Student Apathy Party (SAP) throws rings in hat for coming election

Nick McLellan and Bob Miller announced Monday night their candidacy for student president and vice-president on the Student Apathy Party (SAP) ticket. SAP also intends on running a complete slate of Senate candidates in all districts.

"We realize student apathy is a problem, but it's a big part of student life and not something you can look down on," said Miller, the vice-presidential candidate. "We intend on making apathy a respectable word and force people to deal with it realistically."

"There's been a tremendous amount of criticism about the apathy on campus, but everyone's too apathetic to do anything," commented Miller. "We simply want to do something about it. The apathetic student has been left out of government and we want to represent him and involve him in it," he continued.

McLellan and Miller threw their rings into the hat last Sunday night in a midnight announcement over KDSU radio. Both are announcers for the station.

Both emphasized that although they will conduct a tongue in cheek campaign, it will not be a burlesque. They want their campaign taken seriously.

"Apathetic students make up a great majority of the campus if the last election is any indication. Look at all those who didn't vote," said McLellan. "These are the votes we hope to get."

Party organizers took the name SAP because all through history political parties have been given names they've hated — "Roundheads," "Know nothings" — and this was just to beat their opponents to the punch.

"Apathetic students may already be in the Senate, but if so, they got their dishonestly," said Miller. "They ran on activist platforms, but turned out to really be apathetic."

McLellan concurred and promised that SAP would make no promises it couldn't keep and all promises would be kept in a cold, dark place.

"Our goal is not to oppose other student organizations," said Miller, "but to obtain a fair share of representation for the so-called 'apathetic' students who don't belong to or participate in organizations because of lack of time, money or interest. The reasons for their apathy should be seriously investigated and dealt with realistically."

Basically, the organizers contend, there are three groups of students at NDSU — the activists, the antagonists and the apathetics Explaining them, a member said, "Activists participate in all sorts of group projects, competitions and social functions. These students have made a success of college and we congratulate them.

"Antagonists comprise the rather small group of students who spend their time criticizing 'old Moo U,' defying university regulations, suffering social probation and giving the school a bad name . . . we say, "They have their reward.'

"By far the largest group is that of the apathetics. For a myriad of reasons they find themselves left out of university life and looked down on by the rest. This is the constituent group that SAP proposes to represent. But since apathy is not limited to these students alone, we welcome support from all students."

McLellan and Miller conclude that if apathy can be recognized and dealt with constructively, it will cease to be an obstacle to student progress and enjoyment of university life.

"We're telling it like it is," said Miller, "We have a new constitution now and it's time for a fresh start on this campus."

Senatorial candidates who've flocked to the SAP banner as of Monday night include Gordon Peterson, off-campus; Marty Nygard, Johnson Hall; Dave Littlejohn, off-campus; Norton Johnson, Reed Hall and Bob Vande-Venter, off-campus.

Candidates to represent the other districts are being recruited this week.

Election by-laws for the new stitution were approved by dent Senate Sunday night afextensive and strongly critical bate. Much of the disapproval saimed not at the by-laws but provisions within the new conution itself.

his attitude, continued Nelstarts here and goes all the down through the student W. Why should we expect the student body to make the effort to be informed when we don't?

"Senate's done a half job tonight," said Jim Jacobs from the audience. "Students voted for the constitution because they thought they'd get a system of representation from their district, but Senate has changed that this evening."

His criticism was directed at by-laws which allow a student to run from any district and vote in any district whether he's a resident there or not.

Major by-laws are:

★ Candidates need not be a member of districts in which they run.

★ They may campaign for only one office.

★ They must file two weeks in advance of elections with the Student Judicial Board. The time element will be reduced for the coming election.

★ The Judicial Board will determine all campaign rules.

★ A student will have three votes for any candidates in any district. An amendment by Senator Nelson Berg to limit students to two votes, one in his college and one in his place of residence, was defeated.

★ All present two-year senators will serve as college senators for the change over.

 \bigstar Write-in candidates will be allowed.

Senate and presidential elections were tentatively set for Feb. 27. Application forms may be picked up at the Dean of Student's office.

Wilner changes running mate in mid-stream

Glenda Brown was dropped as the running mate of presidential hopeful Ron Wilner Sunday night. Jim MacNally replaced her as Wilner's vice presidential candidate.

"I was surprised and shocked when he asked me to step down," said Miss Brown, "especially since he'd approached me to run with him in the first place."

Wilner, in a statement to the press, said, "I have previously conferred with Glenda and we discussed that our chances of being elected on the same ticket might be slim, and realizing, in addition, that Glenda's political views may not be synonymous with my own, I decided after much consideration that what we had discussed might be true."

"Since I have worked with Jim MacNally on the Interfraternity Council and found him to be a capable leader, I conceived Jim to be a more effective running mate than had been my previous consideration," Wilner said.

All senatorial and presidential candidates must have filed by 4 p.m., Feb. 20, with the Student Judicial Board. Public campaigning may not begin until 5 p.m. that day.

The function of a survival kit is to provide the necessary marials to sustain life and/or health in the face of various adverse of ditions. A survival kit for a boater usually contains a life present be worn when abandoning ship.

Senate opposes NP action of discontinuing two trains

Student Senate went on record unday night as opposed to the iscontinuance of the Northern Pacific (NP) Mainliner trains one nd two. Student President Larry fuglesten was to represent Senate t a hearing at the Town House n Feb. 14 at 9:00 a.m. to voice

Rodney Link, who made the moon at the suggestion of an NP mployee, contended that the disntinuance would be detrimental the students of the three colges in this area and all across he state — Valley City, Jamesown, Bismarck, and Dickinson.

"Right now you need a reservaion a couple weeks ahead of time or holidays, so if they discontined the Mainliner it would leave mly one train a day and you can e what that would do," said ink. "The Great Northern runs wo trains a day up through Miot. I'd think the NP would be ble to do the same."

He accused the NP of charging all the upkeep of the track to the Mainliner. "If they'd spread the cost of track upkeep among all the trains, they probably wouldn't be losing money," said Link.

Senator Greg Kapaun pointed out that though it might not be Senate's concern, it still has an effect on the students and we should consider that.

In an emotional appeal to Fuglesten, Senator Jim Johnson said, "Don't let 'em take our train away, Larry."

In other Senate action, Senator Nelson Berg moved to take his traffic court resolution off the books. Berg stated that the requirement is no longer as important as a review of traffic rules and regulations. The resolution, which would have established an experimental ..student ..traffic court, was then defeated.

"Administration opposition," said Fuglesten, "is what killed this resolution after it was submitted to Faculty Senate last spring. They jumped in circles and postponed consideration until after Fall Quarter of 1967, but after Fall Quarter they refused to consider it."

In still other Senate action:

- * Funds were approved for senators to attend meetings of the North Dakota Student Government Assocation in Carrington and the National Student Association Regional Convention in St.

- ★ Martin Sanderson, Joe Mac-Heel and John Radke were appointed to the newly formed Student Judicial Board.
- ★ Stanley Dardis, Gregory Olsen and Paul Retzlaff were approved as members of the Honor Commission of the College of Agriculture.

Editorial

Editor defends freedom of press ---even for Jacobs

Last week the editor of the student newspaper at the University of North Dakota resigned due to scholastic reasons. Mike Jacobs, the resigning editor, became notorious throughout the state of North Dakota last fall when he published an editorial in his newspaper titled "The prostitution of patriotism.'

A wealthy alumnus gave a sizable amount of money to the university for scholarships to be awarded to winners of annual essay contests on patriotism.

Jacobs objected to the university accepting the grant because of the type of contest it sponsored. UND would not be able to use the contribution as it wished, but would have to administer the fund and maintain the contest.

Jacobs' editorial, condemning the action of the university, stirred controversy among faculty, students, administrators and particularly alumni.

The UND Board of Publications voted to censure Jacobs for the editorial, but he still retained his editorship.

The issue raises the question of freedom of the press. Jacobs' resignation represents the end of a reign of an editor dedicated to creating controversy.

Jacobs was exercising his editorial prerogative in taking his stand against the university — but the argument was raised by many that the manner in which he approached the issue was in poor taste.

It is understandable that many people would disagree with Jacobs' stand on the issue — but the fact remains that he was within legal bounds in writing the editorial, that he expressed an editorial opinion on a controversial subject, and that he raised many important questions in tackling the issue. He should have had this freedom of the press.

Last year a Spectrum columnist wrote material which at times bordered on libel and at times was libelous. These things should not have been printed. Not only were they in poor taste, but they also could have involved the university in a touchy law suit.

Freedom of the press does not mean the right to print anything. It involves a responsibility to uphold standards of truth and accuracy and to avoid the unnecessary damage to reputation that constitutes libel.

Professional newspapers are bound by law to avoid libel and bound by a professional code of ethics to strive to print the truth. Student newspapers have the same responsibilities. Libelous statements in the college press are as subject to law suits as those which might appear in a metropolitan daily.

As long as student newspapers stay within their legal boundaries and attempt a responsible approach, they should have the right to express opinions on issues without censureship.

An attempt to shatter UN myth

To The Editor:

Due to the MUN activities on campus, I am certain that many students have been thinking at least somewhat about the United Nations in recent weeks. I would like to throw out a few facts in an attempt to shatter the myth that the UN is an instrument of peace.

Let's look first at the origin of the UN. The idea of the UN was conceived at the Moscow conference in 1943, where the Soviets proposed such an organization to American statesmen. The list of Americans who were influential in the planning of the UN is studded with persons identified as secret Communist agents in sworn

The one American most instrumental in shaping the UN was none other than the infamous Soviet spy, Alger Hiss, who along with Molotov of the Soviet Union was a principal in the actual drafting of the charter at the Dumbarton Oaks conference of Small wonder that both a Senate investigating committee and a New York grand jury both reported large numbers of disloyal Americans employed by the UN.

Article two, paragraph four of the UN charter specifically instructs members to refrain from the use of force with respect to the territorial integrity and political independence of any state.

Despite this the Communists have used aggression to overcome and subjugate the peoples of Mongolia, Albania, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Poland, Czechoslavakia, North Korea, Manchuria, Tibet, East Germany, China, and Cuba since the inception of the UN.

On the other hand, the UN did act to force tiny, anti-communist Katanga province into the communist infiltrated central Congolese government. UN forces achieved this by such peaceful means as rape, bombing hospitals firing on ambulances, etc.

The UN's first Secretary General al, Trygve Lie admitted in h book "In the Cause of Peace that there had been an agreemen reached concerning the appoin ment of a Soviet as Assistant Se retary General for Political an

See Peace in Action

To The Editor:

What can I do? I am only a student! Viet Nam: peace marches and soldiers; poverty: social injustice and hunger; racial problems: Father Groppi and Martin Luther King; slums: burning cities and rioting.

Exciting things are happening in the world — but the typical student is left out. The student feels a stirring frustration about problems and is more deeply frustrated because he can do nothing but sit and talk about those problems. Talk only leads to further frustration, then finally alienation or apathy.

"College campuses are isolated from the real world," the student says. "What can I do to become involved in the world?"

Would a summer work project in a slum or summer camp be involvement in the world?

For a summer of interesting experiences and sense of involvement in the "exciting things that are happening," please consider giving a small part of yourself to yourself. Go someplace and do something for yourself by taking a summer work project (incidentally you may also help someone else).

On Thursday and Friday (Feb. 15 and 16) a group of concerned faculty and students will be distributing brochures and a list of organizations with addresses and information concerning possib summer work projects. This formation will be available tables in the Student Union, Minard Hall, and the Food Ser ice Center.

If you are interested in doing something about the problems the world instead of just talking about them, you are invited pick up this information.

And now you say to yo friend, "Gee, a summer work pr ject sounds like fun, let's have cup of coffee and talk about it and you sit down and talk talk and talk . . . and talk?

★ Senatorial candidates running for office in the Feb. 29 elections have run into numerous difficulties because of the absence of election by-laws. The by-laws were to have been established on Feb. 4 by Student Senate, but lack of a quorum forced delay of the approval until last Sunday.

In the interim, senate candidates were left in limbo. They didn't know if petitions would be required and if so how many names would be necessary, when they would be allowed to begin officially campaigning or if they could campaign outside their districts.

The student presidential campaign is warming up. Besides the two all Greek tickets of Chuck Stroup and Terry Monson and Ron Willner and Glenda Brown, at least one Independent party is being organized, the Student Apathy Party (SAP). "Our motto will be 'A SAP is running'," said Bob Miller, one of the group's organizers.

"Although we intend on conducting a strongly satirical campaign, we're completely serious about this," said Nick McLellan, another SAP organizer, and only

North Dakota member of the Greek letter society Phi lota Mu Phi Theta (Promulgation and Inculcation of Medieval Principles of Thciety).

SAP also hopes to run a complete slate of senators in all districts. Tentative platform plans include a solemn promise not to change the course of the Red River so that it floods the campus, and peace with Mexico by Christmas or 54'40" or fight.

★ Today and tomorrow, the "Y" will have a desk in the Union lobby where students can obtain information on summer jobs, travel, seminars and projects.

If another depressing summer back in Zap or Gackle is facing you, why not stop by and pick up a few facts about them. Don't see how any of us can stand to spend still another entire summer in North Dakota.

It appears that SAP has also jumped on the "Free the Pickled Baby" bandwagon. It's unfortunate that this political group has been deceived by the venomous propaganda spread by "A Thursday Afternoon Coffee Klub." Other than that, all is quiet on the pickled baby front.

MORNINGS AT SEVEN...AND THERE'S NOTHING YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT

Any man who says morning is the best time of day is either a liar or a meadow lark.

There is only one way to make morning enjoyable: sleep till noon. Failing that, the very best you can do is to make morning tolerable. This, I am pleased to report, is possible if you will follow three simple rules:

possible if you will follow three simple rules:

1. Shave properly.

By shaving properly I mean shaving quietly. Don't use a blade that whines and complains. Morning being a time of clanger and anger, use a blade that neither clangs nor angs. Use a blade that makes no din on your chin, no squeak on your cheek, no howl on your jowl, no rip on your lip, no waves while it shaves. Use, in short, Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades.

I have been shaving for 71 years (not too impressive until one considers that I am 49 years old) and I am here to tell you that the quietest blade I know is Personna. I not only shave with Personna, but I also admire it. Old virtues reappear in Personna; old values are reborn. Personna is a modest blade, an undemanding blade. Personna does not rasp and tug, yelling, "Hey, lookit me!" No, sir, not Personna! Silently, respectfully, unobtrusively, Personna whisks your whiskers with nary a whisper. It shucks your soil and stubble without toil and trouble. Why, you hardly know it's there, this well-bred Personna blade, this paragon of punctilio.

Moreover, this crown of the blade-maker's art, this epitome of epidermal efficacy, is available both in Double-edge style and Injector style. Do your kisser a favor: get some.

2. Breakfast properly.
I assert that a Personna shave is the best of all possible shaves. But I do not assert that a Personna shave, bracing though it may be, is enough to prepare you for the hideous forenoon ahead. After shaving you must eat an ample breakfast.

Take, for example, the case of Basil Metabolism, a sophomore at V.M.I. Basil, knowing there was to be an inspection by the Commandant one morning, prepared by storing up energy. He recognized that coffee and juice would not sustain him, so he had a flitch of bacon, a clutch of eggs, a batch of bagels, a notch of ham, a bunch of butter, a swatch of grits, a hutch of honey, a patch of jelly, a thatch of jam, a twitch of pepper, and a pinch of salt.

The idea was right; the quantities, alas, were not. When the Commandant arrived, Basil, alas, was so torpid that he could not raise his bloated arm in a proper salute. He was, of course, immediately shot by a firing squad. Today, a perforated man, he earns a meagre living as a collander in Cleveland.

3. Read properly.

Always read the paper at breakfast. It inhibits bolting. But do not read the front page. That is full of bad, acid-making news. Read a more pleasant part of the paper—the Home and Garden section, for example.

the Home and Garden section, for example.

For instance, in my local paper, The Westport Peasant, there is a delightful column called "Ask Harry Homespun" which fairly bristles with bucolic wisdom and many an earthy chuckle. I quote some questions and answers:

Q: I am thinking of buying some power tools. What should I get first?

A: Hospitalization.

Q: How do you get rid of moles?

A: Pave the lawn.

Q: What is the best way to put a wide car in a narrow garage?

A: Butter it.

Q: What do you do for elm blight? A: Salt water gargle and bed rest. Q: What can I do for dry hair?

A: Get a wet hat.

MUN General Assembly discusses birth control, Vietnam

To the cries of "point of orer," "Mr. Chairman, I object to onsideration of the question" in "Out of order, Mr. Chairman" Model United Nations cover of problems from the admission of Red China to the United ations to the dissemination of red control information on an atternational scale.

With 460 delegates representg 101 countries the Third Anual Model United Nations held NDSU last week-end gave a road representation of the 122 puntries represented in the Unid Nations General Assembly.

The conference opened with a cynote address by Alexander abriel, dean of United Nations orrespondents. Gabriel, a short an wearing a green shirt and a detie, threw out sarcastic coments about American life and orld problems.

Following the opening session the General Assembly, delegaons broke up into bloc meetings here bloc policy was determined ad behind the scenes politics be-

The real action of the conferrence started in the meetings of slitical committees and councils, here delegations with conflictg national interests had to dete issues for the first time.

Parliamentary procedure boged down some of the proceedegs, but each committee and muncil passed enough resolutions has keep Saturday's General Asembly session busy.

Once the entire assembly conmed Saturday morning the atosphere of the conference wickened noticably. The pages, ostly area high school students to had been on duty throughthe conference, were kept maning throughout the meeting, a delegates asked support from ther countries on resolutions and tried to determine what supment they already had.

During the morning session of eassembly Denmark introduced resolution of birth control inmation throughout the world.

A lively debate ensued with representatives of Catholic tin American countries taking irm stand against the proposal. e resolution passed with the derstanding that information uld be provided on the with system, the only birth more measure recognized by a Catholic Church, as well as on the use of contraceptives.

The General Assembly recessed lunch just as debate on the mission of Red China began to heated. When the delegates convened Nationalist China and the United States exerted pressure to keep the resolution from reaching a vote.

When efforts to table the resolution failed and subsequent efforts to refer the resolution to the credentials committee met with as little success, the resolution came to a vote of the assembly.

The United States delegation moved to require a two-thirds majority instead of the simple majority required on most resolutions. This is a standard United Nations procedure on motions of great importance. The motion passed.

Model United Nations policy requires that each delegation adhere to the actual voting policy of the country it represents and the question of admitting China received the traditional lack of support from the General Assembly.

During discussion of a resolution concerning Rhodesia, the delegate from South Africa took the floor. In protest of the country's apartheid policy toward the Soviet bloc, other African countries and delegations with national sympathies for the Negroes of South Africa staged a walk-out. The demonstration had been registered with conference officials.

"We of South Africa always respect everyone's right to speak," the South African delegate said as the demonstrators left their assembly seats.

The Vietnam issue and the Arab-Israeli conflict both came before the assembly.

Discussion of Vietnam would never come before the United Nations General Assembly because of the Security Council veto power. MUN delegates wished to discuss the issue on the floor of the assembly, however, and thus deviated from adherence to UN policies.

The resolution condemning United States involvement in Vietnam failed to pass by the twothirds majority vote it required.

A compromise proposal for solving the Arab-Israeli conflict was introduced by New Zealand. In pre-assembly meetings the United Arab Republic and Israel had already agreed to the measures outlined in New Zealand's resolution so there was no trouble in passing it in the assembly meeting

General Assembly meetings were conducted by Model United Nations President Howard Anderson. Dale Buchanan served as Secretary-General and will hold that position in organizing next year's conference during the rest of the school year.

Delegates to MUN General Assembly focus attention on stage where Howard Anderson, MUN President, conducted proceedings.

Jonah describes duties as UN analyst, tells of changes in UN

Dr. James O. C. Jonah is the first African to hold the position of United Nations political affairs officer and predicts that he will be the only one in the foreseeable future.

Jonah spoke at the Model Uni-

ted Nations banquet Saturday night.

A native of Sierra Leone, West Africa, Jonah studied at the Friedrich-Ebert Staftung, Bonn, West Germany, earned a master's degree at Harvard, attended Harvard Law School for two years and received his Ph. D. in political science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

This educational background prepared him for his work as a political-analyst-for the UN. Jonah specializes in East-West relations and works for the UN Secretariat.

There is a staff of seven analyzing events on regional bases, but Jonah's work includes an over-all picture of world events involving the major powers.

He must analyze situations based on news reports and research materials available and then prepare memoranda indicating trends in world events.

"Because of the confidential nature of the reports I submit," Jonah said, "they are not widely distributed. They are kept internally, for the analysis could offend a particular government."

He noted that no more than 30 people have access to his reports.

"When Khrushchev was ousted in 1964, I was in a dilemna," Jonah said. In explaining how important objective wording is in his reports he went on to say, "If I said that Khrushchev resigned the Americans would think me naive; if I said that he was ousted the Russians would have been upset."

Jonah said that external pressures in a job such as his can be a problem. "It all depends on one's integrity," he said. "I'm not very open to pressure."

Jonah said that his research is a very academic type of study. He repeated this idea by discussing the role of a scholar in the search for world peace in his address to the conference participants.

"Commitment to intellectual policy sets the scholar apart," he noted. "He has no axe to grind, but seeks only the preservation of world peace and order."

He emphasized the importance of taking a world view of international situations rather than the viewpoint of one country.

Jonah explained the changes that have taken place in the UN since its founding in 1945. He pointed to the change in leader ship from western domination in the early years, to greater influence of the entire General As sembly.

This change was caused by the admission of many neutral Asia and African nations in the earl 1960's.

The Security Council immobilization because of the veto power has led to greater emphasis of the General Assembly. He pointed to the use of the "proxy veto in cases where none of the major powers are directly involved but the resolution effects one of their allies.

The General Assembly can tak no action. All UN action mus come through Security Counci so the effectiveness of the UN ha been greatly hampered.

He cited the importance of the UN as a face-saving institution in cases where a nation is face with two difficult alternatives one impossible, the other embarrassing — the question can be brought to the UN and face saved in this manner.

Jonah pointed to the USS during the Arab-Israeli crisis and the United States during the Pueblo crisis as cases in which nations brought problems to the UN to avert an undesired war and still maintain national dignity.

Sixty flags were stolen from Festival Hall Friday night or Saturday morning. These flags were sewn by NDSU Home Economics students and the materials for the flags cost over $200.

Half of the flags have been returned, but 30 are still missing. No questions will be asked if they are returned promptly to any Model United Nations staff member.

SYMBOL DEPLETION

We've almost lost a good word, and we hate to see it go.

The movie industry may feel the same way about words such as colossal, gigantic, sensational and history-making. They're good words – good symbols. But they've been overused, and we tend to pay them little heed. Their effectiveness as symbols is being depleted.

One of our own problems is with the word "opportunity." It's suffering symbol depletion, too. It's passed over with scant notice in an advertisement. It's been used too much and too loosely.

This bothers us because we still like to talk about opportunity. A position at Collins holds great potential. Potential for involvement in designing and producing some of the most important communication systems in the world. Potential for progressive advancement in responsibility and income. Unsurpassed potential for pride-in-product.

That's opportunity.

And we wish we could use the word more often.

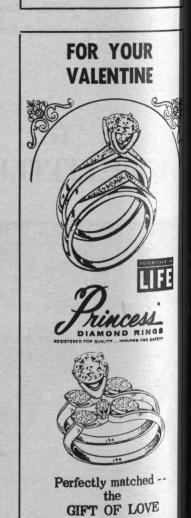

Collins representatives will visit your campus this year. Contact your College Placement Office for details.

The truth about library's locked room

Kevin Carvell

The library's Locked Cabinet!
ong whispered about only bend closed campus doors, the petrum now brings you the tets about it and the titillating aterial it contains.

It's long been rumored that the prary has a locked case which ntains all the "dirty" books and controversial material. We're to say, though, that after expensing weeks of undercover ork we've discovered that the cked cabinet does not exist.

Instead there's an entire locked nom! Hidden deep within the rurky depths of the basement his room is full of material that he library has seen fit to keep taked away from us.

Through devious means (we sed as bookworm inspectors) we anaged to gain entrance to the nom, secreted in a far dank cornof the basement.

There we discovered books with such racy titles as Little Town of Bethlehem, Robert's Rules of Order, Analysis of Fargo Tornados, Expeditions of Zebulon M. Pike, a complete set of the International Bulletin of Bacteriology Nomenclature and Taxonomy and me final bonus — Petroleum Tankage and Transmission.

Needless to say, we were quite sappointed and trudged upstairs the cataloguing department. There we confessed to Mrs. Bevely Brkic, catalogue librarian, or part in the scheme to discose the hidden library secrets. "Aha!" is the reaction of people when they hear of a locked library room, commented Mrs. Brkic. "Most people when they hink of a locked room picture little old ladies censoring books, but the locked room is just a practical form of hanging on to books that tend to get stolen."

"The materials we have in there re those that have been stolen wer and over again from the pen shelves," said Mrs. Brkic.

Other materials we discovered wn in the basement room inded old NDSU student direcries dating back into the twenes, over 100 books in Russian d Slavic languages, a volume iblished in 1649 entitled "Sury of Husbandry," a book on casso with plates of his more mous works and the diaries of eter Pond (I swear that's his me), fur trapper and explorer. Back upstairs Mrs. Brkic exined the reasons these were pt locked up. Student directordiaries and old books are kept re as part of the NDSU archivthe books in the Slavic guages are a gift from a U.S. lomatic employee, Thomas novan, and are in the process being catalogued, while the k on Picasso is an extremely ensive volume.

Books which contain plates of aintings are often placed there is safekeeping because the plates ould otherwise rapidly disapear. Mrs. Brkic did admit though at, "some pretty strange things at down there".

One of the largest sections in e basement room is one of orts. Mrs. Brkic said these dispear as fast as they're placed the open shelves. But one n't immediately accuse the visical education majors of ilding up an inexpensive liary since some of the books had me pretty suggestive titles. Ley could easily be taken for mething else by a thief in a

One could hardy be blamed for pecting the word from spicy les like Body Dynamics, School-IAthletics, Pro Pointers and roke Savers, Applied Gymnassfor Men and Women, and Deloping an Offensive Attack.

And of course there is a section voted to . . . shhhhhh . . . sex, th titles like Sex and the College Girl, Love and the French, The Bridal Bed, The Call Girl, Training in Chastity (yes, that's right, Training in Chastity). The Kinsey reorts are there and so is a copy of Master's and Johnson's The Human Sexual Response — another copy was stolen off the open shelves.

There are dozens of books on courtship and marriage, sex education, birth control, artifical insemination, homosexuality, books for expectant mothers and one that will probably shake up a lot of freshmen entitled The Stork Didn't Bring You!

Surprisingly bare is the fiction area. It consists only of Ayn Rand's The Fountainhead, the complete works of tame old Erskine Caldwell, Henry Miller's Tropics and Droll Stories by Balzac.

Besides these, the types of books that the library staff says are stolen by the faculty and students vary wildly. Locked up are books on hypnotism, aspects of gambling, how to win a beauty contest, North Dakota Indians and the death penalty.

Other volumes are on how to stop smoking, science fiction, the works of Marx and the stock market and business investments.

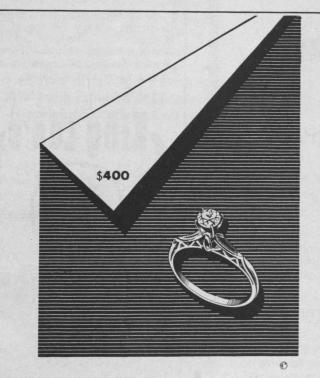

"Some of these books are destroyed by people holding opposing viewpoints," said Mrs. Brkic, "they feel it's their duty to destroy them. Others are stolen because people are too embarrassed to check them out."

Mrs. Brkic confessed that some of the books in the locked room are no longer in any danger of being stolen. "I wish they weren't there," she said, "the whole thing is pretty ridiculous."

The library staff is attempting to move all the books back on to the open shelves where, as Mrs. Brkic put it, "it'll be the student body's own funeral if they're immature enough to steal them."

WHAT THE HECK does the library keep behind this chicken wire?

CHARMIN PAPER PRODUCTS COMPANY

A subsidiary of Procter & Gamble will interview engineers one year from their final degree, either BS or MS in Engineering, Paper Technology, or MBA with technical BS

Thursday, February 22

Here's an opportunity to evaluate your technical skills and interests with one of the fastest growing manufacturers in the nation's 10th largest industry! You gain first-hand information about career opportunities in a process industry, and see yourself functioning in an actual industrial situation. After a brief orientation, you will be assigned a project, or projects, in the following fields:

 Production Management
 Plant Engineering
 Plant Industrial Engineering • Plant Chemical Engineering

Each problem assigned to you will be in accordance with your particular level of training and will be an actual problem for which we need an answer. To solve it, you will put to direct practical use many of the techniques you have just learned in school. Length of program is flexible; minimum length is 8 weeks

Salary comparable to salaries paid by other leading companies who offer summer programs. Round-trip travel expenses paid from your home, or the campus, whichever is nearer, to where you will work.

Choice of three locations: Green Bay, Wisconsin; Cheboygan, Michigan, or Mehoopany, Pennsylvania (near Scranton).

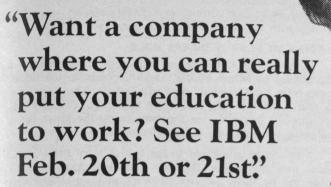

MATRIX (Management Trial Exercise)

This is a special one-week non-computer business simulation exercise for everyone in our summer program.

You and other summer trainees in your plant will each simulate the position of Plant Manager of a hypothetical plant. After being briefed on your responsibilities, you will make decisions affecting chemical processes, products, quality, scheduling, cost control and industrial relations. The results of your decisions become the basis for further decisions through the exercise.

Extensive critique sessions follow this roleplaying experience. You, your fellow participants, and members of management will discuss and evaluate the quality of your decisions and the breadth of the implications you explored in reaching them. Efforts are made to relate this simulation to real plant operations. This concentrated one-week program gives you an excellent capsule preview of the extent and variety of challenges faced by a Charmin Plant Manager.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

"Some of the engineers who graduated before me complained that their education didn't mean much in their jobs. That's not what I wanted," says IBM's Jim Carr. (Jim is a Manager of Mechanical Process

"At IBM I knew I'd be using what I learned. There's so much diversity here that you can usually work in the specific area you choose. In my own case, I majored in Mechanical Engineering and minored in Metallurgy. Today my ME degree means more than ever. And I often use my metallurgical background. For example, I'm now working on a process development program that requires a knowledge of machine design, metallurgy, heat transfer, and chemistry, all of which I studied in school.

"Another good thing about IBM's diversity is that it creates an interdisciplinary environment. You get a chance to work with and learn from people in many different fields. Since our industry is growing so fast, the people you talk to are likely to be working at state-of-the-art levels or beyond."

There's a lot more to the IBM story than Jim has mentioned. We'd like to tell you about it when we're on campus. We'll be interviewing for careers in Marketing, Computer Applications, Programming, Research and Development, Manufacturing, and Field Engineering.

Sign up for an interview at your placement office, even if you're headed for graduate school or military service. Bison effort nets two conference wins

by Rich Biren

The rejuvenated Bison, led by the super-shooting of Ron Schlieman and the tremendous hustle and desire of Joe Roller, defeated the University of South Dakota Friday 78-73 and handed Morningside their seventh conference loss on Saturday 78-63 to move out of the basement of the North Central Conference.

On Friday the Bison opened the scoring with two layups by Jim Lacey before South Dakota answered. The Bison continued to increase the lead to 11 points on one of Ron Waggoner's patented twisting layups to make the score read 19-8.

However, the Coyotes came back, reeling-off seven straight points during one stretch, to close to within three at 30-27 with two minutes remaining

In the final minutes the Coyotes cashed-in on two layups to take a one point lead into the dressing room at halftime 31-30.

The second half opened with the Coyotes increasing their shaky lead to 35-30 before the Bison answered with six straight points to regain the lead.

With 16:17 remaining, Ron Schlieman hit a layup to give the Bison the lead 40-37. During one stretch in the second half, Schlieman hit 12 straight points for the charity tosses to put the Bison ahead to stay. A three-point play by Gene Anderson followed with a layup by Lacey made it 72-66 with just over two minutes remaining.

Two more baskets by Schlieman and a pair of free throws by Palma Chandler closed-out the Bison scoring and cemented the victory.

Although the Bison were outscored from the field by 32-29, they sank 20 of 26 from the charity stripe. The Herd made 29 of 68 fielders for 42.6 per cent.

On Saturday the Bison continued their winning streak with a steady incriminating defense which especially confused the Morningside team in the early minutes of the second half.

The Maroon Chiefs held a 13-12 lead before the Bison moved ahead on a jumper by Schlieman. The Bison increased their lead to 11 on a high-arching hook-shot by Anderson making the score 34-23.

With Schlieman and Chandler hitting consistently late in the first half, the Bison increased their lead to 16 points at halftime,

The second half opened with Ron Waggoner hitting two free throws and a pair of layups to give the Bison their biggest lead of the night at 56-35.

With 3:34 remaining in the game and the Chiefs down by only nine, 70-61, many fans thought that the Bison were going to pull their "el foldo" tacitcs out of their "bag of tricks" but instead Lacey tipped-in a missed free throw and four free throws by Joe Roller boosted the Bison lead to 76-61, putting the game

The Bison had the shooting edge on the Chiefs, hitting 38 per cent to 33 for the opposition. The Bison also had the edge in rebounds picking-off 68 to a mere 41 for the Chiefs.

Ron Schlieman led the Bison scoring for the second night with 28 points after having 32 on Friday night. Ron Waggoner followed with 14.

The victory for the Bison gives them a home record of 6-3 on the year and 2-7 in the conference.

Coach Cowman could be seen smiling after the game and relieved that his chargers had played ball up to their capabilities.

Hats-off to Coach Cowman and the Team for a job well done and to the better job they'll do this Saturday.

COACH COWMAN manages a satisfied smile as he is congratulated on the Bison victory over USD.

Sports Corner

"THE BISON WHAT!"

When the Bison set their minds to winning they really do it i big way. The only blemish on the previous weekend's list of spo events was a wrestling loss to Morningside, a highly regarded of ference foe.

This single setback was overshadowed in the eyes of Bis sports fans, however, as the basketball team registered their first conference victories, one coming against the previously first-pl University of South Dakota Coyotes.

Many basketball fans knew that the Bison had the ability to in the thick of the conference race, but it appears that the Bison best, can manage a fifth-place finish this year, their breakthrough coming with only three conference games yet to play.

BISON CAN PLAY SPOILERS ROLE

Although the Bison are out of the conference race, to many fa the success or failure of the season depends on the outcome of series with the University of North Dakota. The Sioux are presen in fourth place in the conference standings. The Sioux also pick up wins last weekend over the same teams the Bison had victimize following two losses on a South Dakota road trip.

This can be attributed to the loss of Gary Brell from the Signal squad near mid-season. However, the Sioux have bounced back, evidenced by their last two victories, and any effort short of t given last Friday against the Coyotes on the part of the Bison and will mean another digit in the loss column.

Little needs to be said regarding the intense rivalry between these two schools and because of this, both games of the series supply spectators with some fine basketball action.

SCHLIEMAN GAINS GROUND

Bison basketball captain Ron Schlieman moved into third pla in the conference scoring race with a 60-point output last weeke Schlieman carried a 19.6 average into last weekend's competit where he picked up 32 points against the University of South Dak and followed with a 28-point effort against Morningside.

At this point in the season, it appears that Schlieman has cine a berth on the All-Conference Squad regardless of his play in final three games of the season.

The Bison captain has also gained ground in the NDSU sch record department. Friday night Schlieman surpassed Bob Maie total point mark of 1,114 to move into second place in the care total-point category with 1,130 points. Schlieman's Saturday out boosted his career mark to 1,158 points.

The Mankato, N. D., senior remains second only to Marv Ba meier in total career points. Bachmeier, who received national rec nition during his college career at North Dakota State, holds career mark with 1,553 points.

In Intramural Hockey the pairings for the play-offs have been set. Opening action pits the YMCA against the ATO's followed by the TKE's against the AGR's. The Sig Chi's will do battle with the Coop's and the Kappa Psi's face the Reed-Johnson outfit. The "experts" feel that the YMCA team will come out the winners.

Sigma Nu, ATOs net over $500 for Fieldhouse

Chairmen of the Sigma Nu-Alpha Tau Omega Fieldhouse benefit turned over better than $500 in proceeds from the basketball game and dance held last Feb. 2 to begin what is hoped to be, a long line of similar efforts in the fund drive for the new proposed fieldhouse.

The two organizations are planning another such effort later this spring to enable them to boost their total contribution above the $1000 mark this year.

A chairman of the Sigma Nu-ATO effort stated, "We hope our effort in building the fieldhouse fund serves as an example for other organizations on campus and shows them that with a little effort on everyone's part, the necessary funds could be raised for the new fieldhouse in a short period of time."

The Inter-Fraternity Council, in a meeting last Sunday, passed a motion in which each fraternity house pledges to donate $300 toward the fieldhouse fund drive which has been placed in IFC's hands. IFC is to collect $6000 in the drive with another $8000 coming through the Alumni Association.

The Inter-Fraternity Council will be contacting other Greek organizations as well as various student groups and organizations in an effort to provide the fund with the $6000 goal.

Greg Kapaun is the chairman of the fund drive for IFC.
