REIGNING ROYALTY are attendant Linda Swenson, Queen Dorothy Vorwerk, and attendant Lynn Airheart.

Homecoming at the North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science began Wednesday night when Dorothy Vorwerk, a blue-eyed blond from Parshall, N. Dak., was crowned as queen to reign over the week's events.

Named as attendants were Linda Swenson, Kindred, and Lynn Airheart, Fargo. The royal three will ride in the Homecoming parade Saturday. Queen Dorothy will reign over the game between the NDSU Bison and UND Sioux Saturday afternoon making her final appearance at the dance in the evening.

Dr. Herbert Albrecht, newly appointed president, arrived Thursday night from Pennsylvania and greeted the student body for the first time at the Homecoming Pep convocation this morning.

Dr. Hunter Writes SU History in "Beacon Across the Prairie"

A history of North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science, "Beacon Across the Prairie, North Dakota's Land Grant College," will be in bookstores Oct. 21.

Dr. William Hunter, author and emeritus professor of history will present an official copy of his book to Dr. Herbert Albrecht, NDSU's new president, and to Paul Gallagher, president of the Alumni Association, at a luncheon Saturday, Oct. 21.

During Homecoming the book will be for sale at a special discount rate of $4.50. The regular price of $5.50 will be charged beginning Monday. Faculty and staff members, however, will be eligible for the discount rate any time.

"Beacon Across the Prairie" details the history of NDSU from its establishment as a land-grant college to the day in December, 1960, when it officially took on the name of state university.

The author was a faculty member for nearly 30 years before retiring in 1952 as professor of history and chairman of the social sciences department. Since 1953 Dr. Hunter has been an archivist for the North Dakota Institute for Regional Studies at NDSU, under whose auspices the book is being published.

Dr. Hunter begins his history with an account of the passage of the Morrill Act in 1862, making possible the establishment of NDSU and America's 67 other land-grant universities.

Dr. Hunter searched through documents files, read presidential papers and recorded the reminiscences of campus "old-timers" to round out the material for his book. The records of the Dakota Territory, the campus newspaper files, and books and documents relating to the Morrill Land-Grant Act were among his sources.

Copies of "Beacon Across the Prairies" will be available through the Institute and in bookstores. Persons ordering copies before the official publication date will receive a pre-publication discount, according to Dr. Leo Hertel, Institute editor.

"BEACON ACROSS THE PRAIRIE" is the title of a history of North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science by Dr. William C. Hunter, professor emeritus of history. Publication date of Dr. Hunter's volume is Oct. 21, coinciding with the NDSU Homecoming and tying in with events celebrating the Land-Grant Centennial. The history tells the story of NDSU, North Dakota's Land-Grant institution, from its founding in 1890, up until December, 1960.

Students Welcome Prexy at Airport

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Albrecht received a warm welcome as they stepped on North Dakota ground last night. An estimated 100 North Dakota State University students were on hand waving, yelling, clapping, and singing as the plane came down at Hector airport.

As the cheerleaders led yells and the pep band played, the Rajah's pushed the throng of students back in order to make an aisle for the new president to enter the airport.

On hand to greet the president and his wife were Dean and Mrs. Arlon Hazen, acting president; Wayne Hamann, student body president; Sherry Bassin, Homecoming director.

The welcome sprang out of the spirited snake dance and "Beanie Burning Bonfire" at which more than 1000 students attended.

Dr. and Mrs. Albrecht are residing in the guest room in Dinan Hall for the weekend. He will meet with deans and administrative directors in the afternoon.

Visitors Will See Changing University

Welcome to the first homecoming of North Dakota State University under the new name.

We hope that all visitors; alumni, friends of students, friends of the university and even friendly rivals from the university to the north, will enjoy their stay on campus.

You will recognize, we think, that change is in the air.

You can see the change in the campus scene from the buildings in every stage of growth.

The new dormitories are still skeletal, but the animal nutrition building is nearing completion and the poultry plant is far enough along to rate a trip out to look at it.

Older buildings aren't quite the same as last year or a decade ago either.

There are now classrooms where once there were offices. There are offices where once there were hallways and closets.

There are auditoriums seating hundreds where once a classroom holding 50 students received scant use.

If you are around campus much this weekend, you'll get a view of the new president, Dr. Herbert R. Albrecht, who will take up his duties here next quarter.

All around there is the evidence of new things, new ideas; new ways; there is the atmosphere of change and impending change. We think you can feel it. We know you will be proud of your changing university.

We are.

A Pat on the Back

It is difficult writing yesterday about an event which starts today to make an assessment of how that event turned out.

That's us trying to write about homecoming.

We want to say, however, that the committee organizing and conducting this homecoming worked hard and did a fine job of planning and arranging.

If the weather holds, it should be a bang up event. One to set a precedent for the ones to come in the 60's and 70's.

It should give next year's committee a measuring stick as to what they have to do to put on a better show. That should be the goal.

The committee, the sub committees and all those who worked deserve all the credit we can give them. We give that credit.

Do You Think NDSU Offers Sufficient Educational Opportunities?

The educational facilities are adequate in most departments except for the music department. The music department is good, but it has room for much improvement.

Judy Willert
AAS Jr.
Hankinson, N. Dak.

Considering the current controversy over our proposed tennis courts and swimming pools, I would say that NDSU is offering as much as it can, being limited by state regulations.

I don't think we could call it sufficient until NDSU is provided with a good language laboratory. Something that most self-respecting high schools usually have. Also, the absence of an orchestra on campus limits the opportunities of many musical students.

Yes, the library is an especially good place to study. It contains all the needed reference material and study facilities if the student wishes to make use of it.

The new pharmacy building is a fair structure but we need more females to decorate it. Girls, fire up for pill pushing. Prerequisite — you must be able to count.

Letter To The Editor

Coed Discusses Speakers

Dear Editor,

It was my privilege to attend a "Y" noon luncheon, Oct. 19, to hear Dr. Dinusson speak on social progress in Iceland. Not only did he speak about social progress, but also he related interestingly a bit about history, geography, and climatic conditions. He did not try to be funny, but a sense of humor was definitely apparent.

The reason I mention the sense of humor is that Sept. 25 Dr. Francis Hus gave "A View on China and Why People are Thinking Against Chinese Culture." This man really tried to be funny, and he got laughs. But I'm wondering if the students really thought all that smut was so hilarious.

His whole discussion was general and superficial. I wished I had gone to the library to read a book on Chinese culture for 45 minutes instead.

I could rant and rave about this man's speech cutting it up in little pieces, but since this occurred nearly a month ago I'm a little cooled off by now.

Then Oct. 4 a government foreign service representative spoke about opportunities in foreign service to the International Relations Club. The idea was fine, but this man spoke as if every word was a chore to utter. He was so extremely ineffective and seemed so non-plussed about his field that it was difficult to see how any one could become interested in foreign service by listening to him.

It seemed strange to me that of these three men, I felt that a man from our own campus gave by far the most glowing account. He was wrapped up in his subject and showed it. His little illustrations and personal anecdotes weren't so mething

Letter To The Editor

Who Gets Tickets?

Dear Editor,

If I were to write this letter showing my feelings right now, this letter would not be printable. My fraternity brothers and I have similar feelings in this matter.

Wednesday morning, we attempted to obtain tickets to see the Belafonte Singers perform on Saturday evening. We were told that all the tickets were gone.

We as students, of NDSU feel that we have a legitimate gripe. We would like to know why lyceum tickets that we have already paid for in our activity fee are put on public sale downtown before student demands are met?

one can find in any book of magazine.

I would like to see more students on this campus take a part in attending not only convos because it's the thing to do, but also the IRC meetings and "Y" luncheons. Maybe you won't agree with the speakers and maybe you will, but it would be truly great to have some opinions floating around this campus about a few concrete subjects rather than inconsequential happenings.

Judee Perkins

We are now being asked to vote for a raise in our activity fee to provide for construction of a swimming pool and tennis courts. Before I vote, yes, I want to know if the public has as much right to the use of these facilities as the students that paid for them.

I feel these are no different than the circumstances that exist in our present lyceum program. Why, when the lyceum tickets are sold twice, should we have to pay more money? If the lyceums are for the public, I think that the fees we usually pay for lyceums should be applied to the construction fund instead.

The Class Failures?

"The real failures in class are those who just sit politely laugh at the lecturer's jokes and do everything expected of them except think," said Murray Ross, president of York University, Toronto, Canada.

"I know that these people become the pillars of suburbia," Ross said. "They will have neat houses and gardens, two children and respectable if not exciting jobs.

But they will be dull, uncreative people, and I would wish something more for them and for society."

SOCIAL NOTES

By NANCY FLATT

You couldn't begin to count the number of pairs in this world that go together beautifully. . . boy-girl, Union-coffee, U-Sioux, SU-Bison, football-cheerleaders, floats-parade, to name a few that are rather close to us. But really, it's about this one. . . mid-terms—Homecoming. If there ever was a pair that wasn't made to be, this is it. It's almost as bad as putting two North Dakota Universities together.

In addition to the Homecoming activities we still have pledging. The new pledges this week are. . . Phi Mu-Joan Hendrickson, Nancy Haedt and Ruth Gores. Kappa Delta-Darlene Singer, Connie Jo DePlazes and Judy Mertes. Alpha Gamma Delta-Jeanne Hulstrand and Karen Nordstrum.

Sigma Chi. . . Delmar Grest, Bob Kardasch, Louie Seitzer, John Weatherly, Ron Stepanek, Pierre duCharme, Jerry Brekhush, Dick Solee and Verlin Anderson.

Alpha Tau Omega. . . John Davis, Ken Breen, John Daley and Steve Kindle.

Farm House. . . Ronald Bergan, Harley Jennings, Gary Helseth, Kenwood Carr and Willard Dill.

Tau Kappa Epsilon. . . Egidie Scherr, Larry Schlupp, Dennis Redman, John Pendergast, William Warren, Orin Olsgaard, Jon Suby, Roger Ottem, Douglas Daniels, John Gregen, Stuart Stenseth and Paul Erickson.

Going along with pledges would be pledge class officers. Those for ATO are pres. Bob Roel, vice-pres. Paul Koenig, secretary-treasurer Paul Bommer, social Steve Benzer and sentinal Jerry Schliet.

From GPB are pres. Ene Koi-vastik, vice-pres. Jo Ann Anderson, secretary Sandy Boelter, treasurer Kathy Larson, activities Carol Berg, corresponding sec. Carol Anstett, standards Judy Snuff, house Violet Anderson, librarian Jerri Hall, historian Denise Gibb, musician Maxine Jordhiem, scholarship Christy Powers, public relations Sharon Eidem and Junior Panhellenic Judy Jensen.

Cheers and firing up this morning at the convocation and tonight the romantic side begins with Montavani and his orchestra. . . Field House at 8:15.

A big welcome of course to all the returning alumni. They will be enjoying a smorgasbord tonight and the class of '36 combines with the Queen's Luncheon tomorrow.

What a jam-packed day that tomorrow is going to be! The parade rolls into view at 9, our Bison meet the Sioux at 1:30, The Belafonte Singers will perform at 8:15 and the big dance will begin at 10.

This Land Grant Centennial Homecoming should be the best yet and so have a terrific weekend everyone, and let's cheer the Bison on to victory.

The chart of romance news has dropped off to almost the "low" mark. Perhaps it will change after this weekend. One pinning from the Sigma Chi house is Tom Herbster to Emy Jo Pickerty a St. Lukes nurse. The lone engagement is from Phi Mu Eleanor Haedt to Steve Kline.

Last Wednesday the ATOs and GPBs had an unusual party where the gals dressed like boys and the fellas like girls.

Exchanging dinners Monday night were the Alpha Gams and Farm House and the Kappas and Tekes.

A special feature comes from the Tekes. They announce that their sweetheart Karen Sexhus GPB has been chosen as one of the eleven finalists for the crown of International Sweetheart of the year and was subsequently named the Sweetheart of October. She was in competition with local sweethearts of all TKE chapters in the U. S. and Canada.

Those yellow and green mums are one thing that sets the Homecoming mood. They put a sarkle in the gal's eye and only a slight dent in her date's billfold. Going along with this Homecoming whirl are a few problems like what to wear. . . will it be warm, rain or snow? Most of the girls seem to favor the wool or jersey type dress. They say the dance calls for dress-up, but not formal.

The Coronation was Wednesday nights and congratulations to the new Homecoming Queen. Also congratulations to all of her court.

Thursday was beanie burning night. Hope some of the freshmen found their beanies in time to get them burnt.

Ten District Contests Set for Nov. 18 in Wool Contest

Ten district contests have been scheduled in North Dakota on Nov. 18 for the "Make It Yourself With Wool" competition, according to Mrs. Donald Hanson, 2513 9 1/2 Street, Fargo, who is in charge of arrangements for the state contest.

Mrs. Hanson said 20 winners of the district contest will then compete in the state contest at NDSU on Dec. 2 before going on to the national event.

This is the eleventh year North Dakota has held a wool contest and Mrs. Hanson and the rules were the same except that registration blanks can be obtained in any store selling 100% wool this year which makes it easier than mailing in for blanks as in previous years.

The district chairmen who are to receive a copy of the registration blank are: Mrs. R. W. Cook, Williston; Mrs. Bert Skatton, Minot; Mrs. Lloyd Jones, Webster for Devils Lake contest; Mrs. Lester Amundson, East Grand Forks; Mrs. George Martin, Fargo; Mrs. Paul Sinner, Wahpeton; Mrs. Duane McCullough, Valley City; Mrs. Bill Well, Medina for Jamestown contest; Mrs. Byron Lysne, Bismarck; and Mrs. Paul Kloster, Dickinson.

Only one junior and one senior winner from each district may compete in the state contest this year. Last year winners in each district were determined by the number competing and this will mean stiffer competition on the state level, according to Mrs. Hanson.

Darryl Eastvold Elected to National FFA Office

Darryl Eastvold, NDSU Ag soph., was elected central regional vice president of the Future Farmers of American at the close of the national FFA convention in Kansas City last week.

In this capacity, Eastvold and five other national officers will represent more than 380,000 FFA members throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. On a good will tour they will cover approximately 50,000 miles, 40 states including Hawaii, Puerto Rico, in about seven weeks. Their job is to spread an understanding of the FFA organization.

In order to fulfill his duties,

Eastvold will drop out of school at the end of this quarter for two quarters. His job ends when the next national convention convenes in October 1962. Eastvold will fly to Washington, D. C. at the beginning of the year for training. The last national officer from North Dakota was in 1948.

Eastvold attended the national convention to receive the American Farmer Degree which is awarded annually to only one in every 1000. This is the highest degree in the FFA organization and every candidate for office must hold this degree before he is considered for an office.

The central region consists of 13 states. There are four regions in the United States. Every state has an annual convention and he will attend as many of them as possible.

"It's going to be a busy year", Darryl said. "I'm thrilled at being elected, but glory is only momentary—the work will soon begin."

The day you know
you must provide

Brotherhood Provider Life Insurance gives you:

$10,000 of lifetime security for only 44¢ a day***

Because you are a Lutheran, you can own Brotherhood Provider Life Insurance and at remarkably favorable rates. That's important when you think of the family responsibilities in your future. It's reassuring to own Brotherhood Provider now... against the day when you know you must provide. Look at these big advantages:

- $10,000 of permanent, dividend-paying life insurance.
- If you retire at 65, you can get $13,000 in cash—a return of $1.83 for each dollar invested.
- If you die at 65, your beneficiary gets $16,760—your total investment is only $7,097.

*Lutheran Brotherhood pays all premiums if you are totally disabled before 60.

All this and more for an investment of just $161.30 a year... about 4¢ a day. You pay more than this for lunch.

Right now, think about your future... the future of those who will depend on you. Call your Lutheran Brotherhood campus representative and join the thousands of Lutherans who enjoy security and peace of mind in the bond of Lutheran Brotherhood.

*Based on age 21 and on current dividend rate, which is not guaranteed. Actual amount may be more or less than total premiums paid.

Gov. Guy Named Committee Head

Governor William L. Guy has been named honorary chairman of a committee of leaders in education for North Dakota's celebration of the Land-Grant Centennial.

Senators Milton R. Young, Quentin N. Burdick and Congressmen Don L. Short and Hjalmar C. Nygaard are also on the committee together with members of the Board of Higher Education, including: Ralph A. Christensen, president of the board; Mrs. Elvira Jestrab, Albert Haas, Fred R. Orth, Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Martin G. Kruse, John G. Conrad and Dr. A. E. Mead, Commissioner.

The committee will be invited to various centennial functions on the campus at NDSU, the state's land-grant institution.

Plans for the Land-Grant Centennial celebration in North Dakota will begin with NDSU's Homecoming this weekend according to Donald F. Schwartz, chairman and acting director of Communications at NDSU.

Special plans at NDSU include publication and distribution of a Self-Study report; special emphasis at all university functions including Little International, Religious Emphasis Week, Sharivar, Honors Day and Commencement.

The land-grant centennial observance is planned not only to promote the awareness of the accomplishments of the land-grant colleges and universities throughout the country but to examine their three-fold responsibilities of teaching, research and public service.

SU Club Promotes United Nations Day

By MIKE WEILER

The week of Oct. 22-28 has been designated "United Nations Week" with Tuesday, Oct.

24 declared "United Nations Day". The International Relations Club considers it appropriate that U. N. Day be properly observed on this campus.

Accordingly, the president of the International Relations Club, Alex Sagay from Nigeria, invites all students and faculty to participate in a United Nations bull session at 4 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 24, in Library 101. On that day the U. N. flag will be flown from the pole at the southeastern corner of the campus. The International Relations Club hopes that the U. N. posters will import pertinent information.

President Kennedy has stated, "In the development of the United Nations rests the only true alternative to war." While an overwhelming majority of us Americans approve of the United Nations, only a few of us really understand how it functions to accomplish its many vital goals.

We and other member states ARE the United Nations. It is therefore our obligation to understand it and to make it work. The member nations want it to maintain world peace; to combat hunger, illiteracy, and disease; to further human rights; and to raise the standards of living throughout the world.

Throughout the past sixteen years, the United Nations has accomplished many important goals. It has successfully applied collective security against aggression in Korea. In Palestine, it has brought an end to Israeli-Arab fighting. In the Congo, its conciliatory role has been both to reconcile opposing factions and to prevent Big Power intervention unleashing World War III.

Also ever since the death of the beloved peacemaker, Dag Hammarskjold, the future of the U. N. itself has been in jeopardy.

Ambassador U. Thant of Burma is now the most likely person to take over Mr. Hammarskjold's position for the time being. We can only hope that the successor will carry the affairs of the U. N. with the same ability and devotion that Dag Hammarskjold did.

WHY ONLY 11 MEN ON A FOOTBALL TEAM? Because all the other students are just too busy. Yes, busy doing research, studying, smoking Luckies, playing bongos, smoking Luckies, dating, partying, praising professors and smoking Luckies—much too busy for football. Why so many "smoking Luckies"? Simply this: We try to give an honest representation of college life; and college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular cigarette —so smoke Luckies.

had a one-man conference about your future lately?

You: Why the gold bars?
Future You: You're needed... just as your father and grandfather were. It's an obligation that a lot of qualified college men have to meet. If we don't...
You: All right. But what can I do for the Air Force?
Future You: The Air Force needs college trained men and women as officers. This is caused by the rapidly advancing technology that goes with hypersonic air and space flight. Your four years of college have equipped you to handle complex jobs.
You: Say I was interested... how can I get to be an officer?
Future You: You know about Air Force ROTC and the Air Force Academy. Then there's the navigator training program. You've probably heard about Officer Training School... where the Air Force takes certain college graduates, both men and women, and commissions them after three months of training.
You: Starting salary is important. What about that?
Future You: Add it up. Base pay, tax-free allowances, free medical and dental care, retirement provision, perhaps flight pay. You don't have to be an eco major to see it adds up to an attractive package.
You: I've been thinking about getting my Master's.
Future You: As an officer you can apply for the Air Force Institute of Technology. At no cost, and while on active duty some officers may even win their Ph.D. degrees.
You: Tell me more.
That's the job of your local Air Force Recruiter. Or write to Officer Career Information, Dept. SC110, Box 7608, Washington 4, D.C., if you want further information about the navigator training or Officer Training School programs.

INTRAMURALS

By DENNIS KALDOR
Touch football moves into the playoffs this week with the two top teams from each league competing for the top spot. The standings as of Monday, Oct. 16, were as follows:

Bracket 1		Bracket 2
SAE-1	5 0	TKE	4 0
ATO	4 1	Kappa Psi	4 1
AIA	3 2	Coop	3 1
Sigma Chi	1 4	SAE-2	2 3
AGR	1 4	Theta Chi	1 4
Churchill	1 4	YMCA	0 5

These standings were made with one game remaining between the TKE'S and the Coops. If the Coops win the league could be thrown into a three way tie for first place and the playoffs would have to be delayed while the tie was played off. If no tie results the playoffs go ahead as scheduled.

The bowling schedule this week will be slightly altered due to homecoming. The Friday league will not bowl this one time only.

The question of bowling on Friday brought up another idea. Several members of the intramural board stated that they were having increasingly difficult problems fielding a team on Friday afternoons. The question was, "Why should the students, who are paying for the cost and upkeep of the union be forced to alter their schedules and bowl on Friday nights while the faculty has Tuesday nights for their bowling league?"

The faculty pays no fee such as the activity fee which the students pay and, therefore, does not hold any rights as to the use of the union. The students have every right to use any night of the week for their leagues and the faculty should be the ones to take what's left over in regards to bowling schedules.

A definite stand was also taken on the ruling in regards to attendance of intramural board meetings. In the future any representative who is absent or late to one of the Monday night meetings automatically forfeits all sporting events for the coming week. There will be no exceptions to this rule. It could be very embarrassing for a representative to have to go before the members of his group and explain why they were forced to forfeit two or three bowling matches or volleyball games.

Cross Country Meet at Mikkelson Park

North Dakota State University will host its fourth annual Bison Cross-Country Meet, Saturday at Mikkelson Park in Fargo.

High school runners will compete at 9:45 a.m., followed by college runners. The high school run will be over a one and eighth-mile course and the college run will be three miles.

Last year, seven high school and four college teams entered the meet. Herb Blakely, NDSU cross-country coach, said that early indications are that more teams will compete in the 1961 event.

Teams are made up of five members with the finish of all team members tabulated to determine the team champion. Trophies will be given to the winning teams and medals will be presented to the ten top runners in both the college and high school class.

A new class of Canadian high schools has been added to the 1961 program, Blakely said.

Blakely also pointed out that any school interested in participating should contact him for additional details on the meet. Advance registration is not required.

Oddvar Helgesen of NDSU is the defending individual college class champion, holding the record for the three-mile distance, with a time of 14:12.5 last year. Helgesen will defend his title.

Lee Grim is the high school record holder with a time of 8:20 over the high school distance last year, but Grim is now a student at NDSU and not eligible to defend his title.

NDSU is the defending college champion and Fargo High School was the winner in the high school class last year.

Seniors Play Last Home Game

Fourteen seniors will play their final home football game for North Dakota State University, at the Bison Homecoming game Saturday.

Five of the seniors have been members of Bison varsity squads for three years and the other nine are second-year squad members.

Seniors on the Bison squad are:

Nickel Trophy Battle Will Unfold Saturday

The battle for the tabled, but currently missing, "Nickel Trophy" will unfold Saturday at Dacotah Field in Fargo when football teams representing North Dakota State University and the University of North Dakota meet in the Bison Homecoming feature.

NDSU and UND teams have been playing for possession of the 75-pound "nickel" since 1937, but Bison fans haven't seen much of the trophy the last few years.

The last time NDSU had custody of the trophy was in 1953, following a 14-13 victory in 1952. Since then, UND has provided custodial service for the "nickel."

But UND officials haven't seen the "nickel" since last fall, when it was stolen from the UND Fieldhouse by an unidentified group.

This was not the first prank involving the nickel, however, and officials of the schools are still hopeful it will be available as an added feature of the rivalry.

The "nickel" was originated by the Blue Key chapters of the two schools, symbolizing the nicknames of the two teams — Sioux and Bison.

Pranks began the first year the trophy was in existence.

The late Senator William Langer was unveiling the trophy when an unidentified student said he was on the homecoming committee and asked for the trophy. The UND president found it on his steps several days later.

Since that beginning, many incidents have involved the "nickel" including a theft from an open car at one of the games at Dacotah Field and the appearance of two nickels at one of the games.

NDSU Hosts Arch Rival

NDSU Bison Host UND Sioux in Tough Homecoming Game

Preparations for the homecoming football game at North Dakota State University are proceeding with a degree of uncertainty about the Bison injury situation.

NDSU hosts its arch-rival, the University of North Dakota, in the 1:30 p.m. homecoming game at Dacotah Field on Saturday.

Four members of the Bison squad did not participate in any of last Saturday's Montana State game because of injuries, one was injured after three plays, and one was injured in the second half.

Bison coach Bob Danielsen is hopeful but a little uncertain, about the availability of these squad members for the homecoming game and their recuperation will be watched closely this week.

The four members of the squad who saw no action included two starters and two second-team members. Dave Gentzkow fullback, and Jim Walsh, center, were the two Bison regulars who did not play in the MSC game. Don Paulson, second-team tackle and John Eian, second-team halfback were also out of the Saturday game.

Ron Erdmann, the Bison starting quarterback was injured after three plays in the MSC game and Roger Villarreal, starting right-half was injured in the second half.

Danielsen said that poor defensive positioning hurt squad more than any other factor in last week's loss to Montana State. The Bison coach was quick to add that Montana State brought a fine football team to Dacotah Field.

Fulbright Scholar Relays Experiences

Dear Friends at NDSU,
What a beautiful day it is here on the Atlantic. I am sitting on my deck chair overlooking a deep blue ocean while the sun shines warmly down through a clear blue sky. Way off in the distance I can see the mast and superstructure of another ship passing us on its way to America. Only occasionally do we see any such indication that there is other life on this vast expanse of water.

The M.S. Berlin is quite a nice ship, although it is rather ancient. Passengers have plenty of time to get acquainted with the ship because the voyage from New York to Bremerhaven, Germany, takes 12 days. I still can't figure out why it takes us so long. I have heard that the engines are cut to half speed while we are sleeping in our cabins at night. What a foul trick to play on us!

Speaking about hearing things. It seems that on board a ship a favorite pastime is for people to start rumors and then see how long it takes for the rumors to get back to them. One rather naive girl spent the first day out of New York frantically writing letters to all her relatives and friends after apparently hearing that a plane would pick up air mail from the ship on our second day out of New York. Oh well, out of 900 passengers you are bound to have some real thinking ones.

With 200 students on board this ship good times are frequent. Although in many cases the old beer-drinking Germans have more fun than the students. Last night I went to the Bavarian Evening which was held in the ballroom of the ship. Authentic Bavarian music provided the background for much singing, dancing, stein-raising, and toasting.

Sea sick, sea sick, sea sick. . . For the first four days of our trip, this was the unavoidable topic of discussion. We had very rough weather and many passengers were afflicted with the above mentioned condition.

While standing overlooking the stormy sea, a friend came up to me with a face of the most beautiful shade of chartreuse I have ever seen. I said, "How are you today?" There was no answer except her running away, little white sack in hand, ready for use. It's very easy to tell the condition of the sea and even the forecast condition.

Just count the number of paper sacks that have been hung over the railings in the hallways, ready for the passengers.

Well, friends, that's just about it for today. I hear the chimes calling me to another delicious meal, like Roast Long Island Duckling (without meat, by the way). You'll next hear from me when I am in Germany, I hope. Keep those State Bison rolling, gang!!!

Committee Selects President from 140

Writing several hundred letters was the job of Dr. D. R. Moir, assistant professor of botany, chairman of the committee for selecting a new president for NDSU.

Sixty major university presidents and other educational foundations were contacted for suggestions. The committee wanted a married man between the ages of 40 and 55, with a Ph.D. in Agriculture, and a top man in administration.

Through correspondence and suggestions the committee received 140 names. These 140 men were screened and the committee selected 30 names to be investigated. The selected 30 were contacted and 18 said that they were interested. These men filled out an application and furnished references.

From the 18 men investigated, five were chosen whom the committee and board of higher education agreed were first-rate candidates on the basis of information then on hand.

Last summer the five men and their families were invited to the campus to look over the grounds and physical plant.

The selection committee and the board of higher education met and agreed that Dr. Herbert R. Albrecht was the man to be the next NDSU president.

Dr. Moir stated, "The selection moved along nicely with complete cooperation with the board of higher education."

Couples Club Sets Kid's Party

Children of the married students on campus will be guests at a Halloween party sponsored by the Married Couples Club Oct. 27 in the basement of the Plymouth Congregational church.

"This is the one chance for your children to have a safe and sane Halloween party. Also, it provides an opportunity for the married students to get acquainted", says Larry Salmon member of the club.

The party decorating will be done by the Bison Court students. North Court will be in charge of the program and the food will provided by the Stadium Court residents

All married students who are interested in joining the Married Students Club should contact Larry Salmon at AD 2-8775.

The purpose of this organization is to provide the married couples an opportunity to get together, to have a good time and to discuss the problems affecting the married students on this campus.

The Plymouth Congregational Church, where the Halloween Party is being held, is located at the corner of ninth avenue and Broadway.
