SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Division of Fine Arts of the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences came into existence on July 1, 1990 and then included the Departments of Music, Theatre Arts, Visual Arts, and Communications. The Department of Communication is no separate from the Division of Fine Arts and there are no materials in this records series for Communications. See: RG_11.4.1 Communication. This artificially created series contains print material in the following sub-series: Concert Choir, Gold Star (Cadet) Marching Band, Madrigal Dinners, Madrigal Singers, Recitals, Spring Gala, Fine Arts Series and Events, NDSU Invitational High School Jazz Festival, NDSU Jazz Ensemble (Includes Holiday Jazz) & Dakota Jazz & Jazz Combo, Christmas Concerts/Convocations, Scholarship Concerts, Wind Ensemble,

Spring Pops Concert, Men's & Women's Glee Club, Opera Workshops, Brass Ensemble, Brass Chamber, Varsity Band, Stage Band, Tri-College Percussion Ensemble & Marimba Choir, NDSU Percussion Ensemble, Choral Concert – Winter/Fall, Woodwind Chamber Night, University Chorus, Hard Bop Saxophone Quartet - Saxtravaganza, Convocation Recitals/Concerts, Festival Preview Publications, Art Gallery - Memorial Union, Reineke Visual Arts Gallery, and a general encompassing sub-series: Wide-Ranging Events/Information, Lyceum Series, Festival Concert Series, Baroque Festival.

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Lyceum/Fine Arts series, story boards were constructed and displayed during October 2010 performances in the Challey Atrium in Festival Concert Hall.

Separation: The storyboards are oversized and have been moved to Map Case Drawer 57.

NOTE: All programs beginning with the 2004-2005 academic year are listed in chronological order.
