BIOGRAPHY

Sonia (Smedstad) Ozbun was born in Starbuck, MN where she grew up on a dairy farm. She attended Starbuck High School and after graduation, she went on to Concordia College in Moorhead, MN for a year. Sonja was employed by North Dakota State University (NDSU) where she worked in the Business Office from 1957-1959. Her employment at NDSU provided the chance to meet her future husband, Jim Ozbun. The two were married in 1959 upon completion of Jim’s B.S. degree. After Jim completed his master’s at NDSU in 1961, they moved to Raleigh, North Carolina, where Jim completed his doctorate at North Carolina State. Their next move was to Cornell University in Ithaca, NY (1964-1976), then the University of Minnesota (1976-1981), Kansas State (1981-1982), and Washington State University (1982-1988). They returned to North Dakota when Jim became President of NDSU in May of 1988.
In an email from Mrs. Ozbun (July 2009), she told of her varied activities: “I married Jim Ozbun in May, 1959. We lived in Fargo until September, 1961 when we left for Raleigh, North Carolina for Jim to go to graduate school at N.C. State. Our son, Terry, was born in Fargo in 1960 before we left and our daughter, Karen, was born in Raleigh, N.C. in 1961. I didn't work outside the home after the children were born. While Jim was in graduate school, I typed theses and baby sat other children to add to our income.

I did a variety of volunteer work every place we lived ranging from Cub Scout den mother, Girl Scout leader, teachers' aide, church work, read for the blind, delivered Meals on Wheels, served on Lutheran Social Services of N.D. Board of Trustees and Children's Hospital Advisory Board. I also took college courses at several universities including psychology, linguistics, English composition, art history and French. The French courses were helpful during the many trips I made with Jim to French-speaking countries. We travelled extensively in connection Jim's work, going to six continents visiting agricultural projects and universities. I belonged to several study clubs, book clubs, P.E.O., church circles and church committees during those years. In addition to volunteer work and going to school, I was often almost a full-time hostess as Jim, early in his career, held administrative jobs, where entertaining guests in our home was important.”

After leaving NDSU in 1995, the Ozbun’s moved to their ranch in Dickinson, North Dakota, the Circle Z Ranch. Also from that July 2009 email, Mrs. Ozbun stated: “In retirement, I have enjoyed more time for some of my favorite pastimes which include reading, gourmet cooking and flower gardening. I also belong to a book club, church circle, P.E.O. (a women's philanthropic and educational organization) and other committees from time to time.”
