Dr. Werner Levi Scheduled To Discuss "The Far East Problem" At Convo

Just back from nine months in India, Australia, Malaya, and Siam, Dr. Werner Levi will discuss the situation there for SC students at convocation Tuesday at 9:40 a.m. in Festival Hall.

His subject, "The Far East

Today", will involve comparisons of what he found today with what things were like when he last visited India in 1950-51, and Australia in 1949.

Dr. Levi should know his stuff, according to F. G. Schoff of the convocation committee. A faculty member at the University of Minnesota, he is a scholar as well as a widely traveled observer.

Born in Germany, he studied at universities in Germany, France, and Switzerland, and won his Doctor of Laws degree there. From 1935 to 1939 he ran a financial advisory service in London while doing academic research. In this country he was Japanese Language and area coordinator on the U. of M. campus from 1942-44. Meanwhile he took a doctorate in political science, which he now teaches there.

Detailed results of his recent studies in Southeastern Asia will be published soon in his book, "Australian Relations with the Asian Nations." Other books of his include "Free India in Asia," "Modern China's Foreign Policy," and "Fundamentals of World Organization."

The talk here was arranged under the direction of the Lecture Bureau of the University of Minnesota Program Service.

Gold Star Band Plans Annual Tour; Seven Stops Slated

The North Dakota State College Gold Star Band, under the direction of William A. Euren, Associate Professor of Music, will make its annual concert tour during the week of February 13 through 17.

Band concerts have been scheduled at Mayville the afternoon of February 14, Lakota that evening, Devils Lake the afternoon of February 15, and the evening of the 15th at Rugby. On February 16 an afternoon concert is scheduled at Fessenden and that evening at Harvey. The Gold Star Band will close their tour with an afternoon concert on February 17th at New Rockford.

Organized in 1904 by the late Dr. C. S. Putnam, the band has a long record of achievement in the field of military and concert music. It has numbered among its membership many famous musicians, including Harold Bachman of Million Dollar Band fame, who is now director of Bands at the University of Florida; and James Stamp, formerly first trumpet player with the Minneapolis Symphony.

William Euren, who in his college days was cornet soloist with the Gold Star Band and assistant to Dr. Putnam, has served as band director at NDSC since 1948. He has also directed the American Legion Boys State and the Future Farmers of America bands for the past seven years, in addition to directing the Fargo Elks and El Zagal Shrine bands. For a number of years he has been a member of the Fargo-Moorhead Symphony Orchestra.

The programs will include classic, contemporary and modern music for band as well as a vocal quartet consisting of Eileen Seim, Dale Jackson, Arthur Lies, Dale Sarff; marimba solo by Grace Webb; trombone solo by Paul Irsfeld, and a clarinet solo by William Baillie.

Campus Publications Positions To Be Filled

Applications for the positions of editor and business manager of both the Spectrum and the Bison annual are now being accepted according to commissioner of publications Joe Ruliffson.

Anyone interested in applying for any of the four posts is urged to submit a letter of application containing past experience, campus activities, scholastic average, and interest at the office of public relations in the basement of the administration building.

Discussion of applicants will be held at the first meeting of the student government board of publications at the first meeting of the group in March and elections of the new heads of staff will be made at the second meeting of the body in March.

All students with any interest at all are urged to submit applications. Work on the Spectrum and Bison during the past year is not mandatory.

"King And Queen Of Hearts" To Be Selected Tonight At Charity Ball

"King and Queen Of Hearts" will be chosen at tonight's Charity Ball, the second girl ask boy affair of the year scheduled from 9 to 12 tonight at the student union ballroom.

Tickets for the event are on sale by Panhellenic Council members, sponsoring organization, to women students only for 2 dollars per couple. Paul Hanson and his orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

NDSC "Model Man" Duane Swenson, will serve as master of ceremonies for the dance. "King and Queen of Hearts" will be selected by a drawing of names and each of them will receive prizes in honor of the occasion.

Feature of the dance will be progressive dancing to begin after the crowning of the king and queen. The honored couple will begin dancing and then they will invite others onto the floor.

The dance will be semi-formal and all arrangements are in charge of various members of the Panhellenic Council, central body of all sororities on campus. Sandra Haas is general chairman of the event.

Sororities, their activities, and chairmen include Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, publicity, Mary Helen Peterson chairman; Kappa Delta sorority, chaperones and coat check, Kappa Delta sorority, Pat Trom, chairman;

Phi Mu sorority, decorations, awards, and drawing, Pat Noden, chairman; Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, tickets, Pat Monson, chairman; Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, invitations, Elaine Geizler, chairman; and Gamma Phi Beta sorority, special arrangements, Shirlene Schnell, chairman.

Woman Winner Of Man Of Year Award To Appear

A national leader in the League of Women Voters, who has the unique distinction of having been named Man of the Year in her home community, will speak here Feb. 14, sponsored by the Fargo-Moorhead Open Forum.

Mrs. Alf H. Gundersen of LaCrosse, Wis., was given the Man of the Year citation by her home town's Chamber of Commerce because she participated in an extensive speaking tour in 1948-49 to further community understanding of the United Nations.

Widely traveled in Europe, the internationally-minded Mrs. Gundersen found that explaining the United Nations to her local league and her community was her most interesting project. She was sent to a special meeting of the League of Women Voters at Lake Success in 1948, which quickened her interest in the U. N.

As international relations head of the LaCrosse league, she set up two panels of five persons each, who went to meetings of veterans, church women, children, businessmen, farmers and others and told them about the United Nations.

Mrs. Gundersen's Open Forum talk in Emerson Smith school Feb. 14 will deal with the obligation of all U. S. citizens to become informed about state, national and world events so that such citizens may vote wisely in elections.

Campus Radio Features New Entertainment

Grace Webb's "Repose", every Tuesday evening from 8:30 till 10:00 is another delightful half hour of entertainment on KDSC. Grace is a freshman, belonging to the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Majoring in home economics, Grace's home is in Montevideo, Minn. She plays the sentimental type music for young lovers which everyone enjoys.

Listen today and every day to KDSC, 750 on your radio dial.

Newman Club Meets

Newman club will hold its regular weekly meeting Sunday at 7 at the center. New members will be formally installed and club pins will be distributed.

Pictures of the club members for the Bison annual will be taken after the meeting and following there will be a record party at the chapel.

Alpha Zeta Initiates Seven Members

Wallace (Red) Barrow, national secretary of Alpha Zeta, spoke Wednesday evening at the semi-annual Alpha Zeta initiation banquet held in the student union.

Barrow, who serves as alumni secretary at Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa, spoke on the challenge and purpose of the fraternity, a national honorary agricultural fraternity. He pointed out that Alpha Zeta should serve to develop leadership in the field of agriculture.

He further stressed the importance of not serving purely as a recognition group and that projects should be undertaken by the fraternity to promote the college and the profession of agriculture.

Roger Johnson, president of the NDSC Alpha Zeta chapter, opened the banquet with the welcome. Delbert Hlavinka gave a reading from Steinbeck. Toastmaster for the evening was Don Schwartz.

President Fred S. Hultz attended as a chapter guest.

New initiates for the winter quarter were introduced. They include Vern Ness and Darrel Johnson, seniors; Arden Herman, Merle Larson, Alan Olson, Elmo Skare, and Konrad Weiser, juniors.

A meeting of chapter officers and advisors with Mr. Barrow followed the banquet.

Make SC A NCC Challenger; Then Take On The Big Ones

By Lee Johnson

North Dakota State College's football coaching staff is apparently bent on moving the college into faster competition in national football circles, no matter what the cost might be to the school itself and the players who will perform on the field. These steps are being taken while the Bison hang on the ropes of a sixteen game losing streak that has stretched out over the past two seasons.

Scheduling of Missouri University is indeed a good thing from the financial angle. Everyone will admit that our impoverished athletic department could use a few more shots in the arm that such games provide. Still, it would seem that the powers that be in the athletic circles on campus would wait until the Herd has proven itself equal to meeting competition of such a high caliber.

Naturally it is a tremendous opportunity for our small college to meet in nationally prominent athletic powerhouses, even though there are those that would argue whether or not Missouri is a powerhouse. Still, they managed to produce probably the best end in college football last year.

The Bison are in the midst of a giant rebuilding program. Next year approximately sixty men should turn out who have either won letters or received frosh numerals for play last fall. Yet, in games played with big schools the past two years—the SC squad has taken fearful drubbings.

For the past two years the Bison have been the doormats of the North Central Conference. One team after another has humbled the once proud Bison standard into the mud and last season the State team finished with a truly dismal 0-9 record for the season.

The Bison lacked scoring punch, defensive power, and most of the other qualities that go to make up a fine football team. Only through sheer determination of the members of the team did the Herd manage to evade being run right out of the NCC.

Now the coaching staff feels that the Herd is sufficiently strong, with the addition of another group of outstanding freshman players, to move up to the level of Big Seven competition.

Personally it would seem that the smartest thing to do would be to sit back one more year, at least, before embarking on such a widespread program of expansion. A North Central Conference title trophy in the field house would make a lot of difference.

Football at one time was supposed to be a game designed mainly to promote the physical strength and stamina of the individual players involved. Now it would seem that the players are becoming merely pawns in the battle to enhance personal reputation.

Agreed that the Bison gridiron stalwarts may play outstanding ball next year. Long years of drought are bound to pay off in wins, but next year is too early to move up. Give the boys at least one more year. Let's break that losing streak before we face the likes of Missouri.

Staff Members Wanted - Again

Once again staff members are needed to work on the Spectrum. Anyone interested in positions as reporters, feature writers, editorial writers, rewrite personnel, or sports writers are urged to stop at the Spectrum office at any time or dial 9550.

Letter to the Editor Reader Feels Need For Frost Carnival

Dear Editor:

In the years since I have come to this institution of higher learning, it has seemed passing strange to me that a college located in this part of the country does not have some sort of winter carnival.

I fully realize that the campus community seems to be completely burdened with outside activities and that the sponsoring organizations of the various projects on campus may feel that there is just not enough time or energy to go around for any task or plan of this magnitude.

However, there actually takes place each winter quarter, many of the competitions, etc. that could go to make a successful winter celebration. Just as a matter of proof how about the snow sculpture contest and the Ugly Man on Campus contest promoted each winter term by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

It would seem that it would be a relatively easy matter to tie these two enjoyable pastimes together, combine them with a big dance, a small variety show of individual acts, and the annual basketball series with the University of North Dakota.

Probably this idea has struck many members of the student body at one time or another. Actually it wouldn't seem that a carnival would take up too much time. Possibly a group like the student senate could take it upon themselves to sponsor and coordinate the things.

This letter is just meant as kind of a shot in the dark. Possibly it will stir up enough interest to push the idea across—if that could be done it could do nothing but benefit the college with lots of extra publicity and such.

Here's hoping that someone latches onto these suggestions and puts them to good use.

Sincerely yours,
Name withheld to prevent possible recriminations.

Discussion Clinic Here Feb. 11; 150 Students Expected

The North Dakota State High School League discussion clinic for the eastern half of the state has been scheduled for the NDSC campus on Saturday, February 11.

The clinic is being sponsored by the State League, but the complete arrangements for the affair are being taken care of by the college speech department under the direction of Miss Connie West and her community programs class.

The clinic is scheduled to begin with registration at 9:30 a.m. and the first session starting at 10:00 o'clock. The clinic will hold its morning meetings in the student union and the afternoon separate discussion groups in the college library, union, and administration building.

NDSC faculty and students will serve as the first group discussion leaders and evaluators with the high school students serving as leaders during the second half in the afternoon.

Tentative plans are being made to accommodate approximately 150 high school students.

Watch for the Toad

From Under A Rock . . .

The full wrath of a siege of State Midquarterlies having all but spent itself after furtively creeping up upon us unnoticed, we can once again return to the friendly land of the typewritten column and blast out another line of lurid literature for the friendly few who are still with us.

We have made a momentous decision this week to move our place of business permanently into the friendly confines of the newly remodeled KDSC offices. It is such a joy to type out columns amidst the latest weather reports, with the likes of Brian Gackle and Pat Cantwell staring at you from across a cluttered control board.

Campus Critic Begins Column On Newest Jazz

By Chuck Phillips

BRUBECK—BEST IN '55

Only a narrow margin loss to Oscar Peterson in the piano division, kept Dave Brubeck from making the 1955 Down Beat readers poll, practically his own personal property. His group was adjudged the best instrumental combo of the year, and Dave was named the personality of the year in Jazz. His featured altoist, Paul Desmond, captured tops in his division in a walkaway. Also featured in the combo are Bob Bates on bass, and Joe Dodge on the drums.

Jazz, Brubeck style, first went to college at Oberlin College in the spring of 1953. Oberlin College, which had always been on the established classical literature side of musical activity, finally, with a few enthusiasts, promoted a Brubeck concert. In spite of early doubts and a lack of encouragement, the concert was a huge success. From that time on, Brubeck has been playing concert all over America in colleges and universities.

The Brubeck Quartet employs improvisation to a degree unknown to any other jazz group before the public today. The quartet improvises with freedom and daring such as few musicians have ever attempted, yet the music of this group is of integrated quality.

The quartet accomplishes its wonders of improvisation by dividing itself in half. A swinging, driving rhythm section, which lays down a solid beat, and Paul and Dave working against the drum and bass. Sometimes Dave and Paul get removed from the beat so far, one wonders how they get back. Brubeck says: "We preserve Jazz by swinging constantly, but never cease to emphasize structure—structure growing out of improvisation."

N. D. Bankers Back NDSC Ag. Shortcourse

Bankers are sound businessmen, inclined not to gamble.

Yet North Dakota bankers have bet nearly $1,000 per week on the value of the NDSC winter short course in agriculture.

The course lasts eight weeks, and bankers in the state have given between $7,000 and $8,000 in scholarships to aid young men attending the course.

The current course has enrolled 120 boys, with 60 of them receiving cash scholarships. All but three of the scholarships have been donated by home town banks. The other three are a group of implement dealers, a group of creameries, and a Farmers Union group.

This is the fifth year of this winter short course. The year, number of students enrolled and number given scholarships (mostly from banks and uniformly for $125 each) are: 1952—100 and 50; 1953—124 and 48; 1954—105 and 47; 1955—116 and 50; 1956—120 and 60.

Nominations for Campus Toad are still pouring in from all sides, but we are steadfastly adhering to our "hands off" policy in anticipation of the forthcoming surprise??? Which is to be the New Toad. The Toad is coming closer. Don't say we didn't warn you.

This 29-days-in-February deal is really snowballing on campus this year. Already the leap year has produced one "turnabout" dance, with the second, the Charity Ball to be held tonight. A tip to the masculine faction—don't let them get away with anything—treat 'em rough. Any guy who lets his "escort" escape with any of her weekly allowance unspent should be hauled up before the Interfraternity Council magistrates to account for his short-comings.

And, remember the beard growing contest. Rahjah chairman Arv Vasenden informs me that the three trophies may be viewed in the bowling alley in the next two or three weeks. Just in case you missed out on last week's issue, we'll clue you in again on the awards, which are to be made at the half of the first "home" game of the UND series. The date is February 24, and in addition to the cups for best trimmed, shaggiest, and most unusual beards, there is a possibility that merchandise prizes might be acquired from local merchants. And then we have the "best try" award for those of us who give it the old college try, but just can't produce.

Those of you who won't be making the trip to South Dakota this weekend be sure and listen to campus radio. Jack Larsen of KDSC will be migrating south tonight and tomorrow to air the games by telephone to campus radio.

While we are on the subject of basketball playing, we are reminded of a little blurb in the campus paper put out by that tribe of friendly savages to the North. It seems that it often becomes necessary for the Soox students to be fired up for the basketball fare, to the extent of their newspaper staff being forced to issue nasty editorials urging the cheerleaders to attend more athletic contests.

In one such little article, a member of the UND sports staff begrudgingly admitted that "the downstate cow-college to the south has school spirit far in excess of that shown by our own NDU students at basketball games"—or something to that effect. Hockey seems to be the controlling passion up north, as the Eskimos have no trouble packing the house for those cold affairs.

"Nuff said for the week, and for you poor unfortunate souls who haven't got your honey for tonight's brawl, just remember that "the Caliph has his harem, but the iceman has his pick."

KAPPA EPSILON

Kappa Epsilon, pharmacy sorority, recently pledged three new members. New pledges include Ingrid Lingberg, Patricia Moore, and Mary Meckstroth.

Now all you lucky boys that got up nerve enough to ask someone to the Interfraternity Ball should be getting a telephone call to the Charity Ball, which will be tonight. If you'll notice, I'm saying should, because of course there's no guarantee. I was reminded that my promise last week was a little bold. Paul Hanson will be playing for this important dance of the year. All proceeds will go to charity.

Engaged

Are Ron Schwinkendorf, SPD and Carol Hanson, formerly of Concordia, and Judy Haga to Dennis Defarr, student at MS.

Roses

Were given to Joan Nelson, Gamma Phi Beta, by the Sigs in honor of her recent engagement to Walt Fogel, Sig alum.

Congratulations

To Pat Hanson, new Theta Chi "Dream Girl" whose identity was revealed at the Theta Chi term party on Saturday evening.

Faculty

Entertained at the Gamma Phi Beta house on Monday evening were Dean Dinan, Dean Budewig, Miss Hawkins, Miss Thompson, and Miss Bernie Erickson. Wednesday evening the Alpha Gams entertained Mr. and Mrs. Richard Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bigelow.

Entertainment

Entertainment included a luncheon discussion led by Iota President Elisabeth Swenson and Joan Evenstad, tours of the campus, a banquet at the Rex Cafe, and entertainment by the Kappa Psi fraternity. A farewell breakfast was held at the Powers hotel on Sunday morning and concluded the business meetings for the group.

Miss Jane Sand, advisor for the Iota Chapter, was hostess to the group at a get-acquainted supper on Friday evening which was followed by attending the games.

Mrs. Gilford Gross, faculty advisor for the SD pharmacy group, attended the weekend meetings with the eight representatives of the Galen Society.

Patricia Noden was general chairman for the events, assisted by Joanne Sinner, Mary Ostlund, Loretta Aiperspach and Mary Pfeiffer.

Nott Hospitalized

Merle Nott, public relations director of NDSC, is hospitalized at the Veterans Hospital while he undergoes surgery. It is expected that he will be absent from his post for approximately two weeks.

In Nott's absence, assistant public relations director Barbara Swering is in charge of operations.

New 3-D Feature

The 3-D Center has just added "Stereophonic Sound". That sound is the noon meal now in progress at the college Y. Speakers and discussions are planned throughout the week; every day except Wednesday. The program will include both religious and secular subjects with an eye for interests of all types.

torial ace, the Spectrum is this week initiating a similar scheme. For one time, and one time only, yours truly will barrage you with a host of unimportant facts that are designed more to confuse than to inform and mainly to fill up space—of which there is lots of empty this time around.

Nuff said on the homefront. As all of you sparkling students have already been informed, millions of times, the past five days have been in mourning. Mid-term examinations are finally gone and all over campus vast sighs of relief are expiring into the frosted air.

Mellow Mel Ostby, jovial man about campus, is worrying just a tish over one of his deadlines. Again the people from the big city are turning the screws and demanding more and more copy. There has been some talk among people prominent on the Bison staff that maybe it would be easier not to bother putting out an annual this year. Gosh, just think of all the money that could be saved.

Hundreds of people have demanded that Campus Radio broadcast as many out of town games as possible and finally big boss Jack Larson has yielded to their demands. ## Blue Key Picks Activities Heads For Bison Brevities

At the Wednesday evening meeting of Blue Key in the Ceres Hall banquet room staff appointments for Bison Brevities were completed.

Staff members for the 1956 edition of Bison Brevities include Bob Gion, director; John "Tip" Miller, assistant director; Arlo Howe, business manager; Don Schwartz, assistant business manager; Mel Ostby, publicity director; Jack Larson, assistant publicity director.

Les Amundson, ticket sales; Gaylord Olson, assistant ticket sales; Joe Ruliffson, judges chairman; Kerry Murphy, assistant judges chairman; Del Shoephoester, program chairman; Sylvan Melroe, assistant program chairman; Marvin Bender, art director; and Jack Southam, assistant art director.

The 1956 Brevities are scheduled for April 18, 19, 20. Production and curtain acts have been chosen for the final production.

BISON ANNUAL NOTES

All organizations desiring picture appointments for the Bison annual must contact Ron Nelson for arrangements at either 9550 or 23158. All photo plans must pass through Nelson for the convenience of the staff and interested organizations.

Seniors wishing to make additions to their sheets of activities for the annual may do so if they stop at the annual office not later than tomorrow morning. This plan goes into effect because of the additional activities some students have joined since the beginning of the school year.

pus, our radio station.

Guess that's all for this time. It's been fun and we'll see all of you down in South Dakota.

Students Debate Need For Language

MINNEAPOLIS—(ACP) — One tradition of higher education insists that college students have a commanding knowledge of a foreign language before being allowed to graduate. Years ago Latin and Greek were most frequently studied; then French, German and Spanish assumed greater popularity. Today some sentiment shifts toward dropping the language requirement or allowing other courses to be substituted for a language.

The whole question is a many faceted one indeed, and most college students realize this fact. To obtain their views on this subject the Associated Collegiate Press asked the following question of a representative cross-section of college students across the nation:

Many colleges and universities require a student to show a commanding knowledge of a foreign language before he is allowed to graduate. Do you personally approve of this requirement?

The results:

	Men	Women	Total
Yes	45%	55%	49%
No	45%	41%	43%
Undecided	10%	4%	8%

The figures indicate a slight tendency toward favoring a language requirement, with the coeds showing a decided preference. When freshmen and sophomores are compared with juniors, seniors, and graduates, however, the results look like this:

	Frosh & Soph	Jr.-Sr. & Grad
Yes	43%	57%
No	45%	40%
Undecided	12%	3%

Analysis of student comments indicates that students favoring the requirement tend to have more generalized ideas, while students opposing the requirement tend to express more specific reasons for their opinions.

Many of the comments from students favoring the requirement are qualified to the extent that they only favor the requirement in specific fields of study.

Pro language-requirement arguments generally follow one of three broad topics. First, the school of thought that feels a language is necessary for a good liberal education, which is represented by a sophomore at Northern Oklahoma Jr. College (Tonkawa, Okla.) who says "It is a necessary element of a good liberal arts background."

"It is the best way to understand other nations" says a sophomore coed at the University of Arkansas (Fayetteville, Ark.). This statement portrays the second school of thought.

The third school of thought is represented by a number of students that feel the study of a foreign language helps them with English grammar.

Students resisting a language requirement generally fall into four groups of thought: 1) no need for a language; 2) time could be better used in other fields; 3) language is forgotten too soon and thus a waste of time; 4) students' field of study should be the decisive factor.

A freshman coed at the University of Nebraska (Lincoln, Neb.) feels that "it is not necessary to know a foreign language to be well educated. We forget it too soon anyway." A sophomore coed at the Richmond Professional Institute (Richmond, Va.) says "some people would never have need of a foreign language."

"Time spent in this field (foreign language) could be used more advantageously to get a better-rounded education" states a senior coed at Texas State College for Women (Denton, Texas).

A senior from Iowa State College (Ames, Iowa) echoes the thought of most students who oppose the requirement when he says "It depends upon the curriculum and vocational objectives."

World Famous Billiards Champion Set To Visit Student Union For Exhibition

Charles C. (Show-me-a-shot-I-can't-make) Peterson, internationally famous billiard authority and fancy shot champion of the world, will visit NDSC on February 13, 14 and 15th. Peterson's appearance at the student union will mark one of approximately 100 visits this season to leading institutions of higher learning.

This season's tour, an annual high light on the various school's extra-curricular agenda, is the twenty fifth. It, as formerly, is under the direct sponsorship of the Association of College Unions.

Peterson's repertoire is unique in annals of billiards, it provides more than unexcelled entertainment, long to be remembered. "Pete" stands alone as a trick-shot artisan, having held the world fancy shot championship since the days of Model T, and students and faculty don't require the instincts of a homing pigeon to find the table upon which Pete is playing, lecturing, instructing, and providing rich humor, which present-day comedians would be fortunate to possess.

Peterson has a one word formula for success: "Practice." During his career, he has diagrammed about 1,000 difficult shots. Sometimes it takes long practice to learn the shot expertly, but once learned it never is forgotten, and he not only claims, but proves to his audience that each individual can learn the shot too, and therefore be better prepared to play better billiards, and derive more pleasure from what once was called the "gentleman's game."

As to that, the grand ol' man of the cue realm will disagree, as he proved long ago, billiards holds a particular appeal to the distaff side—just come to the exhibition and see for yourself. This season, more than ever before, he will stress co-ed competition to the physical education directors.

"Billiards is a decent, fine game," Peterson says, and the Association of College Unions have done a great job to bring the game to the fine youth of our country.

Augustana Becomes Giant Killer of NCC

By Lee Johnson

Due to the untimely departure of the worthy Jim Beatty, former Spectrum sports editor and general man about campus, your ugly reporter has shifted attentions over to a spot of general attention, the sports page. For the next few issues—at least—I'll be holding forth from this spot bringing you various little tidbits of sports information and etc.

IT WOULD SEEM that there are a few red faces up around Grand Forks and the campus of igloo tech, especially, about now. As some of you may remember, various campus wags took it upon themselves to hang hockey coach "Fido" Purpur in effigy.

Last weekend the vaunted Sook ice brigade got back on the winning track and vented long pent-up rage on the hapless shoulders of arch-rival Minnesota university. Now, everyone in the barrens loves old "Fido" again. Sports fans are fickle people.

APPARENTLY THE Augustana Vikings have taken upon themselves the role of giant-killer in the North Central Conference this basketball season. The up and coming Norsemen now have a splendid record in league play and have elevated themselves into the title picture.

Most of the squad are lanky sophomores and when they get hot no one can handle them. Straggly Iowa State Teachers felt the heat of the Viking power last weekend and took a real pasting. Let's hope the Herd gets by the Sioux Falls heroes in their next hardcourt encounter.

DRIFTING AROUND in space for a few lines, it appears that little Mayville State Teachers College really has a basketball team this year. The awesome Comets have swept everything before them so far this year in the North Dakota Intercollegiate Athletic conference and have racked up a nice fat win streak.

Two men especially stand out in my mind as sparkplugs of the powerful Mayville squad. Luther Arnolds, good enough to be named to the all-European team in service basketball a couple of years ago, and Willy-Bill Brady, former SC frosh flash have been hooping a sizeable number of points lately.

Wonder how a round-robin tournament between MSTC, Minot State Teachers, NDU, and NDSC would be after the four schools all finish their regular schedules. All proceeds to go to the March of Dimes or something.

MISTAKE OF THE WEEK was made last Friday night in scheduling the wrestling match for the same night as the Interfraternity ball. Bad weather kept most of the regular downtown mat fans away and most of the college crowd was either dancing, tobogganning, or taking in the LSA Variety show.

TALK GOING AROUND would have us believe that the future of SC in sports is ever upward. Perhaps now would be a good time to think about winning an NCC title or two in football and starting an NCC baseball loop before someone goes hog-wild and starts sending the Herd sports squads up into the somewhat thin atmosphere of big-time college athletics.

ACCORDING TO PRESS releases there are seventy-five intramural basketball teams in action down at South Dakota State this quarter. It might be interesting to see just how many spare-time quints are operating on this campus. Just for a point of comparison, the enrollment at SDS is only about two hundred larger than here at State.

GUESS IT'S ABOUT time to get down off my perch and close out for the week. Don't forget the Bison road games tonight and tomorrow night at South Dakota State and South Dakota University.

Thanks to Eugene Fitzgerald, sports editor of the Fargo Forum, for all his support in recent weeks to athletics and things in general at SC. It's hard to admit, but Fitz is probably the best friend the college has in the area.

So long for now, hope we'll see all of you next week. Buy "shaver's buttons".

Varsity Bowlers Lose Three In Week; Meet Wildcats For Series Saturday

By Gordy Teigen

The varsity bowling team had a rough weekend in dropping three matches. Bison keglers were defeated by the Fargo Forum and Frederick Martin Hotel teams from downtown leagues.

On Saturday night, the Herd dropped a telegraphic match to Dickinson Teachers College 2428 to 2482. Dave Hilling with a 543 series made the best showing in the three matches.

This Saturday afternoon, the Bison entertain the Wahpeton Science Wildcats in a three game match. The Science team is the defending N. Dak. Intercollegiate bowling champs. A win would give the Herd a 3 and 3 record.

IN LEAGUE PLAY Juda Haga's 444 on games of 151-145-148 took scoring honors in the WAA league. Kathy Gerties put together games of 151-141-146 for a nice 438 total. Other counts: Kay McGearly 157, Elaine Willy 148 and Vel Ray Neeb a 141.

Dave Hilling fired the big gun in the Engineer's league with a 552 series on games of 178-195-179 as he led the A.S.M.E. team to a triple win over I.A.S. The M.E.'s also shot an unusual team score in games of 666-666-668. The double E's put a damper on the league leading A.S.C.E. gang. Zastera led the way with a 181 game to help capture the first two games. In a low scoring match, A.S.A.E. won a pair from A.I.A.

Kappa Psi No. 1 blasted out a three game win over Co-op House in the Classic league. This was a team effort as Geno Daly, Art Kautzmann and Art Lies shared scoring honors. Newman Club scored a sweep over the Men's Dorm team with Dick Sauer hitting the maples for a 213 game. The S.P.D.'s continued the sweeps with a triple win over A.G.R. Don Hanson rocked the timber with a 509 series that included a 200 game.

The Student-Staff league found Bill Hoyman rolling a 503 to lead Phytoboy to a double win over Farm House No. 1. L.S.A. won their first game of the second round in their match with Farm House No. 2. Don Moore's 176 was in this battle. After splitting the first two games, Soils and Co-op House finished in a deadlock for the third counter and furnished the first tie game of the season.

Mike Sweeney hit a 472 series and Fredericks a 191 game. Union scored the only sweep of the night and Speech the victim. Wayne Kerr a 190 game for Union and Ed Bigelow a 185 for the Speech.

The Union made it six in a row as they pounded out a 2485 in taking three games from Dakota Hall. Chuck Thurm set the pace with a 537 errorless series. Dick Sunde was high with a 553 total on games of 180-209-164.

Herd Quintet Mauls Dragons For 2nd F-M Loop Win

By Bernie Altenburg

SC's thundering Herd got back on the winning track last Monday night by mauling the outmanned MSTC Dragons 97-81 in a rough and tumble encounter on the field-house floor.

Monday's victory gives Coach Chuck Benton's gang a 2-1 record in the Fargo-Moorhead City league and ties the Herd with Concordia for first place.

Paced by the frenetic 30 points of Jim "Bazoom" Akason, the Bison out-ran and out-gunned the Moorhead State group in probably the roughest game played on the home floor in many years.

Three Bison starters left the wide-open tilt via the foul route. Taking the early trip to the showers were Gene Gamache, John Haas, and Ken Flynn. All in all, 56 fouls were called in the game, 34 against the Bison and 22 against the Dragons.

Ten men saw action for the State stalwarts as Benton all but swept the bench. In addition all of the men, except one, who saw action joined in the point parade.

Doug Walstad, Akason's running mate at guard, pumped in 18 counters to finish second in Herd scoring. Big John Haas continued his point outburst with 17, and Geno Gamache added 14.

Other scorers for the Bison were Ken Flynn and Zeke Anderson with 4 apiece, Howie "Firebrand" Heil with 6, and Merlin Ludwig and Marv Bender with 2 apiece.

As usual all three of the Bison mainline guards, Akason, Walstad, and Ludwig displayed fine ball-handling and floor generalship. Heil and Bender also looked like capable reserves.

Little Ken Reitan, former SC frosh flash, paced the Red Dragon point parade by swishing 23. Three other MSTC players, Lowell Bolger, Dale Serum, and Sherman Moe each counted 13.

Dominant feature of the ragged game seemed to be the poor condition of the floor. Both squads had trouble staying on their feet and contributed to the general shoddiness of the contest.

The 97 points scored by the Herd represent the highest total achieved by the squad this year. From all appearances the Bison are out of the doldrums.

ROTC Rifle Teams Meet In South Dakota

The army and air force ROTC rifle teams from NDSC will travel to Brookings, South Dakota this weekend for the annual South Dakota State Invitational Meet which will be held Friday and Saturday.

Friday afternoon will see the riflemen competing for the individual marksmanship trophies

Saturday morning and afternoon nine teams from six upper midwest colleges and universities will compete for the trophies which will go to the top three teams, and the medals which will be awarded to the members of the top team.

The teams and schools competing are St. Olaf air force, University of Omaha air force, North Dakota State army and air force, University of Minnesota army and air force, St. Thomas air force, and the South Dakota State army and air force teams.

Representing the AFROTC from NDSC will be Wallace Jacobson, Bob Barrows, Jim Watts, Delwin Bopp, Paul Hagen, and Charles Bopp. The army ROTC will send Jack Larson, Ron Rodgers, Richard Lukes, Marty Callans, Richard Engh, and Harry Hutter to represent them in the meet.

Bison Grid Schedule Set Next Fall; Herd Will Meet U. Of Missouri Oct. 13

The NDSC Bison gridders will meet the University of Missouri football team at Columbia, Mo. on October 13. This was announced last Saturday by head football coach, Del Anderson.

Anderson and Don Faurot, Missouri coach, completed arrangements for the scheduling of the tilt at the National Football Coaches Association convention in Los Angeles earlier this month. With the Missouri game scheduled there is only one remaining opening left to be filled to complete the 1956 grid-iron schedule. That is the November 3 date, and negotiations are now under way to have that date filled.

Traditionally the Bison will open their season against the Concordia Cobbers on Sept. 15, and they will play host to the Augustana Vikings the following weekend, Sept. 22.

The Herd will travel to Cedar Falls on Sept. 29 to engage the ISTC Panthers, and will meet Morningside's Maroons at home on Oct. 6 in a final tune-up for the big Missouri test.

Following the Missouri encounter the Bison will travel to the up-state hunting grounds of the NDU Sioux on Oct. 20. The following weekend will see them playing the defending NCC champions, South Dakota State, for the annual Homecoming game. The Bison will wind up their 1956 campaign against South Dakota University at Vermillion on Nov. 10.

Top Racketeers Travel To Mill City For Meet

SC's up and coming tennis team will journey to Minneapolis this weekend for the annual Upper Midwest Indoor tournament.

Heading the squad will be two of the area's leading players, Keith Schick ranked 17th in the area, and Peter Rex, ranked 19th last summer.

Other squad members making the junket include Dick Strommen and Eddie Treat. The State racket masters will appear in both singles and doubles competition.

Reber Wins Herd 'Mad Mile' Award; Heil Back After Year Of 'Penance'

By Bill Baillie

For this week's entry into our vast files of "Meet The Team" articles, we will take up a couple of comparative newcomers to the Herd cage squad.

The first of these "new faces" belongs to a sophomore guard who probably would win the "mad mile" award for coming the longest distance to play ball for Ol' State. We are referring, of course, to Darrel Reber, who comes to us all the way from Rudolph, Wisconsin.

"Rebe" played for the Baby Bison last year, and proved beyond a doubt the value of his defensive abilities. This '59" backcourt man from the Dairy State is finding his shooting eye this year, and his future with the Bison lies in the old intangible quantity more commonly known as experience.

Herd athletic officials are counting on Darrell to bolster the sagging guard prospects in the next two seasons.

Our next performer is not so much a newcomer to the SC campus as to the varsity basketball team. Howie Heil, a junior forward from Hancock, Minnesota, is back at State after putting in a year of "penance" at MSTC.

Howie, architectural engineering major, started at NDSC his freshman year, and transferred to the school across the river, only to return Stateside in time to be eligible for varsity basketball this season.

Standing 6'1", Heil is touted as a topnotch prospect because of his fine, aggressive spirit and desire to play. As he gains a little experience and an improved shooting eye to match his fire, look for Howie to be teaming up more and more with junior teammate Ken Flynn to provide a great deal of speed and fire at the forward posts.

Heil is a member of Sigma Phi Delta fraternity, and is a varsity baseball letterman.

Herd Quint Meets Jackrabbits, Coyotes In Tough Make-or-Break Road Series

By Neal Bjornson

SC's Bison journey into the southland and wilds of South Dakota this weekend in what appears to be the make or break series as far as Herd title hopes go in the North Central Conference this year.

Tonight Coach Bentson's gang of backboard busters face the always dangerous South Dakota University Coyotes, led by huge Don Jongeward, at Vermillion. A loss for the Sodaks would completely knock them out of the title picture.

Duane Clodfelter's Coyotes are currently tied for third place in the NCC with a 3-2 record. They feature great speed, a strong bench, and two new guards that are probably the greatest and most dangerous brother act to appear on a basketball floor in the league.

With the addition of the two new guards and the already tremendous scoring power of the SDU forward wall, the Bison will be completely outclassed in height. Speed and determination, the main SC strong points, will be pressed to the limit.

Only two weeks ago, the Coyotes, on the fieldhouse floor caught the Bison down and completely ran away with a ball game that came disastrously close to turning into a complete rout.

Saturday evening, in the key game at Brookings, the thundering Herd squares off against the South Dakota State Jackrabbits, the squad currently occupying first place in the NCC with a sparkling 4-1 record.

Jr., Sr. Foods Students Travel To Minneapolis

Junior and Senior Food & Nutrition majors are taking a trip to Minneapolis, Minnesota February 6 and 7. The purpose is to acquaint the students with the opportunities for a Home Economics Food & Nutrition graduate.

While in Minneapolis they will visit the dietetics service at the University of Minnesota hospitals, a commercial foods establishment, a public utilities company, and see the city.

The students will leave Monday morning and return Tuesday evening. They will be accompanied by Miss Sheldon.

SDS is still smarting from a defeat administered by the Bison on the last Rabbit trip into North Dakota. So far that loss is the only blemish on the State record and the Rangy Jacks would like to avenge it by moping the floor with the Bison.

Paced by a completely veteran squad, the Bunnies have forced themselves up to the point where they definitely rank now as the team to beat in the North Central conference.

Kent Hyde, Virg Riley, Dean Antoine and company have been pouring in points at a near record clip so far this season and their home floor is usually an added incentive to shoot for another scoring record.

The Bison, for this weekend, are in near perfect physical shape. Monday evening's encounter with the MSTC Dragons forced Chuck Bentson to test his bench a little more thoroughly and all reserves came through capably.

Chief worry of the Herd, the key center spot, now seems one of the strongest points of the entire squad. John Haas has found his scoring eye, and with Zeke Anderson and Al Bryntson following him up the Herd has much greater rebounding strength.

At forwards Gene Gamache and Ken Flynn continue to stand out. Marv Bender and Howie Heil have seen considerable action in recent games and in time of stress Jim Akason has proven himself a powerful scorer and rebounder. Sylvan Melroe, former number one forward replacement, also is nearly completely recovered from injuries.

Guards Akason, Doug Walstad, and Merlin Ludwig continue their three-way battle for the starting posts. In addition Roger Gebhart and Darrel Reiber display good ball handling prowess.

On all points the Bison stand ready for the road trip. Both games are must wins for the Herd and any title plans will be either enhanced or demolished this weekend.

IM Volleyball Opens Groundwork Laid For Baseball Trip

Intramural sports for the winter quarter are now in full swing with the opening of the volleyball season.

A number of teams from the various fraternities and organizations on campus have entered the race for the volleyball honors. An all-star team will be picked and this team will play several games with similar teams from other schools in this area.

In the basketball department the YMCA, Student Body 1, Kappa Psi 1, and ATO 1 are leading their respective brackets. The standings are:
