The Spectrum Asked:
Could Religion Be a Determining Factor in The Forthcoming Presidential Elections

By Maya Siegel

Dickenson, N. D.

I don't think so.

I really think that the presence of religious organizations in the United States is a good thing in the context of the current political climate. It's important to have different perspectives and beliefs represented in our society, and religion can be a powerful force for good. It's important to continue to have open and honest conversations about religion and its role in our politics.

Maryls Dietrich

I think religious organizations should have a role in the political process, but it's important to maintain a separation between church and state. Religion can provide a moral framework and help inform policy decisions, but it's crucial to avoid using religious beliefs to promote specific political agendas. It's important to have a diverse range of voices and perspectives represented in our political discussions.

I think the question should be "should religion be a determining factor in the political process?" It depends on how religion is defined and how it's used. Some religions promote values that are compatible with democratic values, while others use religion to promote specific political agendas. It's important to continue to have open and honest conversations about religion and its role in our politics.

Oh, divine North Dakota—the most predictable climate in the world! Good grief!

Ah, well, all the boys on campus seemed to enjoy themselves in last weekend's "precipitation"—building neat little things else white, it turned Charlie Bateman yellow! I sn't that odd?

Again this week we have many new actives. At the AGD house there are eight: Rolene Burda, Janice Hanlon, Jane Johnson, Mary Kay deJardin, Patricia Hart, Janette Klein, Kay McCulloough, and Carol Solberg.

Bonnie Larson, Heather McCrea, Bobby Nelson, Lynda Odetes designed for dressy wear. So serviceable some women wear nothing else.

Thursday eve. Heard it was a real swinger.

New pledges this week are: Charles Wilcox, Clarence Krag-ness, Lowell Christiansen, and Bus-7 Anderson at the SPH house, and Den Brandvold, Gary King, Suzie Krieger, and Dick Whiting at Big Chi.

day, did you hear about the new way to figure out when Easter comes every year? 'It's the 21st Sunday after Christmas that you go to church.'

Sorority award time — Outstanding Pledge at GBS is Mar- lin Anderson; at AGD, Its Jan- nie Hanson, Most Improved Scholarship — Jane Costain at KAT, and Marlene Olson at AGO.

Summer School Plans Made; Three KD's Attend Province Workshop June 13

Students To Register June 13 Province Workshop

Summer school sessions will run from June 13-July 23. By enrolling in the summer, students may earn one-half the amount of credit considered a normal program for the fall quarter.

Six credit hours is considered the minimum full load in the summer, and nine to ten credits the normal maximum. Classes meet twice as often in the fall quarter.

Veterans studying under Public Law 550 must carry at least seven hours in order to qualify for maximum benefits.

Credits earned in the summer term are applicable to all degrees awarded by the college.

Mary Ellen Garaas, Kappa Delta president, Fay Patterson and Carole Peterson represented Sigma Phi chapter of Kappa Delta at the Eta province workshop for chapter officers, held April 2-3 at the University of Wisconsin.

Exchange of ideas for chapter functions and plans for installation of a new chapter was the order of business.

Seven province chapters were represented. They included girls from Iowa State University, Coe College, Lawrence College, Beloit College, University of Minnesota, University of Wisconsin, and NDSC.

Bev Lallum, zoology secretary, points to writings on the blackboard that are estimated by the Zoology Department to be about 20 years old. They were found behind a cabinet that was recently moved to the basement of Minard, soon to be the new location of the Zoology Department.

Job Interviews

Employment opportunities for graduating seniors exist with the following companies:

- Krause Milling Company needs 1 or 2 graduating ME's who have completed their military service and have a good academic record. They specifically request a man who is mechanically minded and has a real appreciation for machinery. The company is engaged in dry milling of corn and producing corn mixtures used primarily in adhesive applications.

- Carpenter Paper Company has a six-months training program rated high in the paper distributing field. Carpenter is located extensively in the middle-west and western states.

- Ford Motor Company seeks need for two M.E. graduates interested in auto mechanics. They will be factory trained and serve as field service representatives visiting dealers helping them with critical service problems. From this position they may ultimately work into sales management and customer engineering.

- Ralston Purina Company has two positions in their Research Department for people with a B.S. degree in biology, bacteriology or zoology.

Placement Office

For people with a B.S. degree in chemistry, do analytical work on ingredients and finished products. College work in qualitative and quantitative analytic and paper chromatography would be required. They also have a position for a person with a B.S. degree. This work involves a gage research and micro-biology and bioassays. Employment would be in St. Louis, Mo.

Interested students are asked to contact the College Placement office for additional information.

By Sherry Bassin, Sports Editor

The year of 1959-60 has been quite a successful year for the major sports of football and basketball at NDSC.

Neither of the ball clubs captured the championship in their respective leagues but they certainly contributed to some sportsmanship entertainment.

Both ball clubs produced the most valuable player of the North Central Conference.

Curt Quenette was the most valuable player of the NCC football league and Marv Bachmeier was the most valuable player of the basketball conference.

Both these players must be recognized as the greatest in their fields. Their sportsmanship and playing ability have brought fame to themselves and to all those associated with North Dakota State College.

Bachmeier's winning of the most valuable player award of the NCC made a clean sweep in capturing basketball awards for 59-60.

NDSC Trackmen Begin Season At Jamestown

Track and field team members at NDSC were scheduled to compete in eight outdoor meets during 1960, beginning with the Jamestown Relays, April 30.

Two of the eight meets will be in Fargo—the Bison-Jaycee Invitational, May 7, and the North Central Conference Meet, May 21.

On April 9th, they will enter a triangular with UND and Dickinson Teacher's at the University of North Dakota fieldhouse.

The 1960 outdoor schedule: April 30—Jamestown Relays at Jamestown.

May 7—Bison-Jaycee Invitational at Fargo.

May 13—Bemidji Relays at Bemidji, Minn.

May 14—North Dakota State Meet at Dickinson.

May 16—Inter-City Meet at Concordia College (NDSC, Concordia and Moorhead State).

May 21—North Central Conference Meet at Fargo.

May 28—District NAIA Meet at Brookings, S. Dak.

June 3-4—National NAIA Meet at Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

Baseball Squad To Play Sixteen Games

North Dakota State College's baseball team will play a 16 game schedule during the 1960 season. Six of the games are with North Central Conference opponents. Other teams the Bison will play are Moorhead State College, Wahpeton State School of Science, Concordia College, Bemidji State College, Mankato State College, St. John's and St. Cloud State College.

B. C. "Charlie" Bentson, Bison baseball coach, will be assisted by Cy Pietz, AAS graduate student.

Pietz won three baseball letters with the Bison.

Kermit Quanbeck, Eng. graduate student, will coach the freshman baseball squad.

The 1960 schedule:

April 20—Wahpeton State School of Science at Wahpeton (2 games).

April 27—Moorehead State College at Moorhead (1 game).

April 29—South Dakota State at Brookings (2 games).

April 30—South Dakota State at Brookings (1 game).

May 3—Concordia at Moorhead (1 game).

May 6—Bemidji State at Bemidji (2 games).

May 7—Mankato State at Fargo (2 games).

May 12—University of North Dakota at Fargo (1 game).

May 14—University of North Dakota at Grand Forks (2 games).

May 19—South Dakota State at Collegeville (1 game).

May 25—St. Cloud State at St. Cloud (1 game).

Nineteen Army ROTC Cadets Take Part In National Cherry Blossom Festival

Nineteen NDSC Army ROTC cadets left Wednesday by plane to participate in the National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade of Princesses held in Washington, D.C., April 6-10.

Over 8000 marchers and 225 units from various parts of the United States and its Territories will march in the Parade of Princesses which will be the largest of its kind in the nation.

This team, known as the "Dakota Rifles," is an auxiliary of the Dakota Company, Association of the United States Army. This team is made up entirely of first and second year ROTC cadets and is commanded by Cadet Sgt. Joel Babic under the coaching of Sgt. Donald L. Bell.

Receives Award

George Poletes, former student at NDSC, has received the annual McKnight Foundation Award for the Advancement of Humanities.

Poletes received this $1,000 award for his play, "House of the Dead" which was written while he was doing his graduate work at NDSC.

Poletes attended Augustana College where he received his bachelor of arts degree in 1955. He received his masters degree in 1957 from NDSC.
