HISTORY

The Program Evaluation Committee was established by the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Robert Koob, in April 1986. The committee, co-chaired by Andy Keogh and Johannes Vazulik, was charged with evaluating every academic program at North Dakota State University by March 1, 1987 and issuing a written report of recommendations. In February 1987 a standing Program Review Committee was established by the Faculty Senate

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Organized into five series: I. Establishment documents. II. Final report. III. Supplementary data. IV. Academic program questionnaires. V. Curriculum vitae. Records include the original final report (unbound) and a bound photocopy (99 leaves), and supplementary data. The reports completed by all academic departments follow a standard format including unit's mission, faculty data, strengths and weaknesses, library holdings and services, facilities, equipment, centrality of program, non-major credit contribution, number of majors, demand by or number of majors, demand for graduates, locational advantage, accreditation status, impact on the public front, and external support. These reports are organized by college and department therein. The faculty vitae are also organized by college and department
