LCT Presents "A Sleep Of Prisoners" In Final Performance Tonight At 8:15

by Norma Reinke

Tonight the final performance of Christopher Fry's "A Sleep of Prisoners" will be presented in the Little Country Theatre. The play is directed by Dr. Frederick Walsh.

"A Sleep of Prisoners" is seventy-minutes of uninterrupted dramatic action. There is no intermission and no curtain is used to mark scene divisions.

The setting for the play is a church converted for use as a prisoner of war camp. All action takes place on a stage bare except for four bunks. The actors are not confined to the stage and often come down among the audience.

The play is divided into six distinct parts. The first is an introduction to the characters and the remaining five are dream sequences. The latter concern events of biblical times.

Although the production has the benefit of excellent portrayals by the four members of the cast—Marlowe Jensen, Wesley Rae, Dunn Barr Sands, and Scott Pederson—it is too burdened with philosophy for the average person to find it enjoyable. However, if you are willing to think you will find it well worth while to see "A Sleep of Prisoners".

Included in their stops will be the Bell Telephone Exchange, the grain terminals and docks, and the American Steel and Wire Company at Duluth, plus the Knudson Ship Building Company at Superior.

The tour will be concluded Saturday evening and the group will return to Fargo Sunday.

Nelson's nearest competitor for awards was Dale Longtin, a freshman. Longtin won first in reasons and was second in the contest.

High individuals in each of the three divisions judged were also named. James Michaelson was high in sheep, Bill Brandvick in hogs, and Hillman Nelson and Edgar Lovitt were tied for high in cattle.

Ranking behind Nelson and Longtin in the contest were Richard Tewksbury, Alfred Hanson and James Michaelson.

NDS Diamond Crew Wins Three, Drops One In Week's Gorman League Games

NDSC's Bison picked up three wins and one loss on the diamond during the past week. The Herd toppled Jamestown College twice on Thursday and split a double-header with Mayville on Friday.

Big Bob Lauf set the Jimmies down with a measly three hits as the Bison sent the Jims down to their second loss of the season. Bentson's men scored their winning runs in the first three frames off Dennis Lindberg, Jamestown starter. The visitors scored in the third and fifth innings but didn't have enough to pull the final 5-2 score away.

Kermit Quanbeck's brilliant relief job saved the second game for the Bison. After jumping off to a 5-1 lead in the first four innings, the State nine watched the visitors score three runs in the top of the seventh. Started Joel Hunziker gets credit for the 5-4 win. Cliff Rau started the game for the Jims and took the loss.

After winning the opener at Mayville, 7-5, the Herd was handed a 4-1 loss in the nightcap. John Sowa pitched five-hit ball in the first game to pick up his first win of the season. The big fullback was helped by some good fielding and hitting support by his teammates.

Mayville swept back to take the second game by a 4-1 count. Morris Holm went all the way for the Herd on the mound and allowed six hits. The Bison's only run came in the top of the first on Kenny Reitan's home run.

Trackmen Travel To NCC Meet

The Bison from North Dakota State left yesterday for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, for the annual North Central Conference track meet. The seven team event will start today at 1:00 p. m.

The men making the trip are Delbert Moore, Gerry Goetz, Jim Brogger, Dick Cortesi, Bill Shelver, Tom McLeod, and Ron Schwinkendorf.

Defending champions South Dakota State are once more favored to repeat although the Panthers from Iowa State Teachers and the South Dakota University Coyotes are rated fairly high in the conference circles.

Kaiser was well pleased with the showing of his men in the meet last week despite the fact that they were edged out of first place by the UND squad. The winning margin for the Sioux came in the mile relay when the University men needed at least a third in order to come out on top. They copped a second in the event and racked up 2½ points more than the Bison, 67½ to 65.

Men scoring for the Herd were as follows: Walentine, 12 (1st in low hurdles, 2nd in broad jump, 4th in high hurdles); Del Moore, 8 (2nd in 100 yd. dash and 220 yd dash); Goetz, 4 (2nd in 440; McLeod, 1 (5th in 440); Enabnit, 8 (1st in high hurdles, 4th in low hurdles); Don Moore, 1 (5th in high hurdles).

Gamache, 3 (3rd in high jump); Cortesi, 7 (2nd in 880, 3rd in mile); Kubas, 10 (1st in shot put, 2nd in discus); Brogger, 4 (2nd in 2 mile); Schwinkendorf, 1 (5th in shot put).

Three new records were set and another tied. Al Williamson from NDU went 6' 5" in the high jump to eclipse the former mark of 6' 3¼". Ron Thompson and Myron Lempe set new records in the 220 and 440, respectively. Thompson raced over the 220 in 21.2 to erase the old 21.7 record. Lempe chopped off .8 of a second in the 440 to set the new mark at 50.5.

Guy Enabnit equalled the 120-high hurdles record of 15.7.

South Dakota State Favorites In NCC Meet; Bunker Coaches Second Place All-Army Team

THE SPECTRUM
NORTH DAKOTA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE
FARGO, NORTH DAKOTA

Gets to be about that time of the year again when college athletics starts to diminish and all eyes and ears are turned to the baseball world of the major leagues. Of course, the track season is not completely over. The big meet of the school year is being held this afternoon at Sioux Falls, S. Dak, home of the Morningside Maroons.

All seven of the colleges in the NCC will be represented at this event. Teams to watch will be the ISTC Panthers. They are the ones who are expected to give the defending champs from South Dakota State a run for the money.

The Bison, despite their excellent showing in the meets in which they have participated in thus far, cannot be rated too strong in the conference meet. Hurting especially in the field events, no pole vaulter or javelin thrower, Kaiser's men of the cinder track will once more be lacking in depth.

Only twelve men comprise the Bison squad while the other teams usually carry some fifteen or twenty men. NDU had 22 men entered in the meet at Jamestown.

Guys to watch in the conference meet will be South Dakota University's Jim Tays when he comes up against Al Williamson from up north in the high jump. Then there always comes the name of the fabulous Pete Retzlaff of SDS. Every time the big guy throws the shot or discus, he breaks one of his old records.

Don't count on the Bison to come roaring through with a first place in the conference but on the other hand, don't count them out. They got a good bunch of good fellers.

The one at Jamestown last Sat was a toughie to lose to the Sioux. Big factors in the loss were the emphasis placed on first place which was awarded 6 points, and Dale Wallentine's loss of a first in the broad jump. Dale had just finished winning the 120 low hurdles when he was called to take his turns in the jumping pit.

Another Retzlaff does all right for himself when it comes to throwing the discus. Pete's younger brother, Fred, copped first place in the overweight pie tin throwing contest in the state meet.

The Bison mile relay team, composed of Del Moore, Gerry Goetz, Tom McLeod, and Bill Shelver, missed tying the record for that event by .1 of a second.

Unless the washed out double-header with Wahpeton is rescheduled, the Bison baseball team wound up their season yesterday with a pair of games against Valley City. Carrying a 4-4 record going into these two, the Herd chances of winning the League are nil. Of course there are angles but they are so flimsy that they won't be mentioned at this time.

Will publish all the vital statistics for the members of the team next week if the Wahpeton game isn't rescheduled for the later days of the week.

Jack Harty, third Jimmie pitcher used against the Herd last week, is a former student of Old State.

Art Bunker, the big man in NDU's champion team of last year, is doing all right for himself down at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Coaching the Army team from the Fort, Bunker's know-how helped his team to the finals of the All-Army tournament. They got beat in the final round to take second in the tourney.
