'Showboat' Singer Makes Appearance On Lyceum Program Saturday Night

By Lee Johnson
Perhaps the best known baritone of American music today, the colorful and talented William Warfield, will appear in concert at Festival hall tomorrow evening at 8:15 under the sponsorship of the college Lyceum series.

Students will be admitted free to the program upon presentation of their activity tickets. If reserved seats are desired presentation of activity tickets at the Little Country Theater office will suffice.

Warfield is rated as "having restored to the concert hall much of the vocal mastery and magic once associated with the art of John Charles Thomas and other famous artists".

Such critical acclaim would usually seem to go to an artist who has appeared on the stage for many years, yet Warfield made his New York debut only in 1950. In that short period of time he has become an international star of the first rank.

From Europe to Australia audiences have jumped to their feet cheering Warfield's great voice, masterful musicianship, magnificent bearing, and dramatic power.

Around the world where he has not sung in person, he is loved for his portrayal of Joe and his singing of "Old Man River" in the film "Showboat". Olin Downes of the New York Times recently wrote of Warfield "These songs require more than an accomplished vocalist. They demand a great artist."

Prior to his departure for Europe as star of the State Department sponsored production of "Porgy and Bess", the Washington

WILLIAM WARFIELD

Star wrote, "Warfield's is the Porgy that will be remembered now".

Praise from the European press knew no bounds and the great musical capitals of the world demanded him in concert.

In less than five years Warfield has sung nearly 300 concerts in the Americas, Europe, and Australia, has appeared repeatedly as guest soloist with our major symphony orchestras and oratorio societies, and has been featured in many American festivals.

Warfield is now touring the United States on a full concert schedule prior to reporting again to Hollywood to play Jim in the musical version of "Huckleberry Finn".

All in all, Warfield's appearance will be one not to miss.

Variety Of Acts Tonight At LSA Sponsored Talent Show In "Y"

Would you like a fine evening of entertainment with some "ham" talent acts and some real life performers?

Lutheran Students Association is sponsoring a talent show tonight at 8 in the College "Y" with a variety of acts ranging from Bob and Ray to Homer and Ethro and the best of musical entertainment.

Tickets for the show are on sale for 50 cents each with lunch included. All profits will go to finance some foreign student at an American college.

SC Baseball Team Sponsors All-Star Wrestling Tonight

All-star wrestling makes its debut on the campus this evening with a bangup program sponsored by the NDSC baseball team and promoter Abe Wallace at the fieldhouse at 8:15.

Tickets for the show are presently on sale from baseball team members for $1.95 for a reserved seat and 1 dollar general admission.

Three events will fill out the program with the feature of the evening presenting Bronko Nagurski and Paul Baillergeon meeting the terrible Russians, Ivan and Karol Kalminoff, in a one hour tag team match.

The match is set for one hour with best two out of three falls winning.

Red Bastien and Johnny Moochy will open the show with a thirty minute, one fall match, and Timothy Geohagen and Fritz Von Ulm will meet in the thirty minute, one fall special feature.

All profits from the match will go to help finance the proposed baseball trip down south later this quarter.

Scholarship Committee Announces Recipients Of Noyes Scholarships

The NDSC Scholarship Committee, in a meeting January 16, 1956, announced the recipients of the Noyes Scholarships for the winter quarter of 1956.

Those named to receive the scholarships are Roger Abbott, Bruce Baldwin, Russel Bieri, Don Carlson, Richard Eng, Gary Greter, Jean Grindahl, Sandra Haas, Richard Hanson, Kenneth Harmon, Don Jarvela, Jacqueline Jungers, Elsie Keller, Wayne Lee, Duane Lemm, Donald Ljungren, Thomas Mack, Glen Martin, Franklin Meyers, Lyle Nelson, Beverly Olson, Ruth Olwin, John Pancratz, Cyril Peterson, Elmo Skare, Richard Teichmann, and James Unkenholz were among those who will receive the scholarships.

To be eligible to receive one of these scholarships a student must be a direct descendant of a veteran of World War I.

Nine Men Vie For Model Man Title At Annual IFC Frolic Tonight At Crystal

The NDSC Model Man will be selected tonite at the annual Interfraternity Ball to be held in the Crystal Ballroom from 9:00 to 12:00.

Paul Hanson and his orchestra will play for your dancing pleasure. A special arrangement of three medleys of nine fraternity songs will be featured during the dance.

One candidate from each fraternity on campus has been selected by their respective fraternities. This year's contestants and their organizations are: Lyle Miller, Tau Kappa Epsilon; Kerry Murphy, Theta Chi; Vic Ziegler, Sigma Phi Delta; Norm Hanson, Sigma Chi; Tip Miller, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Jim Rumpca, Kappa Psi; Jerry Pekas, Farmhouse; Joe Ruliffson, Alpha Gamma Rho; and Duane Swenson, Alpha Tau Omega.

Young Democrats Endorse Lashkowitz For U. S. Senator

Young Democrats of North Dakota State College voted unanimously at their Wednesday night meeting to endorse Fargo mayor Herschel Lashkowitz for United States senate in this election, according to group president Wayne Weatherford.

At the meeting Lashkowitz delivered a message calling for more active participation of young people in politics. He said "whether you are sixteen or sixty-five, politics concern you!"

The Fargo mayor also asked for a return to "old-fashioned government modeled upon the principles laid down by Jefferson, Jackson, Roosevelt, and Truman."

Anyone interested in aiding in promotion of "Lashkowitz For Senator" is urged to contact Weatherford.

NDSC's Young Democrats is an organization designed to promote an interest in politics on both a state, local, and nation wide scale among students on campus.

It is a member of the state Young Democrats association and also is affiliated with the national Young Dem group.

Important!

All students who registered for the first time this quarter may pick up their identification cards now at the public relations office in the basement of the administration building.

Notice

Veterans are reminded that Tuesday is January 31 and that they must sign up at the Office of Records and Admissions on that date for their monthly training allowance.

Merlin Ludwig, 1955 Model Man, will award the traveling trophy to this year's winner. In addition the '56 Model Man will receive a Straus gift certificate.

Balloting will be on the basis of 50% by Panhellenic Council and 50% by the attendance of the candidate's fraternity in relation to the total membership.

Decorations consisting of fraternity symbols and crests will be provided by the various fraternities.

Tickets may be purchased from any I.F.C. member or at the door.

Jim Beatty, chairman of the IFC Ball, estimates attendance to top 150 couples. He also reminds students that the party is semi-formal and corsages will not be required.

Billiard Tournament Scheduled Next Week

Whiz at billiards? If you are then the pocket billiards tournament of the SC student union scheduled for Monday through Wednesday of next week is just the event you've been waiting for.

Simple rules will prevail and any college student should be able to follow them. Then, too, the tournament is open only to college students and is on a nationwide scale.

Our billiards tournament is being held in conjunction with college student unions all over the country and winners of the various tournaments will compete for the Charles Peterson national trophy.

Another billiards tournament is also being planned for later in the year, but in the meantime don't forget the one next week. A copy of the tournament rules may be picked up at the student union office, residence halls, and the library.

Increasing Enrollment Demands Larger Staff

Increased enrollment on a campus the size of NDSC brings with it many problems and not all of them are concerned with space. Perhaps ranking equally as high on the list of current needs is the pressing demand for more instructors in several of the schools of the college.

Certainly it's true that some of the buildings presently in use for classroom and laboratory courses are completely outmoded and would better be condemned than reconstructed—but sorely understaffed departments should be aided even before a massive new construction program begins.

Especially faced with the inadequacy of the present numbers of faculty members is the school of arts and sciences. At one time or another every student of the college takes a course under the direct control of the school, yet the numbers of instructors are hardly sufficient to meet the demands of the purely liberal arts students.

Some faculty members carry loads that demand a work week of teaching, grading tests, planning lessons, etc. that call for the expenditure of seventy to ninety hours a week. Yet the instructors are paid only for the hours that they actually put in in classroom instruction.

With the increased demands being placed upon liberal arts instructors by the constant desires of the technical schools for more and more courses, the school of arts and sciences is being rushed to the breaking point.

English, mathematics, social science, and speech are the departments feeling the pinch most of all. Yet, there seems to be no increase in faculty strength to offset in any measure at all the rising enrollment.

Even in some of the other schools—notably pharmacy—the staff is being snowed under by students. With no one being turned away, it's almost impossible to stretch the vital talents of the instructors any farther, as well as the walls of the classrooms.

Something must be done, and done soon. If our college is to maintain any sort of record for excellence of instruction—we need more teachers. Of course this decision rests basically in the hands of the board of higher education and the state legislature which doesn't meet until next winter. Still, we as college students, should be able to make some noise around the state in the next few months. Perhaps a few more teachers would serve as an inducement for many other things. It's just one more step in the plan to help make our college bigger and better.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

There seems to be a tendency among the students on this campus to wish to wear overshoes bearing my name in inch and a half letters. Since I am perfectly willing to supply this rising demand, but cannot continue to do so at my own expense at the rate of three pairs per quarter I make the following offer:

If a sufficient number of students will contact me concerning this matter, I will arrange to contract with a reputable manufacturer of galoshes who will supply at moderate price a high grade overshoe, complete with any name, so long as it is not the purchaser's.

Sincerely yours,
Charles Abrahamson

Tau Beta Sigma Pledges

Thirteen girls were recently pledged by Tau Beta Sigma, honorary band fraternity for women.

New pledges include Lisa Duckstad, Janice Apperman, Gay Olson, Grace Webb, Elaine Pflugraph, Mary Anderson, Marilyn Jensen, Karen Ritchie, Eileen Sein, Joan Delzer, Joyce Edler, Pat Larson and Claire Ann Walker.

Tucker APO Head

Robert Tucker, a junior in the school of chemistry, was recently elected president of Alpha Phi Omega at a regular meeting of the service fraternity, held at the college YMCA. Other officers elected include Bruce Farnum, vice-president; Keith Schick, secretary; John Anderson, treasurer; and Lyle Nelson, alumni secretary and historian.

60 Voice SC Choir To Present Concerts In Three ND Towns

The choir of North Dakota State College, under the direction of Ernst Van Vlissingen, chairman of the department of music, will present three concerts starting February 14.

On Tuesday, February 14th they will appear at Ashley, Wednesday the 15th at Hettinger, and Thursday the 16th at Linton. First organized in 1939 by Mr. Van Vlissingen, membership in the Choir is determined on a competitive try-out basis with a limitation of about 55. The sixty mixed voices will present a program of sacred and secular music for the entertainment of all.

Those taking part in the concerts include: sopranos: Betty Shipley, Dorothy Eloffson, Estelle Voelker, Aina Malta, Gail Fitzloff, Janet Abrahamson, Sandra Haas, Joan Stammen, Carol Senechal, Yvonne Boedeker, Barbara Pederson, Sandra Klein, Judy Rothfusz, Barbara Seng, Ruth Tallackson, Kaye Stoll, Janice Bakken, Ilene Friend, Joan Nelson, and Marrienne Hunke;

Altos: Lynnel Buchanan, Patricia Larson, Ila Langseth, JoAnn Wilfert, Sandra Maier, Glorine Denich, Ione Vossseteig, Coleen Kandt, Judy Hammer, Diane Crandall, Bonnie Westphal, Claudette Grommesh, Joyce Kirkhus, and Vivian McAuley.

Tenors include: John Kittleson, James Pomeroy, Kenley Burkhart, Mike Fogel, Clyde Stauffer, James Gruebele, David McFerran, John Lommel, Allan Olson, and Harvey Fiala.

Basses: Richard Teichman, Duane Swenson, John Kuppich, Ward Dunkirk, Leonard Brown, Clinton Sparks, Cecil Malme, Orian Fjestad, Robert Gion, William Head, Warren Ehricks, Ralph Rothfusz, and Elgi Toman.

From Under A Rock . . .

By Beetle Baillie

Hello again, kiddies. Once again it's time for another session with your old buddy, "Buckskin Beetle", so pull up an old log, unsaddle your critters, and we'll spin a few yarns. Yipee!

* * *

This week, we're trying to pull ourselves out of a mood of complete despondency which originated with the flunking of a test on the morning after one of State's notorious pledge skips. Trying every possible angle to keep this attack of doldrums from creeping into this collection of wierdies on campus (lord knows, it smells bad enough as it is) we're trying every possible change of pace.

We started with a routine which everyone is sure to enjoy because of its nostalgic hint of another topnotch twin cities personality, and we've even shifted our desk from our old office in the student union's third floor men's room to one of the unused studios in the campus radio station. (We have unlimited press facilities here at State.)

But enough idle prattle—(as though we could possibly write anything else!)

* * *

First, a bit of news from the Student Union Activities Board; we are informed by eminent Unionologist Gordon Kepner that at long last the many pool sharks on campus will have a chance to work their art for a use other than to gain pocket money. The recreation committee of the S. U. A. B. is sponsoring a big fat pocket billiards tourney here at State in conjunction with national collegiate competition.

An announcement concerning this event will appear elsewhere in this week's issue, if none of the Spectrum's usual snafus appear. As an afterthought, we imagine Hal Miller will be back in the old game room, polishing up the old cue. In case you didn't know, the bard of KVOX shoots a wicked game of snooker.

* * *

And, for a little friendly Greek competition in which a good time should be had by all, grab a cadaver and attend the Interfrat Ball tonite at the Crystal. Should provide a great opportunity for a little elbow bending, as well as a chance to vote for your frat's candidate for Model Man. The candidates this year really have it—all the way from Joe "Rocky" Rullifson to Jim "No Shoes" Rumpca.

If these guys can convince their own frat brothers they are campus "Models", they must have something on the ball.

* * *

Along the same line of thought, we have had multi nominations pouring in from all over campus, both male and female, for the weekly campus toad award. This week, as last, we are hesitant about making a choice for this singular, if not somewhat dubious honor, since, upon perusing an old, dusty zoology book, we came across the bit of information that the insectivorous toad has been known to destroy and devour such little bugs as the common North Dakota Beetle, of the species Spectus Reportus.

So, for this week, let us admonish you to watch for the new Toad, which has been cutting its swath across the state campus, all but ruining the minds of some of State's more notable personages. Observers have timed the Toad's arrival at the Union on about the 24th of February, so act now, while there is still time. The sides you split may be your own.

* * *

'Nuff said about forthcoming surprises. For the time being, let us leave you with a bit of wisdom from SC's No. 1 Indiana Hoosier, Mike Jones, who maintains that "It's better to have halitosis than no breath at all."

"Boy, that little brother is the most expensive I've ever bribed!"

As I predicted, all you girls who didn't ask guys to the Spinster are now waiting in vain for your telephone to ring in hopes of a date for the interfraternity ball. However, I predict that if you guys will just give in this once and ask a girl to the dance that you will be rewarded with a date to the Charity Ball. Sound like a fair deal? If so, get on that phone.

Candy

was passed at the Phi Mu house last week by Darlene Geiving and Lila Asmundson in honor of their recent engagements. Passing candy at the Gamma Phi house on Monday was Joan Nelson in honor of her recent engagement to Walt Fogel, Sig alumn. Bev Tyson, Kappa, passed candy for her engagement to Dick Woodward, SAE on Monday also.

Serenaded and given roses by the SAE's on Monday evening in honor of their recent pinnings were Wilma Husband, Theta, who is pinned to Martin Burley; Sally Richards, Theta, who is pinned to Jim Harvey; Pat Larson, Gamma Phi, who is pinned to Tip Miller; and Veronica Peters, Kappa, who is pinned to Guy Enabnit.

New Pledges

for the TKE's are Roger Christenson, Gary Johnson, Robert Boone and Oscar Bjerke. For the Farmhouse are Charles Metzinger, Harley Swanson, and Fred Boehmans.

New Actives

at the ATO house are Gene Foster, Jim Thiele, Brian McDaniels and Bill Buck. At the Farmhouse are Lyle Ziemann and Donald Anderson and at the TKE house we find Bill Brandvik as a new active.

on Monday evening was held with the Kappa Alpha Theta's and the Kappa Psi's. The Kappa Delta's also entertained some SPD's over for supper on Monday evening. The Kappa's entertained faculty members at their house for tea on Wednesday.

Pledge Skip

of the week was staged by the Kappa Psi's with the KD's and Theta's attending.

Visitor

at the Phi Mu house was Mrs. Don Newell, president of the 8th district of Phi Mu who is on her yearly inspection tour. Mrs. Newell is from Ottumua, Iowa. A dinner in her honor was held Friday evening with the House Board and Alumni Advisory Council present.

Entertainments

Thursday evening Alpha Gamma Delta entertained Theta Chi fraternity.

New Actives

At the Kappa Psi house are Sol and Darrel Goldfine, Mike Myrdal, Charles Friese, Blayne Myhre, Phliip Larke, and Raymon Berger.

Independent Student Association Offers Non-Greeks Outlet For Leadership Ability

An independent is one who is not a member of a Greek organization; but one who wants to enjoy the social advantages of such an organization without its cost and obligation.

We chose to organize, because we feel that within our great numbers, there is much potentiality for leadership, and through this organization we have opportunities to express ourselves. And we also feel that an Independent Organization gives us a chance to learn more about college life (campus life in particular) and gives us a chance to work together for the good of all students. We feel that the campus is a great laboratory, or proving ground for preparing ourselves for the job of being good citizens in the world that we must meet outside of school.

We do not feel that we are in competition with the fraternities and sororities on campus. In fact, a few of us feel that our organization gives us a chance to test our abilities to see if we would be an asset to the Greeks.

We of the Independent Student Association are sure that we can prove to be a worth-while organization on this campus. One that all the students can be proud of.

NDSC Graduate Pictured In Connection With Look Article On Food Irradiation

Dr. Calvin Konzak, an NDSC graduate of a decade ago, is pictured in an article in the current issue of Look magazine, featuring new techniques of irradiating foods. Dr. Konzak, associate geneticist at the Brookhaven National Laboratory, Upton, N. Y., was an agronomy major at NDSC, then took further work at Cornell university, where he received his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees.

His home is at Devils Lake. Two of his brothers who also attended NDSC are Richard, now teaching at Devils Lake, and Peter, who operates the home farm in that community.

In the Look article (Feb. 7 issue) Dr. Calvin Konzak is pictured with a test tube sample of rust resistant oats resulting from mutations produced as result of bombardment with gamma rays from radioactive cobalt.

Similar efforts have been made by the Experiment Station here at NDSC to cause mutations of wheat which would be resistant to stem rust.

Union Board Plans Bridge Class, Social Forum, Coed Night

By Mrs. Tarbell

Multi new activities headline the halls of the union for the next few weeks and the union board is moving forward with additional plans to make the fullest use of the facilities that the student center has to offer.

Bridge Instruction

It's still not too late to sign up at the office of the union director for bridge instruction. At 1.50 for seven lessons, it's a bargain that you can't afford to miss.

Gary Hart, bridge master, will teach all novices and any student or faculty member is welcome to come to the union any Wednesday nights through March 7 from 7:30 to 9:30.

Social Forum

If your organization or living group would like to learn the latest on campus etiquette contact Kent Sack or Margaret McBride and make a date for this group.

The social forum is the brain child of the Creative Arts committee of the student union activities board and is available to all organizations on campus.

Coed Night In Game Room

February 7 and 21 will be two nights the gals won't feel out of place in the game room for those two nights are reserved especially for them.

Competent instructors will be on hand to aid beginners, all for the usual fee of 60 cents per hour.

Placement Service . . .

Jan. 30, Monday—Equitable Life Assurance Soc. will interview Business students or others interested in insurance sales and administrative work.

Jan. 31, Tuesday — Northern States Power Co. will interview M.E.'s, E.E.'s & C.E.'s.

Feb. 1, Wednesday—Kearney & Trecker will interview M.E.'s and E.E.'s.

Feb. 2, Thursday—LeTourneau Westinghouse will interview M.E.'s, E.E.'s and Ag. E.'s.

Feb. 3, Friday—Corps of Engineers are interested in C.E.'s, E.E.'s, M.E.'s and Arch. E.

Engineer Activities

ASME Meeting

All members of the SC chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers are urged to attend the next meeting of the group next Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the north conference room of the student union. Pictures will be taken for the Bison annual.

* * *

ASAE Banquet

American Society of Agricultural Engineers held their annual banquet last week with fifty members in attendance. Main speaker of the evening was Dean Holm of the school of agriculture who talked on opportunities in the technical field of agriculture.

Other guests present were Dean Mirgain of the school of engineering and Mr. William Halone, a machinery dealer from Rolla.

Next Thursday evening the ASAE regular meeting will be held at 7:30 in the ag engineering building. All students in mechanized agriculture and agricultural engineering are invited to attend.

John Johnson, Reg Gorder To Manage Little International

By Don Schwartz

March 3rd has been selected as the date for the 30th annual Little International Livestock Exposition sponsored by the NDSC Saddle and Sirloin Club.

John Johnson is manager for this year's show, with Reggie Gorder serving as assistant manager.

The Hall of Fame banquet is scheduled for the evening of March 2nd when an outstanding North Dakota Agriculturalist will be honored. The Hall of Fame honoree is selected each year by the membership of the Saddle and Sirloin Club and receives recognition for his outstanding agricultural work by having his picture placed in the Hall of Fame in Sheppard Arena.

Agricultural Engineering Club will hold a farm equipment show in the Ag. Engineering building the afternoon of the livestock show. Merrill Johnson and John Vogel head the Ag. engineering division of the show.

Also held in conjunction with the livestock show will be the crops show and crops judging contest sponsored by the Agronomy Club. Larry O'Keefe is in charge of the crops judging contest with Laverne Linnell head of the crops show.

General staff appointments for the show include Darrell Johnson, catalog editor; Russ Bieri, advertising manager; Arlo Howe, master of ceremonies; Don Moore, business manager; Dave Huckle, arena manager; Ken DeKrey and Duane Erickson, chairmen of the Hall of Fame banquet.

Directorships include Bob Magill, ticket sales; Don Schwartz, publicity; Joe Ruliffson, queen contest; Tom Gates, special events.

Superintendents of awards are Dick States and Merlyn Austin.

Division directors are Don Phillips, beef; Ron Brandvold, Dairy; Pete Lundwall, exhibits; Paul Hanson, poultry; Maynard Helgaas, sheep; Jim Schumacher, swine.

Staff assistants include Jerome Pekas, assistant catalog editor; Eugene Rott, assistant advertising manager; Laverne Kreft, assistant arena manager; Neil Bjornson, assistant publicity director; Ronnie Brandvold, engineers publicity director; Howard Cariveau, agronomy publicity director; Ron Nelsen, assistant ticket sales director; and Allyn Marifjeren assistant crops contest chairman.

AWS Meeting Planned

Women's Senate will hold its all Associated Women Students meeting in the student union ballroom February 6 at 9. All women students on campus are members of this group and are urged to attend the gathering.

The meeting is being held to discuss the need and importance of women in NDSC's student government. At the meeting a primary election will also take place to select three or four candidates for student government.

Baseball Team Plans Eleven Day Tour Through Southern States This Spring

By Wayne Wornor
North Dakota State College's baseball team will make a spring trip through the South this year through the cooperation of school officials, coaches, businessmen, and students at the college.

During the trip the diamond nine will meet some of the top college baseball teams in the country on an eleven day tour that will begin March 24 with the team leaving the college and returning here April 3.

Head coach Cliff "Bony" Rothrock will take a twenty man squad, plus coaches and managers, for the southern swing.

Leaving Fargo March 24, the team will work out at Omaha, Nebraska and then travel to Fayetteville, Arkansas for a game with Arkansas University. On the 27th of March the team will play Arkansas Tech at Russellville and Arkansas State at Jonesboro on the 28th.

Memphis, Tennessee will be the next stop for the Bison nine after Arkansas for a three game series with the Memphis Air Force team.

One more game may possibly be scheduled in Missouri on the tour, but as yet no team has been named. After a workout at the University of Iowa the team will return home on April 3.

To help finance the trip the athletic department tonight is sponsoring an all star wrestling match at the fieldhouse at 8:15 through the cooperation of Fargo sports promoter Abe Wallace.

In addition a show co-sponsored by th baseball team is planned for the Crystal ballroom on March 6, featuring the singing group the Four Lads.

Automobiles for the trip have been made available by W. W. Wallwork and Overvold Motors of Fargo. The Alumni Association, Letterman's club, and the Rahjahs have also indicated that they will make donations to the trip fund.

Promoted as an added incentive for athletics at SC, the trip is designed to encourage drawing power and possibly move NDSC into national attention as a sports power.

Also, the trip will mark the first attempt by any North Central Conference school to furnish an incentive to a good baseball team. No other scool in the league has ever made a spring trip like that proposed for the Bison nine.

Bowling Roundup SC Bowling Team Registers 2 Wins

The NDSC bowling team got off to a good start with a double win over a pair of downtown teams. The Herd defeated the American Legion 40&8 2353 to 2297 and swamped Whitey Clark's Flame Tavern team 2513 to 2282. Setting the pace for the Bison was soph Tom Engh with a 578 series that included a 223 game.

This weekend the bowling team has a telegraphic match with a tough Dickinson Teachers College team and also battles a pair of downtown teams. The matches are scheduled for Saturday afternoon and evening.

First round winners in the Union Leagues were Kappa Psi (All-Star), Coop House (Classic), Skyline Cafe (NDSC Women's league) and the Hi Balls (WAA).

Last week's matches in the All-Star League found Sigma Chi taking a pair from the TKE's. John Jacobsen set the pace with a 508 total. Dakota Hall dropped three to Vet's Club. Dennis Gehring threw the heavy ball in this match with a 516 series. Kappa Psi continued its winning ways with a double win over SAE. Ted Magnon's 536 was tops. In the final match, Dick Sunde's Union team scores a sweep over Theta Chi.

League leading A.S.C.E. rolled over A.S.M.E. to stretch their lead to six games in the Engineer's League. Tom Engh fired a 560 for the losers and Frank Bosworth a 540 for the CE's. A.I.A. won the opening pair but dropped the nite-cap to I.A.S. and in the final match the A.S.A.E. lost the opener to A.I.E.E. but captured the final pair. Dennis Lindemann shot a 173 game for the Aggies.

Gebhart, Brynteson Known As Mutt, Jeff

By Bill Baillie

The two herd cagers to receive consideration in this week's entrant in the Spectrum's "Meet the Team" series are two who may be aptly dubbed the "Mutt and Jeff" of the sophomore contingent on this year's team. We are referring, of course, to Roger Gebhart and Al Brynteson.

Gebhart, the only man on the squad who doubles in football, is a 5'10" 180-pounder who is in his first year of basketball here at State. A former Wahpeton High all-stater, Rog led his team to the North Dakota State Class A championship in his senior year.

It is hoped that with a year's varsity experience, Gebhart can utilize his deadly shooting eye to follow in the footsteps of a succession of top notch Bison backcourt men.

Mr. Tall of the sophomore Bison is Al Brynteson. The 6'5" center from Plentywood, Montana has been showing surprising improvement this year, and is fast establishing himself as the number two candidate for the center position behind John Haas.

Although not expected to be of much help to the team this season, Al has shown his willingness to work hard, and by virtue of his ability as a feeder and rebounder, has all but nosed out Big Zeke Anderson for one of the center berths on the team.

It is coach Bentson's hope that these two men can gain the experience so necessary for rugged NCC play this season, as he looks for them to be starters for the 56-57 edition of the Thundering Herd.

From Out Of The Lion's Den

By Jim Beatty
Last week the Bison downed their toughest opponent in the conference only to be beaten by a "fresh and hot" team from the U. of South Dakota.

This Coyotes team was fresh because of a mutual deal between the U. of South Dakota and upstate. This "shady agreement" was designed to give the U. of North Dakota a chance to down powerful but supposedly tired SDS team and to give the University of South Dakota a chance to get the Herd.

Well, the Sioux failed but the USD didn't and thus the Bison made it two in the Deadly loss column. Wait until next time the Coyotes meet the Herd.

The Bison have the weekend off and will play their arch inter-city rivals, MSTC Dragons, this coming Monday at the Field House. The Bison will be out to knock off a team who knocked them out of the holiday tournament at Concordia. Watch out Dragons.

Next weekend the Bison varsity travel down on that last tough southern drive. They will face last week's opponents, the U. of South Dakota and South Dakota State. Might be a good time for some SC fans to return the visit of some South Dakota honeys and at the same time back the Bison. Right Lucky Joe.

To all sororities, fraternities and groups that meet Monday night. Next Monday night when we play MSTC at the Field House why not arrange your meetings so you will be done shortly before 8:00 and then go over to the Field House to do some group cheering.

I haven't seen many of those old fired up groups, sitting in sections like the Rahjabs and SPDS used to do. It might be a good time to copy the Kappa Psis and Gamma Phis and go over in a mixed crowd like they did last fall. So prexys arrange your meetings Monday night and boost the Bison.

To all skaters—Back of the Field House we have a skating rink with a warming house. This is open, I believe, from 7 to 10 o'clock except on nights when the Bison play. The ice might be a good place for a party or the classic Bromo Bowl.

A feature on these pages starting this week or next will be a weekly bowling highlights written by bowling manager Gordy Tiegen. The head for this column will be something like "Up Tiegen's Alley" or "Down In Tiegen's Alley".

Be sure and read the story on the Bison baseball trip and remember the wrestling ticket you buy tonight goes to give the Bison sluggers a boost. Hats off to the Bison varsity baseball coach, Bony Rothrock.

So long—buy your shavers buttons and grow those beards.

Names Haga Prexy; Eleven Initiated

New president of the Women's Athletic Association on campus is Judy Haga, with Leona Polsfut as vice-president. The new leaders were selected at a meeting of the group last week. Mavis Nash will continue her duties as secretary-treasurer.

Eleven girls were also initiated into the organization at the same meeting. New members are Maxine Baumann, Clare Flint, Ruth Folstrom, Arlene Hedahl, Rosemary Leupp, Pat Maloney, Gail Miller, Vel Rae Neeb, Shirley Peterson, Leona Polsfut, and Barbara Rockwood.

Badminton singles championship was captured by Judy Haga, with Gayle Joos, second place; and Gail Miller, third place. Gayle Joos and Barbara Rockwood won the doubles title, with Judy Haga and Elsie Keller, second; and Rosemary Leupp and Arlene Hedahl, third.

With one of the biggest cheering sections seen at a basketball game this year behind them, the Bison beat S. D. State here last Friday night, 88-79. The win for Chuck's boys could very easily be attributed to a fine team effort and the highest scoring by a Bison center this year.

Johnny Haas came through with his best game so far. Big John scored 20 points and snagged more than his share of rebounds before fouling out.

Model Man Merle Ludwig chipped in with 18 points and pleased the crowd more than once with his dazzling ball control. Kenny Flynn and Jim Akason had 16 apiece and Doug Walstad netted 14. Kent Hyde, S. D. center and Virg Riley led the Jacks scoring with 24 and 22 respectively. The league's leading scorer, Gene Gamache, was hampered early in the game when he drew three fouls in the first three minutes of play.

SDU Tramples Herd Saturday night a fresh S. D. University team came to Fargo and hung the second league loss on the Bison, 77-62.

It was evident far before the finish that the Bison were suffering from the brilliant game they had played the night before. The Coyotes came out the first half and built up a score that the Bison never overcame.

Gene Gamache led the Bison cagers by twinkling the twines for 17 points, enough for him to retain the scoring lead in the league. Big John Haas was close behind with 14.

S.D.U. was led by Don Jongeward with 23 and Clay Keiwell with 20. The Bison will have their chance for revenge next weekend when they travel down south for a return match with both teams.

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young scientist works on new ways to improve metals

Today scientists and engineers face one of the toughest barriers of all — the "metal barrier." Modern technology has progressed so rapidly that today's metals can't meet the tremendous demands placed upon them. For such fields as aviation, electronics, atomic energy, present metals must be improved and new kinds of materials must be developed.

One of the young men playing a role in this new and important field is 30-year-old Dr. Roland P. Carreker, Jr.

Carreker's Work Interesting, Vital

As a research associate in the General Electric Research Laboratory's Metals and Ceramics facility, Carreker's chief concern is the improvement of metals through new processing techniques.

In his work, Dr. Carreker has dealt with such important metallurgical problems as metal failure in high-speed turbine rotors, determining the strength of pure metals from -425°F, the temperature of liquid hydrogen, to 2,800°F and economic studies of new metallurgical processes.

25,000 College Graduates at General Electric

When Carreker came to General Electric in 1947, he already knew the work he wanted to do. Like each of our 25,000 college-graduate employees, he is given a chance to grow and realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: When fresh young minds are given freedom to make progress, everybody benefits — the individual, the company, and the country.

Educational Relations, General Electric Company, Schenectady 5, N. Y.

DR. ROLAND CARREKER joined General Electric in 1947 after receiving a B.S. in 1945 and an M.S. in 1947 at the University of Illinois. He received his Ph.D. in 1955 at R.P.I. under a G-E program. During World War II he served on active duty as a naval officer.

Women's Group Plans Meeting Feb. 6 To Endorse Slate For Campus Election

All women students are requested to attend a meeting of the Associated Women's Students scheduled for February 6. At this meeting a proposed unified slate of student government candidates will be discussed and voted upon by all women students on campus.

Women's senate, representative body of the presidents of all women's groups on campus, is presently working on the problem of electing women students to positions in the student government.

Number one stumbling block for the past several years in electing any women to student government has been the lack of cooperation between women's groups on campus. Not one woman has been elected since 1953 to the student senate.

In the past few years all women's groups have voted for their own candidates with a resulting split vote in the balloting and no candidate has been able to command the necessary votes for election.

Because of the relatively small number of women students on campus, it is practically mandatory that all groups combine in the backing of candidates for student government posts.

At present the women's senate is working on a plan for the endorsement of a slate of candidates that would receive the official endorsement of the women's senate and the Associated Women's Students.

Even with such a unified plan, however, any woman desiring to petition to run for student government is free to do so.

Little International Queen Candidates Selected By Tryota

Candidates for the title of queen of the Little International Livestock show were selected last week at a meeting of the Tryota club.

In all, eight girls, all members of Tryota and students in home economics, were selected to compete for the honor. Candidates are Joan Stammen, Barbara Peterson, Sally Schroeder, Joan Cantwell, Janet Fagerland, Sandy Haas, Lois Cullen, and Bonnie Litzinger.

The queen will be chosen from among the candidates at a meeting of the Saddle and Sirloin club, sponsors of the Little International, next Tuesday evening.
