Commencement And Baccalaureate Rehearsal For Graduates Set May 19

Commencement rehearsal for all graduates, both bachelors and masters degree candidates, will be held Thursday, May 19, at 3:45 p.m. in Festival Hall.

Degree candidates should meet with their school marshals at an hour or two before rehearsal. The marshals will assemble before coming to Festival Hall. All Baccalaureate candidates assigned to the Hall will meet there. The rehearsal, , the baccalaureate service and the commencement exercises, is required of all degree candidates, and the students should contact their marshals on any questions regarding the rehearsal.

Caps and gowns for all candidates will be available at the college bookstore on May 19, 20, or 21, and must be picked up one of those days. Masters degree candidates should contact the book store earlier to make arrangements for rental of their hood which is not included in their diploma fee payment.

Again this year baccalaureate and commencement are being held on the same day. Baccalaureate will be at 10 a.m. on Sunday, May 22 with commencement the same afternoon at 2 p.m. Such an arrangement permits many parents and friends to drive to Fargo for the exercises and to return the same evening without having to stay overnight.

In an attempt to better accommodate families and friends of the degree candidates at commencement, each graduate will be allowed four tickets to the reserved bleachers in the field house. These tickets will admit persons to the reserved section only where seats will be on a first-come-first-served basis. Candidates may obtain their tickets at the Admissions and Records Office when they call for their graduation announcements.

Seating for the baccalaureate service may be unreserved as in previous years.

The recital is open to the public.

Minnear, Grimes Write Math Book

Dr. F. L. Minnear, professor of chemistry, and Miss Ruby M. Grimes, professor of mathematics, are authors of a new book: Review of Mathematics for Beginning Science and Engineering Students.

The book is intended for the college student having difficulty with mathematics in beginning college courses in science and engineering.

Bystander Ponders Politics

Students, do you realize that much of our destiny is shaped around one single month? I speak of, of course, the month of November. 1960. Within this one month alone we find Thanksgiving Day, when we give thanks for a couple of days off from classes, Veterans Day, when we celebrate the end of the "First World War" for the 43rd time, my birthday, which I celebrate last and least, the fact of the matter is, Ah, yes, the elections. This is the time for all good patriots, filibusters, etc., to step forward and take this self-righteous action of how the American public wants to be represented. Below we reproduce a typical oration between candidates "A" and "B".

Candidate "A": "Folks, last night I heard that the opposition was again opposing my stand on the peanut issue. My friends, I would like you to know what I plan to do about this. I believe that the peanut is a vital, worthwhile, complete idiotic moron.

Candidate "B": "Each day my opponent amazes me with the terrific progress he makes. Why, his tail is almost gone today, to say nothing of him taking his first steps on his four legs. However, I am beginning to despair of his ever being able to speak intelligently at all; he is able to do is to spout the gibberish you hear now."

"No comment.

"Mr. Possum, do you think we ought to attempt to get peace with the Russians?"

"Yes, I do, Mr. Possum."

"Mr. Possum, what do you think about mother nature?"

"I am not sure, Mr. Possum.

"Mr. Possum, last night on the opposition candidates stood up, and said."

"Those blithering idiots, the egotistical morons. Lies, lies, everything they say is a pack of lies. Never have I met a more childish bunch of snakes-grass."

Oh, rats, I guess they're all right.

The Spectrum Asked: "What do you think of the plane shooting incident over Russia?"

By Mary Flapp

"The Spectrum Photo Interview"

Mr. Flapp, Fargo, N. D.

"Since there have been a lot of bickering over this incident for years. It's true that the Summit Conference has been used to try to keep things on this fence in addition to being televised, the presence of this float should do a great deal to attract public attention to the Name-Change on campus."

Name-Change Committee is entering a float in the huge WAHY Band Ceremony. The assignment of this annual affair attracts hundreds of people. Dave Fike, Joni Eckhusen, and I, as representatives of North Dakota State University, have been selected to attend in addition to being televised. The meeting, which is self-evident, will do a great deal to attract public attention to the Name-Change on campus."

Next week there will be another informational meeting concerning the Name-Change. Let me urge all you students to attend. Next week's Spectrum will carry complete details.

The Name-Change campaign is underway and is gaining momentum. We need each and every one of you to help. LET'S GET HOT ON THE NAME-CHANGE.

Yawn, Yawn.

Ho-hum-m-m—got to start getting some sleep pretty soon. With both picnics and projects, you’ve got to give up something and sleep seems to be the only logical thing. Just think, seniors only have one week left, and they’re done—no more unitonizing, loaﬁng, sponging, writing home for money, etc. Maybe college isn’t so bad after all.

Now I’m off the track again.

Speaking of picnics, as I was a paragraph back, there have been a few this week, (a few—like twenty!) In Lindenwood on Tuesday were: Co-ops and Phi Mu, ATOs and Theta, AGTs and Kappas, SAEs and Alpha Game, TKEs and KDs, along with every engineer on campus.

Wednesday we saw the whole band out there really whooping it up.

Thursday night was full again with the Theta Chis and Kappas, AGRs and AGDs, TKEs and Thetas, and Chem Club all out pinning.

Lots of term parties this weekend too—Farmhouse to night, and tomorrow night there’s TKE and Theta Chi.

New initiates in Phi Mu are: Carol Nord, Sharon Kafold, and Libya Haugen. All my congratulations.

Pinnings, pinnings—Spring is deﬁnitely in the air! Pinned are Donna Schilling, GPB, to Bill An­derst, SAE; Judy Freeman, KKG, to Jack Gashley, Kappa Psi; and Marian Berg to Duane Roister, Kappa Psi.

With all the pinnings, engage­ments, and sweetheart candidates, there was much serenading Monday eve—the Kappa Psi, SAEs, and AGDs were all out, going from house to house.

The Gamma Phi honored their graduating seniors at a breakfast last Sunday. Also honored was their housemother, Mrs. Alvin Johnson, who is ending her 5 year stay.

The big Phi Mu picnic that was held on their empty lot last Wed­nesday evening was a real swinger. We all got to see how good everyone else’s cooks were, anyway.

Well, Greek Week is past and everything seemed to be a smash­ing success—everything, that is, except the pageants, which I al­ways thought was the purpose of the thing. It’s a pity, really.

EUROPE MADE SIMPLE: NO. 2

Last week we discussed England, the ﬁrst stop on the tour of Europe that every American college student is going to make this summer. Today we will discuss your next stop, France—or the Pearl of the Paciﬁc, as it is generally called.

To get from England to France, one greases one’s body and swims the English Channel. Similarly, to get from France to Spain, one greases one’s body and slides down the Pyrenees. As you can see, the most important single item to take to Europe is a valve full of grease.

No, I am wrong. The most important single item to take to Europe is a valve full of Marlboro Cigarettes. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! If you think flavor went out when filters came in, treat yourself to a Marlboro. The ﬁlter works perfectly, and yet you get the full, meaty, ediﬁying taste of the choice tobaccos that precede the ﬁlter. This remarkable feat of cigarette engineering was achieved by Marlboro’s research team—Fred Softpack and Walter Flippo—and for one, am grateful.

But I digress. We were speaking of France—or the Serpent of the Nile, as it is popularly termed.

First let us brieﬂy sum up the history of France. The nation was discovered in 1492 by Madame Guillotine. There followed a series of costly wars with Schleswig-Holstein, the Cleveland Indians, and Captain Dreyfus. Stability finally came to this troubled land with the coronation of Marshal Foch, who married Lorraine Alise and had three children: Flopsy, Mopsy, and Charlemagne. This later became known as the Petit Trianon.

Marshal Foch—or the Boy Orator of the Platte, as he was affectionately called—was succeeded by Napoleon who intro­duced shortness to France. Until Napoleon, the French were the tallest nation in Europe. After Napoleon, most Frenchmen were able to walk comfortably under card tables. This later became known as the Hunchback of Notre Dame.

Napoleon was ﬁnally exiled to Elba where he made the famous statement, “Able was I ere I saw Elba,” which reads the same whether you spell it forwards or backwards. You can also spell Marlboro backwards—Orbismat. Do not, however, try to smoke Marlboro backwards because that undoes all the efﬁcacy of the great Marlboro ﬁlter.

After Napoleon’s death the French people fell into a great depression, known as the Louisiana Purchase. For over a cen­tury everybody ran around mourning and refusing his food. This torpor was not lifted until Eiffel built his famous tower, which made everybody giggle so hard that today France is the gayest country in all Europe.

Each night the colorful natives gather at sidewalk cafes and shout “Os-la-la” as Maurice Chevalier promenades down the Champs Elysees swinging his Malacore cane. Then, tired but happy, everyone goes to the Louvre for bowls of onion soup. The principal industry of France is making travelers’ checks.

Well sir, I guess that’s all you need to know about France. Next week we’ll visit the Land of the Midnight Sun—Spain.

Dr. Cater Speaks At Phi Kappa Phi Banquet

Guest speaker at the annual Phi Kappa Phi banquet held May 5 in the Student Union was Dr. Catherine Cater from Moorhead State College.

Dr. Cater's message was "Footnote to Daedalus". She referred to the story of Daedalus, a Greek architect, who designed a labyrinth to hold the king's prisoner. So well was it designed and constructed that even Daedalus himself could get out of it after he had incurred the king's wrath and been placed there. Finally Daedalus and his son, who was in the labyrinth with him, used feathers fastened with wax to fly upward and so escape.

As is shown in the story by the tragedy of Daedalus' son, it is important to take the middle of the road. We must be careful not to be so engrossed in what we are doing that we do not get a clear picture of the total experience, according to Dr. Cater.

Microscope Slide Projector Bought
A new type of microscope slide projector purchased by the School of Agricultural Entomology at NDSC was made possible by a self-sustaining grant given to the school of entomology by Mr. Harold Shaver of Bismarck, N. D.

Dr. Post says that the projector, which is known as a Tri-Simples Projector, will enable the students to make accurate drawings of insects and insect parts. Dr. Post says that the projector is especially valuable in the drawing of small insects such as lice and fleas.

Former Bison Players To Meet Varsity Squad

North Dakota State College football coaches will have an opportunity to check the results of "a whole lot of experimenting" Friday, when the Bison varsity meets a team composed of former Bison players.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Dakota Field for the third annual Alumni-Varsity game.

"We've done quite a bit of personnel shifting and experimenting this spring," said Head Coach Bob Danielsen, "and we hope to see some of the results of it in this game with the alumni."

"We'll be playing some squad members at more than one position Friday, to try to find out where they can help us the most," Danielsen said.

The Bison have 13 returning lettermen from last year's squad, which finished second in the North Central Conference.

By position, Danielsen views his 1960 squad this way:

ENDS: Tom Reynolds, S. St. Paul, Minn. and Barry McBride, Winnipeg, Canada, are the top candidates. Terry Laker, Minn.-Marshall, letterman, has been shifted from guard to provide more depth. Other candidates have made progress, and Danielsen feels the depth problem at this position has been solved.

Freshmen candidates are Charles Martin, Ironon, Minn.; Dick Larson, Moorhead, Minn.; and G. E. Childs. Mandan; and Charles Boyd, Wayzata, Minn.

TACKLE: Position is still the top concern of coaching staff. Several good football players have been moved to tackle, but their ability to play tackle is still not established. Leading candidates are Bob Kase, Willis Kingbury and Mike Hogan. Columbia Heights, Minn.; and Rudy Ramirez, S. St. Paul, Minn. Danielsen rates them all as good football players, but feels Kingbury, feels they would all be better at the guard position.

GUARD: Freshmen are leading candidates at this point. They are Dick Kaercher, Fargo; Dave Schaffer, Hillsboro; Bob Scarpitti, Barnesville, Minn.; and Doug Gebhard, Fargo. All are also working at guard. Danielsen said he originally felt the shift of two guards to tackle would seriously weaken the guard spot, but feels that the present candidates have developed rapidly and are now adequate.

CENTER: Tom Egan, Minneapolis, Minn., is the top contender in this position. He'll head the Bison center contingent. Because of the multiple offense run by the Bison, the center position is a vital one in the Bison offense. Other candidates developing rapidly are Tom Pendergast and John Gertich, Fargo.

LEFT-HALFBACK: Danielewski feels returning letterman Mike Gebhart, Wahpeton, will do a good job this fall, behind Gebhart are two promising freshmen —Harold Hughes and Ron Erdman of Williston. Erdman is also being used at halfback.

FULLBACK: Two lettermen, Dave Gentzkow, LaMoure, and Paul Kosey, Winnipeg, Canada, are contending for starting spot. Both are good college football players, with Gentzkow slightly ahead on defense because of college experience. Also working out at fullback is Leo Rodriguez, West Fargo, who has an injured leg and may not be used this weekend.

RIGHT-HALFBACK: John Stalpes, Minneapolis, Minn., who was an alternate last season is back. Also working out are John I. Davis, Ashby, Minn., Roger Villarreal, Albert Lea, Minn.; and Bruce Zelnik, Fargo. All are developing well, but limited experience may hinder development at this position.

LEFT-HALFBACK: Mike Kinkead, Moorhead, Minn., alternate starter last season is experienced performer. Other candidates are Erdman and Stalpes.

The winners of the recent Strikes & Spares bowling tournament were announced by Leo Klein, Union Lanes manager.

In the men's division, scratch singles was won by Tom Gruchalla, AAS Jr. while handicap went to Jerry Tastad, EE Fr. Gruchalla rolled a 630 series while Tastad's total was 681.

The men's doubles trophies went to Dick Arman, AAS Fr., and Bruce Larson, AAS Jr., who came in with a 1296 total handicap score. Scratch honors went to Chuck Hertert, HE Jr., and DuWayne Barney, Ph. Jr., with a 1236 total pin score.

Women's singles was won by Lois Woyak, AAS Soph., in the handicap division and Jan Mittelsteadt, HE Jr. in the scratch division. Woyak scored a 435 and Mittelsteadt rolled a 296.

In the women's doubles, handicap winners were Kaye McCulloss, HE Fr. and Marlene Olson, HE Jr., while the scratch division winners were Georgia Saar, AAS Jr., and Mary Maloney, AAS Sr., with a 568 series.

Mixed doubles honors went to Lois Woyak and Carlyle Hillstrom, AG. Jr., with a 804 handicap score. Scratch was won by Georgia Saar and DuWayne Barney with a 779.

The women's team trophy went to Gamma Phi Beta sorority with a 1111 team total. A make-up team known as Pharmacy-Army took the men's trophy with a 2350.
