Sororities Pledge 71 Coeds

Seventy-one NDSC coeds pledged five national sororities at ceremonies held Monday evening at the respective sorority houses. The pledging ended a week of fall rushing by the NDSC sororities.

It was a very successful rushing session according to Miss Matilda B. Thompson, dean of women and Panhellenic Council advisor. Miss Thompson said that 69 girls pledged NDSC sororities during Fall Formal Rushing last year.

Rushing was open to any coed who wished to be considered for sorority membership. It began Monday, Sept. 7, with registration and a Panhellenic Kick-off party.

The remainder of rushing was divided into four periods. The first two periods were non-institutional and open to any coed. During these periods the opportunity to visit every sorority house on the campus twice.

On Friday, Sept. 11, the invitation parties began and continued through Sunday. During this period sororities and prospective members selected each other.

After parties on Sunday night the girls indicated their preferences for sororities they would like to join at a dance of women’s officers. Their preference slips were matched with the preference lists from the sororities.

Bids were mailed to selected new members by special delivery and the girls received them Monday morning.

Mrs. Jacque Stockman was the official Panhellenic consultant during the week. She did counseling in order to help rushers with any problems. In addition, six NDSC students were counselors in the sororities. The girls were members of each of the sororities on campus and severed their fraternity affiliation for the week.

They were: Kay Kliker, Alpha Gamma Delta; Lynn Airhardt, Gamma Phi Beta; Coreen Anderson, Kappa Alpha Theta; Cleone Metz, Kappa Delta; Margaret Owen, Kappa Kappa Gamma; and Mary Wallum, Phi Mu.

---

Pres. Hultz Announces 31 Staff Appointments

Thirty-one new staff appointments at NDSC were announced by President Fred S. Hults. They are:

- Mrs. M. Jean Haeler, assistant extension nutritionist, formerly home agent at New Rockford.
- Delmond N. Bennett, instructor in speech, formerly a graduate student at the University of Washington.
- Dr. John Brophy, assistant professor of geology, formerly with the State Geological Survey in Illinois.
- Roy Cook, assistant professor of sociology, formerly a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin.
- Jay W. Constantine, assistant professor of physiology, formerly at Ohio State University.
- Richard Cortesi, swine herdsman, formerly an NDSC student.
- Charles S. Dotts, assistant professor of architecture, formerly with the University of Illinois.
- Melvin L. Fortun, instructor in mechanical engineering, formerly a graduate assistant at NDSC.
- Robert T. MacDonald, associate professor of physics, formerly at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland.
- Wayne Kessler, assistant professor in pharmacy, formerly a graduate student at Purdue University.
- Maurie Kistinson, order librarian, formerly librarian at Beach, N. D.
- Dr. Robert T. MacDonald, associate professor of chemistry, formerly with the University of Arkansas.
- Michael Marcum, instructor in architecture, formerly with Foss and Company of Fargo-Moorhead.
- Mrs. Nona P. Murray, serials librarian, formerly a student at Moorhead State College.
- Miss Marilyn Noss, assistant professor of women’s physical education, formerly at the University of Vermont.
- Mrs. Frances Olson, instructor in related art, formerly a graduate student at the University of Illinois.

(Continued on page 6)
The Spectrum Asked: What did you think of freshman orientation?

By Lowell J. Anderson

The Spectrum Photo-Interview By Lowell J. Anderson

The Spectrum is published every Friday at Fargo, North Dakota by the NDSC Board of Publication, State College Station, Fargo, N. D. Subscription rate $1.00 per term. Entered as second class matter, December 10, 1945, at the Post Office at Fargo, North Dakota, under the act of March 3, 1919.

The Spectrum

September 18, 1959

Fullbright Scholarship Awards

Duke Before November 1

Only one month remains to apply for some 500 Fulbright scholarships for study or research in 28 countries, the Institute of International Education reported prospectively applicants today. Applications are being accepted until November 1.

Fullbright scholarships cover transportation, tuition, and partial maintenance costs. IICE will decide how the news is to be published.

Guest Editorial by Jan Kippen

Just how much are campus activities worth to the student? Should I join or shouldn't I? As the integration of the freshman into college life continues, the question is one of both sheer and ambitious fresh.

Guest Editorial by Jan Kippen

At many colleges a prevalent point of view seems to be that the more activities a student participates in, the better educated he will be when he graduates.

Activities

The cry of the times is for education. Many believe a student can gain from membership in them. But keep in mind where they belong in your college life: IN SECOND PLACE!
The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."

The controversy arose when some students, many of them married and with families, had been ordered to move by the university from non-approved housing. Their dwellings did comply with city ordinances. They took their problem to a lawyer-state legislator, who requested the regents ask the dean of students to "stop harassing married students." Believing the policy to be "contrary to the civil and constitutional liberties" of the students, the lawyer considered asking the legislature to investigate legality of the practice. But university officials are now reconsidering the policy, and legislative action has not been requested.

University of Michigan DAILY editorializes: "It is necessary to insure adequate housing. ... to patty parents. The students themselves clamor for adequate housing. ... We need adequate housing, and we agree the university could help provide information as to what is and what is not for our own best interest."

"But this is where the paternalism should stop."

"Aafter students have received information, the decision should be left up to them. To revoke this type of decision is a violation of individual rights as well as an incentive for students to shirk responsibility."
Hi-Society

By Evanne Grommesh

Hi GANG! Isn’t it great to be back? A really big welcome to you new freshmen! Aren’t those beanies just the neatest?

3:00 ON TUESDAY is the deadline for any news you have for this department. Let’s everyone go social now so we have much to tell.

THE INDEPENDENTS were the first group to invade Linderon and this fall. Monday night found the group having a great time.

THE SAME NIGHT the Bison Room and State Room was the site of a noisy and lively scene. Coeds jammed the place. It was all a result of sorority rush week. Each group with their new pledges had a ball singing songs. A big congratulations, pledges. You’ve probably already found your picture somewhere in this edition.

NOW ON TO the many summer events. AGRs married are Richard Farken to Karon Reiten of Casselton; Vern Daley to KKG Mary Lee Motoff; Terry Colwell to KD Leonette Bolech to Judy Hudson of Neche. Dale Anderson is engaged to Claudia Brown of Dunn Center.

AMONG THE AGRs pinned are Dr. Ron Fohske to Margaret Lany of Fargo and Les Breibrecht to Phyllis Pirson of Fargo. So much for the AGRs.

Helgaas, AGR tied the knot this summer along with Linda Nelson to Willy and Dale White; Leora Bjorko and Martha Robideau; Tom Bodvig and Lawence Blackmore; and Herb Mettelides and Diane Solberg from Williston. All the fellows are SAEs. Alpha Gam Muriel Blum is pinned to another brother Bill Berquist.

FORMER STATUSES Jean Ann Nelson, Gamma Phi and Maynard Helgeson. AGR tied the knot this summer with Linda Nelson and Mary Anne are Jerry Ko­ venko and Martha Reheide; Tom Bodvig and Lawence Blackmore; and Herb Mettelides and Diane Solberg from Williston. All the fellows are SAEs. Alpha Gam Muriel Blum is pinned to another brother Bill Berquist.

FROM THE Phi MU house comes this news—all weddings...Dorlene Knudsen to Mary Lary, SPD; Jean Hendrick and Dean Hall; Lois Nelson to SPD Calvin Klaus; Gloria Lister to Ron Porter and Joan Pierce to Pete Lazarenko, Co-op.

Kappa PSI PREXY Bob De­ hoffy and Sharon Stevenson, KKG also pinned. Kappa Jan Brudvik and Gary Thomson walked down the aisle in June. Another sister Judy Monseng and SAE Bob Wal­ ker announced their engagement.

UNDER THE SAME ROOF the Bison Room and State Room was the site of a noisy and lively scene. Coeds jammed the place. It was all a result of sorority rush week. Each group with their new pledges had a ball singing songs. A big congratulations, pledges. You’ve probably already found your picture somewhere in this edition.

Active Fall Schedule for NDSC’s ‘Y’

BOARD MEET

Denny Smith, junior at NDSC, will attend the North Central Area Board of Directors meeting this weekend in Milwaukee.

Smith, who is a member of the NDSC YMCA, was elected District Director last spring and this sum­ mer was selected the chairman for the North Central Area YMCA. He will be the student representative.

IE Mourns Have

Chance for Prize

The Industrial Engineering So­ ciety is awarding a prize of ten dol­ lars to the student majoring in Indus­ trial Engineering who presents the largest number of reviews of books read during the year.

The first award will be present­ ed at the second meeting of the Society in October, 1959. The pur­ pose of the award is to promote and encourage interest in the humane field.

A list of the books may be ob­ tained in the Industrial Engineer­ ing Department. Reviews are not to be more than 200 words or less than 150.

Judges for this contest have been appointed by the President of the Society. The approved books can be found in practically any pub­ lish or school library.

is on the Area YMCA Board of Di­ rectors. The North Central Area takes in North and South Dakota, Wis­ consin, Minnesota and Iowa.

Y LUNCHEON

The regular noon luncheons sponsored by the NDSC YM-YWCA will begin Thursday, Sept. 24.

The series this quarter will be entitled: “Can Democracy Survive?” NDSC faculty and students, and MFC and Concordia faculty will participate in the presentations.

Dr. John Bond, professor of polit­ ical science at NDAC will begin the series by presenting a working defi­ nition of Democracy.

The discussions are open to all students and faculty and are held in the small dining room in Ceres­ to Hall from 12 to 1:30 p.m. on Thurs­ days. For further information con­ tact the ‘Y’ office.

CONFERENCE

The North Dakota District stu­ dent YM-YWCA conference will be held at Lake Tobias, September 25-27. The theme of the Conference is “The Campus Come of Age.” Mr. Harold Ludolph, North Central Area YMCA Student Secretary will be the guest speaker. Ludolph is a Jamestown College graduate and has completed graduate work at the University of Chicago.

Students from the University of North Dakota, Jamestown, Min­ neapoli City and NDSC will be in­ volved in the conference. Any NDSC student interested in attend­ ing should contact the “Y” office.

Jim Well Spends Part of Summer At

St. Louis And Danforth Leaders Camp

Jim Well, Agriculture senior from Cavalier, North Dakota spent the last two weeks at St. Louis And Danforth Leaders Camp in Michigan.

He spent the first 2 weeks in St. Louis on a tour of the Purina Re­ search Farm near St. Louis. He took a concentrated course of study on nutrition.

The last two weeks of the fellow­ ships were spent at the American Agriculture Publicity Leadersh­ ip programs stressing a balance between the economic, social, and re­ ligious development.

Jim is a member of Alpha Gam­ ma Rho Fraternity.
Earthquake Is Highlight And Tragedy

For SC Coeds Working In Yellowstone

The first quake began at 11:30. Everything shook and rattled. Phyllis and her date were parked in a car when the car began to roll back and forth. She didn't realize the quake had begun.

Vergene slept through nine hours of the earthquake waking when her bed began to bang against the christman and Margaret Harbeke, a member of her family.

The quake was most severe in West Yellowstone where a group of students from Old Faithful were trapped. They were told to stay inside so they could not stand. Tremors occurred every half hour to every fifteen minutes. At 8:30 the next morning when breakfast was being served at Mammoth another quake occurred and the dining room emptied as if by magic.

Carolyn worked at Lake Lodge at the foot of the Tetons. Phyllis spent her summer at Mammoth Lodge and Margaret was at Old Faithful Inn. Vergene worked in a camera shop at Canyon Village.

The girls spent their days off hiking, swimming at the Cascades, hitchhiking to Jackson, Coty, Virginia City or West Yellowstone. Powwow or camping parties, beach parties, dances, and savage ('noisy parties, put on by the employees) took up evening hours. Snow fell in July and Christmas was celebrated August 25 in Yellowstone.

Meeting people from so many different places, those they worked with and those they saw, seemed to impress the girls most.

All agreed that a summer in Yellowstone is never to be forgotten.

College Views

(ACP)—From University of Kansas Daily KANSAN come these quotes:

★ Sharpens up, men! When a coed says "do n't mess that means "no soap."

★ The seniors have been referred to as "unithetic," but the senior men, after gazing on the crop of senior girls, would like to eliminate the first "a."

★ A new Hollywood spectacle is about to be released, it's called "Adam and Eve" and has a cast of thousands.

Marine Commissions Offer Benefits

To Qualified North Dakota State Men

Marine Corps commissions as second lieutenants are available to college men who can qualify for the Marine Flight Leaders Class, according to Dan McLellan, NDAC admissions agent. The program, three years long, requires an $1,870.00 month added to a second lieutenant's pay upon his being commissioned in the Marines.

Students interested in becoming Marine officers may get more information by contacting McLellan, Ag Eng. 113, or Bentsen, Phy Ed 121. Both men are lieutenant colonels in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Students Search For The Beatnicks

(ACP)—San Francisco's North Beach, home of the beats, may now extend from Newfoundland to Mexico, if comment in the college press on the beat way of life is any indication.

Memorial University of Newfoundland's MUSE ran a beatestyle editorial. In part:

"You know this life is beginning to give me the jits. Hey, don't say that man, suppose the word gets around that you're a square. I know but nothin ever happens so what nothin's supposed to but yeah I need a shove my face is getting itchy so scratch it it'll help the atmosphere hey I just got an idea how's this I have seen the best minds of my generation dragged into the dust. Hey you're getting it thats really beat. But how about minds ... finished doing a job?"

"I don't believe in the guy even I don't believe in the beat force I believe in the postal service I don't believe in the phone company I don't believe in the Armed Forces I don't believe in anything..."

Student Tom White at Mexico City college gave the COLLEGIAN his view of the beats. He lived for a time in the San Francisco "among the group, "made the scene, if you will."

"By the way, Beat doesn't mean dragged-out or tired: that's a very crummy misconception that people have; what it signifies is that they are on the beat, in tune, aware, almost overawed and sensitive of what's going on.

Hey, fellow students!

The LSA invites you to a weekend retreat, September 25-27 at Mount Carmel, Minn. on Lake Carlos.

Only $7.50 for the entire weekend.

Cheaper than living at home!

Register at the center! Come and join us in fun and fellowship.

Pledges of Kappa Delta sorority are: Seated: Judy Willert, Hankinson; Jean Nelson, Villmarck; Ann Schlagel, Casselton. Standing, L. to r.: Sandra Kuderneck, Moorhead; Deanna Riewer, Frazee; Gaylee Fruk, Great Falls, Montana; Evonne Currie, Starkweather; June Houther, Lisbon; Jeannette Rietmeier, Crookston, Minn.

Students interested in the Marine Platoon Leaders Class , Ed 121. Both men are lieutenant colonels in the Marine Corps Reserve.

College Views

(ACP)—From University of Kansas Daily KANSAN come these quotes:

★ Sharpens up, men! When a coed says "do n't mess that means "no soap."

★ The seniors have been referred to as "unithetic," but the senior men, after gazing on the crop of senior girls, would like to eliminate the first "a."

★ A new Hollywood spectacle is about to be released, it's called "Adam and Eve" and has a cast of thousands.

Students Search For The Beatnicks

(ACP)—San Francisco's North Beach, home of the beats, may now extend from Newfoundland to Mexico, if comment in the college press on the beat way of life is any indication.

Memorial University of Newfoundland's MUSE ran a beat-style editorial. In part:

"You know this life is beginning to give me the jits. Hey, don't say that man, suppose the word gets around that you're a square. I know but nothin ever happens so what nothin's supposed to but yeah I need a shove my face is getting itchy so scratch it it'll help the atmosphere hey I just got an idea how's this I have seen the best minds of my generation dragged into the dust. Hey you're getting it thats really beat. But how about minds ... finished doing a job?"

"I don't believe in the guy even I don't believe in the beat force I believe in the postal service I don't believe in the phone company I don't believe in the Armed Forces I don't believe in anything..."

Student Tom White at Mexico City college gave the COLLEGIAN his view of the beats. He lived for a time in the San Francisco "among the group, "made the scene, if you will."

"By the way, Beat doesn't mean dragged-out or tired: that's a very crummy misconception that people have; what it signifies is that they are on the beat, in tune, aware, almost overawed and sensitive of what's going on.

Hey, fellow students!

The LSA invites you to a weekend retreat, September 25-27 at Mount Carmel, Minn. on Lake Carlos.

Only $7.50 for the entire weekend.

Cheaper than living at home!

Register at the center! Come and join us in fun and fellowship.

Pledges of Kappa Delta sorority are: Seated: Judy Willert, Hankinson; Jean Nelson, Villmarck; Ann Schlagel, Casselton. Standing, L. to r.: Sandra Kuderneck, Moorhead; Deanna Riewer, Frazee; Gaylee Fruk, Great Falls, Montana; Evonne Currie, Starkweather; June Houther, Lisbon; Jeannette Rietmeier, Crookston, Minn.

Students interested in the Marine Platoon Leaders Class , Ed 121. Both men are lieutenant colonels in the Marine Corps Reserve.

College Views

(ACP)—From University of Kansas Daily KANSAN come these quotes:

★ Sharpens up, men! When a coed says "do n't mess that means "no soap."

★ The seniors have been referred to as "unithetic," but the senior men, after gazing on the crop of senior girls, would like to eliminate the first "a."

★ A new Hollywood spectacle is about to be released, it's called "Adam and Eve" and has a cast of thousands.

Students Search For The Beatnicks

(ACP)—San Francisco's North Beach, home of the beats, may now extend from Newfoundland to Mexico, if comment in the college press on the beat way of life is any indication.

Memorial University of Newfoundland's MUSE ran a beat-style editorial. In part:

"You know this life is beginning to give me the jits. Hey, don't say that man, suppose the word gets around that you're a square. I know but nothin ever happens so what nothin's supposed to but yeah I need a shove my face is getting itchy so scratch it it'll help the atmosphere hey I just got an idea how's this I have seen the best minds of my generation dragged into the dust. Hey you're getting it thats really beat. But how about minds ... finished doing a job?"

"I don't believe in the guy even I don't believe in the beat force I believe in the postal service I don't believe in the phone company I don't believe in the Armed Forces I don't believe in anything..."

Student Tom White at Mexico City college gave the COLLEGIAN his view of the beats. He lived for a time in the San Francisco "among the group, "made the scene, if you will."

"By the way, Beat doesn't mean dragged-out or tired: that's a very crummy misconception that people have; what it signifies is that they are on the beat, in tune, aware, almost overawed and sensitive of what's going on.

Hey, fellow students!

The LSA invites you to a weekend retreat, September 25-27 at Mount Carmel, Minn. on Lake Carlos.

Only $7.50 for the entire weekend.

Cheaper than living at home!

Register at the center! Come and join us in fun and fellowship.

Pledges of Kappa Delta sorority are: Seated: Judy Willert, Hankinson; Jean Nelson, Villmarck; Ann Schlagel, Casselton. Standing, L. to r.: Sandra Kuderneck, Moorhead; Deanna Riewer, Frazee; Gaylee Fruk, Great Falls, Montana; Evonne Currie, Starkweather; June Houther, Lisbon; Jeannette Rietmeier, Crookston, Minn.

Students interested in the Marine Platoon Leaders Class , Ed 121. Both men are lieutenant colonels in the Marine Corps Reserve.
Pledges of Gamma Phi Beta sorority are: On floor: Nancy West, Bowman; Beverly Elznic, Lidgerwood. Sergeant-at-arms: Clarence L. Passons, Jr., instructor in child development, formerly with California Polytechnic Institute.

The failure of the "New Economics" is an interesting example of a critical work whose purpose is to prove the maximum number of points against the subject. No attempt is made to present or control the subject matter as a coherent whole, and Hazlitt gives every evidence of a failure to grasp either the Keynesian doctrine or the Keynesian literature. What he has done is to

Where they contain a concept which Hazlitt does not understand, such as the multiplier, or "effective demand," he reduces them to absurdity by sheer weight of misinterpretation and dogmatic assertion. When he arrives at a point where he which he dislikes, but wishes to evade entirely, such as the Keynesi­an view that spending under conditions of the depression will increase employment rather than prices, he simply asserts that it is a "pejorative" or an "in­ futility" and passes on to the next

The quality of mind at work is a process of this sort which are illusstrated by the following example, taken from Keynes. When Keynes stated at one point, in exploration of the popularity of the Keynesian doctrines: "That it all­ forbid a measure of justification to the free activities of the individual capitalist, attracted to it the sup­port of anti-Marxist and anti-Communist elements, with the result that the capitalist system could long survive the passionate embraces of many like Henry Hazlitt.

This is pompous nonsense, of course, but it is also discredited. Henry Hazlitt believes that the faul­ ty in Keynes's doctrines is to be explained by the "comparative advantage" of the capitalism which attributes beliefs to the capitalist system without any reference to disinterested logic" (p.50-57).

Hazlitt's solution to the unemploy­ment problem is to increase the money supply. He concludes that "econometric wage rates did not initiate the depression. And prices and prices.
He made it necessary for wage-rates to adjust themselves to the reduced level of commodities. If mass unemployment was to be averted. It was the failure of this wage adjustment to be initiated. Since the production of unemployment for ten years" (19).

The effect of wage inflexibility is another ultimate reason. "Economics in One Lesson, published in 1946, recapitulates the simplest anti-interventionism of the mid­ nineteenth century in a void and a

Would wage reductions in a period of depression actually improve the situation? Keynes brought home the fact of a failure to grasp either the Keynesian doctrine or the Keynesian literature. What he has done is to

If a new student to NDSC can get to know your way around campus—and get known around campus—is to be a reporter for The Spectrum, the campus weekly newspaper. Spectrums report­ers have to interview leading students, faculty members, and administrators so they can write informative stories about campus doings. How better can you "inside" your college

The new critics, many like Henry Hazlitt, will be interested logician might infer from this that the mad-wives of the day are not always reducible to thin skin of learning. Here is a work of 488 pages, with numerous notes, that he foresees which "refutes" Keynes and asserts promising new work in the field.

Ricardi, a student at the School of Science.

He wishes to de­

SUNDAy WORSHIP SERVICE 9:30 A. M.
CAMPUS LUTHERAN CENTER

1. The puzzle must be complete and correct.
1. The puzzle must be complete and correct.
2. Illegible entries will not be considered.
3. The contest is open to NDSC students only. The members of tie contest money will be split the board of publication and the awakeners.
3. The contest is open to NDSC students only. The members of tie contest money will be split
the board of publication and the awakeners.
4. Only one entry per student is permitted.
4. Only one entry per student is permitted.
5. Entries must be in the Spectrum office, upstairs in the Union, by noon Monday following publication.
5. Entries must be in the Spectrum office, upstairs in the Union, by noon Monday following publication.

SC Grad Wins Prize in Essay Contest

Anna Paulson, SC graduate, has won the $100 prize for her paper on Reed and Barton's Scholarship competition.

The Spectrum Board of Publica­tion and the School of Science have decided which won the essay contest.

By Chicken's unifying em­

Keynes brought home the fact
of a failure to grasp either the

would propose to increase wage inflexibility beyond the level required by the margin of produc­

Would wage reductions in a period of depression actually improve the situation? Keynes brought home the fact of a failure to grasp either the

By Chicken's unifying em­

Keynes brought home the fact
of a failure to grasp either the

Conference Grid Schedule Begins;
Bison, Coyotes Clash Tomorrow

The Bison swing into their North Central Conference schedule tomorrow as they face South Dakota University in a home game sponsored by El Zagal, Coach Don Rosati, who scored the SDSU game last week, said that the Herd would not find the Coyotes soft despite their 49-0 defeat in their opener.

The NDSC squad will go into the conference opener with one win under their belt and a warning against over-confidence. The game is expected to be a thriller similar to last week, according to Johnson. He feels the South Dakota team offers similar opposition to that of Concordia.

The Bison face a personnel problem as coach Bob Danielsen searched the squad for a halfback with enough speed to replace Pat Rosati, who suffered a knee injury early in last week’s game, will sit out Saturday’s game. Danielsen indicated early this week, that Clyde Payne and Jerry Walcher are possibilities for the spot. A sophomore, Payne is 6’3” and weighs 185 lbs. and possesses good speed. Walcher has been playing at quarterback but is also capable of handling the halfback position.

WAA Program
Announced;
Girls Invited

All campus co-eds, particularly the new freshmen are invited to participate in the Women’s Athletic Association activities. The WAA has set up its fall schedule as follows:

Riflery 4:00 p.m. Tuesday
Archery 6:00 p.m. Tuesday
Volleyball 6:30 Tuesday

There will be an archery intercollegiate telegraphic meet competition with colleges throughout the United States. The shooting will be done at the Field House.

Volleyball teams will be organized at the first WAA meeting.

By Larry Hunter

New KDSX staff members were selected after tryouts held Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Those selected on a two week basis are: Roger Lutz, Carle Ekland, Jerry Sandwich, James Kuehn, Don Best, Dale Taretzki, Tom Lawrence, Jim Siedel and Mike Schaefer. Old staff members back for another year are: Roger Lutz, Richard Hofbrand, Ralph Peterson, John Opie, and John Allenberg.

This is the final week for applying for Technical Director and Director position. The two paying salaries on the staff.

For the first two weeks or so, in programming on KDSX will consist of strictly music with the new staff members becoming acquainted with our operation. After the Tri-College Network and any other special attractions will move in.

Note the column next week for a final selection of staff members.

Pigskin, Fish, and Cheer Power

1959 North Dakota State College FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Home Games
Dakota Field, Fargo

Sept. 12—Concordia, 7:30 p.m.
Sept. 19—So. Dak. Univ., 7:30 p.m.
Sept. 26—Iowa Teachers, 7:30 p.m.
Oct. 3—N. Dak. University, 1:30 p.m.—Homecoming.

Games Away

Sept. 5—Morningside, 1:30 p.m.
Sept. 10—Montana State, 2:00 p.m.
Sept. 24—S. Dak. State, 7:30 p.m.
Oct. 21—Augustana, 7:30 p.m.
Nov. 7—Marquette, 1:30 p.m.

North Central Conference Games

Pre-game expectations of last week proved true as the two teams both fell short on the defensive side of the tally. From the spectator’s view, the Concordia game was a thriller as each team scored several times. The game attracted 6500 fans and forced a large number of students to miss the first quarter while they waited for tickets.

It has been 24 years since NDSC held the North Central conference title. Last year the Bison came out second to the bottom with a two letterman and 2 All Conference lettermen and 2 All Conference lettermen and 2 All Conference lettermen. The coaching staff feels that the team is very advanced over the same time in the past two years.

Conference members are North Dakota State, North Dakota University, South Dakota State, South Dakota University, Morningside College, Iowa State Teachers, and Augustana college. Opening conference play this week are SDSU at NDS and Augustana at NDU.

6M FOOTBALL

Would all organizations interested in fielding an intramural football team please have their team rosters and entry fees at the intramural meeting Monday 4:15. Election of officers.

The Augusta-NDU game this Saturday should be a key game in the conference as the 1959 champs meet the only team that beat them last year. Augusta, who only lost three lettermen, has played one more game than their opponents this season, giving them more game experience.

In case you didn’t know, the Herd winds up its schedule against Marquette University at Milwaukee on Nov. 7. Montana State is the remaining non conference opponent on the roster for the Bison.

For you fishermen, it may be interesting to know that things are being done to gain more knowledge of fish. After a five year study of a lake in Minnesota, Dr. G. W. Comita, associate professor of zoology at NDSC, presented a paper at the American Institute of Biological Sciences on the relation of sunlight to the food fish eat. The information compiled in the paper is expected to help fisherlies and biologists control the number of fish in a lake.

Don’t underestimate your CHEER POWER. The student section showed a key in the conference as the 1959 champs meet the only team that beat them last year. Augusta, who only lost three lettermen, has played one more game than their opponents this season, giving them more game experience.

The Bison face a personnel problem as coach Bob Danielsen searched the squad for a halfback with enough speed to replace Pat Rosati, who suffered a knee injury early in last week’s game, will sit out Saturday’s game. Danielsen indicated early this week, that Clyde Payne and Jerry Walcher are possibilities for the spot. A sophomore, Payne is 6’3” and weighs 185 lbs. and possesses good speed. Walcher has been playing at quarterback but is also capable of handling the halfback position.

Wives of NDSC students may pick up their tickets for the South Dakota University -a nd Iowa State game at the business office.

THE FASHION TURN OF THE CENTURY

This 5-faceted plot reverses to watch your mood, gives you two shirts in one. Hip-stitched knife pleat reverse to reveal a loose-plaited, light-toned version of the original. Century-crafted in Loretta Middlers... wonderfully washable and pleated for a lifetime.
YWCA Hostesses

Blue Monday Teas

The NDSC YWCA will be hostesses for the first Blue Monday Tea, Sept. 21 from 4 to 5 in Meinecke Lounge in the Memorial Union.

The purpose of these teas is to make it possible for the women on the campus to become better acquainted during the school year.

The YWCA would like one of the women's organizations on campus to take charge of the tea and furnish hostesses.

All NDSC college women are invited.

Safety Necessary

To Prevent Fires

There were nearly 850,000 fires in United States cities during 1958. They occurred everywhere—in businesses, churches, schools, industrial plants, hospitals and in homes, homes.

Where do most home fires start? It has been reported that over half begin in either the kitchen or the living room. Bedrooms and basements are other major sources of home fires.

Matches and smoking caused one-fourth of all fires during the past decade. Most of these fires were caused by carelessness—smoking or lighting matches in dangerous places, careless disposal of cigarettes and matches, smoking in bed, or children playing with matches.

Practicing these few simple rules will mean greater safety:

- Keep plenty of ash trays handy— and use them!
- Make sure every cigarette, cigar or match is out before you dispose of it.
- Before you go out or go to bed—especially after entertaining—make a brief inspection to be sure nothing is left burning.
- Never strike matches or carry lighted matches or candles into closets, attics or other confined places where clothing or combustible materials are kept.
- Finally, never smoke in bed. A tragic number of fires are caused by dosing smokers.

Fire Week Scheduled

Fire Prevention Week, scheduled for Oct. 5-10 this year was first observed in 1922 on a national basis.

Fire prevention day was designated to mark the anniversary date of the Great Chicago Fire, Oct. 9, 1871. That famous conflagration—which actually started on Oct. 8—caused $175,000,000 estimated damage to property and resulted in the loss of approximately 250 lives.

To this day Fire Prevention Week is held in October each year and it is always the week which includes the anniversary of the Chicago fire.

"Give me a B, give me a A, boom-a-la-cu, boom-a-la-cu, we're an intellectual group."

Placement Service

Monday & Tuesday, September 21 and 22, 1959

U. S. Marine Corps—Captain Arnold E. Bench, U. S. Marine Corps will bring an officer selection team to campus of NDSC Monday and Tuesday the 21 and 22 of September, 1959.

The team will be located in the Student Memorial Union Building and will welcome the opportunity of visiting with students planning future military service obligations.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announced the opening of the 1959-60 Federal Service Entrance Examination for college juniors, seniors and graduates. The first test will be given on October 17 to persons who apply by October 1, 1959.

No minimum balance is required

Money is protected against loss

Cancelled checks prove you paid your bills

Your name printed free on all ThriftiChecks

Sign up today for...