

"Of Thee I Sing" Opens Wednesday

"Of Thee I Sing", the first Little Country Theater production of the season will open next week on Wednesday, Nov. 2, and run for three night. Show time is 8:15 p.m.

Claudia Gullickson, AAS Sr., Rheinhold Schuster, Linda Glesland, AAS Fr. and Duane Maas, AAS Sr. will play leading roles in the musical. Dan Wilhelm, Arch. Jr. and Bobbi Nelson, AAS Soph., will star in the dance leads.

Cast of 60

The musical comedy has a cast of approximately 60 singers, dancers, and actors. The play is a satire on presidential elections characterizing the trials and tribulations of a nominee.

Rheinhold Schuster plays the role of nominee John P. Wintergreen. The facts behind his nomination are a bit obscure. During the convention a fellow in the back of the room started making noise and screaming "Wintergreen for President" at the top of his lungs. The nomination went to Wintergreen in a landslide. However, it seems the noisemaker doing all the screaming was Wintergreen himself.

Claudia Gullickson, the former Miss North Dakota, plays the appropriate role of a beauty contest winner, the girl Wintergreen was to marry.

Linda Flesland stars as the wife of the nominee for president.

Duane Maas runs for vice president on the same ticket as the nominee Wintergreen.

Written by Kaufman and Ryskind

The story was written by George S. Kaufman and Morris Ryskind. Music and lyrics were done by the renowned George and Ira Kershwin. It is the only musical comedy ever to win a Pulitzer Prize.

W. T. Chichester of the NDSC Speech Department was named as director for this year's opening performance. Assisting Chichester will be Art Cervinka, graduate speech and drama student at NDSC, and Marilyn Nass, assistant professor of physical education for women at NDSC.

Senate Names 7

Seven students have been named to Student Senate commissions according to Allyn Hart, Student Body President.

They include: Judi Belford, Home Ec Jr., Eunice Light, AAS Fr., and Bill Findley, Fr. class vice-president, appointed to Inter-Campus Affairs Commission.

Kirby Erickson, Phar. Jr., Ken Nelson, Fr. class president to Campus Affairs Commission; Roger Klages, Eng. Soph., was named Commissioner of Radio and Bruce McConnell, ME Jr., appointed to Commission of Radio. Neil Johnson, assistant professor of physics, was appointed Inter-campus Affairs Commission advisor.

Dean F. C. Mirgain Elected Veep of Area Engineers

Dean F. C. Mirgain was elected vice-president of the midwestern section of the biennial convention of the American Society of Engineering Education on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14 and 15. The convention was held on the campus of Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis.

Others attending from NDSC were Dr. E. H. Weinberg, chairman of the Physics Dept.; Prof. d'Errico and Prof. Oakey from the Civil Engineering Dept.; and Prof. Edwin M. Anderson, chairman of Electrical Engineering.

The conference was attended by two-hundred educators from the upper midwest colleges and universities including North Dakota, South Dakota, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The main concern of the two day conference was the improvement of engineering education and the comparison and discussion of education problems. Dr. Weinberg noted that there is a "remarkable similarity of problems at all universities. One item discussed in length was the benefits derived from a digital computer similar to one being considered for addition to this campus."

The group took a side trip to the Argon National Laboratories in Chicago to complete arrangements for a week visit by nuclear engineers later in the year.

The next meeting of the ASEE will be held in two years on the NDSC campus.

This will be the last time! If you want to use last year's picture you still have to order it. If you have not taken your picture or reordered it next week is your last chance.

Be sure and turn your proofs back at the union so you can get the pictures made up and turned into the annual.

If you are getting your pictures taken elsewhere you will have to have them in the Bison Office, at the Student Union, by Nov. 10. Please print your name, address, and year in college on the back of the picture.

We also have a deadline to meet so please get the pictures to us.

"OPERATION HOMETOWN"

Is November 4, 5 and 6

Editorial Evanne Grommesh

Midterms and Homecoming the same week—Why? Students work and plan for weeks so that the Homecoming events will run smoothly. Then what happens? We can't attend these activities because we have tests all week or we participate in them only half-heartedly because we keep telling ourselves we should be studying. Result of this—Homecoming isn't the success it could be and we get lousy grades in the tests.

Married student's wives can now use their husbands activity cards for lyceums. This was approved by Student Senate this week. Because of this married students can now sit with their wives. Before they couldn't sit together unless the husband wanted to spend the money to get the good seat for his wife that he could get for himself with his ticket. Two years ago it was passed by Senate that student's wives could use the activity ticket for all athletic events except Homecoming. Guess Senate passed it once again on Tuesday.

Seven senators didn't make it to the meeting Tuesday. What happened to all those campaign promises that senate was going to be better this year?

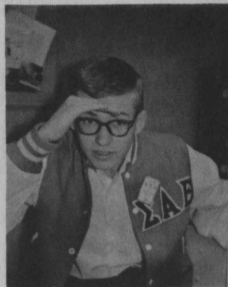

Presidential election on Monday and Tuesday—in the lobby of the Student Union. Bring your activity card. Someone will also win $5.—the person who comes closest to the number of votes cast for Kennedy and Nixon in the Nov. 8 election.

U President Urges Neutrality

The announcement by the University of North Dakota president George W. Starcher that students and members of the university family take no part in the Name Change has impressed many North Dakotans.

What he has indicated is that two highly regarded institutions of higher education should not quarrel over issues but continue to work toward the important goal of educating the young people of North Dakota.

This is the attitude NDSC feels should be followed in the issue of the Name Change because both UND and NDSC have existed side by side for several years. Both started on the "treeless prairie" with a single building and have grown from a handful of students to their present campuses.

NDSC is proud of the University of North Dakota and the work she is doing preparing the doctors, lawyers and teachers in North Dakota. Twelve years ago, NDSC supported the efforts of the UND to expand her medical center which promised benefits to all of North Dakota. Since 1948 more than seven million tax dollars have gone into the Medical Center at Grand Forks.

There is no cost—no additional faculty or staff, no additional courses required or involved in this name change for NDSC.

While the announcement of Dr. Starcher appeared on the front page of the student newspaper, the editorial attitude of the paper indicates there are some students who do not go along with their president and what is best for North Dakota.

The efforts of the students and Dr. Grinnell's Committee for the Advancement of Higher Education in North Dakota, aimed at misleading voters, would appear to be contrary to the position solicited by University of North Dakota President Starcher when he urged the faculty and students at UND to remain neutral on the name change.

Dr. Starcher has indicated that opposition to the Name Change might lessen the "honor and respect" of the University of North Dakota throughout the state. Because of this he urged UND Student Council to stay out of the Name Change controversy, which they voted to do.

Shouldn't then all students and friends of UND back Dr. Starcher and work together for the betterment of future research and higher education in North Dakota?

Letters to Editor . . .

Dear Editor:
Why not ask, "Should students help keep the campus neat?"

After fifty years observation I am still unable to understand why people are not willing to take a couple extra steps and avoid an unsightly corner path.

A more simple case is the candy wrappers and cigarette cartons that line the walks.

The recent banner for Joyce in front of Minard was removed by cutting the ropes close to it. Not long ago there were about five years of such ropes adorning the same trees.

A little thought for such things seems good citizenship as well as common sense.

Sincerely,
O. A. STEVENS
Curator, N. D. Institute of Regional Studies

Dear Editor:
Hats off to:

Ray Hendrickson, and the Independent Students Association whose members have sold over 500 Name Change Buttons.

The Rahjah Club members who have sold approximately 500 buttons at the Convo last Friday and at the game Saturday.

Byron Raknerud, and the Vets Club, whose members have sold over 300 buttons with the cooperation of the Book Store.

The Student Union Activities Board which voted to donate $500 to the Name Change.

The members of Blue Key who voted to donate $200 to the Name Change.

The SPD's who donated $2 each for their Name Change Buttons.

The Sigma Chi's and Kappa Psi who donated $1.50 apiece for the buttons.

The rest of the Greek organizations who paid $1 apiece for the buttons.

Student Senate for voting to donate $1600 to Name Change.

All the students on campus currently wearing Name Change Buttons as a symbol of their support for the Name Change.

Altogether, contributions have neared the $4,000 mark. Remember, buttons can still be purchased at the Bookstore. Let the people of this state know that we are 100% behind the Name Change.

Homecoming may be over, but everyone has the memories—of the enthusiastic Sigma Chi's, clad in racoon coats and cheering on the team, now there's a frat that was filled with spirit!!

There are several girls who won't forget Homecoming, such as the newly pinned and engaged. Pat Slocum, KD, is now pinned to Sigma Chi, Dave Kearney. Another Sigma Chi, Gary Davis, relinquished his pin to KKG Benda Brockway.

Screams of excitement ran through the Gamma Phi house when Suellen Ringsak announced her pinning to AGR Charlie Bateman. Gamma Phi Nancy Euren added to the excitement by showing her ring from SAE Bill Lantz.

Two SPD's spent the weekend romancing. Jim Driver pinned Pat Seiwert, Phi Mu alum. Wayne Savold pinned Linda Riedesel of Fargo.

One of the merry men of ATO, Lowell Bernd, gave his pin to Esther Dahlquist, St. Luke's nurse.

Junior stater, Darlene Hettervig is proudly wearing the Teke pin of Joel Buesch.

One more engagement—Mark Siefkin, senior to Sharon Heinzeroth, Fargo.

This is a busy weekend for the KD's. They celebrated their Founders Day on Wednesday, tonight is a slumber party at the house and tomorrow is a Halloween party at St. John's Orphanage—study much girls?

Gamma Phi's and Teke's had a record party at the Gamma Phi house on Tuesday, sodas and all—

The men of FarmHouse exchanged guests with the Kappa's for dinner on Monday.

Lucky winners at the SPD house fund drawing on Saturday were Sig Strangeland of Moorhead and Dennis Johnson of Jamestown.

The Teke's will have Halloween Decorations at their term party which swings at 9:00 at the K.C. Hall.

The Alpha Gams have added a new pledge, Marion Berg of Minot.

Three more pledges added to the many ATO's: Dave Fischer, Casselton; Ken Carr, Barnesville and Don Schiermeister.

More new Teke pledges: Duane Berglund, Sheyenne; Harold Korb, Calio; Ernie Stanley, Winnipeg. Elected officers of this year's Teke pledges are: Daryl Pring, president; Rick Henrkisen, vice-president; Fred Browning, secretary; Walter McIntyre, watch dog.

Breaking into the lists for a moment to remind you girls that Spinster Skip is next weekend—better hustle!!

Term parties start tonight!! The ATO's and AGR's are living it up at the Frazer Armory at 8:30—complete with flapper costumes and Dixieland band.

Republican state senator Lee Brooks and his Democratic opponent Bernie Majors spoke to faculty and students at the "Y" noon luncheon on the political situation in North Dakota. This past week Senator Milton Young spoke and next Thursday Senator Quentin Burdick will be there.

Senator Opponents Speak At Luncheon

By Dave Carlson

Republican Lee Brooks, state senator from the Ninth (Fargo) District, and his Democratic opponent in this fall's election, Bernie Majors, were featured at the "Y" Noon Luncheon Oct. 20 on a debate on the political situation in North Dakota.

Mr. Brooks told the group of some of the what he called Republican accomplishments in state government including: improved workman's compensation; the operation of a first class state hospital at Jamestown; and of the state's record of having the best road improvement of any state in the nation.

Mr. Majors described the rise of the Democratic-NPL party and said it has helped to do away with the bad fruits of a one-party government system. The one-party system, he said, breeds apathy and corruption. He charged the Republicans with poor economic development, bad finances and poor industrial growth.

Points discussed included: North Dakota's educational system; economic development and the Economic Development Commission formed by the Republicans; name change (a yes agreement by both candidates); and how the two party system benefits the state.

A FRAT TO REMEMBER

Every year, as we all know, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Collegiate Fraternities awards a highly coveted prize to the fraternity house which, in its judgment, has done the most to promote and enhance the fraternity way of life. The prize this year—eight hundred pounds of white putty—goes to the Signa Phi Nothing chapter of the South Dakota College of Dentistry and Renaissance Art.

The award this year is exceptionally richly deserved, for the Signa Phi Nothing house is the very model of all a fraternity should be. It is, first of all, a most attractive house physically. The outside walls are tastefully covered with sequins. Running along the upper story is a widow's walk, with a widow stationed every three feet. Moored to the chimney pot is the Graf Zeppelin.

Indoors, the house gives an impression of simple, casual charm. The chapter room is furnished in homey maple and chintz, with a dash of verve provided by a carp pool three hundred feet in diameter. A waterspout rises from the center of the pool with the housemother bouncing on the top.

Members' rooms are gracious and airy and are provided with beds which disappear into the wall—permanently. Each room also has a desk, a comfortable chair, a good reading lamp, and a catapult for skeetshooting. Kidney-shaped desks are available for kidney-shaped members.

Perhaps the most fetching feature of the house are the packs of Marlboros stacked in heaps wherever one goes. If one wishes to settle back and enjoy a full-flavored smoke, one needs only to reach out one's hand in any direction and pick a pack of Marlboros—soft pack or flip-top box—and make one's self comfortable with a filtered cigarette with an unfiltered taste—that triumph of the tobacconist's art, that paragon of smokes, that acme of cigarettes, that employer of mine—Marlboro!

The decor, the grace, the Marlboros, all combine to make Signa Phi Nothing a real gas of a fraternity. But a fraternity is more than things; it is also people. And it is in the people department that Signa Phi Nothing really shines.

Signa Phi Nothing has among its members the biggest BMOCs on the entire campus of the South Dakota College of Dentistry and Renaissance Art. There is, for instance, William Makepeace Sigafos, charcoal and bun chairman of the annual Stamp Club outing. Then there is Dun Rovin, winner of last year's All-South Dakota State Monopoly Championship, 135 Pound Class. Then there is Rock Schwartz, who can sleep standing up. Then there is Tremblant Placebo, who can crack pecans in his armpits. Then there is Ralph Tungsten, who went bald at eight.

But why go on? You can see what a splendid bunch of chaps there is in Signa Phi Nothing, and when one sees them at the house in the cool of the evening, all busy with their tasks—some picking locks, some playing Jacks-or-Better, some clipping Playboy—one's heart fills up and one's eyes grow misty, and one cannot but give three cheers and a tiger for Signa Phi Nothing, fraternity of the year!

© 1960 Max Shulman

And while you're cheering, how about a huzzah for the newest member of the Marlboro family of fine cigarettes—unfiltered, mild, delightful Philip Morris king-size Commander! Have a Commander—welcome aboard!

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS: DEAR DR. FROOD:

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Early to bed and early to rise is an excellent way to avoid people.

Dear Dr. Frood: What should I look for first when I look for a wife?

Searching

DEAR SEARCHING: Her husband.

Dear Dr. Frood: Our son has been in college three months, and we haven't heard a word from him. Not even a post card. I don't want him to think I am too demanding or overprotective, but frankly I am worried. What should I do?

Worried Mother

DEAR WORRIED: Why worry after only three months in college? He's still learning how to write.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am six foot five, 225 pounds, handsome, tanned, muscled, a good athlete. But I can't get along with girls because I can never think of anything to say. What do you suggest?

Brawny

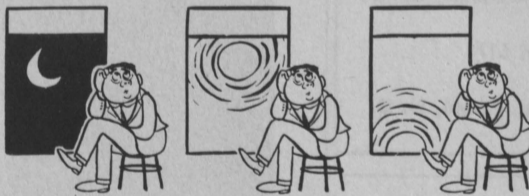

DEAR BRAWNY: "Me Tarzan, you Jane."

Dear Dr. Frood: Don't you agree that every college man has the right, in fact, the duty, to stand up and speak out for the things he believes in? Tomorrow I am going straight to the college president and tell him, politely but firmly, what is wrong here—the inferior teaching, the second-rate accommodations, the bad food. My friends think I am wrong to do this. What do you think?

Determined

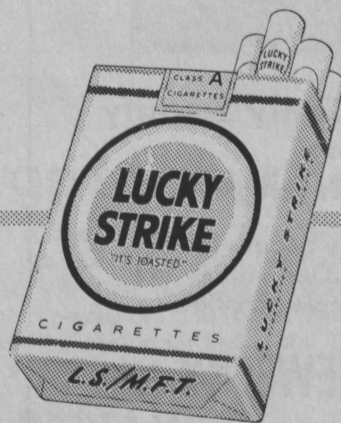

DEAR DETERMINED: I applaud your spirit, young man! Had I been able, I would have commended you in a more personal letter. However, you forgot to leave a forwarding address.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am puzzled by the Lucky Strike slogan: "Remember how great cigarettes used to taste? Luckies still do." I've been sitting here for hours, thinking, thinking, thinking, but for the life of me I can't remember. What should I do about this?

Forgetful

DEAR FORGETFUL: I suggest you lean back, relax, and light up a Lucky Strike. I'm sure it will all come back to you—who you are, what you were, where you lived, everything.

FROOD FAD SWEEPS COLLEGES! They laughed when Dr. Frood started the new college craze of enjoying a Lucky while hanging from a coat rack. But now everybody is doing it! Smoking Luckies, that is. Today college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Reason: With or without coat rack, Luckies deliver the greatest taste in smoking today.

Tutoring Offered

The physics department is offering a free tutoring service open to all physics students enrolled in any physics course.

Regular hours have been set aside for daily tutoring from 12-1 p.m. and from 5-6 p.m.

The program is under the supervision of junior physics majors with Darrell Galde and Howard Blackstead in charge.

According to Dr. E. H. Weinberg, chairman of the physics department, such a service as this is a new idea for the whole campus. It has been well received especially in the week preceding midterms.

BISON BITS

By Sherry Bassin

Last Saturday afternoon the South Dakota State Jackrabbits pulled off the biggest steal since Jesse James and they did it without a mask.

Seconds before the final whistle, SDS quarterback faded back and threw a desperation pass that rebounded off a Bison defender and into the arms of a Jackrabbit, resulting in a touchdown.

I can only say, that the fans that attended the ball game were quite fortunate because they may never see a game ending play such as this particular one again.

It was quite a disappointing finish and one that is pretty hard to take, especially when you display a tough brand of football for 59 minutes and 59 seconds.

John Staples was running real well from the halfback spot and bashing fullback Dave Gentskow looked like a tank moving an infantry line.

Gentskow also picked up another six points to bring him into a tie with the leading scorers in the North Central Conference.

Saturday's Game

Tomorrow afternoon the Bison will be in Bozeman, Montana, to play the Montana State Bobcats.

The Bobcats are suffering from the common disease of "Senioritis". They lost 15 two and three year lettermen through graduation last year and seven of the 15 were starters for two years.

Although MSC lacks depth they can still field a strong first eleven as Coach Herb Agoes can start a letterman at each position.

It looks like a thriller in Bozeman tomorrow afternoon!

Intra-mural sports provided some interesting events and an NDSC first last week.

A matter of judgment in a football game two weeks ago developed into quite a controversial issue at last week's Intra-mural Board meeting.

A game between Kappa Psi and Sigma Chi was scoreless until a Kappa Psi player seemingly scored a touchdown. It seemed that he had one foot over and one foot in front of the goal line when he was tagged. Two referees ruled that it was not a touchdown and one that it was.

Later in the same game Kappa Psi had control of the ball with 4 minutes and 40 seconds remaining in the game. They completed two passes, had one incomplete pass and then connected for another to move the ball to the 10 yard line. The game ended just as they were lining up for another play. This averages out to about 1 minute and 10 seconds a play which seems a little ridiculous.

The reason the Kappa Psi's were perturbed was that winning the game could have assured them a spot in the playoffs. A former rule stated that there should only be four teams in the playoffs, two from each bracket.

A motion was made by the Kappa Psi's that this rule be changed to include three teams from each bracket but it was defeated.

Debatable issues like these should require, like in baseball, action by the commissioner, not the individual teams.

Games played two weeks ago found four forfeits out of six games. The results are: Sigma Chi 0, Kappa Psi 0; SAE's 18, Stockbridge 0; Theta Chi 2, Student Body 0; ATO's 2, Farm House 0; and Farm House and TKE's failed to field a team.

The Metropolitan league, which will meet every Friday, will start today. Highest average, excluding last week's games, is owned by Ed Mack, AIEE III, with 202.
