HISTORY

The first national academic fraternity to be established on the NDAC campus was Alpha Zeta (honorary agriculture), which was organized in 1909. The first local men’s social fraternity to be organized on campus was Alpha Mu in 1904, which eventually became Theta Chi (1917). The first women’s social fraternity established on campus was Delta Phi Beta in 1908. Alpha Gamma Rho, men’s fraternity has the distinction of being the first national fraternity established at NDAC in March of 1913.

SCOPE & CONTENT
The materials within these records were donated to the University Archives, as well as collected by the University Archives. The record is made up of eleven series: Individual Chapters (1913-2009); Greek Life – General (1973-2008); Rush – Fraternities/Sororities (1987-1998); Rush – Fraternities (1949-2000); Rush – Sororities (1926-1999); Interfraternity Council (1938, 1972-2000); Panhellenic Council (1953-2002) including Junior Panhellenic Council (1967-1998) & Rho Lambda (1974-1988); Conferences (1985-1989); Phi Eta Sigma [Freshman Honorary] (1986-2003);
