

Only Two Weeks Left Before Sharivar

KY and SHARON

SHARIVAR MARCHES ON!!! As a preliminary to the forthcoming event, seven North Dakota high school seniors were given the chance to observe college life first-hand as guests of NDSC last weekend. Shown here with co-chairman Arlene Christianson are Roland Martinson from Oak Grove of Fargo and Gail Nordell, Girls State Governor from Williston, N. D.

Have you seen that big Sharivar sign on the mall along 13th St.? Have you noticed the exhibit window in the Union? With two weeks to go until Sharivar you will be noticing all kinds of signs on campus of the coming event.

Approximately 350 persons are active on committees for planning Sharivar, according to the central committee. Some schools, such as Home Economics and Chemistry, will have almost all of their students in the activities as the dates of April 22, 23 and 24 draw closer.

Invitations to attend have been sent to surrounding high schools in North Dakota and Minnesota. The central committee reports that Rolette High School is the first this year to ask for reservations for Sharivar.

While plans for the 1960 Sharivar are in full swing, the central committee already is thinking ahead and discussing a method of securing next year's committee chairmen.

It was decided that persons interested should apply for the various positions. Further notice will be given soon on applications procedure.

Lingen Named Homecoming Chairman By Senate

The meeting was called to order by Student Body President, Al Hart. The meeting was opened with a prayer led by Senate Chaplain, Byron Berntson.

Joyce Larson was elected secretary by Student Senate. The motion was made, seconded and carried to allocate $150 to the Student Union for the high school bowling tournament to be held during Sharivar.

Commissioner of Publications, Dick Berquist, reported that publications scholarships were awarded to Alyce Puppe, HE Soph., and Ronald Ginsbach, AG Soph., and Dennis G. Johnson, AG Soph., in the amount of $50 apiece.

Ronald Ginsbach, Commissioner of Intercampus Affairs, reported the goals for the coming year.

The following resolution was approved by the commission to be presented to Senate for action: We the students of North Dakota Agriculture College do hereby resolve to support the Negro college students in their non-violent demonstrations to secure their rights as individuals and as citizens of the United States.

After considerable debate, the resolution was tabled by Student

Senate until the students views on this subject could be better determined.

Athletic Commissioner Jerry Lingen reported on plans for building tennis courts. Two courts now planned would cost an estimated $3,250.

Mike Saba, Commissioner of Finance, reported that the Student Senate reserve is $6,448.94 and the active fund being $657.78, giving a total of $7,106.72. The all time high was slightly over $8,000.

Commissioner of Campus Affairs, James Lamont, reported that Jerry Lingen has been selected as 1960 Homecoming Chairman, and Blue Key has accepted counseling during freshman orientation week.

The Radio Commission announced that the new station manager will be Dennis Schnieder, AAS Jr.

Ona Carlson, Commissioner of Music and Public Programs, reported that the Lyceum schedule for the coming year has been completed.

Mr. Dale Brostrom, and Mr. Don Schwartz were elected as Senate advisors for the coming year.

Absent were Darlene Dietrich, Senator, and Larry Hunter, Commissioner of Radio. Senate members will be allowed one unexcused or three excused absences. More than these will constitute dismissal.

Rathman To Attend AAUP Convention

Dr. Rathmann, professor of organic chemistry and newly elected president of the NDSC chapter of the American Association of University Professors, will attend the 46th national meeting of AAUP in Detroit, Mich., April 8 and 9.

Rathman will give a report of the Detroit meeting on Monday night, April 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the college library, Rm. 101.

Other speakers include Dr. E. W. Pettee, professor of economics, who will give a report, "Is Our College Retirement Plan Adequate?" and Professor Thomas d'Ericco and other committee members will discuss the topic, "How Can We Help Lift Censure?" or "How Can Censure Help Lift Us?"

All faculty members, staff, their wives, and interested friends are invited to attend.

Goetz Going To Germany With Fulbright Award

Harold Goetz of Halliday, N. D., has been selected for a Fulbright Grant to study in Germany next year, according to word received this week from the State Department in Washington, D. C.

A senior at NDAC, Goetz will spend 10 months in Germany at the Agricultural University in Hohenheim, near Stuttgart. He will begin his graduate study in Ecology (Range Management) while in Germany, returning to NDAC in the fall of 1961 to finish his Masters degree.

Goetz, a botany major, submitted his plan of proposed study to the college's screening committee and he was selected to appear before the state board of higher education last fall. Following his interview he was proposed as North Dakota's candidate for the Fulbright Grant to the State Department.

While in Germany he will have regular school vacations when he plans to visit the locale of his grandparents who lived near Stuttgart, and other European cities.

Goetz spent two years in the Army before he enrolled in North Dakota's State School of Forestry at Bottineau for two years. He was president of the student body at Bottineau. The past two years, Goetz has studied at NDAC and will graduate in May with a B.S. in the School of Arts and Science.

Final Tryouts Held For One Act Plays

Final tryouts will be held at 4 p.m. today in The Little Country Theatre for four one-act plays which will be directed by students in the directing course.

The plays will be presented to the public May 11 and 12.

"Pawns" by Percival Wilde, is about Russian and Austrian peasants just before World War I. Joyce Miller will direct.

Don Nelson will stage "Quare Medicine," a country comedy written by Pulitzer Prize winner Paul Green.

"Riders To The Sea" by J. M. Synge is set in Ireland and is a character study of a woman who has watched her husband and all her sons go to sea and never return. Ona Carlson will be director.

"His Boon Companions", a comedy directed by Suellen Ringsak, is the story of how humility and understanding come to the militant ladies of The Anti-Liquor League.

SHARIVAR

Sharivar is only two weeks away. Soon interested high school students and adults will be here on campus. Let's all be ready for them. If we all do our part it will be a huge success. Let's show the people of North Dakota how proud we are of our University.

NAME CHANGE

Last Saturday a group of about fifteen of us students and five faculty members had a Name Change Workshop. Dean Seth Russell talked about our Liberal Arts School, (check the Name Change column) Dr. John Callenbach of Agriculture told us his department also needed the Name Change especially when it comes to receiving grants, and Royal Berstler, NDSC alum and Name Change chairman for five N. D. counties, told us about the goings on throughout the state.

The next step will be a huge clinic early in May where about a hundred, or as many of you who wish to come will participate in. At this meeting there will be a student from each county represented. They will be trained to work with the older county chairman during the summer.

Why don't as many of you students as possible come. Then when someone asks you "why," you'll know.

SCUMMING

After talking to many faculty members and fraternity men (now Bruce Ness will say, "Why don't you list them"—I don't feel this is necessary and besides the list would fill the entire column)—as I was saying, after talking to these people who agree with me, I say again—There is a definite scumming problem on this campus.

Does this problem exist in all the fraternities? No, and I never have said it did. But I believe that it exists in at least four of the eight fraternities and if it was only a problem in one, something should be said about it.

To the fraternities who have turned their Hell Week into Help Week, have stopped boarding, shortened their week and let your pledges sleep, I commend you. My comments can't possibly hurt you. You can stand on your record, so why get so upset?

It's been said that because this paper reaches our parents such an issue shouldn't be brought up. How else can we correct a problem if we don't let people become aware of it?

We can't turn our back on this problem. You fraternities who have good scumming programs are doing good first of all by just showing good example, and secondly why don't you try through interfraternity council to improve those groups who are giving the whole fraternity system a bad name?

Don't you feel, then that your folks could be even more proud of you? A good thing can always be improved and should be to keep up to the changing times.

Name Change Notes

By Frank Vyzralek

Now don't get all fired up over nothing! We're just giving our number one Name-Change honcho, Charlie Bateman a well deserved rest. What with heading up the Name-Change committee, hitting the books, and dodging verbal brickbats over a certain statement published in the Spectrum last week, Charlie's been a busy guy.

Weather . . . that's a likely topic. So what else is there to talk about. If we're not shuffling through slush we're wading through now. Now, admittedly, this is just fine for polar bears, skiers, snow-ball rollers and the like, but isn't this carrying a joke just a little too far.

I appeal to whoever is in charge of the weather business—WHERE THE DICKENS IS OUR SPRING???? Guess they're right when they say that if you don't like the weather in North Dakota, just wait a minute.

While I'm on the subject of topics of conversation around this soggy campus let me put forward a spiel about the Name-Change. The statement has been made that NDSC is not worthy of the title "University" since it does not have an adequate background in the field of arts and sciences.

Well now, first what are the liberal arts or arts and sciences. Definition-wise these are the terms used to describe the fields of natural and social sciences and the humanities. To put it on a more concrete basis, they refer to courses in English, mathematics, language, music, history, economics, speech, drama and the natural sciences.

Looking back into the history of our school we find that as early as 1920 the School of Literature and Sciences was organized to take care of these liberal arts courses. Later the title was changed to the present School of Applied Arts and Sciences. Delving a bit deeper we come up with the remarkable fact that out of an initial graduating class of four, one student graduated in agriculture and three in arts and sciences.

Right along with this we have the question of whether the faculty in arts and sciences will have to be strengthened to come up to University level. Approximately 50% of the present arts and sciences faculty hold a doctorate in their fields. According to Dean Seth Russell, this percentage is good but, as is invariably the case with this sort of thing, there is always room for improvement.

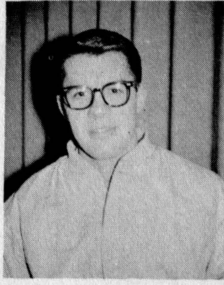

Then there is a question over the type of degree awarded to graduates. At present this school offers a B.S. or Bachelor of Science. It has been stated that in order to hold university status we must offer a B.A. or Bachelor of Arts degree. Upon closer scrutiny this argument seems a little absurd. For example, Purdue University has not granted a B.A. in its 91 years as an institute of higher education, yet nobody is questioning their right to be known as a University. From the other angle, Valley City Teachers and Mayville Teachers, both of which attract only a fraction of the NDSC enrollment, grant a B.A. degree. For that matter we could offer the B.A. if the Board of Higher Education would so consent. Thus we must conclude that it is the quality of the subject matter and faculty that is of supreme importance, not the title of the degree granted. After all, a rose of another color smells just as sweet.

The Spectrum Asked:

Could Religion Be A Determining Factor In The Forthcoming Presidential Elections

Spectrum Photo Interview

By Mayo Flegel

Jack Simonieg
Sr. IE
Dickinson, N. D.

I don't think so. Naturally you are referring to John Kennedy in the coming presidential race. I think Kennedy is a good man and I don't think the fact that he is a Catholic will keep him from obtaining the Democratic nomination. I think that the issue of religion has been very quiet and this will help the situation.

Marlys Dietrich
Fr. AAS
Cavalier, N. D.

In my opinion religion will play a very important part in our coming presidential election because there has been so much emphasis placed on religion during Ike's regime.

Norbert Muller
Soph. An. Hub.
Gackle, N. D.

It definitely would not have any effect on our forthcoming presidential election. If Kennedy would be elected on the Democratic ticket, I'm sure he would prevent any religious matters from entering his campaign. In our past presidential elections religion hasn't been a major issue and it won't be in our forthcoming election.

Judy Ozbun
Sr. Phar.
Grand Rapids, Minn.

I think the question is "SHOULD religion be a determining factor?" Are they going to vote against Kennedy merely because he is a Catholic, even though he may be the better man? Or do they think perhaps the pope is going to strongly influence any decisions Kennedy may have to make.

Ken Stone
Jr. AAS
Fargo, N. D.

Can a man stand on his own two feet and think for himself? One should look at the man and determine this. The man can, shouldn't make a difference whether he has one blue eye and one yellow or two left feet.

Letter To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Regarding your editorial of April 1 I have the following comments. You criticized Bruce Ness for not knowing what was going on at the other fraternity houses. You no doubt realize that Mr. Ness is a fraternity president and as such, I feel he is well aware of the activities of other fraternities.

I appreciate your concern as an editor to try to correct poor conditions on our campus. In your first editorial about fraternity "Scum Week" you rather openly criticized and condemned the fraternities for their part in it.

If ALL the fraternities were guilty of treating their scums poorly so as to cause personal injury, degradation and privation, I would commend you for your opinions.

However, you as an editor, failed to investigate thoroughly all sides of scumming. As Mr. Ness stated, and as you observed somewhat there is a concerted effort to change "Hell Week" to a "Help Week" on our campus. Why, then condemn the WHOLE fraternity system because of the actions of the minority?

Further, I think it was unfair of you to condemn the fraternities as you did in our school paper. Many of us are rather proud of our fraternity and campus. Realizing that the Spectrum is quite widely circulated amongst our parents and friends I would appreciate accuracy and fairness in reporting.

In this light, I deplore your action in so openly criticizing our fraternity system. Many parents, from their personal observations, are very pleased to have their son take part in his fraternity's activities. What must they think is going on when they read your editorial?

"A defender of accuracy in reporting."
BRIAN A. HODGE

Dear Editor:

Again, I ask you, do you speak with any degree of authority about fraternity scum weeks? Have you ever witnessed one of them or seen any of the incidents of which you speak? Last week when I asked this question you managed to throw the question back at me because you could not give a simple "NO" answer yourself.

Do you think I speak only about my fraternity? You're sadly mistaken. I have spoke recently with active members of several other fraternities on our campus who agree with me that you are way off base. Why don't you check with these other fraternities and get the facts?

To begin, in your comment of last week about the Fargo people, we happen to have neighbors just south of our 50 foot wide vacant lot in case you haven't noticed.

You asked me if I'd like a few more cases? Yes, I would! Could you break your editorial policy just once and print the facts that you seem to have (and be specific by naming your sources since you never witnessed any of the things of which you speak.)

Do you realize that when you write a general story like you did that you cast a shadow on every fraternity, and I hope you realize that not all are guilty.

I realize that your readers would lose faith in your writing if you apologized to the groups that deserve it, but could you just mention that you have only heard of a few incidents in one or two houses.

Why don't you give some of your space to mention all the good things the "Greeks" have done and are doing on this campus. I feel that they deserve credit for all their work.

BRUCE NESS
President
Tau Kappa Epsilon

To the Students:

Are Negro people really equal to white people, and do they deserve the same rights which white people enjoy? One student senator said that we all realize there are differences between Whites and Negroes, and that these differences necessitate segregation.

Another senator said that he had lived in the south, and that we really don't know what the situation is. By these and many other statements, several senators openly revealed themselves to be strong segregationists.

This debate in Senate was over the resolution to support the Negro college students in their non-violent demonstrations. The resolution was finally tabled to allow for a sampling of student opinion.

The situation in the South is deplorable, and it is time that we students on this campus make our voice heard on this important issue. Now is the time to educate ourselves so that we may be rid of the prejudices such as those expressed above by some senators.

Speak to your senators about this resolution and make it plain to them the action you want taken.

Hi-Society

By Mary Stenso

Oh, divine North Dakota—the most predictable climate in the world!! Good grief!

Ah, well, all the boys on campus seemed to enjoy themselves in last weekend's "precipitation"—building neat little snowmen, bombing the poor, defenseless girls, cars, etc. All the boys, save one, it seems; while the snow turned everything else white, it turned Charlie Bateman yellow! Isn't that odd??

Again this week we have many new actives. At the AGD house there are eight: Rolene Burda, Janice Hanson, Judy Highness, Mary Kay deJardine, Patricia Hart, Janette Klein, Kay McCullough, and Carol Solberg.

The Gamma Phi's have seventeen: Marilyn Anderson, Mary Ann Albert, Judy Amoth, Jackie Bakkum, Brenda Cruz, Bev Elznic, Dixie Lee Gifford, Deanna Henderson, Denise Hardmeyer, Donna Helbling, Linda Helming, Pat Hodgson, Bonnie Larson, Heather McCrea, Bobby Nelson, Lynda Olson, and Karen Sexhus. Congratulations, girls.

Did you hear about the 'goof' ad?—"Sheer stockings designed for dressy wear. So serviceable some women wear nothing else".

The Phi Mu's had their spring jam at the Castle last Saturday eve. Heard it was a real swinger.

Nancy Freed, KAT, passed the candle last Monday night, announcing her coming marriage to Joe Hilber.

From the "Village Voice": "To give away free: Two cocker spaniels, brothers, raised by psychologist; extremely intelligent, can spell, sing, put out cigarettes."

New pledges this week are: Charles Wilcox, Clarence Kragness, Lowell Christiansen, and Russel Anderson at the SPD house, and Don Brandvold, Gary King, Jerry Olson, Larry Schulze, and Dick Whiting at Sig Chi.

Say, did you hear about the new way to figure out when Easter comes every year?? It's the first Sunday after Christmas that you go to church.

Sorority award time — Outstanding Pledge at GPB is Marilyn Anderson; at AGD, its Janice Hanson. Most Improved Scholarship — Jane Costain at KAT, and Marlene Olson at AGD.

The Kappa Psi's serenaded at the KD house last Monday—for Mary Ellen Kalainoff's engagement to Bill Suckerman.

Is everybody 'bout set for Shariwar? It comes right after the big rabbit, you know.

Original Easter bonnets were the 'top' of the KAT-SPD entertainment last night. Understand they got pretty wild, true to Easter tradition.

Lessons in making snowballs—given free by AGRs and SPDs; also in making large-type snowmen—by the men of Kappa Psi.

Engagement in the news—Karen Salaba, KKG, to Dick Shannon.

"Oklahoma" started on the Cobber campus last evening. Should be real good—an interesting way to spend a Friday or Saturday night.

We'll pay cab fare on orders over $6 paid.

WHO WENT TO THE PROM—AND WHY

"Hello," said the voice on the telephone. "This is Werther Sigafoos. I sit next to you in psych. I'm kind of dumpy and I always wear a sweat shirt."

"I'm afraid I don't remember you," said Anna Livia Plurabelle.

"I'm the one whose lecture notes you've been borrowing for two years," said Werther.

"Oh, yes!" said Anna Livia. "What do you wish, Walter?"

"Werther," said Werther. "What I wish is to take you to the Junior Prom next April."

"But this is November 27, Westnor," said Anna Livia.

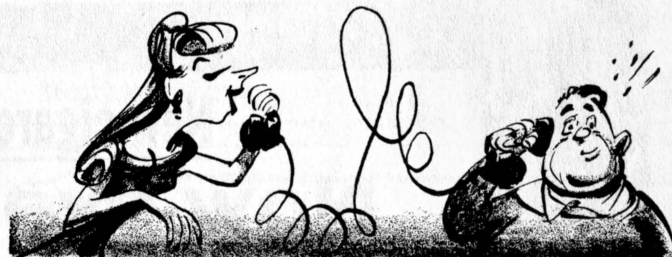

"Werther," said Werther. "Yes, I know, but you are so round and beautiful that I was afraid you might have a date already."

"As a matter of fact I do, Wingate," said Anna Livia.

"Werther," said Werther. "Oh, drat!"

Anna Livia did not really have a date, but she was expecting to be asked by Stewart Stalwart, athletic and BMOC, handsome as Apollo, smooth as ivory, wearer of faultless tweeds, smoker of Marlboro cigarettes which even without his other achievements would stamp him as a man with know-how, with a pleasure-oriented palate. If you think flavor went out when filters came in, try a Marlboro. This one brims with zest and zip and the good, mild taste so dear to those who smoke for the pure joy of it. Get yourself a pack of Marlboros and listen to your friends say, "There, by George, goes a smoker who knows a hawk from a handsaw."

But I digress. Anna Livia waited and waited for Stewart Stalwart to ask her, but two days before the Prom, to everybody's amazement, he asked Rose-of-Sharon Kinsolving, a non-descript girl with pavement-colored hair and a briefcase.

"I have decided to accept your invitation..."

Anna Livia immediately phoned Werther Sigafoos. "My Prom date has come down with a dread virus," she said, "and I have decided to accept your invitation, Waldrop."

"Werther," said Werther. "Oh, goody ganders!"

The next day Anna Livia received a phone call from Stewart Stalwart. "My Prom date has come down with a dread virus," he said. "Will you go with me?"

"Certainly," she said and promptly phoned Werther and said, "I have come down with a dread virus and cannot go to the Prom with you, Whipstitch."

"Werther," said Werther. "Oh, mice and rats!"

So Anna Livia went to the Prom with Stewart and who do you think they ran into? Rose-of-Sharon with Werther, that's who!

Stewart had felt obliged to ask Rose-of-Sharon because she always did his homework, but she had weaseled out because she really wanted to go with Werther with whom she felt a great oneness because they were both so dumpy. He fell wildly in love with her at the Prom, and today they are married and run a very successful five-minute auto wash in New Bern, N. C.

Anna Livia and Stewart are happy, too. They are still juniors and have not missed a prom in sixteen years. © 1960 Max Shulman

By Sherry Bassin, Sports Editor
The year of 1959-60 has been quite a successful year for the major sports of football and bas- ketball at NDSC.

Neither of the ball clubs cap- tured the championship in their respective leagues but they cer- tainly contributed to some sports- manship entertainment.

Both ball clubs produced the most valuable player of the North Central Conference.

Curt Quenette was the most valuable player of the NCC foot- ball league and Marv Bachmeier was the most valuable player of the basketball conference.

Both these players must be recognized as the greatest in their fields. Their sportsmanship and playing ability have brought fame to themselves and to all those as- sociated with North Dakota State College.

Bachmeier's winning of the most valuable player award of the NCC made a clean sweep in cap- turing basketball awards for 59-60.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(DIG THIS QUIZ AND SEE WHERE YOU RATE*)

The statement "It's the exception that proves the rule" is (A) a lame excuse for dumb rules; (B) an argument for doing what you please; (C) evidence of a healthy disrespect for absolutes.

A B C

You've just met a girl whose beauty impresses you enormously. Do you (A) ask for a date at once? (B) say, "Aren't you lucky you found me?" (C) find out what she likes to do?

A B C

A rich uncle offers to give you his big, expensive vintage-typelimosine. Doyou (A) say, "How about a sports car, Unk?" (B) decline the offer, knowing the big old boat would keep you broke maintaining it? (C) take the car and rent it for big occasions?

A B C

A manufacturer asks you to pick the kind of filter cigarette he should make to win the most smokers. Would you recommend (A) a cigarette whose weak taste makes smokers think it has a strong filter? (B) a cigarette with a strong taste and a filter put on just for effect? (C) a cigarette with a filter so good it allows use of richer tobaccos?

A B C

Smokers who think for themselves depend on their own judgment—not fad or opinion.

That's why they usually choose Viceroy. They've found the filter's so good Viceroy can use richer tobaccos for better taste.

Is this why they say, "Viceroy has a thinking man's filter . . . a smoking man's taste"? Answer to that one is: Change to Viceroy and see for yourself!

*If you checked (C) in three out of four questions, you're swift on the pickup, and you really think for yourself!

Familiar pack or crush-proof box.
