Pharmacy Dean, Scholarship Students Honored At 20th Annual Honors Day

SC's twentieth yearly Honors Day convocation, sponsored by Senior Staff and Blue Key, was held yesterday morning at Festival hall. At the special ceremonies all students who have received honors or awards during the past year received public recognition. Magnus Geston, president of Blue Key, served as master of ceremonies for the program; president Fred S. Hultz presented Honors Day awards; and Dorothy Lund presented Senior Staff members. The Gold Star band furnished musical accompaniment for the program.

Dean William Sudro, retiring dean of the school of pharmacy was awarded the annual Doctor of Service award presented each year to some person who has contributed outstanding service to North Dakota State College.

A member of the college staff since 1907, Dean Sudro has been head of the school of pharmacy since 1926 and was head of the pharmacy department from 1919 until that date.

Phi Kappa Phi members for the past year were introduced at the convocation.

They include Doris Anderson, Faye Awes, Richard Berg, David Bartholomew, Dwight Baumann, Lester Bolmgren, Martin Borchelt, Gayle Bromander, Gordon Child, Gerald Duerre, Patricia Ebeltoft, Don Erickson, Jerry Friedman, Jane Haas, Gary Hart, Jane Heifort, James Hoffman, Loren Holmstrom, Harold Jenkinson, Percy Jolstad, JoAnn Just, Sharon Kaspari, Wayne Kessler,

Retiring members of Senior Staff, 1954-55 Blue Key members, and students named to Who's Who In American Universities and Colleges were also lauded at the convocation.

SC's four Fulbright scholars, Barbara Widdifield, Richard Strand, Don Zimmerman, and Ronald Krenz, were awarded special praise at the ceremonies. This is the first time in history that state college has earned four Fulbrights in the same year.

Large Grants Numerous
Other outstanding scholarships awarded yesterday include fifteen hundred dollars to Wayne Kessler, pharmacy senior, for graduate study in pharmaceutical chemistry at NDSC. This award was made by the honor society of Phi Kappa Phi.

Freeman Young and Daniel Dustin, both chemistry graduate students, received twenty-five hundred dollars grants from the Research Corporation of America for basic research in organic chemistry.

Leslie Ferris was the recipient of fifteen hundred dollars from the Research Corporation of America to support basic research in physical chemistry, and Earl Hutchins was awarded a grant of not more than one thousand dollars by the Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator company to subsidize a fellowship in chemistry.

Agriculture Awards
Awards given in the school of agriculture include the Dacotah chapter of Alpha Zeta award given to John Berg, and Dacotah chapter of Alpha Zeta certificates presented to Neal Bjornson, James Gruebele, Howard Lahlum, Carleton Lohse, Richard Lukes, Lyle Miller, Jerome Onsager, James

Senior Day Slated For May 20; Special Program Planned

The second annual North Dakota State College high school Seniors Day has been scheduled for Friday, May 20, from 9 to 9. Sponsored by Blue Key honor fraternity, the event will take place entirely on the campus of the college.

As of Spectrum press time hundreds of students and several scores of high schools in North Dakota, western Minnesota, and northeastern South Dakota have expressed their desires to attend the event. If these figures bear out the attendance at this year's Senior Day will be the greatest ever.

Being held to interest high school seniors in college generally and in North Dakota State in particular, it is hoped that the activities of the day will aid in helping high school seniors to decide whether or not he desires to attend college, and what course he would prefer to take after entering college.

All six schools on the campus are cooperating in the Senior Day in presenting interesting and educational displays and demonstrations. The school of engineering has planned its yearly open house for the Senior Day to give prospective engineers a glimpse at what make the technical world go around. At noon next Friday the Saddle and Sirloin Club has planned a special banquet in the livestock pavilion for all high school seniors attending Senior Day.

As an added attraction and to give high school seniors an idea of the varied extracurricular activities going on at SC, the winning production act and five minute act of the 1955 Bison Brevities will be presented to the seniors at Festival hall. The Spectrum and Campus radio offices will also be open for the inspection of all interested visitors.

Next Friday evening all displays and demonstrations on campus will be open to the general public.

General chairman for Senior Day is Don Ellingsberg, with Ray Horne as publicity director, and Don Zimmerman as corresponding secretary. Chairmen for each of the schools include Dorothy Lund, arts and science; Gary Gibbons, agriculture; Mike Fogel, chemistry; Larry North, engineering; Pat Ebeltoft, home economics; and Bob Gion, pharmacy. Arlo Howe is in general charge of the barbecue.

Gold Star Band Elects Sarff As New Prexy

SC's Gold Star band held their annual elections recently with Dale Sarff elected as new president of the group. Jack Larson was chosen vice-president and Les Amundson is the new secretary-treasurer.

Plans were also discussed for the upcoming band picnic. This picnic, which climaxes the band year, usually sports the very best in fried chicken and delicacies. It has been tentatively set for Wednesday evening at 5:30, with Lindenwood Park, the site of the event.

Midwest Regional Convention Of Civil Engineers Holding Forth At Union Today

The Midwestern conference of the American Society of Civil Engineers opened their annual conference meeting here last Wednesday. North Dakota State, acting as host for the event, will entertain the representatives from 18 colleges and universities throughout the midwest.

Expected to attend the event are representatives from Illinois Institute of Technology; Iowa State College; Marquette University, Michigan College of Mining and Technology; Northwestern University; North Dakota State College; Purdue University; Rose Polytechnic Institute; South Dakota State College; South Dakota State School of Mines;

University of Illinois; University of Illinois, Navy Pier Branch; University of Iowa; University of Minnesota; University of North Dakota; University of Notre Dame; and the University of Wisconsin. Also sending representatives, but not a member of the Midwestern Conference, will be Tri-State College, of Indiana.

On Thursday, activities of the convention begin with the delegates leaving NDSC campus for a trip to Garrison Dam.

On Friday morning, the Portland Cement Association will feature an illustrated lecture and demonstration on Pre-stressed Concrete and Soil Cement. These lectures, which start at 10, will be held in the Home Economics Building.

On Friday afternoon, at 1:00 the Associated Equipment Dealers of Fargo will demonstrate heavy construction equipment in action. This demonstration, which will take place near Hector Airport, is open to the public.

On Friday evening at 7, the delegates will be guests at a banquet held at the Elks Club. Feature speaker for the evening will be Lloyd Knapp, city engineer, city of Milwaukee and director of District 7, Student Chapters of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Following the banquet, a dance is scheduled for the Union Ballroom, between the hours of 9:30 and 12:00. Paul Hanson's Orchestra will provide the music. All civil engineering students are urged to attend. No admission will be charged.

At 7:30 Saturday morning the Associated Equipment Dealers will sponsor a President's breakfast and a Faculty advisor's breakfast. These breakfasts, which will be held in the Union Ballroom and Banquet room, will be followed by a business meeting at 9 in the ballroom.

At 12:30, the Associated General Contractors of North Dakota will sponsor a closing banquet at the Moorhead Country Club. Speakers for the event will include Dean Mirgain, of the engineering school at North Dakota State, Professor Emory Johnson, chairman of the Civil Engineering department at South Dakota State, and Mr. Oakey, chairman of the Civil Engineering department at North Dakota State.

Displays on various subjects that are of interest, to the general public as well as engineers, are presently set up in the Union Ballroom. These displays, which were set up Wednesday, will remain in the ballroom until Saturday afternoon.

A student paper contest for delegates is part of the activities that will climax the event. The Layne and Bowler Company will present a $50 war bond to the winner, while Armco Drainage and Metal Products Company will present a copy of Seely's Handbook to the writer of the second place paper.

President of the conference is Raymond Ehly, North Dakota State, with Bob Beavers, Purdue, vice-president. Second vice-president is Don Drablos, U of North Dakota. Roy Gjertson is secretary and Ken Skuiza, treasurer.

Faculty advisor for the conference is Robert Butler.

Vonderheide Named Technical Director Of Campus Radio

Jerry Vonderheide

Jerome Vonderheide, a junior in electrical engineering, is the newly appointed technical director of KDSC campus radio. For the past year he has served as chief engineer of the station.

A member of the technical staff of the station since his freshman year, Vonderheide take over a new position which was created just this year.

He is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, the SC amateur radio society, and is enrolled in advanced Army ROTC. Recently he was selected as the outstanding junior in the local army training program and was awarded the PMST certificate.

Notices

The SC bookstore announces that all cap and gown reservations for both graduating seniors and faculty members must be made immediately. If you plan to wear a cap and gown for the ceremonies make arrangements now.

Senior graduation announcements are now available. Each senior is entitled to five announcements free and more may be obtained for ten cents each.

Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority will hold their first meeting in their new house Monday evening. Senior members of the sorority will be initiated as alumni members and the alumni will serve as hostesses for the housewarming.

IRC Schedules All-Group Picnic Soon; LSA Group Slates Bowling Party Tonite

By Ed Aluzas

IRC: Remember the picnic on Sunday, May 22, at Lindenwood Park. The groups will meet separately and then join forces at the college "Y" at 2:00 p.m.

Council members are reminded that there will be a meeting at the "Y" at 9:00 p.m. on May 16.

LSA: The members who took part in the retreat last week came back happy and inspired. The entire program was discussed and revisions were made where improvements were possible.

The Minnesota weather cooperated splendidly to keep everyone indoors until the business sessions were completed. Ol' Man Weather let up just a little to allow some sunshine to seep through on Sunday thereby permitting an outdoor Bible Study in the morning and boating and volley-ball later in the day.

Tonight will find the LSA'ers throwing spheres at the lumber in the Student Union bowling lanes. Teams of guys and gals will compete. The whole aggregation will meet at the house at 8:30. The aftermath will consist of a lunch and vesper service.

Sunday evening, Rev. Strandness from Jamestown College will speak on the topic "What Can Christians Do About Race Prejudice?"

In the evening program, some graduating seniors will give their views on college life and their hopes for the future. Sunday morning breakfast and Bible Study will be at the usual time.

NEWMAN CLUB: The Club will meet on Sunday, May 15, at 7:00 p.m. in the Newman House. Items to be discussed will include next year's program and the IRC picnic.

During the course of the evening a radio and several other items will be auctioned off. Don't miss it!

The usual coffee time will terminate the evening's program.

THREE DEE: A "Hard Times" Party will be held at the Center tonight at 8 p.m. Wear old clothes for admittance. Games will feature the evening's entertainment.

WESLEY FOUNDATION: It's "bon voyage and hope you're having a swell time" to the guys and gals who are braving the waters of the Northwest on a canoe trip.

Morning devotions are being held at the usual time.

All the Methodist students are reminded that the group will have its annual retreat on the Memorial Day week-end. Program planning will be emphasized. Memorial Day will be set aside for recreation for those who wish to stay; Ed Aluzas will be in charge of the recreating and assures that the day will be chaotic!

Sunday evening's program will be highlighted by a discussion on Christianity as we draw to a close in our study of "Great Religions of the World".

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP: Mr. Robert Crom of Agricultural Communications will speak on "Christianity With Our Careers." The meeting will be at the church as usual with supper at 6:30 p.m. and the program at 7.

YMCA-YWCA: There will be a retreat for the cabinet on May 21 and 22 at the Lakes. All members of the committees in the cabinet are urged to call 8772 for further information, if it is desired. Reservations for the retreat should be made in advance.

Publication Chiefs Re-elected by Board

Lee Johnson and Mel Ostby were named editors of the Spectrum and Bison annual, respectively, at the last meeting of the board of publications. Peter Mark and Jon Dewey were elected business managers of the two publications.

Revision of the constitution for the board of publications were discussed and following revisions proposed:

1. Of the four student members of the board, three must be student senators.
2. The editor and business manager of each publication for the ensuing year shall be selected by the board at its last regular meeting of the winter quarter.
3. Elections shall be from names of individuals presented to the Board previous to the second to the last regular meeting of the winter quarter.
4. Vacancies in the membership of the students at large of the Board shall be filled by appointment by the student senate president.
5. The Board shall hold regular meetings twice a month each month of the regular school year.
6. At the first regular meeting of the spring quarter the Commissioner shall appoint a

LCT To Present Plays Next Week

By Hal Miller

Five one act plays, all under student direction, will be presented by the Little Country Theater next Monday through Friday evenings. Slated for the Circle-T theater, the plays will ring down the curtain on Little Country Theater drama for the school year.

Admission for the plays is fifty cents per person and tickets may be obtained at the Little Country Theater ticket office in old Main.

The plays, featuring all student casts, are being directed by students in the play production class under the overall supervision of Dr. Fred Walsh. Student directors are Keith Amundson, Chuck Abrahamson, Bryan Gackle, Hal Miller, and Scott Pederson.

Sets for the play are being designed by Floyd Heckert with costuming under the direction of Jack Sigman.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent" is the first of the five one act plays. It is a usual Christopher Fry drama with tremendous word imagery. Virginia Steffes, Monica Savageau, and Norm Pilgrim make up the cast.

A story of the Spanish revolution of 1936-39 is "The Secret". Main characters in this portrayal are Bill Hayes and Orlo Hjelseth.

The tale of a Southern family is told in "The Fourth Generation" starring Mauris Mertens.

"Riders To The Sea" by John Synge is the gripping story of an old Irish woman who lost her five sons and husband to the sea. Main characters are Jayne Lee, Janice Bakken, and Priscilla Hosted.

One of Tennessee Williams' lesser-known efforts is "Hello From Bertha", the adventure of life in a house of prostitution. Peggy Buchanan, Helen Larson, and Janice Bakken star in this revealing expose.

Each and everyone of the plays offers fun for the most varied taste in theatrical entertainment. Remember, this is the last chance to see the LCT in action this year.

Pic A: Keith Amundson seeks to escape the worries connected with directing a play as two of his cast members, Norm Pilgrim and Ginnie Steffes look on.

Pic B: Bill Hayes and Bob Askin prepare to eject an unwelcome person as Ed Aluzas looks on with mild disgust.

Pic C: Priscilla Hosted, Jayne Lee, and Janice Bakken mourn a family loss as they gaze sorrowfully at a sheet-wrapped corpse. Under cover is Chuck Abrahamson with just feet showing.

Greek Week Picnic Set Tonight At Park

Greek Week activities jumped off with a bang last Wednesday evening with an all-exchange dinner featured at all the sorority and fraternity houses on campus.

Yesterday afternoon the lawn-raking and car washing details went into action, and in addition, SC students took over part of the work connected with the safety check island near the campus.

Carwashing and lawn-raking will continue this afternoon with all Greek Week activities to be climaxed at the all-Greek picnic set for Lindenwood park this evening at 6:30. Buttons are still on sale from interfraternity council members for 75 cents apiece.

Pharmacy Men Attend

Dr. Ralph Banziger, professor of pharmacology attended the annual meeting of the American Pharmaceutical Association at Miami Beach, Florida, the week of May 1.

Dr. Clifton Miller, chairman, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry attended the annual meeting of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy at Miami Beach, Florida the same week.

Dr. Miller presented two papers to the Scientific Section of the American Pharmaceutical Association dealing with cancer research which the school of pharmacy is conducting with funds granted to the school by the North Dakota Cancer Society.

Hearings Slated To Begin Next Tuesday

E. T. Conmy, newly appointed attorney for Dr. Hultz, has indicated he will be prepared to resume the hearings for the four suspended NDSC professors on Tuesday, May 17.

NOTICE

Merlin Ludwig, student senate president, has announced postponement of the student senate meeting to 6:30 p.m. Thursday evening.

Dean Frank Mirgain, chairman of the college advisory committee, has rescheduled the hearings for next Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the lower reading room of the library.

YOU GET MORE deep-down smoking enjoyment from Luckies than any other brand. The reason, plain and simple, is that Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. You'll enjoy the Doodle above, too; it's titled: Three on a match—Luckies, of course. Whenever smokers put their heads together, they agree you can't match a Lucky for flavor. Come light-up time, enjoy a better-tasting Lucky yourself!

NSA Convention Reveals SC Program Lacks Personnel

Last weekend North Dakota State played host to its first National Student Association regional convention, and the sessions revealed to all interested staters that our college still has a long way to go before we begin to reap the full benefits of the widespread programs which NSA has to offer.

Our present thin-strung NSA staff is completely inadequate to handle the multitudinous tasks which a smoothly functioning campus outlet of the national organization needs. More help is needed from the student body on all fronts if our college's comparatively new membership in NSA is to reach the prominence which it deserves.

The National Student Association offers a chance for the average college student to obtain a more complete and better rounded education through its programs of exchange speakers, tours, meetings, and literature. Our college, because of severe lack of personnel has so far been able to only scratch the surface in available benefits to the school.

Your student government and the Spectrum is behind NSA at SC all the way, but that is only half of the battle. To make things go we need the help of each and every student.

If you've got five minutes of spare time a week, pitch in and help get NSA rolling. If you're interested contact Judy Sherwood, Duane Swenson, or Monica Savageau for further information. But, let's get on the NSA bandwagon.

Kessler Receives Sparks Scholarship

Wayne Kessler

The NDSC Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi announced the awarding of the $1500 Sparks Memorial Phi Kappa Phi Graduate Fellowship Endowment to Wayne Kessler, senior in Pharmacy.

Each Phi Kappa Phi Chapter recommends one candidate for the award and the National Committee reviews the applications for graduate study and awards five fellowships to the most outstanding candidates throughout the nation.

This is the first time NDSC has been recognized by the awarding of the fellowship to a student planning to do his graduate work here. The School of Pharmacy has also won acclaim as Wayne plans to do his graduate study in Pharmaceutical Chemistry under the supervision of Dr. C. E. Miller.

His thesis will be on the synthesis of complex nitrogenous compounds labeled with radio active sulfur for the possible use against cancer.

Wayne is a member of Rho Chi, national Pharmaceutical Honor society, and Phi Kappa Phi. He was graduated from Coleraine, Minn. as salutatorian of his class. He is now married and living in Fargo.

Farm Bureau Dinner Wednesday; Quarter-Century Club To Hold Banquet

Son and daughters of Farm Bureau families are invited to the organization's annual hospitality night, May 18 (Wednesday), a Farm Bureau state official says.

The event will be held in the Red River room of the Fargo Elk's club, beginning at 5:30 p.m. A buffet supper, entertainment and other features have been arranged, according to Harold Grommesh, organization director.

Grommesh said his group is trying to reach all NDSC students from Bureau families with personal invitations but that no such direct invitation is required. Paul Gorder is chairman of the campus FB club.

May 18 is also the date selected for the annual meeting of the NDSC Quarter-Century Club, a Farm Bureau-sponsored group.

Dr. George W. Starcher, UND president, will be the principal speaker for the meeting, to be held in Town Hall of the Gardner hotel. The club is made up of all SC faculty and staff personnel with 25 or more years of service.

Miss Ruth Dawson, Extension nutritionist and Earl J. Myers, buildings and grounds department, will be received into membership in the club and will be awarded with a plaque from the Farm Bureau.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

BY WEAKEYES

Last Saturday was undoubtedly the worst day of the year for a tornado to strike the area. The Bison Invitational was almost a complete farce as the weatherman failed to cooperate and the winds howled about the stadium.

However, despite the strong opposition the meet was held and all events were run off. The individual performances were handicapped severely, but most of the athletes, officials, and brave spectators came through with shining colors.

Only record set was in the 440 yard run. Connie Jones, NDU's fabulous dashman bucked the wind halfway and clocked a neat :49.7. Without these gusts, the boy might have well run the distance around :47 flat. Keep your eye on Jones, he has a brilliant future ahead.

By far the most outstanding competitor of the day was one Mike Kinsella of Shanley High School. The kid is really terrific. Here's definitely a good college prospect.

Kinsella won the 220, 440, javelin and tied for first in the high jump. He ran the quarter in 53.2 for a new record. The old mark was 57 seconds. (And against the wind.)

Dale Wallentine and Guy Enabnit of NDS looked good in the hurdle races. Darrel Henry captured first place ties in both the high jump and pole vault. Gary Thomasson took second in the javelin, but had the wind not caught several of his efforts, he may have brought home first.

In another week, the North Central Conference meet will be held at Dacotah Field. Plan to take in this little shooter and watch some good performances. Perhaps the weatherman will be a bit more kind on the 21st.

Tonight's the interfrat picnic. . . need more be said?

Joke of the week: The official at the track meet who ran out to catch the first place winner in the 100 yard dash and got knocked flat on his seat. . .

Marty Kalnins only took fifth in the shot put because he was all pooped out after posing for the picture on page 6. Hurling the Bug may well become a new event in future track meets. More bounce to the ounce!

Weakeyes award of the week: goes to everyone who talked to me last Saturday night.

Bothered by people barging in to your room throughout the evening, thus preventing you from studying? Nasty has found a sure cure to discourage these people. His strategy; wear tennis shoes and don't change sox.

Interfraternity picnic will be held tonight at Lindenwood park.

Fishing season opens in Minnesota at 12:01 a.m. tomorrow morning. I suppose all the eager beavers will be down at Ockies warming up before the magic hour tonight. Limit is eight cans. . . I mean eight Walleyes a day.

Greek Week will be climaxed by an interfraternity picnic this evening. . .

Heard a few lousy comments about Manny Marget lately. Sure, the guy will never broadcast the World Series or relay the Rose Bowl verbally, but there's not a stauncher supporter of Fargo-Moorhead athletic teams than Manny. I think it would be wonderful if the citizens of the nearby area would get together and give him a special night at Barnett Field. Kind of show their appreciation for his tireless efforts.

Well, I'm heading for the picnic. . .

I-M Tennis, Golf Under Full Steam

Intramural golf and tennis opened with a bang last week as the four teams in competition slammed against one another.

In intramural tennis Alpha Tau Omega clashed with the Kappa Sigma Chi contingent, and Theta Chi faced off against the Sigma Alpha Epsilon group. Alpha Tau Omega captured the singles from the KSC team and Kappa Sigma Chi won the singles. Theta Chi swept both games from Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Intramural standings are:

Theta Chi	3	0	1.000
ATO	2	1	.667
KSC	1	2	.333
SAE	0	3	.000

Records in intramural golf competition are as follows:

ATO	2	0	1.000
Theta Chi	1	1	.500
KSC	1	1	.500
SAE	0	2	.000

Intramural softball started slowly this season with games being postponed during the past week because of high winds. Fourteen teams have entered and two brackets will compete for honors.

Teams in bracket one are American Society of Civil Engineers, Alpha Gamma Rho 1, Alpha Tau Omega, YMCA, Vets Club, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Chi. Bracket two entries are Kappa Psi, Sigma Phi Delta, Alpha Gamma Rho 2, Theta Chi, Kappa Sigma Chi, FarmHouse, and Co-op House.

NDU, Grand Forks Tops In Bison Relays

North Dakota University and Grand Forks Central High School were winners in the college and high school divisions of the Bison Invitational Track and Field Meet held at Dacotah Field last Saturday.

Sparked by their outstanding dashman, Conrad Jones, the University piled up a total of 62 points. Aberdeen Teachers College finished second with 49 and North Dakota State third with 43½ points. Other schools in the order of their finish were Jamestown College 37, Bemidji TC 11, Wahpeton Science 8, MSTC 7½, Mayville TC 3, and Valley City TC which failed to score.

Three records fell, despite winds of 55 miles per hour; one in the college division and two in the high school section.

Friend or Foe . . .

SC's spring football drills drew to a close last evening, before about one thousand fans under the lights at Dacotah Field, as fifty gridiron hopefuls of next year and the seasoned veterans of 1954 met together in a full-dress rehearsal for next fall's football campaigns.

All player who took part in spring football practice, including some who will not be eligible to play football next year, saw service in the contest.

Following the game last evening a poll was taken among players to determine the most valuable and the most improved performers during the spring drills. The results of the poll were not available before Spectrum press

A special feature of the game last night was a halftime ceremony honoring Ernie Wheeler, former SC football great who was once invited to perform in the Blue-Gray game and who starred as a halfback for the Fargo High Midgets and the thundering Herd.

Jesse Vail, varsity line coach, and frosh coach Dave O'Brien coached the two squads which took part in the game. Varsity head coach Del Anderson watched the contest from the sidelines.

Fullback Pat Vickers of O'Brien's squad and guard Emil Zueger of Vail's contingent served as captains for their respective teams during the game.

Ag Notes . . .

Ag Engineers Travel
 Ten NDSC agricultural engineers left yesterday morning on the annual ag engineering field trip. This year's group is touring the iron range country of Minnesota around Hibbing and Duluth. Visits are also planned to several sawmills, oil refineries, shipyards, and other industrial concerns. The group will return to Fargo tomorrow evening. The tour is sponsored in part by the local branch of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

Entomology Dept. News
 The entomology department is starting work this week on test plots for the study of the sugar beet root maggot. These studies will be conducted in the Grafton area under the supervision of Dr. J. Collenback and in cooperation with the American Crystal Sugar Company.

Alpha Zeta Initiates Nine
 Alpha Zeta, national honorary fraternity for agriculture, initiated nine new members at their regular Tuesday evening meeting. New initiates include John Landman, Don Schwartz, Don Priebe, Don Phillips, James Phillips, Lyle Dawson, Arthur Kaatz, Arthur Lees, and Howard Guenther.

The organization of Alpha Zeta is maintained to recognize and promote scholarship, character, fellowship, and leadership among agricultural students.

Scabbard-Blade Offers Three Grants

Three national scholarship awards to recognize the most outstanding cadet officers in the Reserve Officers Training Program in colleges and universities of the United States have been announced by the National Society of Scabbard and Blade, honorary ROTC military fraternity.

According to Captain Norman B. Hansen Jr. of M Company, 3rd Regiment, at North Dakota State College, selection for the awards was based on achievement in air or army science, general academic record, and demonstrated qualities of leadership in all activities.

Candidates were limited to active members of Scabbard and Blade, who thus might be college juniors or seniors; each company was privileged to submit one candidate, and each candidate was endorsed by his PAS&T, PMS&T, and Dean of Men or comparable academic official.
