HISTORY

The NDAC/SU Saddle and Sirloin Club was organized on March 15, 1918, under the direction of J.H. Shepperd and through the efforts of the livestock team that represented NDSU at the International judging contest in Chicago. They felt a need for some organization that would help develop a greater interest in animal husbandry at the college.

Each year since 1922, the club has presented its Little International show. These are patterned after the International Livestock Show in Chicago but differ in one respect. The Little International is a contest in showmanship and not on the merits of particular animals. Each year the club chooses an outstanding individual in the field of agriculture. Each year, the S & S Club has many activities at the International. Some of these events include: choosing a Little International royalty, sausage making and sales, spring picnic, Christmas dance, and Kiddie Days.

The different activities of the club not only supplement the instruction in various fields of agriculture, but also give the students an opportunity for experience in group activities and the handling of group problems not demonstrated by the original classroom setting.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The material within The Saddle & Sirloin portfolio contains history about the club and also all the Little International programs from the year 1925 through present.
