"Bison Eleven Send Sioux To Heaven"; Decoration Deadline Set For October 18

"Bison Eleven Send Sioux To Heaven" is the theme of the 1955 SC homecoming. Submitted by Jack Southam, president of the Rahjah club, the theme was picked out of approximately fifty entries submitted.

All floats and house decorations for homecoming are required to fit in with this theme at least partially.

In addition all campus organizations interested in entering either house decorations or floats for judging must submit their entries by October 18 at 5 p.m. Any entries not in by this time will be disqualified.

Organizations wishing to gain more information about the parade may contact parade marshals Merrill Johnson or Don Schwartz and anyone wishing further information on house decorations may contact Joe Ruliffson. All of these students may be contacted at the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity house.

Homecoming tickets will be issued to all fraternities by the student senate this noon. All money and unsold tickets are due on Friday, October 28 at 12 p.m. A trophy will be awarded to the fraternity selling the most tickets.

Publicity wise twenty-five store windows in downtown Fargo will feature SC homecoming displays through the efforts of frosh football coach Cliff Rothrock.

Final arrangements have also been completed for the homecoming dance. Vern Beyers and his orchestra of Omaha will play for the festivities. At the dance the college choir will sing and the homecoming queen will be honored.

Homecoming queen elections have been scheduled for next Wednesday from 8 to 4 in six campus locations. Voting places will be the student union, library, home economics, old and new engineering, Minard and Morrill halls.

Student activity tickets are necessary before any student will be allowed to vote.

A special caravan is planned for before the SC-SDU game tomorrow afternoon. Beginning at 1:15 a parade will begin passing all fraternity and sorority houses and running through the campus just before the game.

All students are requested to sit in one section of the bleachers at the next game. The Rahjah club will reserve the seating space.

Dad's Day Saturday

All Dads will be honored guests at the first annual Dad's Day dance tomorrow evening at the union from 9 to 12.

Sponsored by the Women's Senate, admission is fifty cents each. Bring your dads, moms, and dates for an evening of good music and dancing.

ATTENTION ENGINEERS!!!

A special school of engineering convocation is scheduled for next Wednesday morning at 11 in Festival hall, according to Dean Mirgain.

All classes will be suspended during the convo period and all engineers are required to attend.

Guest speaker at the convocation will be George D. Lobingier, manager of education for Westinghouse Electric.

KDSC Slates Show Of Top SC Tunes

What's your favorite popular tune? Want to hear it played? "Here?" Well, on the Bison Room Juke Box or on Campus Radio. Campus Radio starts another first for State College students.

The Hour of Indecision, a Friday evening radio show will play the ten top tunes as selected by those people who will put their nominations for their favorite tunes in a special box located in the main lobby of the Student Union. Mike Jones and Stan Lundine will play the top ten on their program at 8:00 on Friday evenings.

The results tabulated by Stan and Mike will also be used by union director Dale Brostrom, in selecting many of the records to be put in the Bison Room machine.

Remember, it won't cost you anything, but if you want to hear a special song, maybe somebody else will play it in the Bison Room. To insure this, just take a moment every week and write down your favorite tune and drop it in the special box located in the Union.

Tune in Fridays at 8:00 and listen to Stan and Mike and the ten top tunes on the Hour of Indecision.

Home Ec School Hosts Instructors

The home economics staff entertained all students majoring in home economics at a tea Thursday afternoon in the Founders Room of the home economics building.

A meeting of supervising teachers is being held today in the home economics building. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss problems of the supervising teachers who work with college seniors in student teaching.

These senior students will be guests at a coffee hour following the meeting. Miss Lucille Horton and Miss Marion Benson, chairman and associate professor of the home economics education department, are in charge of the meeting.

The supervising teachers representing high schools throughout the state are: Dorothy Anderson, Leeds; Shirley Bergeson, West Fargo; Beverly Ewald, Bismarck; Helen Hoermann, Jamestown; Betty Krom, Enderlin; Beverly Kurtz, Valley City; Ilo Leiseth, Lincoln; Marilyn Meier, Wahpeton; Louise Olson, Wyndmere; Freda Record, Jamestown; Shirley Sanderson, Hatton; Lois Watts, Bismarck; and Donna Wohl, Mayville.

Westminster To Meet

Westminster Fellowship meets at 6 this Sunday evening in the 3-D center at the Y. This week's topic deals with social "layering" on campus.

Last week's tug-of-war between the College squad and the Teammaker's contingent highlighted a day of fun. Dancing on the right is Jack Larson, in charge of the tug-of-war.

Leadership Clinic Set On Campus In Early November

Plans are underway for the fall leadership clinic sponsored by the Student Senate.

The clinic will deal with leadership problems, techniques, and qualities. Each organization on campus is urged to select two sophomore or junior delegates with leadership prospects to represent them, in order that they might become familiar with the techniques of leadership on the campus.

No final date has been set for the clinic, but it will be held in early November in the Student Union. The program consists of a keynote speaker, discussion groups dealing with the various interests and problems of leadership, and a summary.

Committee members planning the clinic are Elaine Geiszler, Kay McGeary, Kerry Murphy, and Marlene Qualley. Mr. H. Dean Stallings is serving as faculty advisor to the committee.

Notice

Student identification cards will be distributed in the student union today from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 5. All students who had their photos taken during registration are reminded to pick up their cards now.

All students will be required to carry the cards for personal identification. Anyone failing or unable to obtain their cards today may claim them next week at the public relations office in old Main.

Drive On To Organize Independent Students

Once again the drive is on to organize an Independent Student's Association on the campus of North Dakota State College and as usual it may be supposed that the turnout will be small.

Yet the fact remains that there are approximately fifteen hundred students on campus who belong to no sort of social organization. These are the students who make up the suitcase contingent that evacuates the campus every Friday afternoon. Is there any question why it is so hard to get attendance at dances and athletic contests?

Independent students make up the vast majority of the student body, hold most of the power in student elections, offer a vast pool of talent for such projects as homecoming and Bison Brevities, and await only some group to tap this idle reservoir.

At the present time six hundred fraternity members and two hundred sorority members speak for SC. On the independent front the only working organization is the Veterans club.

SC's student senate has made numerous attempts to pump life into the long defunct Independent Students Association. This group, which died of lack of interest in 1953, ended up with money in the bank and still no one wants to join.

The impression gained by most Greek students is that the independent students are "gearless". Why else have all efforts to reorganize the independents failed to jell?

This year will perhaps be the last opportunity given to independents to organize with outside help. After two years of wasted effort the student senate is beginning to lose interest. With a multitude of tasks facing a small group not too much time can be expended upon a project which consistently fails to bear fruit.

Your student newspaper will back and publicize to the utmost all efforts to organize an ISA group. Somewhere in the student body of SC is a person with the fire to make this project tick. Let him or her be found.

How About Parking?

Constant complaints have been received of late about the miserable condition of the campus parking lots. It seems that they have reached a state which can no longer be tolerated.

In last week's Spectrum was printed an editorial suggesting various solutions for solving both the parking lot problem and also the pressing need for more parking space.

Since then two points seem to stand out. Why is so much space reserved in supposed student parking lots for faculty members and just how many instructors actually do drive their cars to school?

Perhaps answers for these questions would help alleviate some of the tension caused by the parking question.

All students desiring better parking at SC should contact their student senators for press for action on the matter. Let's work at and whip this point of irritation.

Campus Capers . . .

"If you're not here after what I'm here after, you'll be here after I'm gone!"

Ball Doesn't Bounce As Carl Writes English 101 Theme

A friendly old sun beat down upon the campus of SC and after piercing the frosted glass windows of the Bison room, three weak rays beat down upon a table where slept an arts and science student.

Amidst a litter of coffee cups, dirty dishes, books, ashes, and crumpled napkins, a scholarly appearing fellow with a three day growth of beard drowsed. Oblivious to the passing parade of people around him, "Carl Campus" recuperated from the dreadful excesses imposed by a certain instructor in English.

For the past week the disheveled student had been laboriously working in the library, preparing a theme for English 101. It was the seventh whirl in the course for him and still the ball didn't bounce right. As a matter of fact the ball didn't bounce at all.

Blaring through the thick blue air, music from the monstrous juke box rocked hour after hour. Thick clusters of students gathered around the box and consistently poured nickels and dimes in.

Still the arts and science student slept. Classes came and went, the faces in the Bison room changed and changed again, the room filled and emptied; but the sleep continued.

Hours later the juke box fell silent. Wearily the misguided soul at the round table stirred and came to life. He stared at the grimy watch tied to his arm in surprise. English class had been over for four hours.

Giving a tremendous cheer the Bison room ace leaped to his feet and raced to the counter. Seconds later he was seated happily back at his table with a cup of steaming coffee and a pile of dog-eared books leaning crazily near him.

Time passed and the coffee cup became filled with cigarette butts. The books had slipped to the floor in a tattered pile but no one noticed them. They made only a convenient foot rest.

Outdoors the bright sun had slipped below the horizon and became only a ball of flame in the west. In the Bison room, however, the continuously burning lights continued to light the area in the same guiltless glare.

Herds of students thronged through for the evening meal and passed on again. Then the evening habitues arrived and reserved scattered places for a cup and a talk. Young lovers drifted in and spent hurried moments over small cokes.

The arts and science oddity looked upon this constantly changing scene with a jaundiced eye. After two years of watching humanity pass on the campus scene he was thoroughly inured to whatever strange and colorful happenings might take place within his range of vision.

Only one thing could stir the stalwart and that was a good fight. The moment it entered his mind a fight began at a corner table. Two students had smuggled buffalo into the room and for several seconds the beasts clashed. Then they became docile and were led outside again.

But, all good things must come to an end. Fourteen hours after he had entered the student union, the scholar trudged wearily up the stairs and out into the harsh world beyond.

One swift jingle of his pockets revealed no cash money. The only thing left to do was go home. What a depressing thought, but still it had to be done.

Sadly the arts and science typical wended his weary way to the dormitory and the miniscule comfort of a tattered mattress. On his way to the room "Carl" thought of all the work piled up for tomorrow.

Down Here

At State

Around she goes and where it stops nobody knows. That seems to be the state of mind of most old State students these days. Homecoming time is just around the corner, mid-terms are staring all of us in the face and suddenly things to do are jumping out from every corner. Envy the scholarly student who has his time correctly organized so that nothing ever puts undue pressure on him. What a life!

The great doughnut robbery took place last Saturday when several unidentified culprits made off with the sinkers from the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity house. Purchased especially for the coffee hour after last Saturday's tug-of-war, the doughnuts disappeared and were only returned by a daring band of students who re-liberated them in time for the festivities.

About the same time several loaves of bread vanished from the kitchen of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house. Hmmm.

While we're on the subject of the tug-of-war, laurels should go to Jack Larson who organized and produced the whole affair. Jack wishes to thank everyone who turned out for the fun.

The Teammakers had a few new faces on their team. Del Anderson, Jesse Vail, and Glenn Hill helped beef up the downtown forces. Still the pros seemed to have trouble keeping out of the path of the water hose.

Pussy-willows, cars, jeeps, ambulances, tractors, cowbells, and etcetera all combined to make the parade and tug-of-war one of the best school spirit stunts ever staged at SC.

Art Bunker still swears that his crew is better than the student contingent. He wants another chance again next year. We still have the rope and water hoses. So why not?

Too bad that the Rahjah club's bonfire didn't come off last week. Bonfires, pep rallies, and snake dances help build up rah-rah and we need all of that we can get.

Our award for wettest man of the week must go to both Bob Zuklic and Bill Stewart. Those two fellows really got soaked at the big tug-of-war.

Cecil Reinke, former sports editor of the Spectrum in the good old days of 1953-54, dropped in for a visit a few days ago. Cec is currently playing student in law school at upstate subnormal. He whipped down to watch old State perform on the gridiron and passed up the northern homecoming.

Bill Buck and Don Schwartz of the Spectrum have both turned into suitcase students. Buck spends every spare week-end at Linton while Don is politicking at the national FFA convention in Kansas City. Schwartzie is running for national FFA president. Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, for Schwartz.

Colds hold the spotlight at State this week. Enrollment is way off and even the nurses at the health center are afflicted with the sniffing malady. It's sorrowful that while we enjoy our last few days of nice weather so many of us have to suffer. Anyone got a handkerchief?

The friendly old Spectrum still needs help. If any of you budding scholars want to have some fun and help out with the paper, just drop up to the second floor of the union any time.

Cars are still getting lost in the ruts out in the parking lots. Snow should make the surface level if it doesn't do anything else.

Latest poll on campus is being conducted by Mrs. Anderson, manager of the Bison room. She is keeping track to select the neatest fraternity and sorority and also the messiest Greek group. Looks like we'll all have to start bussing dishes again to keep from making the wrong end of the list.

Any rumors about Bob Fisher joining the army are sheer bunco. The old "Weakeyes" wouldn't join the military again if they offered him the Pentagon.

And away we go . . . see you all next week.

Upjohn Company Tests SC Compounds

Some twenty-six new organic compounds, which were produced locally by NDSC chemists under the direction of Dr. R. E. Dunbar, dean of the school of chemical technology, are being evaluated for insecticidal properties by the Upjohn Company.

Dr. Dunbar reports that five of the compounds being evaluated have never been reported on previously, and the remainder are relatively new and have never been previously investigated for insect control purposes. The tests should be completed by early spring and if results on any are specific or favorable they will be manufactured and distributed on an international basis.

Kampus Klues . . .

By Karen

Coffee hours, entertainments, meetings, slumber parties, games, dances—never a dull moment on the SC campus. As usual the average students schedule has been filled and is overflowing with extra-curricular activities. I see some have even taken time out to autograph the new water tower.

New Sig Actives

Wilbur Lippert, Bob Cosh, Gordie Peterson, Pat McManus, Harry Nilles, Chuck Meldohl, John Jacobson and Duane "Bub" Devries.

New TKE Active

Curt Heldahl.

Exchange Dinners

Held this past week were Alpha Gamma Delta and Sigma Chi, and Gamma Phi Beta and Kappa Psi.

Sorority Pledges

Alpha Gamma Delta pledges recently added are Laura Jean Kist and Ethel Walvatne; the Theta's have pledged Margaret Platt.

Coffee Klatches

The Theta's had the only coffee klatch slated for this week. It was held at the Theta house on Thursday.

Alpha Gam Actives

Added to the list on Tuesday were Gayle Joos and Anna Mae Davis.

Entertainments

Have really been booming this past week. Thursday we had the Alpha Gam's and Kappa Psi's socializing, the Sigma Phi Delta's and Phi Mu's, and the ATO's and Kappa's.

Patio Party

Something new has been added to our list of various entertainments. The Sigs are having a Patio Party on Friday evening. What's it all about? Ask them.

Slumber Parties

I can see now where there will be many droopy eyes on Saturday morning. Three sororities are having slumber parties on Friday evening. It's hoped that pledges and actives can get better acquainted in this way. Sororities having parties are—Phi Mu, Kappa Delta and Gamma Phi Beta.

Weekend Activities

Let's continue the good school spirit of last Saturday and use it at the game this Saturday afternoon at 2:00. There is also a Women's Senate all college dance at the Memorial Union on Saturday evening at 9:00. I have heard tell that stags are very welcome.

Kappa Psi Host To Province Assembly; National Officer Scheduled To Speak

Beta Sigma chapter of Kappa Psi will hold their province assembly here at North Dakota State College today and tomorrow.

Colleges to be represented at the assembly will be collegiate and graduate chapter from Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota.

Registration for delegates is from eight until eleven this evening. Tomorrow morning breakfast will be served at the union at 8:30. The rest of the morning will be spent in business meetings and various other discussions about the fraternity.

After the business meeting tomorrow morning lunch will be served at the Kappa Psi house. During the afternoon other discussion groups will be held and delegates from each chapter will report.

The convention will be finished with a banquet in the student union tomorrow at 6:30. A national officer of Kappa Psi will be the guest speaker.

NEWMAN CLUB ACTIVITIES

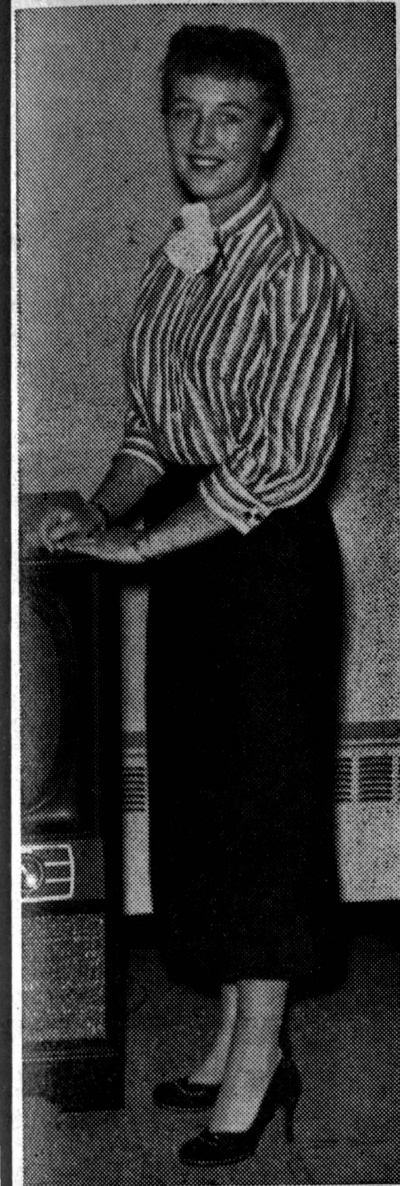

NDSC's Newman club will sponsor a car in the homecoming parade, according to president Pat Hurley. In addition a directory of all Catholic students on campus is being compiled by Jacqueline Jungers.

Rosary is held daily at the chapel and Thursday evening devotions. Choir practice is also held after devotions every Thursday night.

Notice

Students renting rooms in private homes are urged to stop in the office of the registrar not later than October 20 to check that their local address and telephone numbers are properly listed for insertion into the 1955-56 student directory.

Campus Cutie . . .

JUDY HUNSTAD

Judy Hunstad, the Carrington cutie and a new pledge of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, is the newest honey to carry off weekly campus honors.

The brown-haired beauty is the small sister of Maggie Hunstad, a 1955 grad of old State.

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

A FLIGHT OF IMAGINATION prompted the Doodle above—it's titled: Flying saucer with Lucky-smoking crew. But it's a down-to-earth fact that Luckies taste better than any other cigarettes—and for down-to-earth reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that light, mild tobacco is toasted to taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, "Glurg shrldu!" (In saucer language, that means, "For taste that's out of this world, light up a Lucky!")

Take Your Choice — For Queen

Audrey Brekke

Ann Ebling

Terryl Ann Frank

Carol Johnson

Joyce Kirkhus

Seven beauties will compete next Wednesday for the title of homecoming queen to rule at the 1955 homecoming festivities of SC on the weekend of October 28-29.

The girls, sponsored by the six social sororities and the women's residence hall, will be selected by a vote of the student body Wednesday. Polling places will be Minard hall, Morrill hall, the student union, home economics, new and old engineering, and the library.

Each member of the student body is entitled to one vote. Activity cards for the fall term must be shown before anyone will be allowed to cast a ballot.

SC's homecoming queen candidate will be treated to a luncheon held in her honor before elections, and the queen will be crowned at halftime of the football game on the 29th. In addition she will be honored with a grand march and ceremony at the homecoming dance at the end of the weekend festivities.

Audrey Brekke is being sponsored by Gamma Phi Beta sorority. A sophomore in home economics from Minnewaukan, Audrey is a member of Tryota, Tau Beta Sigma honorary band fraternity, and the Gold Star band.

Candidate of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority is Ann Ebling, a junior in home economics from Barnesville, Minnesota. Ann is a member of Tryota, SC chorus, YWCA, and is assistant rushing chairman of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Kappa Alpha Theta's candidate for homecoming queen is Terryl Ann Frank, a junior in home economics from Fargo. Terryl is a member of Tryota, Air Debs, Newman club, the Bison annual, and she is assistant rushing chairman of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Carol Johnson, women's residence hall candidate, is the only girl in the entire school of engineering. She is a junior in architecture and is a member of the American Institute of Architects. Carol comes from Bismarck, North Dakota.

Sponsored by Phi Mu sorority is Joyce Kirkhus, a senior in arts and science from Wyndmere. Joyce is vice-president of Phi Mu, secretary of Sigma Alpha Iota music sorority, Guidon, and the SC choir. She is also vocalist with the Paul Hanson band.

Gloria Lloyd, a junior from Bismarck is the candidate of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Gloria is a member of the sorority, vice-president of Tryota, Air Debs, and Orchesis national honorary dance group.

Candidate of Kappa Delta sorority is Pat Trom from Kindred. Pat is a junior in arts and science and is a member of the student union board of activities, Panhellenic council, vice-president of women's residence hall, treasurer of Ceres hall, and last year served as director of the KD Brevities act.

These are the gals from among whom will be chosen SC's 1955 homecoming queen. They are all at least sophomores in college, and represent the cream of the crop in looks and talent on campus.

Homecoming queen at SC is the central and unifying theme of our entire celebration. Personified in one beautiful gal is all the hopes of the college for victory on the football field, fond memories of years gone by, and hopes of what the future will bring for the college.

The title of homecoming queen at SC is more than just a title that lasts for three days and then is forgotten until the following fall when enthusiasm burns anew. Homecoming queen is the highest honor which the college can bestow on a woman student.

For more than thirty years the college has selected a queen to reign over the homecoming. Each year the title has become more sought after and the sororities on campus have vied to have one of their members selected.

However, when it comes time to elect a queen, most people forget about sorority membership or friendships. The sole idea is to pick the best of a fine lot of girls, to pick one that will represent SC in the best possible way before the alums and the people of the state.

In past years homecoming queen candidates were sponsored by fraternities and other men's groups, but last year the student senate took the backing away from the men and placed it with the sororities and women's residence halls.

Thus, each group of gals select their loveliest, and back her for queen. All campaigning and election expenses are financed by the various women's groups and the men have nothing to do with the selection except to vote.

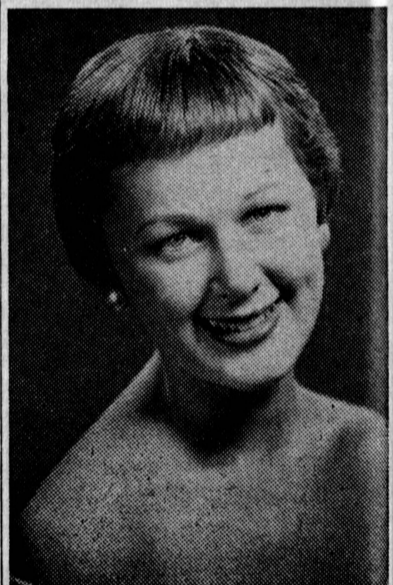

This year our homecoming queen will be the most important in history. Our athletic program is in the midst of a vast re-building and the game with the university will be their big test for the season. The queen should symbolize to the state the desire of SC to improve and become the biggest and best.

When election time rolls around next Wednesday, help make sure that our 1955 homecoming queen is the best possible. Forget all loyalties and pick a beauty. With the state watching we need a tremendous representative.

During the past few years the turnout at homecoming queen elections has been mediocre. Approximately a third of the student body votes at each election and thus the true popular choice may never have a chance to win.

Gloria Lloyd

With a student enrollment this year of over 2400, at least two thousand students should vote. Then when the winning candidate is announced there need be no bad feelings. The most popular gal will be elected and the two runnersup will be attendants.

Let's all turn out Wednesday. Make the queen elections a test of student interest in campus activities and let's make it good. Show up upstate.

WARNING!

Any students caught taking queen candidate pictures from the numerous campaign posters on campus will be named in next week's Spectrum.

These photos are expensive—give the gals a break and let them stay up until elections are over with.

USDA Offers Positions To Seniors; Interested Persons Contact Gjernes

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is interested in receiving applications from senior students NDSC for a wide variety of positions, the department's recruitment representative, Mr. Stanley Voelker, announced today. NDSC seniors will be particularly interested in a number of positions in science and agriculture for which they may be qualified on graduation. Practically all those in the school of agriculture, home economics, business administration, biological sciences, physical sciences, and engineering will be eligible to apply. Salaries for these positions start at $3,670 per year, with annual increases for satisfactory service. Employees with good work performance records are eligible after a year's service for promotion to a higher salary. The next grade salary level is $4,525 per year. Positions are located both in Washington and throughout the United States. Mr. Oscar Gjernes, college placement service director, has detailed information on these examinations. Mr. Gjernes says 28 kinds of these positions are listed as options in a newly announced federal service entrance examination. Applications will be accepted until further notice, but those desiring to participate in the first examination must apply by November 15.

OTC Instructor Receives Promotion

Lieutenant Lyndel D. Howland, assistant professor of air science ROTC at SC, has been promoted to captain according to Lt. J. Norris Brill, detachment commander. Captain Howland reported to active duty with the Air Force in February, 1943 and received his pilot's wings the following year. After receiving his discharge from the service in 1945, he reentered college, graduated, and then taught agriculture for three years. Captain Howland was recalled to active duty in 1951. He served in Japan and then was assigned to NDSC in September, 1954. In addition to his instructor duties here, Captain Howland is in charge of Information Services and Supply Officer.

Agromony Club Holds First Meeting

Larry O'Keeffe, president of the Agromony Club, welcomed new members at the group's first meeting Oct. 4. During the business meeting Al Marfieren was elected chairman of the "Crops and Coils" sales committee. Following the meeting Capt. Howland of the AFROTC staff gave a lecture and showed slides and movies on the agriculture and other industries of Japan. The next meeting of the Agromony Club will be held Nov. 10 in Room 215, Morrill Hall. Anyone interested in agromony is invited to attend.

Sharp, Parkell Co-Captains Of Baby Bison; Record Is 3-0

New white hopes of the Bison football future are shown above. Coached by Bony Rothrock the baby Herd shows promise of sweeping all opposition before them in their remaining contests this year.

In a recent chat with Cliff "Bony" Rothrock, State's freshman football coach, your reporter got the lowdown on one of SC's more interesting but overlooked athletic groups.

The '55 edition of the Baby Bison, according to Bony, is a bunch with a lot of desire—a real rock-em, sock-em outfit that bears watching. In three outings thus far, the Herd yearlings have disposed of their competition in fine form, holding scrimmage wins over Concordia and MSTC, and an important 14-0 game victory over the Papooses of NDU.

That this year's club is well-drilled in the basic fundamentals of blocking and tackling is evidenced by the fact that their goal-line remains uncrossed, no team having scored upon them. Rothrock credits improved line speed and depth with the strong defensive showing the team has given.

The freshman coaching staff, which is composed of Rothrock and his assistant Louie King, is developing its charges under the same basic offensive patterns as are used by Del Anderson's varsity, with a great deal of emphasis on the split T. The frosh are being drilled in the split T with an eye toward the future, so it may be wise to look for a new offense for the '56 varsity.

The Baby Bison are led by two newly elected co-captains, Dean Sharp from St. Mary's of Bismarck, and Lynn Parkell, from Detroit Lakes. Parkell runs the team from quarterback, while Sharp is a hard-running halfback with tremendous speed.

Bony, himself a former Bison great, rates this year's club on a par with the '54 frosh, with an edge in team speed over last year's club.

The frosh, an aggressive, evenly matched outfit, have been fortunate in having no serious injuries. They will be an interesting team to watch in the remainder of their season, as they scrimmage once more with each of their cross-river rivals, climaxing the year with a night game October 28th with the UND freshman squad. The game has been set for seven o'clock, and should provide an interesting opening for homecoming activities.

In a couple of years, this team could prove to be a top notch aggregation if they receive the backing they deserve from the student body. Go out and watch them—take it from us, these future Bison have it in them to win a lot of games for Old State in the future.

Coyotes Seen As Crucial Bison Test As S. D. Team Invades SC Saturday

The North Dakota State Bison will face the South Dakota University Coyotes here Saturday at 2:00 p.m. in what promises to be a tough game for the Bison.

The University of South Dakota expects this to be their first crucial test and they are expecting to meet a tame Herd of Bison. They will be surprised for the team is not tame even though they were defeated last Saturday 32-0; for coach Gamage of the Iowa State Teachers College Panthers did not think that the Bison were tame. ISTC reported that this was one of their most costly victories in years.

SDU's Coyotes have played only one North Central Conference game this year in which they beat Augustana in a tough game for both teams. This does not say much for SDU, for Augustana did not have much of a football team this year.

The Coyotes will have to wait out for the Bison's offense containing Glenn Hill, Dana Hill, D. Tschider, Dale Wallentine, E. Sturdevant, Emil Zeuger and Vickers in our line will give the line plenty of trouble.

The USD veteran quarter back will probably give the Bison plenty of trouble.

Other members of the team that will give the Bison trouble on defense are half-back Carl Johnson, Keith Connelly, E. Schamber, Duane Lench, Eugene Reynick and Larry Thompson.

The Coyotes line is made up of a number of inexperienced sophomores which may cost them a game, for this is their great point.

Around the Conference . . .

The North Dakota University Sioux were defeated this week in a North Central conference game by the Morningside Maroons 13-7.

Bowling Games Set

The Men's Bowling League and the Classic league, will hold their games Tuesday at 7:30 and the All Stars on Wednesday at 7:30.

The following teams are members of the Classic league:

Student Body
Dakota Hall
Kappa Psi
TKE

Veteran's Club
Theta Chi
Sigma Chi

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

The members of the All Stars are:

Kappa Psi I
Kappa Psi II
Co-op's
Veteran's Club
Sigma Phi Delta
Newman Club
Farmhouse

The Morningside Maroons had control of the game for almost four quarters. It is the second win for the Maroons who defeated the Bison two weeks ago.

South Dakota State's Jackrabbits topped the Augustana Vikings 28-0 in an NCC clash.

The Jackrabbits who are favored to the conference led the Vikings in every Department of Augustana put up a good fight.

South Dakota University, who the Bison play Saturday rolled over the Black Hills Teachers' lowjackets in a non-conference game at Vermillion, South Dakota 46-7.

NOTICE

All faculty members interested in forming a new men's faculty bowling league would play either on Tuesday or Wednesday should contact George Tiegen by Tuesday of next week. An organizational meeting will be held at 5 p.m. Tuesday, October 18 in the bowling alley and those interested should attend.

Underrated Panthers Beat Bison 32-0; Injuries Prove Costly Victory For ISTC

Old State's frosh play for keeps and all of them listen to the sage advice of Bony Rothrock as Dick Kjelland and Bob Holmes show in this photo.

Last Saturday night the NDSC were defeated by the keyed and underrated Iowa State Panthers College Panthers 32-0. It was the first North Central Conference home game for the

The Bison just could not catch the speed of the fired up Panthers. The only time thearsity threatened seriously to score was late in the fourth quarter, this threat was stopped at the 10 yard line and the Panthers took over on the 4th down. Del Anderson reported that the team received no serious injuries during the game.

Iowa State Teachers College reports that the victory over the Bison was very costly for they lost their star back, Dick Braunschweig for the whole season with a ruptured spleen. They also lost their starting right end, a left halfback and another end for at least a

Baby Bison Defeat University 14-0; Sharp Sparks Team

Last Friday afternoon the Baby Bison of State rolled over the University of North Dakota freshmen 14-0.

Standout in the game for the Baby Bison was Dean Sharp of St. Mary's of Bismarck.

The Baby Bison first broke loose late in the second quarter when Dean Sharp passed 22 yards to Dick Kjelland, Fargo, in the end zone. Chuck Rongen booted the extra point.

Half time score Baby Bison 7-NDU 0. Dale Sharp picked up the papoose's kick-off at the start of the second half on his own 18 yard line and with some key blocks ran 82 yards for a TD.

Quarterback Lynn Parker (Detroit Lakes) faked a placement and ran the extra point for State.

Out On A Limb

by Bran

The ATO's were second on the water tower. Why is it that the rest are just following like sheep in a flock? Let's be original in our firing up.

Most fired up award for the game Saturday night goes to the group composed of the Kappa Psi and Gamma Phi Beta. The two groups were out in full force complete with large sized cow bells.

At the game Saturday night no one with the exception of six pretty coeds in the yellow and the green knew any of the cheers. Why not study your cheers like you should study your lessons. Let's learn those cheers.

Common courtesy calls for all SC students to keep their cowbells quiet during the school song and cheers. Cheers and songs are meant to be sung and yelled. Just a few cowbells during the cheers or songs spoil their effect. Ring your bells at the proper time.

Saturday at 2:00 the NDSC Bison face the South Dakota U's Coyotes at Dacotah Field. It will be a tough game for the Bison, but should be worth watching. Anything can happen!

Three cheers for Bill Euren's Gold Star Band and visiting bands Saturday night, they did a good job.

WANTED: One horse for Emil Zueger. It seems the "tiger" of the SC line needs one to catch four freshmen girls who escaped his lariat. There must be an easy way of selling a beany.

Rumor has it that the Kappa Psi's are offering intramural football scholarships.

The boys from out state normal suffered two defeats on their homecoming weekend, one at the hands of the Baby Bison and one at the hands of Morningside Maroons Varsity football team.

Any SC student that has an extra pint (of blood) and would be willing to donate the same to Dick Braunschweig, ISTC star back who ruptured his spleen in last Saturday's game should contact the Phy. Ed. dept. The blood would be appreciated.

Intramural Standings

Results of the intramural touch-ball games for the past two weeks stack up this way:

ATO 6, Sigma Chi 0.
AGR 1, Co-op's 0.
Theta Chi 12, TE K 0.
Kappa Psi 24, SPD 6.
Student Body 12, ASCE 0.
Sigma Chi 6, TE Km 0.
Co-op's 18, SPD 4.
The game between the Vet's club and the SAE's was forfeited.

Just a word about your portrait for the "BISON"

All girls are urged to wear white or pastel suits, blouses and sweaters with sleeves because these photograph best. In general it is best to avoid dark clothing.

Wear your hair just as you usually do so that it looks natural. Special hair-do's just for your portrait seldom work into something that you really like.

To the men, don't have a fresh haircut. About a week should elapse between a haircut and your appointment. Wear a plain suit or sport coat with a white shirt and plain tie. A colored shirt is alright provided it is plain. Avoid ties with designs that are colorful or intricate.

These reminders will help make your picture something special. At photo time, keep them in mind.

F-M Symphony To Open Concert Season Sunday

The work of a young composer who is known here as the husband of the former Fargo musician Miss Marjorie Black will be the central offering in the program of the Fargo-Moorhead Symphony Orchestra when it opens its twenty-fourth concert season at 4 Sunday in Fargo Central High School.

The performance of a Schuller work Sunday is in accordance with the plan of Sigvald Thompson, conductor, to perform this season a number of works that have their connections with the local scene.

Schuller's Symphony for Brass and Percussion, opus 16, is so contemporary that when it is performed in Toronto for a CBS television audience a week from Sunday it will have had only fourteen full performances since its four movements were first played in New York before the International Society of Contemporary Music four years ago.

Its twelfth performance will be here Sunday, its thirteenth in Mayville Oct. 18, where Sigvald Thompson will take the orchestra for a concert on the artists course of the State Teachers College.

It has been performed in Darmstadt, Germany, at the University of Illinois, and at several other places in this country after it was transformed last year into a ballet.

Frederick Prausnitz directed a performance of the ballet at the American Dance Festival in New York last May. Prausnitz is assistant dean of the Juilliard School of Music, New York City, and brother of Walter Prausnitz, first cello of the Fargo, Moorhead Symphony and head of the English department, Concordia College.

The Schuller symphony is scored for tympani and sixteen brasses, the most powerful instruments in the orchestra. Schuller writes that it was his intention "to put down in musical terms via the symphonic form the incredible advances in brass playing made in this country in the last 30 or 40 years."

For the local performance, the orchestra's regular brass section has been augmented by two baritone brasses that are never part of the regular instrumentation of a symphony orchestra, Sigvald Thompson said. Five other supplementary brasses have been recruited. All the added players are pupils of Dr. Harold Harmon, head of MSTC's Music department and the orchestra's first trumpeter.

Sunday's concert will open with the performance of Tschai-kowsky's Symphony No. 5 in E minor, opus 64, his next-to-the-last symphony and perhaps his most popular.

Eugene T. Paulson, president of the Orchestral Association, said that the association's campaign for funds to sustain this season's concerts goes well but that it is still far from its goal of $8,000.

He explained that contributions to the sustaining fund automatically enroll contributors as members of the Orchestral Association and bring them reserved season tickets. He urged that checks be mailed to treasurer F. W. Mohr, Jr., Box 1753, Fargo.

ASME To Present Ford Film Tuesday

The A.S.M.E. will show a prize-winning film, "Tomorrow Meets Today," October 18, 1955 at 7:30 p.m. in the student union.

The 16mm sound-color documentary motion picture, produced by Ford Motor Company, tells how an automobile is born. It shows how a car is conceived in creative minds of automobile stylists and designers and then transformed to reality. Some of the camera scenes are taken in top-secret studios, laboratories and drafting rooms of the Ford company.

"Tomorrow Meets Today" was recently selected for showing in the Kentuckiana Film Festival as one of the best industrial films of the year.
