

Crom To Replace Sevrinson As Assistant To Dr. Hultz

Robert L. Crom has been named assistant to Dr. Fred Hultz, president of NDSC. Dr. Hultz announced the appointment following the approval by the State Board of Higher Education.

Mr. Crom, who is director of communications and publicity at NDSC, will continue his present duties in communications but will assume new responsibilities under the president.

He will succeed Dean Charles Sevrinson, who has served as presidential assistant for many years but who sought relief owing to increased enrollment and his heavier duties as Dean of Students and Director of Housing and Health Facilities.

A graduate of Iowa State University, he received his master's degree from NDSC. Mr. Crom came here in 1953. He has produced numerous television programs for the college in addition to handling publicity and instructing courses in communications. He was promoted to Assistant Professor in Communications and made responsible for the newly combined public relations and communications offices in 1957.

Active in campus and community affairs, he has served as chairman of the Communications Committee, an advisor for the Bison Annual, Commission on Campus Affairs, All-College Festival Committee, member of the Board of Student Publications, Committee on Student Affairs, Memorial Union Board of Directors, and Memorial Chapel Committee.

He is also a member of many Fargo civic groups including the Chamber of Commerce, Civil Air Patrol, Fargo Chamber Aides, Kiwanis International, NDSC YMCA Board of Directors, and Faith Methodist Church.

Carlos Montoya, flamenco guitarist, will be presented at Festival Hall at NDSC in solo recital Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 8:15 p.m.

Montoya is the only flamenco guitarist in the world performing his art on the concert stage in solo recital. He is also the most widely recorded flamenco guitarist of all time. Devotees the world over hail him as one of the truly great masters of the Spanish flamenco guitar.

Before his advent to the concert stage, Montoya toured the world with such celebrated flamenco dancers as La Argentina, Vicente Escudero and Argentinita. Since moving to the concert stage, he has toured the United States many times.

Montoya has played at Philharmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles, Town Hall and Carnegie Hall in New York, Memorial Opera House in San Francisco, Constitution Hall in Washington and many others. He has also played on NBC as soloist and as soloist with the Rochester Symphony under Jose Iturbi.

Welding Is Offered As Night Course

A night course in welding, offered by the SC mechanical engineering department, began Monday, October 26.

The class met in Room 114, South Engineering building, and John H. Forrer, a member of the NDSC faculty who has had over 30 years experience in industry and educational institutions, was the instructor.

Both arc and gas welding will be covered in the course which is designed to teach either beginners or advanced students to take care of repairs on the farm, garage or fabrication in a factory.

Anyone interested in the course should contact Professor A. W. Anderson, chairman of the NDSC mechanical engineering department (phone AD 5-6411, ext. 333) or John Forrer (ext 335 or home phone AD 2-7668).

Only 15 students can be accommodated in the laboratory at one time, so enrollment is limited.

Meeting three nights a week for 5 weeks the course, which is GI-bill approved, will cost $50 which covers materials and instruction.

SUAB Staff Members To Attend Conference At U. of Minnesota

Ten students and three staff members will represent NDSC at the Region Seven Student Union Activities Board Conference. It will be held in the new Student Center at the St. Paul Campus of the University of Minnesota on Nov. 6 and 7.

Students from NDSC attending the conference will be Allen Hart, chairman; Norma Carlson, secretary-treasurer; Charles Bateman; Mary Malony; Barbara Holcomb; Dean Forseth; John Kocourek; Sharon Mische; and Jodeen Paris; plus three staff members: Dale Brostrom, director; Gordon Teigen, assistant director; and Kay Thompson, program coordinator.

Other schools from North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and Manitoba will be represented at the conference.

Representatives to the conference will attend a series of 15 workshops. NDSC is in charge of the workshop which will discuss the topic "Which Union Program Currently Interest College Students the Most?" Dean Forseth will be discussion leader and Allen Hart, summarizer.

Work Resumes In North Court Area

If you're wondering why North Court residents are all smiles this week the answer is simple. Construction crews have once again begun work on 15th avenue past North Court. The work had been delayed several times because of wet weather and most residents were dismally looking forward to wading in a sea of mud come spring.

Sunday morning a transit crew was setting grade stacks and by Sunday afternoon there were steel concrete forms laying beside the street and a floating machine and crane parked in Bison Court parking lot.

SC Gamma Delta to Host North Central Conference

Gamma Deltans from North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and Winnipeg, Manitoba will attend the North Central Regional Gamma Delta Convention Nov. 6-8 at Immanuel Lutheran Church. NDSC's Alpha Kappa Chapter will act as host.

Gamma Delta is an association of Synodical Conference Lutheran students.

Beginning with registration this evening, the convention will formally open with the business meeting followed by election of regional officers at 8:00 tomorrow morning.

Approximately 175 students from seventeen chapters in the tri-state area and Manitoba are expected to attend. The theme for this, the 25th anniversary convention, is "Christian Liberty," and will be carried out during the entire program.

The local chapter has secured two terrific speakers according to Gerald Puppe, president. Dr. Paul Maier, student pastor at the University of Michigan, will speak and show slides Saturday afternoon on "Christianity in the Far East."

The main speaker at the banquet which will be held tomorrow evening at the Gardner Hotel will be Rev. E. W. Wessling, student pastor from Valparaiso University, Indiana.

Gamma Deltans will be spending this evening square dancing and in other forms of recreation after registration. The resolution and nominating committees will meet at 9 p.m. Nominees from the local chapter for regional officers are: Wayne Tjaden, president; Duane Saville, vice president; Alyce Puppe, secretary; and Jerald Gernar, treasurer. Wayne was also nominated as a delegate at large.

Installation of new officers will take place at the banquet with Gerald Puppe serving as toastmaster and James Cook giving the welcome. Each chapter will present a three minute skit.

Gamma Deltans will attend a 7:00 church service Sunday morning.

AWS Will Hold Mass Meeting Nov. 11

Associated Women Students will hold their fall mass meeting, Wed., Nov. 11 from 4:50 to 6:00 at the Union Ballroom.

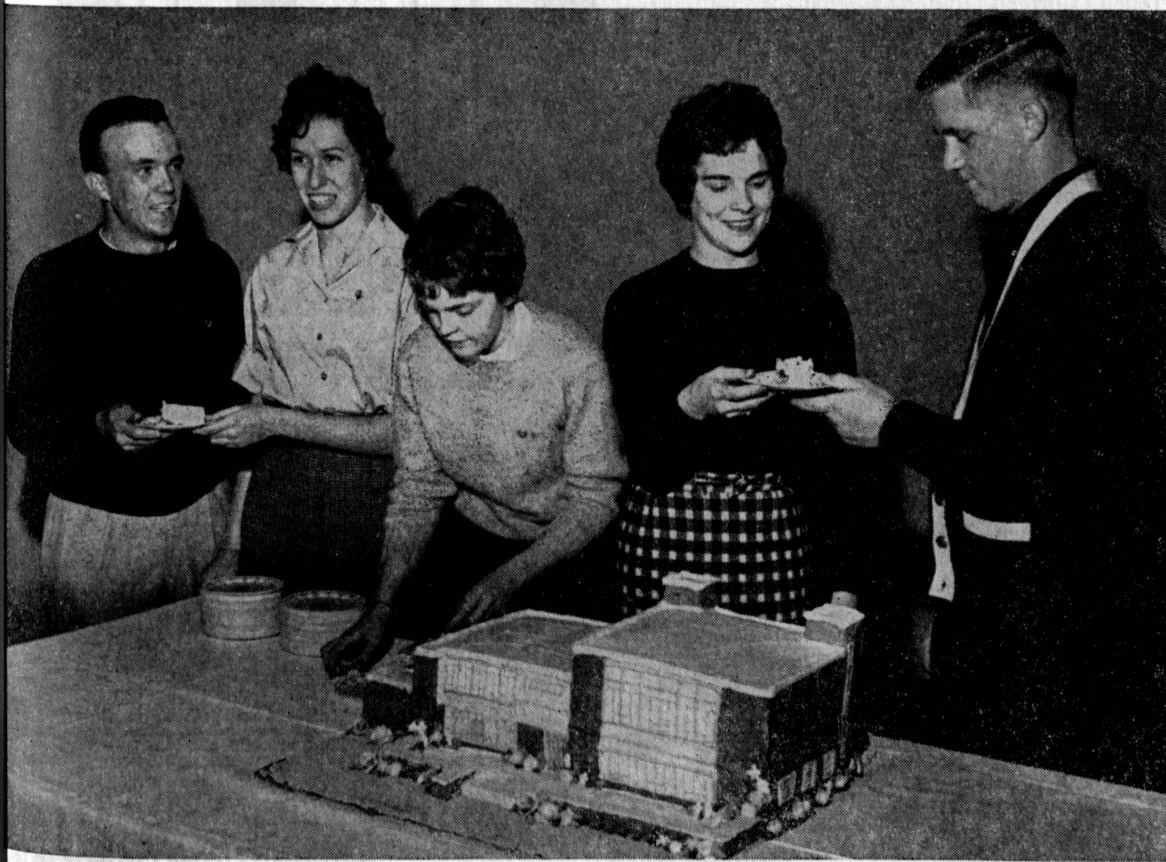

A highlight of the meeting is a skit and talk presented by Mrs. Ham Gillespie, of Moorhead, titled "The Attractive College Girl". Phyllis Gill, Home Ec. soph., will add to the program by playing a piano solo.

Included on the program will be talks given by Karen Fromke, Carol Olson and Jan Kippen on organizations, including religious, publications, theatre and government.

Those in charge of the program include Audrey Holte, Jan Kippen, and Janie Tomlinson. Miss Thompson, advisor of AWS, as well as officers and delegates, urge all girls to attend this meeting. All NDSC women students are automatically members of this association. The purpose of this meeting is to give SC girls a chance to become better acquainted with each other.

The Spectrum wishes to apologize for the error made in last week's paper concerning the concert on an electronic music synthesizer. According to the Spectrum, the concert was presented on Thursday, Oct. 22, by Mr. Cyril Hoyler. This story was printed with information received prior to the actual concert. After the paper was set up in print, it was learned that Mr. Hoyler was unable to make it and the concert was not presented.

Last week the Student Union celebrated its sixth birthday with a cake replica of the union. Getting ready to serve the cake are (l. to r.) Jim Bergeron, Wilda Bridgeford, Nancy Euren, Sharon Mische, and Sherwood Peterson. It was served free to all students in the union.

Off The Editor's Cuff

By Bob Thompson

Robert H. Shaffer, dean of students at Indiana University, spoke last Monday at convocations. I noticed that many students were not at the convocation. He made some comments that I think are worth some editorial comment.

In the introduction to his speech he mentioned that students should demand tests. This is the only way that they will see if they are getting their money's worth out of college. They are paying $6 to $9 for every class hour. Surely they want to make sure that they get their money's worth. "The only person who can give education to you is yourself."

He seemed to protect the professor's standpoint more than the students. In reality I think this is true. Students sometimes think they are tied up when they supposedly go over to the library and the book they want isn't there. This was the only time the student has tried to check the book out—the next day his assignment was due.

He brought out some very good points on the topic of "where does student government enter into the education process?" We will have to agree with him in his statement that student government is limited in what they do. There is just so much that they can do with the power they have.

But there is one thing that they can do and that is TO SPEAK FOR THE STUDENT IN THE FORM OF RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE ADMINISTRATION. There is an unlimited possibility of letting views known.

Take for instance the parking problem. To talk to the campus police one would think that there wasn't any problem. But we all know that we do not like to get tickets at night when we park on the campus streets. Most of us feel, I think, that we should be able to park on the streets after six—as they do downtown.

Then there is the idea of student-faculty evaluation. It has been suggested to me by a number of students that they should be able to fill out unsigned evaluation sheets on their instructors. Admittedly, this has its advantages; but there is more to it than just "let's do it".

Another problem is cheating. Granted this is a personal problem, but this one and the two previously mentioned problems as well as others are those on which senate could voice student opinion. Here are areas where their hands are not tied.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION WEEK

There is one more area Dr. Shaffer covered on which I would like to comment. Right now orientation week emphasizes the social aspect of college life—the Bison "Yell", coffee breaks, and social functions. Student Senate could better prepare freshmen for college if they would give them a sample lecture and assignment. They could tell them more about their advisors and instructors—more about what is expected of them.

In other words tell them what college life is like. Don't get me wrong (or Dr. Shaffer wrong) they could learn the yell and about college social life, but don't spend a whole week giving them a false impression.

Letters To The Editor

(Editor's Note:) At Kansas State University Homecoming decorations were abolished and the alums thought it was a good idea. Do all alums and parents feel the same? Here is a reply from a parent of an SC student.)

Dear Mr. Thompson:

I just read your "Off the Editor's Cuff" in the October 23 issue.

The Homecoming parade was one of the most outstanding parades I have ever seen and I have marched in an Eagle Auxiliary drill team in parades throughout the state for five years. Please encourage your college men and women to continue their making of the beautiful and original floats. Every community needs leaders for their parade committees who know how to handle and build floats.

The house decorations were also outstanding.

We appreciated our "good" seats and if the students realized how much we appreciated them at the only game we were able to attend I'm sure they won't feel too badly at sitting outside the 30 yard line.

Tell them to keep up the good work. Seeing the team win or lose was a real thrill.

Lib. Survey Shows Most Students Come To Study In Quiet

"Why did you come to the library?"

This question was asked of NDSC students as they left the library last Friday afternoon.

It was found that 40 out of the 100 students questioned came to the library to study. "It's a quiet place and I'm not disturbed when I study here," commented one student.

An SC student can keep in touch with his hometown by coming to the library regularly and reading his local newspapers. Sixteen students revealed that this was their purpose in coming to the library.

Surprisingly few students came to the library to check out or return books. Of those questioned, only eight checked out books and four returned them. Eight students had also come to do research work for their term papers.

Eight students came in to pick up the Spectrum, while nine came to relax, drink coffee and visit with friends. Never having been inside the library prompted three students to come in and look around.

What about this? When asked why he came to the library, one student replied, "to eat my dinner."

A new feature has been added to the college library in the form of "Living Language" courses. These courses cover five languages: French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish. They are based upon and Spanish. They simplify the learning of languages through the use of phonograph records.

Each "Living Language" course includes four phonograph records, a brief common usage dictionary, and a conversation manual. Students may check them out or play them on the library record player.

Student United Fund Drive Extended So Dormitory Students May Contribute

The Student United Fund Drive on campus has been extended to November 13, in order to allow more time to contact the independent students living in the dormitories.

Information will be distributed to the men students explaining United Fund by the YMCA (NDSC).

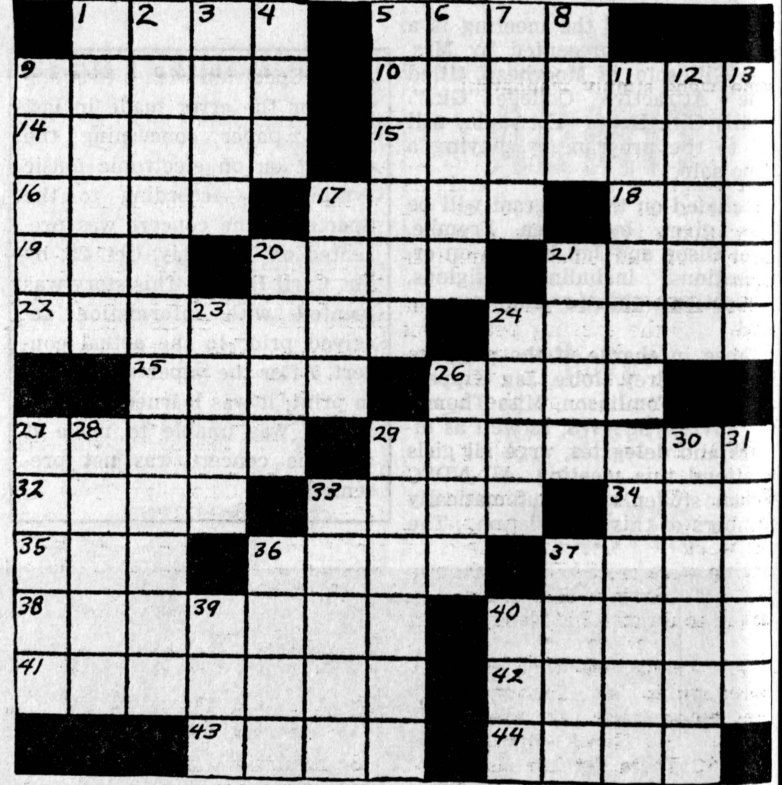

This information will be placed in the men student's mail boxes on Monday, November 9.

The students will then be contacted on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 10th and 11th by the YMCA. At this time the students can make their contribution as they see fit.

JAMMED-FULL WEEKEND COMING UP . . . Tonight the Harvest Moon Dance in the U. ballroom will climax Union Days . . . all come and get in the swing with Ted Otteson and his band . . . it's free . . .

FOR YOU theater lovers . . . stop over to the Little Country Theater before the dance and take in an enjoyable and unique show, "I Knock at the Door" . . . you also can see it on Saturday night . . .

THE BEATNIKS will also be out tonight . . . Moving on over to the Gamma Phi pad will be those Kappa Psi cats for a real gone blast . . . I mean . . . like Man . . . this sounds like a swinging affair . . .

SATURDAY NIGHT will find those same Kappa Psi's all decked out for their Fall Term Party at the Moorhead Country Club . . . time is 7.

NOW ON TO SUNDAY . . . also known as Meet Our Pledges Day . . . Pledge presentations will be at the Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Alpha Tau Omega, Theta Chi and Tau Kappa Epsilon houses . . . What was that name again?? Elvin Sylbinzoosalenberger . . . Really, mister.

CARLOS MONTOYA will perform at Festival on Wednesday, November 11 . . . he is said to be the world's foremost flamenco guitarist . . .

THE BALLET came to town last weekend . . . Festival Hall was filled to capacity . . . for most students it was probably the first real live ballet they had ever seen . . . We all wanted to go but we weren't quite sure of whether we would enjoy it . . . I especially liked the last number . . . perhaps because it was what I thought a ballet should be like . . .

THE AUDIENCE was most interesting . . . from the sweet little old lady with her furs to the matronly Ma Kettle type . . . from the little man, old in years, but young in spirit, to the tall suave looking gentleman with a beard . . . oh, just everyone was there.

EXPRESSIONS on the faces of some were simply wonderful . . . The young fellow saying, "How in the world did she get me talked into going to this thing? I could have slept at home" . . . and the girl's twinkle in her eye let you know that she was quite proud of herself for her small accomplishment . . .

THE EXPERT performers on the stage . . . the exciting people out front . . . all this made us get rather a good feeling all over . . . We have experienced the ballet.

ENOUGH of this rambling . . . AGR's were out serenading Pat Nelson, KD, and Clint Kurtz Monday night . . . these two got pinned last week . . . Also out doing some singing were the SAE's . . . the reason? . . . Brother Bill Lantz gave his pin to Gamma Phi Nancy Euren.

AT ABOUT the time of these serenadings, an announcement was being made at the KAT house . . . Nancy Myrdal, former SC Theta, let her sisters in on her pinning to AGR Mike Brandvik . . .

FROM PINNINGS to engagements . . . Dennis D. Roscoe, Co-op, has given a ring to Elaine Cariveau, Fargo . . . To weddings . . . Sheryl Lohse and Bob McDonald, ATO, will be married on November 21 . . .

HUCKLEBERRY HOUND fans . . . attention . . . Last week I was surprised to find that Yogi and the gang weren't on . . . instead it was Augie Doggie and his friends . . . they were a panic . . . how did you like them?

Class Plans Trip To U of M Hospital

Watch out, you big, wide Minneapolis, here we come!

Miss Lorissa Sheldon's institutional management class is planning a field trip to Minneapolis, on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 5-6. The class is composed of 14 junior and senior food and nutrition majors.

The group will tour the University of Minnesota Hospital's dietary department where they will be informed about the dietetic internship program. The class will visit the Betty Crocker kitchens to view the home economist in experimental work. They plan to see a large equipment company and an inplant feeding operation.

The purpose of the trip is to survey the different fields of future occupations in food and nutrition work.

Ceres Hall Elects

Alyce Puppe was recently elected president of the Ceres Hall Club. Other officers elected were Betty Trieglaff, vice president; Linda Wieman, secretary; Eleanor Candrian, treasurer; and Linda Wieman, freshman-at-large. The first two are sophomore counselors while the latter two are freshmen.

Other girls elected to represent their corridors on the council were Helen Raney, Sonja Nelson, Dixie Lee Halverson and Gayle French.

The ten sophomore and junior counselors plus the freshmen officers and representatives will plan the coming events such as open house and parties in the Ceres Hall dormitory for the coming year.

Nurses Host Fiesta

"Moments to Remember" is the theme for the annual carnival sponsored by the St. Lukes' nurses on Nov. 14. The carnival will be held at the nursing home from 7-11:30 p.m.

The highlight of the carnival will be the crowning of the queen. Queen candidates are Mary Ann Hasse, Dawn Forness, and Fran Sklenicka. The queen will be crowned by Dr. Essaud and the two attendants will be escorted by Drs. Burkhardt and Vanguid.

Voting for the queen will take place from 7-11 p.m. and the coronation will follow at 11:30 p.m. NDSC students will have an opportunity to vote for the queen through polling booths to be set up on campus.

Textile Teachers Meet At Top O Mart

Scandinavians all over the place! That's what it looked like when the Central Regional Conference of college teachers of textiles and clothing met at the 'Top O' the Mart' in the Frederick Martin Hotel Thursday evening, Oct. 29.

After the smorgasbord eight NDSC students and one former student gave a "style" show wearing traditional Scandinavian costumes.

The girls from NDSC participating were: Dixie Halverson, Janice Hanson, Marjorie Odegard, Marie MacKinzie, all freshmen; Mary Stenso, soph; Bonita Lillegard, soph; Carol Rorvig, sr.; and Carol Burkland, sr. All the girls are in the School of Home Economics.

The ninth girl, Astrida Jurgens, works in Fargo at the present time.

DIARY OF A COED

MONDAY: Prof. Pomfritt sprang quiz in English lit this morning. If Shakespeare didn't write Canterbury Tales I'm a dead duck . . . Lunch at the house—turkey hash. Question: how can we have turkey hash when we never had turkey? . . . Smoked a Marlboro after lunch. I dig those better makin's the most! . . . Played bridge with sorors in afternoon. When game was over, my partner stabbed me several times with hatpin. Must learn weak club bid . . . Dinner at house—lamb hash. Question: how can we have lamb hash when we never had iamb? . . . Smoked a Marlboro after dinner. What filter! What flavor! What pack or box! . . . Chapter meeting at night. Motion made to abolish capital punishment for pledges. Motion defeated . . . Smoked more Marlboros. Quelle joie! . . . And so to bed.

TUESDAY: Faculty tea at the house. Spilled pot of oolong on Dean of Women. She very surly. Offered her a Marlboro. Still surly. Offered skin graft. No help . . . Dinner at Kozy Kampus Kafe—24 hamburgers. But no dessert. Have to watch waistline . . . And so to bed.

WEDNESDAY: Got our marks in English lit quiz. Lucky for me Shakespeare wrote Canterbury Tales! . . . Afternoon date with Ralph Feldspar. Purely platonic. Ralph wanted to consult me about love trouble he's having with his girl Nymphet Calloway. I assured him things would get better. Ralph said he certainly hopes so because last four times he called on Nymphet, she dumped vacuum cleaner bag on him . . . Smoked several Marlboros. Wonderful cigarette. No confusion about which end to light. Saves loads of time . . . Dinner at house—bread. That's all; just bread . . . And so to bed.

THURSDAY: Three packages from home—laundry, cookies, records. So hungry I ate all three . . . Quiz in American history. If Millard Fillmore didn't invent cotton gin, I'm in big trouble . . . Dinner at house. Big excitement—Nymphet Calloway announced her engagement to Ralph Feldspar. While sorors flocked around to congratulate Nymphet, I ate everybody's side meat . . . Then smoked Marlboro. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! . . . And so to bed.

FRIDAY: Got our marks in American history quiz. Was shattered to learn that Millard Fillmore did not invent cotton gin. He wrote Canterbury Tales . . . How very odd! . . . Lunch at the house—bread hash . . . Marlboro after lunch. Great smoke. Must send valentine to manufacturers . . . Spent entire afternoon getting dressed for date tonight with Norman Twonkey. Norman is dall, dark, loaded—a perfect doll! Only thing wrong is he never tells a girl where he's going to take her. So I put on a bathing suit, on top of that an evening gown, and on top of that a snowsuit. Thus I was ready for a splash party, a dance, or a toboggan slide . . . So what do you think happened? He entered me in a steeplechase, that's what! . . . Would have taken first prize easily if I hadn't pulled up lame in the last furlong . . . And so to bed.

Yes, the college life is a busy one and you may be having trouble choosing the cigarette that's right for you. Here's a handy guide: For filter plus flavor—Marlboro. For flavor without filter—Philip Morris. For filter plus flavor plus coolness—Alpine . . . All made by the sponsors of this column.

Students From 22 Colleges Will Come To N. D. State For LSA Conference

Lutheran students from 22 colleges from the Dakotas and Minnesota will be attending the fall conference of the North Central Region being held November 13, 14 and 15 at the Lutheran Student Center on campus.

The theme for the conference is "Have Gospel—Will Travel". Featured speaker will be Rev. Selmer Heen of Sioux Falls, S. Dak., and the Bible Study leader for the week end will be Rev. Henry Roufs of Fargo.

At registration the delegates will be asked to indicate the discussion group they would like to participate in. There will be groups discussing different phases of LSA work. These discussion groups along with the Bible studies, will comprise the "work" part of the conference. There will be vesper services, prayer services, hymn sings, mixers, banquets, and MANY coffee breaks during the conference.

The fee for the week end is $5.75. This fee will include 4 meals, housing, (for the out of town students) and cost of all conference materials. Without meals the fee is $2.25; with only the Sunday morning banquet $3.25. A $1 pre-registration fee must be sent with a registration form to Nadine Hiaasen at the LSA center and it must reach the NDSC campus by Tuesday, November 10.

All registration materials and information about the conference are available at the local LSA center. NDSC students may fill out their pre-registration forms and pay their fee at the local center.

SC Panel Discusses Higher Education

Four NDSC students traveled to Breckenridge with Dean Thompson yesterday to participate in an "Honor Student Coke Party" sponsored by the Womens' Fine Arts Club.

They presented a panel discussion on the "Values of Higher Education" for about 25 honor students in Breckenridge. It was designed to help them decide whether to go on to college. The advantages of higher education were especially pointed out. Scholarship and other financial aid was also discussed.

The students who made the trip are: Don Zimmerman, chem. grad.; Janet Long, AAS sr.; and Jan Kippen, AAS sr.

Brandrud Elected Veep of Association

Burt Brandrud, director of admissions and records, was elected vice president of the Upper Midwest Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers at their annual meeting in St. Paul this week.

The organization is made up of registrars and admissions officers from 87 universities and colleges in Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota.

The group meets once a year to discuss problems common to their educational institutions. Taking part in the program at St. Paul this year, Mr. Brandrud discussed the problems of scheduling and space utilization.

Students May Order Rings On Tuesday

"Ring day" has been set for Tuesday, Nov. 10, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Student Union lobby. On this day the sizing of all those wishing class rings will take place.

With a $10 deposit, the rings will cost from $25 to $40 including tax. 400 senior males, 105 bought rings.

Fraternity men may have their Greek letters encrusted on the stone. The ring bears a cut of the 'Old Main' building balanced with the Bison on the opposite side, symbols representing NDSC.

Last year out of approximately 400 senior males, 105 bought rings.

The performance starts at 8:15; tickets may be purchased at the Little Country Theatre office.

MEET BURNELL RICHARDSON AND DICK MASLOWSKI

They're transmission engineers with Michigan Bell Telephone Company in Detroit. Burnell graduated from Western Michigan in 1951 with a B.S. in Physics, spent four years in the Navy, then joined the telephone company. His present work is with carrier systems, as they relate to Direct Distance Dialing facilities.

Dick got his B.S.E.E. degree from Michigan in 1956 and came straight to Michigan Bell. He is currently engineering and administering a program to utilize new, transistorized repeater (amplifier) equipment.

Both men are well qualified to answer a question you might well be asking yourself: "What's in telephone company engineering for me?"

SAYS DICK:

"There's an interesting day's work for you every day. You really have to use your engineering training and you're always working with new developments. Every time Bell Laboratories designs a new and more efficient piece of equipment, you are challenged to incorporate it in our system effectively and economically. For example, I have been working on projects utilizing a newly developed voice frequency amplifier. It's a plug-in type—transistorized—and consumes only two watts, so it has lots of advantages. But I have to figure out where and how it can be used in our sprawling network to provide new and improved service. Technological developments like this really put spice in the job."

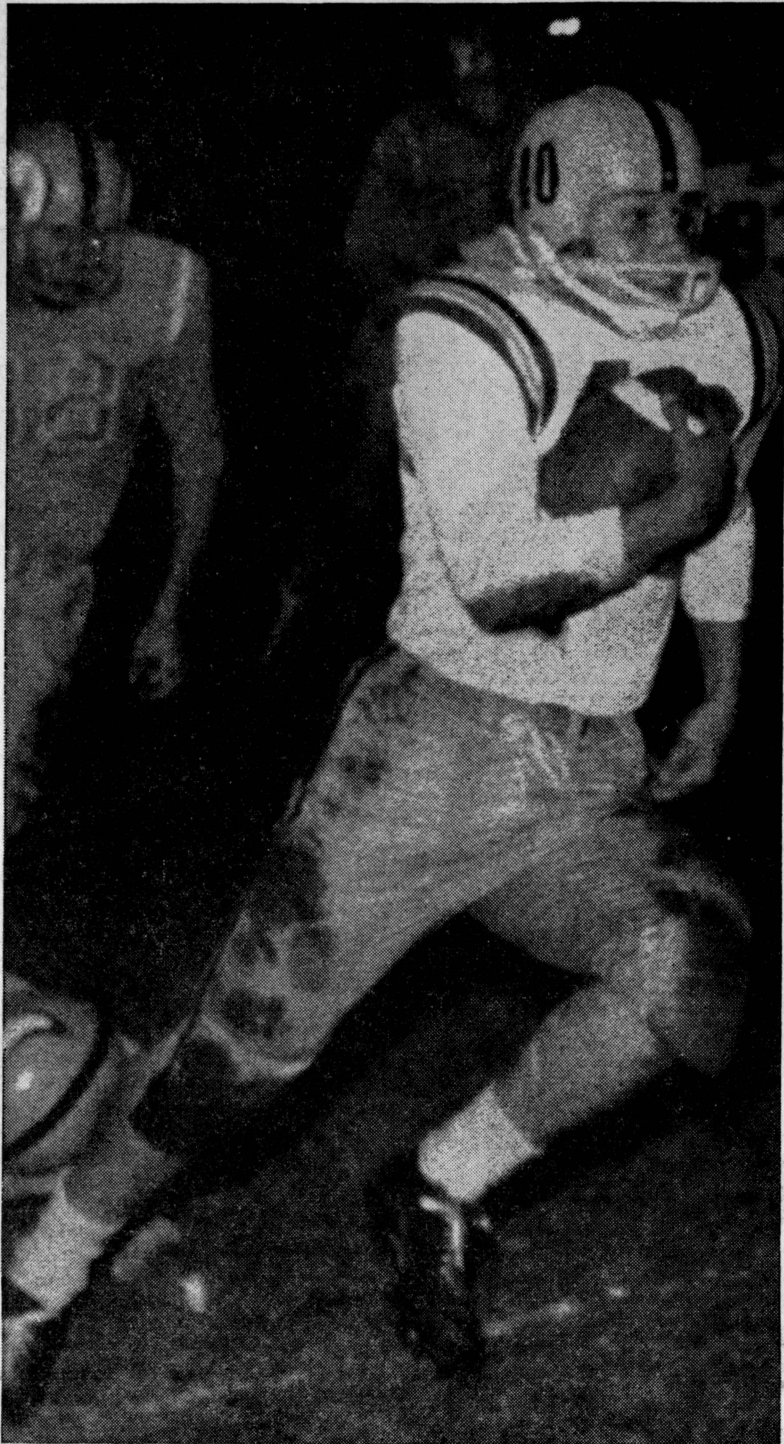

SAYS BURNELL:

"Training helps, too—and you get the best. Through an interdepartmental training program, you learn how company-wide operations dovetail. You also get a broad background by rotation of assignments. I'm now working with carrier systems, but previously worked on repeater (amplifier) projects as Dick is doing now. Most important, I think you always learn 'practical engineering.' You constantly search for the solution that will be most economical in the long run."

There's more, of course—but you can get the whole story from the Bell interviewer. He'll be visiting your campus before long. Be sure to sit down and talk with him.

BISON BITS

By Sherry Bassin

There is no joy in Bisonville. The mighty Bison have struck out.

This is the sound that has been echoing through SC this past week. To say that they have struck out is not wrong, but to say that they struck out fighting is more appropriate.

Last week the Bison lost their second game in the NCC, and that particular loss happens to be one loss too many. The best the Bison can possibly place now is a tie for second with SDU behind the first place Vikings.

The Herd didn't make our fans forget completely about 1935. At times they certainly had us convinced they would win the conference. With any amount of "breaks" the NCC Championship would belong to NDS.

Speaking about "breaks", don't ask this ball team what they are because they have no idea. This was especially true on one particular play against NDU when a winning touchdown was called back in the dying minutes of the game. THIS WASN'T THE ONLY TIME!

Did you read Eugene Fitzgerald's column last Tuesday? The Herd moved the ball to within a foot of the goal line on the first play in the third period. Gary Ahlgren ran the line twice. It appeared he was in the end zone, but the officials didn't call a touchdown.

Here is our crying towel. The films indicated that he was over. Not only that, but one of the officials told a Bison lineman that he agreed the ball was over but that he waited for another official to make the ruling. I have just one thing to say before they censor my column and that is, WHAT DID THE OFFICIALS THINK WE WERE PLAYING, GRADE SCHOOL BALL? That was a deciding decision.

The North Dakota State Football team may not have won the championship, but they played great football for the most part of the season. So, to Coach Bob Danielson and crew for their efforts and entertainment we say, "a job well done".

To the Augustana Vikings we offer our congratulations. We offer one other point to the Vikings, which is what any ball club who had just lost to the champs would offer, "WAIT UNTIL NEXT YEAR."

North Dakota State Frosh and Varsity Squads Captures 1st Place Prepare For New Season At NDU Race Meet

North Dakota State cross country team captured first place in the cross country meet at Grand Forks last week.

NDS won the meet with 27 points, ahead of second place Jamestown and third place NDU.

Oddvar Helgeson won the race, followed by Bob Williams placing 3rd, Don Kearney 5th, Gary Yost 6th, Jerry Liddle 8th, and Neal Jacobson 9th.

Today the Bison runners are in Sioux Falls for a conference meet. Coach Tom Neuberger expects this to be Oddvar Helgeson's toughest competition to date. Oddvar will be competing against Nyles Brings from SDU who ran the 3 mile course in 15 minutes and 16 seconds. This is a fall record and is 2 seconds better than Helgeson's last fall run.

Coach Chuck Bentson has started preparing his freshmen and varsity basketball squads for the coming season.

The freshman team is now down to 15 men, and according to Bentson any more cuts will be voluntary. He did state that he is expecting a few more players out when the freshman football season is over. Bentson also mentioned that he was pleased with the freshman squad's size and ability.

Some of the forwards that have been looking good in practice are Lyndon and Wayne Langen, who measure 6'6" and 6'5" respectively; Larry Johnson, 6'5" and 6'4" Neal Jacobson.

Some outstanding guard prospects with the Baby Bison are six footers Jim Von Bank, Ron McLeod, and Lloyd Babby.

There are also 15 fellows out with the varsity squad. Among the 15 returnees, including nine sophomores, three juniors, and three seniors, there are five lettermen led by Marv Bachmeier, conference high scorer.

Coach Bentson felt that the varsity's biggest problem will be developing the sophomores, and their biggest weakness will be the lack of experience and size.

It was thought that the overall picture of the team was smaller, as conference teams go, but faster and more maneuverable than last year.

New Loops Begin Bowling Action

By Dan Kennelly

From the looks of the bulletin board in the bowling alley it seems that more and more students are catching the intramural bug. WAA put the gals in action, and the new Metropolitan loop has started play. Carol Mund, Sue Jackson and Luella Johnson are top scoring girls while Marv Geisler, Leo Keller, and Dick Jump pace the Metro league.

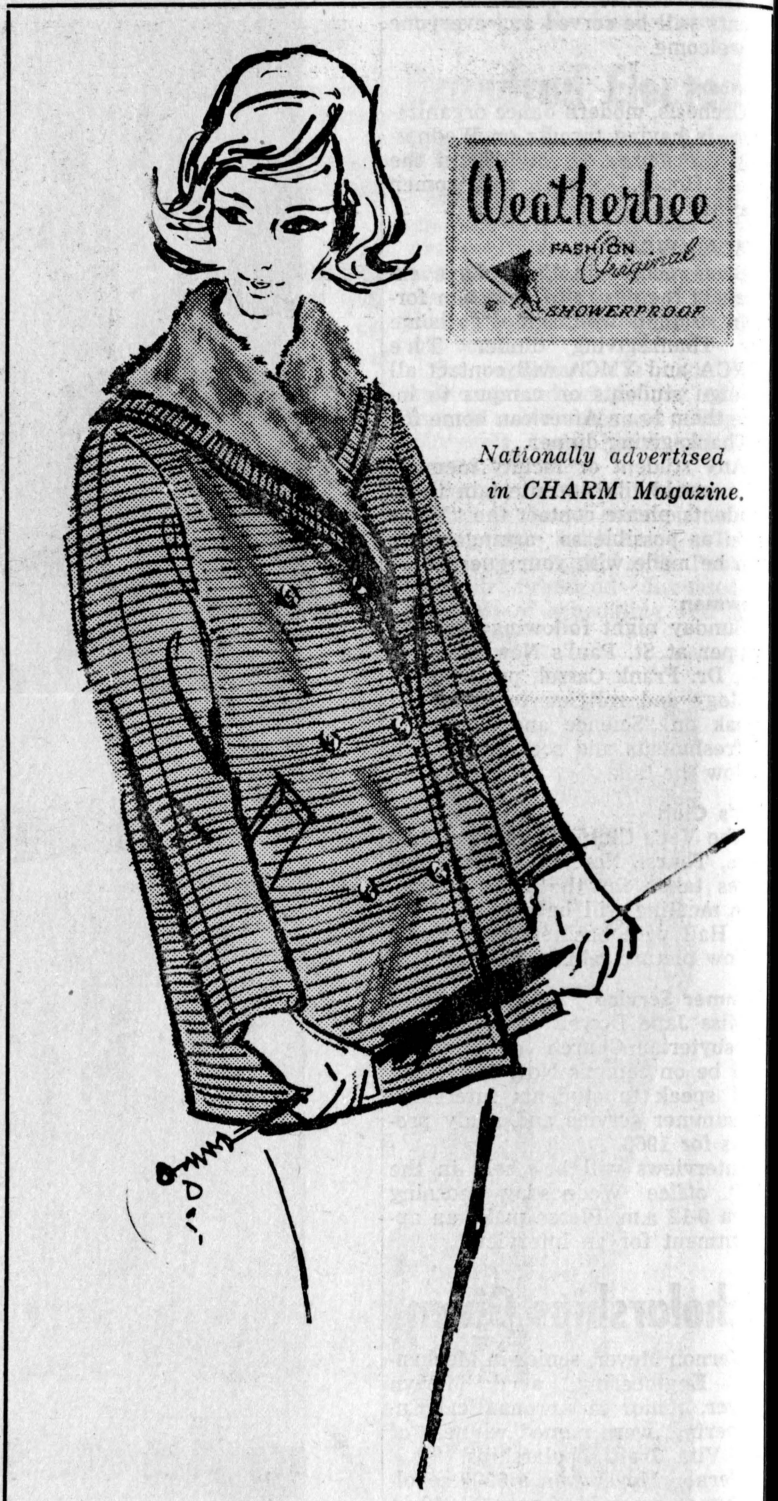

Team Without A Name remains secure in high place in their faculty league for the present, but the chemists are going to have to meet the challenge of the Animal Husbandry profs to keep their leadership. The Dollar Signs are only a half game behind Math, and both Ag Engineering and the Athletics have their eyes on the Union's position.

In the League of Women Bowlers, Sweeney Cleaners took a win from College Pure Oil to snare a temporary hold on first place. Leaders in this corner are Pat Kritzerber, Bergliot Herstad, Kathy Stromme, and Lucille More. Phy Ed and Air Force are still tied for top spot in the faculty women's council. This is a real tight race with only 3 games separating the top from the bottom.

Industrial engineers, ATO and AGR continue to lead the student Engineers, Classic and Masters leagues, while the army came from behind and latched on to Pharmacy Club's All Star loop high place.

The Major league sees a tie between Sigma Chi and Gamma Delta which should get interesting. Vets Club rolled the high team game and Gamma Delta copped honors for team series. Consistently good scores have built up high averages for Jack Dahl, Ted Borchert, Dave Kolding, Jim Richter, Terry Saul, Sherwood Peterson, Bernell Hoel, Jarve Anderson, and Jim Sather.

High single games were punched out by Dennis Maxson, Fred Boeshans, Jim Lass, and Roland Senchal.

ATO Retain Intramural Football Cup

By Dan Kennelly

The intramural football trophy isn't going to move this year. ATO, last year's defending champions, squeezed by Theta Chi 6-0 to retain leadership. Anyone who can beat the high flying Joyboys deserves the crown.

The guillotine fell when Don Braun intercepted Ken Lehr's throw and dashed to register the first touchdown of the year against Theta Chi. Chuck Kieffer, Jerry Lindgren and Kirby Erickson were the rocks of the Tau's line while Harold Shattuck, Cy Puetz and Jerry Erck plotted and schemed in the backfield.

filled end positions for the champions. Ken Keller held down center.

Ken Lehr just couldn't connect with Miles Freitag, Dick Bucholz, Jack Simonieg or Mike Harris for one of his usual TD passes. Gene Gleeson taught his linemen Wally Jacobson, Ken Hanson, Marshall Goodman and Bill Hass how to hold solid, and they did all season. Backs John Robinson, Bob Anderson, Jim Pfau, and Pat Burns made up the remainder of the Theta Chi threat.

We should also mention the fine work performed by referees Jerry Houle, Don Morgan, and Joe Kup-

ROTC Rifle Teams Take Part In Shoot

Rifle fire dominated the NDSC Field House on Friday afternoon as three ROTC Rifle Teams shot it out in the first shoulder to shoulder matches to be held here this season. The teams competing for top scores were—an Army ROTC team from St. John's University and the Air Force ROTC and Army ROTC teams of NDSC.

Top honors were taken by the Army Team from St. John's with a team score of 1839.

Larry P. Eastlund, a member of the Air Force team was high scorer with 380. A St. John's shooter, Gene K. Peterman, was next best man with a score of 376. The third top individual score was made by an Army shooter, Gordon Franke with a 363.

Joe Blows New Conference in Making

By Joe Hilber, Sports Editor

Football winds up this week with the Bison traveling to Milwaukee to take on Marquette. Meanwhile the falling star defending champions of the NCC will wind up their miserable season next week against Idaho State.

Don't worry though, things will be looking up on our northern campus because on the horizon looms the sport that this writer sincerely misses on this campus, hockey, the national sport of our climate. The city of Grand Forks comes alive as the season approaches and a mad rush is made for tickets since there are pitifully few seats in NDU's Winter Sports Building.

You might say that the only time that Grand Forks gets more excited than during hockey season is when North Dakota State attempts to convince the voters that it should have a name fitting its function. Even then, having lived in G. F. for years, I would say that hockey would be by far the most enjoyable pastime.

A few notes on football before we leave. Bison Gary Ahlgren is in first place in conference scoring pending the outcome of remaining league games.

So far two finishes are definite: North Dakota University is in the cellar and Augustana is on top. South Dakota University can by defeating Morningside share in the title.

Rumor has it that a new athletic conference is in the making. It, so rumor says, will include North Dakota State, North Dakota University, South Dakota State, South Dakota University, Montana State, Montana University, Idaho State, and Idaho University. This sounds great except that so far nobody at NDSC has been approached on the matter.

And then come the pleasant comments about how nice a job the coaches did and so forth.—Hang on a minute, this matter cannot be shrugged off with a passing comment!! Did NDSC coaches do a swell job under the circumstances? No! In the very least they performed an outstanding coaching feat!

This is not for butter, these are hard cold facts; the Bison coaching staff numbers less than half of that of any other conference team. Realizing this severe handicap head coach Bob Danielsen has in his three years tried to maintain a growing team. He is perhaps the hardest working coach in the conference attempting and accomplishing a coaching job with two men that is done and often not done by four and five men staffs of other schools.

IT IS OUR OPINION THAT BOB DANIELSEN AND HIS STAFF HAVE, THIS SEASON, BECOME ONE OF THE MOST RESPECTED COACHING STAFFS IN THE NORTH CENTRAL CONFERENCE.

Coach Neuberger Calls Wrestlers

Coach Tom Neuberger has called the first wrestling practice of the 1959-60 season for Monday, Nov. 9 at 4:30 in the gymnasium wrestling room. The first meet will be December 5 against SDS.

Coach Neuberger urges those that are interested in the sport to see him as soon as possible to get equipment for the first practice. Men have been working out on their own since the organizational meeting on October 20. No upperclassmen have shown interest in the heavyweight class yet.

Tom says, "The prospects for this year could be good, since we graduated no one from last year, but if we don't have some heavyweights we'll be hurting from that aspect. Our one-two-three punch of last year, Larry Van Sickle, Frank Johnson, and Dale Hinkle are still with us and will have lettermen at every position except heavyweight."

Tom did not want to predict the outcome for this year. He said he has learned never to predict success in college sports.

SC Debaters Place Second At Duluth

D. Anthony Schreder and Robert Brake of the NDSC debate team placed second in a 20 team invitational tournament in Duluth Friday, Oct. 30.

The SC debaters won all of their debates on the affirmative and negative sides of the national question, "Resolved: that Congress should be given the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court."

Eau Claire State College won the tournament trophy with a total of 37.5 case points while NDSC amassed 35.

Taking the affirmative side of the Great Northern debate topic, NDSC lost a disputed debate to Duluth Branch, U. of Minn.

The next debate activity will be a home debate on the Great Northern topic. An NDSC negative will meet a Concordia affirmative team in mid-November. The debate team plans to attend the SDU Invitational on November 20-21.
