jump, and mile relay.

Dale Wallentine, Thompson and Lempe were all double winners in the event. Thompson took first in the 100 and 220, Wallentine was first in the low hurdles and broad jump, and Lempe picked up first in the 440 and 880.

Following the top three teams were St. Cloud Teachers with 18 1/2, Jamestown and MSTC with 15 each, Bemidji 12, and Mayville 2. Eight teams took part in the meet.

The Bison track men will participate in the annual State College Meet which will be held at Jamestown Colloge tomorrow, May 16.

State Cinder Squad Runs At Jamestown

Coach Erv Kaiser and his surprising Bison track team will journey to Jamestown to meet other state college entries in the State Collegiate Track Meet.

Four lettermen will lead the Bison to the meet, including Delbert Moore, who is one of the leading dashmen in the conference; Tom McLeod, in the 440 and 880; Bob Kubas, in the weights; and Jerry Goetz.

Others making the trip include Dale Wallentine, who has won the low hurdles in every meet so far this year, Donald Moore, Guy Enabnit, Jim Brogger, Bill Shelver, Keith Salter, Gene Gamache, Richard Cortesi, and Ron Schrinkendorf.

Eyes will be on Del Moore to see if he can finally beat Ron Thompson of NDU. Last Saturday in the Bison Invitational Meet, Moore was edged in the 100 by Thompson by inches.

Stateside . . . Nickel Returns To Old State; Heavy Dew Hampers Sports

by Sam Lowe

Some weather. It may be good for ducks and farmers but it sure raises Cain with sports. Wonder if we could sell the state back to the Injuns? Guess they knew a good deal when they saw it.

The rain of last week was the cause for postponement of two baseball games, hampered the Bison Invitational track meet, and put a stop to a lot of friendly get-togethers over a handy 48 pack in some secluded spot.

Although the rains did fall, the track meet was highly successful except for one vital factor: we didn't win. That fact wasn't as bad as the fact that the team which did win was none other than the group of trophynabbers from NDU. Oh well, it's all in the game and now we have all the more reason to wallop their tails next time.

The meet also produced a couple of thrilling finishes, the most notable one was in the 100-yd. dash. Ron Thompson, running without his snowshoes, barely edged State's Del Moore by approximately three inches and .3 of a second.

The meet also indicated the point that most of the power in the track circles around the state lies within the hallowed halls of NDS and NDU. Only one other North Dakota college player was able to pick up a first in the meet. Joe Books from Jamestown threw the discus the furthest and the mostest for a first.

Of courses, there were only four North Dakota teams participating. Tomorrow will tell the tale when the annual State Meet is held at God's Country in Jamestown.

With an "I told you so" look in his eyes, Casey Finnegan reports that the Nickel Trophy is back where it belongs in the Fieldhouse. It will be on the main lobby in the case which was built for it sometime next week.

Having been cleared of all charges about the "unidentified batter" who appeared on the sports page of this tabloid last week, Ambrose meekly admitted to this reporter that the flawless form did belong to himself.

Give a guy a chance, and he usually comes through. Jim Brewster, up until last Friday was just another bench warmer on the Bison baseball team, was finally given a starting role against the Ludefisk Eater nine and not only played a good defensive game in left field, but also came through with three at the plate.

Amazing thing of last week: the Twins won four in a row but Fitz still didn't predict a pennant for them. 'S a funny thng. He crossed up the experts.

Chuck Bentson, head basketball and baseball coach from this institution of learning, was guest speaker at the annual Bismarck Knights of Columbus athletic banquet in Bismarck.

Bentson spoke before the Bismarck Central and St. Mary's basketball teams.

As it has every spring in recent years, the intramural softball season has started again. The Theta Chi's are apparently out to pick up their third IM crown. Despite the fact that they lost their brilliant manager, Aldrich Bradbury who took the big jump and got married, the wearers of the rattlesnake have picked up a pair of wins in the young season.

Guess that's all this typewriter is good for this week.

NDS Nine Topples Cobber Team, 9-6

The NDS Bison finally got on the winning side of the ledger last Friday as they staved off a last inning five run rally by the Concordia Cobbers to take the second game of this series by a 9-6 score.

Young Morrie Holm, a freshman from Halstad, Minnesota, became the first Bison pitcher to win a game as he went all the way and allowed the Cobbers only six hits.

The win was the first in four games and also the first loss for Concordia, who had played four games in three days. Bill Quenette, on the hill for the Cobbers, was charged with the loss.

The Herd tallied three times in the first on three hits and a pair of walks. Jim Brewster, in his first starting role for the NDS nine, got two of the runs across with a single to left.

Jack Junker, Jerry Friedman and Rudy Maras combined to plate three more runs for the Herd in the sixth. Junker, Friedman and Holm singled and Maras pounded a triple.

The winning margin came in the seventh as the Staters used four hits to score another trio of runs. Until the seventh, the lone Cobber run came on Bill Quenette's double and an error.

The Bison displayed their power at the plate for the first time this year as they touched Quenette and his reliever, Bob Johnson, for 14 hits in the game.

Brewster was the hitting star of the day as he picked up three for there at the plate. Berard Masse, Junker and Friedman each contributed two hits.

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste

and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
